ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes thus, although she has to pay a little more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

Herbert F. Norris, Esq., of Epping, the democratic candidate for Representative in Congress from this district, was in this city on Tuesday.

It is Mr. George Hayes of Kittery, and not John Hayes as first reported, who is engaged as one of the quartette choir at the Episcopal church.

The schooner Velocipede, Capt. Jamieson, brought in 11,000 lbs. of fish on Tuesday, and the Anabel, Capt. Robinson, 8000 lbs.; both fares were bought by C. Sullivan & Co.

The schooner Mary S. Hontvet is loading with apples for account of Mr. Samuel G. Hooper, for some port in Prince Edward's Island whence she will bring back a cargo of potatoes.

Mr. Henry R. Stoddard of this city, who has a fine young orchard, has sold his apples, amounting to between four hundred and five hundred bushels, on the trees, to Mr. John Dixon of Eliot. Mr. Dixon ships them to the eastward.

The schooner Lizzie M. Stewart, Capt. Perkins, of this port, bound from Portland for Bangor with 4300 bushels of corn consigned to Hopkins & Stamford, is reported to have sunk in Gilky's harbor on the night of the 3d inst. No particulars. The cargo was valued at $2500 and fully insured.

The schooner Harp, usually employed in the fishing business, took a cargo of apples from this port to an Eastern port in Maine last week. The Mary S. Hontvet, Capt. Hontvet, now loading with apples by Samuel G. Hooper and C. Morris Tredick, will take five hundred barrels to Prince Edward's Island.

This evening, at Music hall, Bryant's Minstrels will give one of the popular entertainments for which the troupe has been famous for over twenty-five years. There is no need to tell Portsmouth lovers of minstrel performances that this company always gives a first-class entertainment of the kind. See advertisement.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore lectured in Music hall Tuesday evening on "Superfluous women," to a small audience. The matter of her lecture was of value, and the manner of its delivery such as to hold the close attention of the hearers to the end; as an entertainment merely the lecture was deserving of a crowded house.

Messrs. Nathan A. McKenney and George A. Rand, of Eliot, have the contract (at $1085) for repairing the building corner of Ceres and Bow streets, recently occupied by J. Gilman Rand and others, and now owned by Mr. N. F. Mathes. The building will be fitted with a flat roof, a basement for storage purposes, and three tenements.

Judge Ames of the Supreme court of Massachusetts has issued an order of notice, returnable Oct. 25th, requiring the Eastern railroad company to appear and show cause why an injunction should not issue to prevent said company from guaranteeing the bonds of the Portsmouth, Great Falls and Conway railroad company, and paying the Eastern railroad company in New Hampshire $22,500 per annum, as prayed for in a bill in equity filed by Briggs Mann and E. W. James, who are stockholders in said Eastern railroad company in Massachusetts.

THE VICINITY.

The schooner Parallel, Capt. Rice, chartered by Mr. Dixon of Eliot to load apples for Machias, will take twenty-five hundred bushels. The price paid is fifty cents a bushel, open, and one dollar for No. 1's in barrels.

On Tuesday a Mr. Locke of Newcastle, a brother, we are informed, of Woodbury Locke of this city, fell from the top of the new fog-horn tower in course of erection at Whale's-back, and had several of his ribs broken, besides receiving other injuries.

The Rockingham county republican committee held a meeting at Exeter on Tuesday, which was attended by republicans from every section of the county. Hon. Joshua G. Hall, republican candidate for Congress, was present. The reports from various sections of the county were very much more favorable than was anticipated.

The employees at the navy yard have had their wages reduced twenty per cent, and have also been placed on half working time on account of a deficiency in the appropriations, a portion of that for October having it is said been used in September.

A French girl named Lizzetto Primier, aged about seventeen years, attempted to commit suicide at Great Falls, Monday afternoon, by taking a dose of bed-bug poison. She was prevented in season by a younger sister. The reason for this rash act was because her lover refused to take her to ride.

Mr. Herbert F. Norris of Epping, the democratic candidate for Congress in this district, says he has no knowledge of any intention of "selling out" to any other candidate or party, and means to go into the campaign to win if possible. He will commence operations publicly at Dover on Friday evening, when and where he and Hon. Harry Bingham of Littleton will speak. Having been informed by some of his friends that Judge Batchelder, secretary of the Hard Money Club of Portsmouth, would shortly address a letter to him asking him to define his position on the financial question, he replied that he would be pleased to give his views on so important a subject. The democratic convention which nominated Norris for Congress, adopted a greenback platform.

The threshing machines of Newington have completed their annual fall rounds. The machines of James W. Coleman and Jackson M. Hoyt were out thirty-seven and one-half days, and in that time threshed 109 bushels of wheat, 42 of rye, 2189 of barley and 405 of oats; total 2745 bushels. The largest lots threshed by them in Portsmouth were at Charles Hayes & Son's farm, 148 bushels, and the Portsmouth city farm, 78 bushels. At Kittery, E. C. Spinney, 156 bushels; John Wentworth, 75 bushels. At Eliot, Jasper Shapleigh, 50 bushels; Solomon Staples, 44 bushels. At York, E. C. Moody, 111 bushels; Oliver Shaw, 60 bushels. Newington, G. W. Smith, 102 bushels; J. W. Coleman, 70 bushels. The best yield from the amount of straw was by Jonathan Young of York, where 45 bushels of barley was gleaned from the bulk of two tons of straw.—Times.

I. O. O. F.

John H. Locke, of this city, Grand Patriarch of the Right Worthy Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows of New Hampshire, which assembled at Manchester on Tuesday, in his report to that body gave the following summary of the work in the Encampment branch for the year ending June 30th, 1878, in his jurisdiction:

Initiated, admitted by card and reinstated, 125; withdrawn by card, suspended and died, 116; making a net gain for the year of nine.

Patriarchs relieved, 165. Weeks' sickness, 1100. Gross receipts, $6104.82. Total relief, $2,018.72.

Amount of invested funds on hand June 30th, 1878, of the subordinate Encampments, not including the money invested in fitting halls and paraphernalia, (which would be several thousand dollars more,) $12,964.49.

Total membership June 30th, 1878, 2177.

The reports from the deputies relative to the condition of the Encampments are reported as fair.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

TUESDAY, Oct. 8; Clark, J.

The court came in at 11 o'clock A. M. Prayer was offered by Rev. B. F. McDaniel. George O. Fisher was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury.

Judge Clark charged the Grand Jury somewhat at length, explaining the nature of the offences it was their province to examine, the method of finding a bill, the degree of evidence required, and affording them other information in regard to their duties.

Calvin Sanders, Esq., of Dover, was upon motion of Hon. Albert R. Hatch admitted to practice in the courts of the United States.

In the afternoon, motions in cases on the continued docket were heard by the court.

—"There are no circumstances under which honesty and integrity of purpose will not stand a man in good stead," says some philosopher; but we would like to know how it will help the man who finds himself suddenly forced to associate with a bull-dog in an orchard with a high fence around it.

GAFFER GREEN.

(NEW.)

Would you make a fortune in a day,
And not have to work for it, sonny?
Then print a pile of shinplasters,
And Call 'em flat money!

Chorus: That's Howe;
Call 'em flat money.

Political.

When the "democratic House" was trying to abolish the army, the democratic papers everywhere approved Sam Randall's assertion that we were in no danger of any more Indian wars, and paraded that assertion as "proof" that the handful of an army was far too large. Now that the Indians are again on the war-path, at a point many hundreds of miles distant from the place where another menacing outbreak has just been successfully crushed, these same democratic papers denounce the army they tried to destroy for not performing the work of ten times its numbers. If they would republish the arguments they gave to show that no army at all is needed, it would be very interesting reading just now for the flying frontier settlers.

Irredeemable paper money converts the business of society into a mere lottery, and when the collapse comes, as come it must, it casts laborers out of employment, crushes manufacturers and merchants, and ruins thousands of honest, industrious citizens.—James Buchanan.

The New York Tribune of Monday says: "Our Washington dispatches contain this morning some extraordinary statements which have been laid before the President and the Attorney-General, concerning the part taken in executing the shot-gun policy in South Carolina by two aids of Governor Hampton, and, indeed, by Governor Hampton himself. According to this story, the militia of the State have boldly engaged in the work of bulldozing the colored voters, even while wearing the State uniform, and have been often led and encouraged in their acts by two of Governor Hampton's aids, who resort to personal violence when mere blustering will not carry the day. Governor Hampton was appealed to, and promised to do and say various things, but not only did not do or say them, but actually saw, without a protest, personal violence offered to a prominent republican by his aids at one of his meetings. If these assertions are well-founded—and they certainly seem to be—it will take a good deal of letter-writing to re-establish Wade Hampton in the good opinion of the decent people of the north."

It appears that Butler and his associates charged ten per cent for collecting the bounty and prize money in the Farragut case. The whole amount collected was $1,234,720. The three lawyers charged and received $123,472. The remaining costs, for counsel for the United States, commissioner to take the evidence, and arbitrators, was $18,939. Butler's share alone was more than double this amount. He and his two associates charged twenty times as much as the United States counsel who appeared against them. This is the way in which Butler helps the sailors.

New Hampshire Items.

Rev. W. O. White, who has preached in the Unitarian church at Keene for the past twenty-seven years, has resigned his pastorate, to take effect November 1st.

The steam saw mill of Norris & King, at Dorchester, was burned Saturday night. Loss $2500; insured $900.

Col. Elipbalet Bailey of Charleston, of the war of 1812, is dead, at the age of eighty-two years.

Mr. Jay Jackson, of Chesterfield, celebrated on the 6th inst. the 100th anniversary of the purchase and occupation of the place he now lives on, by the Jackson family, by giving an out door banquet. Speeches were made, toasts were given and music by the Marlboro' brass band lent additional harmony to the festivities. Representatives of the family were present from Montreal and New York city and all over New England. Mr. Jackson's grandfather purchased the place Oct. 6th, 1778.

—When a Hartford woman patted her friend's seven-years-old youngster on the head and said, "I should like to have such a little boy as you are," he looked up and replied: "Well, I guess you can; I don't believe God's lost the pattern of me."

—Two men were under arrest on suspicion of murder in Covelo, Cal. The evidence against them was slight, and subsequently they demonstrated their innocence; but the bare fact of accusation was convincing to a mob, and the jail was surrounded, the intention being to hang the prisoners. The jailer was of an opposite mind. He fired on the mob, killing its leader and effectually dispersing it.

—A singular terrestrial phenomenon has recently been noticed at Ortali, Italy, where the earth has fallen until it is now twelve or fifteen feet below its original level. In consequence of this freak of nature, the houses of the village are toppling over, and the people have fled to the fields, and are now living in huts with their families. A still stranger fact is that about two hundred yards from the town the earth has risen to a similar height, and at times the ground has risen so rapidly as to make its movement visible.

—An English mechanic is said to have really invented a tool which will bore a square hole. It is on exhibition at the Paris exposition. The tool is described as being the usual form of a three-square drill. Clamp or chuck this drill in its holder so that "it will wobble," and you have the whole secret. Instead of making a round hole, as it undoubtedly will if tightly grasped, when loosely held it produces a square one. Why it should act thus is at first to all appearances an impenetrable paradox, and even after the rationale is discovered it scarcely seems quite clear.

A Health-Destroying Vapor

Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools, and marshy, low lying tracts. The true nature of this miasma is by no means clearly understood, but there are two facts in relation to it that are. The first is, that the periodical fevers which it breeds are of the most virulent type; the second is, that these maladies are rarely cured, although they may be ameliorated, by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wine-glassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, if he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

The melancholy affliction suffered by the Crescent City, in common with so many other Southern cities, has shown the benefit derived by that community in establishing and maintaining the Louisiana State Lottery Company in 1868, which was incorporated for educational and charitable benefits, and which in its regular contributions to schools and hospitals nobly distinguished itself.

The next drawing takes place as usual on the second Tuesday of next month.

Among American manufacturers, few have done our country as much credit as the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, which have been acknowledged best at all great world's exhibitions for many years. See advertisement.

Pompeii.

Excavations at Pomeii prove the city to have been one of the most fashionable and beautiful of Roman summer resorts, and but for the eruption it might have remained so to this day. As with Pompeii, with thousands of people who have beauty of form and feature. They might always be admired but for the eruption, that makes the face unsightly, and betrays the presence of scrofula, virulent blood poisons, or general debility. There is but one remedy that positively cures these affections, and that remedy is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the best known tonic, alterative, and resolvent. It speedily cures pimples, blotches, liver spots, and all diseases arising from impoverished or impure blood. It also cures dyspepsia, and regulates the liver and bowels. Sold by druggists.

—Ting-ah-Ling is a Chinese belle.

—A Salem, Mass., feline learned months ago to distinguish the horn blown by the dealer who weekly supplied the family with fish, and would make a rush for the street whenever she heard that horn, in the expectation of getting a bit for herself. The dealer has been away on a vacation, but the cat did not cultivate the acquaintance of his substitute. He returned last week, and at the blast of his horn pussy was the first to greet him.

—A pleasant little anecdote of the Crown Prince of Germany is told by Mrs. Hooper. It was at the beginning of the Franco-Prussian war that the king and prince passed through Hamburg on their way to the field. A young American girl, staying with her parents at one of the hotels, hung a large American flag from her balcony, and as the royal couple passed waved an enthusiastic handkerchief. The king and his son looked up and bowed, and, like the courteous gentleman he is, the prince summoned an aid-de-camp and gave an order which was passed down the line—an order for each regiment as it passed by to salute the Stars and Stripes.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE
GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by sale from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction and Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its management as a plaything; while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me twenty pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 150 pounds, and there is no further improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city twenty pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWERS & WEBSTER, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat: 'If the Anti-Fat has the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is the best remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the chief among crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and am confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every obnoxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has crept its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy or the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me incalculable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. CRAIT, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 23 FIRE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the numerous remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8th.

Partly, at least, the managers of the Union and Central Pacific R. R. have their greed to thank for the change a few months have wrought in public sentiment in favor of the lines projected to compete with them for the rapidly growing trade between Atlantic and Pacific seaports. They seem to have been become so blinded by their own grasping avarice as to have over-reached themselves and played directly into the hands of those seeking to divide with them the profits of this traffic. With the depressed condition of business and the margin for profit on what was being done so narrow that next to nothing was left after paying the freight rates at that time exacted by Huntington and his associates, an advance was ordered that forced business men everywhere to the conclusion that they must abandon all business requiring for its transaction the aid of either of the two companies controlling the only route across the continent, or the oppressive monopoly must be broken down by the construction of competing lines. This has led many influential men who had before set their faces like flints against the proposition for Government to guarantee the payment of the five per cent interest on the construction bonds of the Texas Pacific road, to a reconsideration of the premises on which they founded their opposition, and the benefits which they seem confident as certain to accrue from the opening up of the rich country along the line of the proposed road and the branches whose construction would inevitably follow that of the trunk line, seems to have converted into warmest advocates many of those as sturdily opposed to the enterprise at the last session. With the ingratitude of Huntington and his fellows still fresh before the public and with, the efforts they have made to evade their obligations still fresh in mind, any company seeking Government aid or countenance will certainly be required to guarantee its exemption from possible loss and from any of the troubles and annoyances it has experienced at the hands of those who have grown richer its bounty and insolent instead of grateful for its indulgences. But opposition to the countenance asked by the Texas Pacific has been based chiefly on the bad faith exhibited by Huntington & Co., rather than from any danger of loss in the limited endorsement requested; and it now looks as if this might be forgotten in the desire to punish their inordinate greed and to relieve the commerce and business interests of a whole continent laying at their mercy and within their power to paralyze, till a second road to the Pacific shall have been built and equipped.

Very few save the bitterest personal enemies and most unscrupulous partizans will sympathize with the animus just now exhibited towards Ex-Governor Shephard of this District, by a few newspapers published here and elsewhere, lest he should be awarded the credit he has earned in the leading part he has taken with a few other Washingtonians in leading down to her guards the steamer "Chambers" with necessaries and delicacies for the fever sufferers, and dispatching her on her errand of mercy down the Mississippi from St. Louis. Every old scandal ever heard of in his connection with the Board of Public Works stands a chance of being dug up by these ghouls. But there are few men better fitted by executive capacity to organize the means of relief needed in this terrible emergency than Mr. Shephard, and he has the confidence of this whole community, with few exceptions, in his praiseworthy efforts to rob the pestilence of some of its terrors.

The substance of the reply to a request from the acting Postmaster-General to be informed as to the actual condition in New Orleans, is to the effect that it is deplorable beyond the power of realization of any not personally on the ground. This is from the postmaster at New Orleans, and confirms the belief entertained that many, all through the infected districts, must ultimately perish of want and hunger in other directions, unless the charitable elsewhere continue contributions for months to come. Instead of his catching the ball in his hands, the ball caught him on the nose. The Count loses two teeth and suffers from a broken nose and a badly swelled face.

THE ELECTIONS.

Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and West Virginia held elections on Tuesday, all of them choosing members of Congress. Much interest was felt in the result, as the politics of the States are badly mixed.

On Wednesday the Iowa republicans claimed the State by 30,000, a gain of 20,000 over last year; they also claimed the entire Congressional delegation.

Indiana's State ticket was conceded to the democrats by the republicans. The republicans gained one Congressional district now represented by a democrat, and six districts (four now democratic, and two republican) were in doubt; the other six districts were reported unchanged. Both parties claimed the legislature.

The Ohio republicans claimed the election of their entire State ticket, and their Congressional candidates in most of the doubtful districts; Milton Sayler, democrat and demagogue, is elected to stay at home in the first district, and Goss in the second. The republicans claimed a majority of the Congressional delegation.

In West Virginia one republican Congressman was claimed, but probably all three Congressmen are democrats.

Tilden and Reform.

The New York Tribune has for some weeks been publishing cipher despatches which passed between Mr. Tilden's managers in Florida, at the time of the electoral count, and Mr. Tilden's nephew and near friends in New York. On Monday of this week it published an extended explanation of the manner in which the keys to the various ciphers used were discovered, with the keys themselves; and on Tuesday a batch of the despatches (originals and translations) were given, which exposes one of the most humiliating chapters of American political history. In brief, the translated dispatches show that, in answer to several appeals for money, sent to New York from Florida on the second day after the Presidential election, and to a request that "a good man with an understood cipher" should be sent thither, Mr. John F. Coyle, a notorious lobbyist of Washington, started with the precise ciphers afterwards used by all the conspirators, and in them recorded his progress southward to Jacksonville, Florida; that his first work there was to arrange for telegraphic transfer of money, whenever desired, from New York to a banker in Florida; and that he then joined at Tallahassee Mr. Manton Marble and C. W. Woolley, who thereafter used in daily communications with Gramercy Park, New York, the ciphers Coyle had brought. For a time this trio labored only in perfecting democratic returns and proofs, believing, as the democratic committee of Florida had falsely asserted, that the State had given 1600 majority for Mr. Tilden. They insisted, too, at this stage, that the canvassing board had full power to "purge" the county returns—a power which they after most impudently denied when republicans proposed to correct democratic frauds. Steadily the visible majority dwindled to nothing, but the local managers held back to the last large democratic returns, and it was believed that this was done in order to so alter those returns as to secure a majority after the legal proceedings instituted by democrats had compelled the opening and canvassing of other returns sent forward in time. The plot having failed, the great crime began for which preparations had been elaborately made.

The first cipher dispatch sent to Gramercy Park by Mr. Coyle in which bribery is distinctly named says: "My hope small. * * * * * Nothing but cash will avail." On the same day Mr. Manton Marble sent the following:

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 2d.

Colonel Pelton, No. 15 Grammercy Park:

Have just received a proposition to hand over at any hour required Tilden decision of Board and certificate of Governor for two hundred thousand dollars.

Three days after, Mr. Manton Marble, signing himself "M. M.," says, in an open dispatch: "Finished yesterday afternoon responsibility (as) Moses." The dispatches so signed are indisputably his. The first proposition was deemed too high at Gramercy Park, because on the previous day Mr. Woolley had telegraphed:

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 1.

Henry Havemeyer, No. 15 West 17th-st., N. Y.:

Board fetch may make necessary expense of half of a hundred thousand dollars. Can you say will deposit in bank immediately if agreed. FOX.

The identity of "Fox" is also proved most conclusively, and the reply to this bald and naked proposal was forwarded with the signature "H." It informed "Fox" that no money could be drawn before the vote had been given. On the 3d of December Mr. Marble telegraphed another proposition:

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 3.

Colonel W. T. Pelton, No. 15 Gramercy Park:

Proposition received either giving vote of republican of Board, or his concurrence in court action preventing electoral vote from being cast, for half hundred best United States documents. MOSES.

On the next day, Mr. Woolley sent the brief and direct inquiry:

TALLAHASSEE Dec. 4.

Henry Havemeyer, No. 15 West 17th-St., N. Y.

May Woolley give hundred thousand dollars less half for Tilden additional Board member. Lieutenant. Fox.

Precisely the same proposal, in different words and in a different cipher, went to Gramercy Park. The reply, sent at once, but so mutilated in transmission that it could not be read, caused a demand from Marble, over his own signature, for a repetition. After fatal delay, the reply of Gramercy Park, which did not want to pay twice for the same vote, through Marble and again through Woolley, was:

NEW-YORK, Dec. 4.

Manton Marble, Tallahassee, Fla.:

Proposition accepted if done only once. Better consult with Woolley and act in concert. You can trust him. Time very important and there should be no divided councils.

Here this case may be left to the deliberate judgment of a people who do not love hypocrites, and deem bribery a crime. The order to buy the Presidency was sent, but the mutilation of a dispatch, apparently, alone prevented the consummation of the crime.

Terrible Accident.

A terrible accident occurred on the Old Colony Railroad, between Atlantic and Wollaston stations, Tuesday evening at about seven o'clock. A boat-race had taken place in the afternoon at Silver Lake, about twenty-eight miles from Boston, between Davis and Reagan, the former winning. After the race an excursion train started on the return to Boston, with some eighteen hundred people on board, drawn by two engines. When near the Wollaston station the train collided with a freight car that was being shifted across the main track from a siding, and the two engines, baggage compartment and two passenger cars were utterly wrecked.

Nineteen cars remained on the rails, and although many passsengers in them were more or less injured, the damage was light, both to property and limb. The scene as the unhurt emerged from the wreck was a terrible one, although there was not that uproar that is frequent in accidents of like nature. For a few moments everybody appeared to be paralyzed with terror, but the cooler ones finally led the way in clearing the wreck and taking out the dead and wounded.

The cause of the disaster is something of a mystery at present, and probably a most searching investigation will alone reveal it. The accident occurred just at a point where a side track makes off from the inward track, the two main lines being connected by a double switch. One of the first objects noticed by the unhurt passengers as they emerged from the wreck was a portion of a freight train, standing on the outward track, immediately beyond the heap of ruins. The engine belonging to the freight train was detached, and was some distance down the track toward the Wollaston station. The excursion train, or at least that part of it which remained on the iron, stood across the switch which opens into the side track mentioned. Upon examination it was seen that this switch was unlocked and half open, and the head of the rail next beyond the switch was broken, and the fractured end was cut into ridges where the wheels had failed to strike it properly and had instead cut into the solid iron. The train was running at about twenty miles an hour, and the impression is very general that the switch was not in proper place. Both engineers, both firemen and Mr. M. B. Bickford, who has charge of the water works of the Old Colony railroad, and who was riding on the rear locomotive, all say they had no intimation of the accident until they were thrown into the swamp by the swaying of the locomotives.

Among the dead were Patsey Reagan, the defeated contestant in the boat-race; Mrs. Faulkner, wife of George Faulkner, another well known oarsman; and Chas. Morgan and J. A. Hasey, both connected with the Saturday Evening Express of Boston. Frenchy Johnson, the oarsman, was one of the wounded; George E. Kimball of the Associated Press had three ribs broken; James Gilfeather, chief baggage-master of the Old Colony railroad, was fatally hurt; the engineers and firemen of both engines were bruised, cut or scalded, but all will recover. The engine men all stuck to their posts until thrown off into a swamp by the shock of the collision.

Sixten dead bodies were taken from the wreck up to Wednesday morning, and a list of eighty-seven of the known wounded had been made up.

There were but three or four ladies on the train, and they were all in the "English compartment" car, in which Mrs. Faulkner, Reagan and the two newspaper men were killed.

Quite a large purse of money had been collected in the car in which Reagan, the oarsman, was riding, and was about to be presented to him when the accident occurred.

The reports Wednesday evening gave the names of eighteen persons killed, and two missing; several of the wounded will die. Among the wounded is James J. Flynn, a prominent politician of Boston and an ex-member of the common council of that city.

News and Notes.

The Indians on the 8th inst. killed twenty-nine men, women and children near Beaver Creek, Kansas. They brutally outraged all the white women and girls that fell into their hands, and in several cases murdered them afterward.

The ringleaders in the recent attempted lynching of the negro Edgar Freeman, charged with rape upon the little girl Jennie McCrindle, at Ansonia, Conn., are to be arrested, and one of them, Ernest V. Clemens, a hitherto respectable young man, has lost his reason in consequence of anxiety, and is to be sent to an asylum. There are now grave doubts of Freeman being the guilty person.

Thomas Stewart and sister, two old people living on a farm near Richmond, Ky., were shot by an unknown party Friday night.

There has been considerable excitement caused among the residents on Staten Island, N. Y., owing to the finding half buried in the woods there, some weeks ago, of the body of a young woman in a barrel, and the failure to trace the evident murder home to its perpetrator, or even to identify the victim. The "barrel mystery" now seems in a fair way to be solved, one Reinhardt having been arrested for the murder of his wife, whose body it is believed was the one found. The evidence is very damaging against Reinhardt.

Two murderers were severely sentenced at Norwich, Conn., on the 7th inst. One Goddard, who killed a man for presuming to interfere with him in the pastime of beating his wife, was sent to prison for eighteen months and fined $100; a Norwich rumseller, named Maloney, who kicked a man to death, was fined $600 and sent to jail for sixty days. Laws which are over-oppressive defeat their own ends, but there is no great danger of the Connecticut laws against murder, as now administered, being thus nullified.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

The engines of the U. S. S. Ticonderoga were tested with steam on the 8th inst., and ran splendidly.

The "drinking fountain" in front of the post-office must drink all the water itself, as nobody else can get any worth mentioning from it.

Bill Coombs, the notorious jail breaker, was brought to this city from Exeter on the 8th inst., and lodged in jail, to await trial at the Supreme Court.

The wreck of the schooner Samuel Knights, on the Landstaff rocks near the Portsmouth & Dover railroad bridge, still contains 7000 bricks. We are informed that the wreck and remaining cargo have been offered for sale for $25.

Mr. J. H. Costello, formerly of this city, was one of the wounded at the railroad disaster in Massachusetts on the 8th inst., his head, shoulder and leg being badly bruised. Mr. George G. Kimball, another former resident here, had two ribs broken and was otherwise injured.

Schooner Lizzie M. Stewart, Capt. Perkins, of this port, before reported sunk in Gilkey's harbor with a cargo of corn on the passage from New York for Bangor, was ashore on Long island, Me., and was towed into Belfast on the 6th inst. by steamer May Queen. The cargo was sold, in a damaged state. Injury to vessel trifling.

A wrangle occurred on Rollins' wharf, Wednesday evening at about eleven o'clock, between Capt. Charles W. Osier, of the fishing schooner Osier, of Gloucester, Mass., and a fisherman belonging to another schooner, in which Capt. Osier shot the fisherman through the leg. Capt. Osier was arrested and taken to the station house.

The "Jargoozler."

We learn that a couple of well-known gentlemen of this city,—one of them an editor,—are investigating the make-up and habits of a new species of worm known as "The great American Jargoozler." They will be happy to entertain their friends with learned disquisitions upon this great and beautiful "wur-rum."—Times.

No, they won't. They don't know much about the critter, except that when two quarts of him comes in a box by express, C. O. D., the price is fifteen cents. They didn't even know where the "jargoozlers" came from until they read the item in the Times, which sold the whole thing. But the "wur-rum" is splendid fish-bait, as a trial proved.

N. B. The fishing season for amateurs being about over, no more bait at that price is required.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 9; Batchelder, J.

Thomas Collins, for drunkeness, was sent to Brentwood for twenty days; costs $6.90.

John W. Knight had been sampling wine; sampled too much, and for his indiscretion was fined $3, costs $6.90, which he paid.

FIRE.

On Wednesday morning, between two and three o'clock, a fire broke out in the wood-shed attached to the house of Mr. Samuel Hanscom, on Peverly Hill, near the "Four Corners" of Lafayette road, and the building was entirely consumed, with the most of its contents. The cause of the fire is unknown, although from the statement of Mr. Hanscom, that there had been no light in or near the shed for a month or more, it must have been the work of an incendiary. The family consisted of Mr. Hanscom, his wife and little boy, with an invalid lady named Sarah Lang, who, for the past few days, has been lying at the point of death from a paralytic stroke. It was expected on Tuesday that this sick woman could not survive the night, and the fact that Mrs. Hanscom was sitting up as a watcher doubtless saved the lives of the inmates. The house was a large, old-fashioned building, and has frequently been occupied in the summer by two families. It was owned by a gentleman named Howard, who lives on the Parrott place in Greenland. We hear that it was insured, but how much we have not been able to learn. The furniture, and the provisions and other articles of winter store that had been housed, were uninsured. The loss falls with peculiar severity upon a poor family, who are thus made worthy objects of charity.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Of the equity cases of Chas. E. Benton, assignee in bankruptcy of Horatio N. Allen, against H. N. Allen, Richard H. Wilder, and Willis Wilder, one was heard finally; a second case was partially heard on Tuesday and Wednesday. The complainant seeks to have annulled certain conveyances of real estate alleged to have been fraudulently conveyed by Allen in contemplation of bankruptcy. No. 56 heard, and No. 57, continued. Heywoods of Lancaster for piff.; Ray, Drew and Hatch, for deft.

The grand jury reported on Wednesday forenoon three bills of indictment.

Frank Howard and E. L. Eastman, indicted for passing counterfeit silver quarter dollars at Ossipee, were each arraigned and severally pleaded nolo contendere, and were each sentenced to confinement in the State prison at Concord for the term of two years, and to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars for the use of the United States.

Thomas A. Russell, of Dixville, Coos county, indicted at the May term for being a retail dealer in spirituous liquors without paying a special tax as is by law provided, was arraigned and pleaded guilty. Said he had sold a little, and made a statement concerning his means, etc. He was sentenced to confinement in Lancaster jail for thirty days, and to pay afine of $100.

In the afternoon, case of John R. Poor against the Hudson Insurance Company of Jersey City, N. J., was begun. This was an action brought to recover upon a policy of insurance on the Oceanic hotel and fixtures situated on Star island, Isles of Shoals, wherein Mr. Poor was insured $2200. The house, as is well known, was destroyed by fire, and was, it is contended, insured with others by the Hudson; but this company contend that the policy was cancelled. The case was tried at the May term in 1877 at Portsmouth, when the testimony having been closed, it was agreed that the case be submitted to the Court to enter a judgment of non-suit or default, or send case to a jury, as the Court might determine. The case was held for advisement by Judge Shepley, but was not decided at the time of his death, although briefs had been submitted to him by each side. The case therefore comes up for a new trial, the question being as to the termination of the company's risk. Poor's total loss upon the house was $114,888; the amount of insurance $125,000; and the proportion found due upon adjustment by the Hudson Co. was $2222.27. It was insured by about fifty different companies, in various sums. The adjustment was made by a committee of fire adjusters. The loss was payable to the Amoskeag savings bank, mortgagee. Evidence for plaintiff was concluded on Wednesday evening. Case to be finished Thursday. Hatch and Frink for Poor; Marston and S. C. Eastman for Ins. Co.

THE VICINITY.

The democratic county convention for Strafford county met in the common council room at Dover city hall on the 8th inst. Joseph A. Jackson of Rochester was nominated for register of deeds, V. H. McDaniel of Dover for register of probate, William H. Dodge of Dover for county solicitor, True W. Woodman of Great Falls for county treasurer, and Aaron W. Foss of Strafford, John S. Hersey of Milton and John Bartlett of Lee as county commissioners.

On Tuesday, 8th inst., Judge Batchelder of this city, with Deputy Sheriffs Smart of Newmarket and Dustin of Derry, went to Salem, where Wm. H. Bryant, Jr., was arrested on three charges for selling liquor. He was brought before Justice Ayer, and waiving examination, was bound over in the sum of $400 for his appearance before the Supreme Court. A warrant for the arrest of John J. Harvey on a similar charge was issued, but Harvey got wind of the affair and escaped into Massachusetts.

Political.

A note from Charles Francis Adams to Samuel J. Tilden about bribery and corruption not triumphant in American history would read well just about now.

The republicans of the thirty-second New York Congressional district have, through their central committee, nominated Hon. Ray V. Pierce as their candidate for Congress. This we regard as settling beyond serious controversy the question of a republican representative from that district, which is now represented by a democrat. Dr. Pierce now represents the district in the State Senate—is a thorough republican, a man of sterling abilities and of unusual personal popularity. His nomination is equivalent to an election.

The Potter-Tilden fraud committee received special instructions to investigate fraud in Florida and Louisiana, in connection with the electoral count. The committee can now investigate some real fraud in that connection—the attempt of Tilden's agents to buy the electoral vote of Florida, as proved by the telegrams that passed between Manton Marble and other leading democrats then in Florida, on the one side, and Gramercy Park on the other, as publised in and translated by the New York Tribune.

Never before was known such a multiplicity of Congressional candidates as the present canvass has developed. There are 292 representative districts in the country, and over 800 candidates have been put in the field. This shows an average of three candidates to a district, while a number of districts have four or five nominees, and two at least in the north-west half a dozen apiece. Less than half of the present house have been renominated, and a good many of these will fail of election, so that the proportion of new men in the next Congress will be very large.

In 1876 Chester B. Darrall was the republican candidate for Congress in the third district of Louisiana, Joseph H. Acklen being the democratic candidate. The returning board's count gave Darrall 2094 majority, and the democratic count gave him 1087 majority, notwithstanding which the "democratic reform House" seated Acklen! This Acklen's reputation is just now very unsavory, but he is the democratic candidate once more. The republicans of the district, not being able to hold a convention on account of the white liners, have endorsed W. B. Merchant. Even the negroes of Louisiana cannot be rifled-clubbed into voting for a reformer who it is openly charged ruins young girls by means of stupefying drugs.

Prof. D. J. Hill, of Lewisburg University, the author of two very successful text-books on Rhetoric, has just undertaken a very important literary work, and one to which he seems peculiarly adapted by his brilliant yet condensed style of writing. It is the preparation of a series of brief biographies of our great American authors, such as Irving, Poe, Hawthorne, Prescott, Bryant, Cooper, and others. Prof. Hill is of the opinion that the American people know but little, and would gladly know more, of those great writers who have reflected so much glory on this country. The only information accessible about these great men is found in slender sketches in Biographical Dictionaries, or in expensive and voluminous lives, which only a few can afford or find time to read. Prof. Hill proposes to prepare a series giving a personal, literary, and anecdotal biography of many of the leading American authors, as well as a careful criticism of the literary work, habits of writing, and proper place in literature of each. These books will be published at a very low price, and if they are thoroughly well done must be very popular. Sheldon & Co. of New York, will be the publishers.

A "clasp sample envelope" has been appproved by the post-office department—a small tin box with a movable clasp, which can be opened without difficulty by the inspectors, and be used for the transmission of samples of flour, sugar and powdered substances, or small, sharp-pointed instruments, such as come within the class of matter heretofore unmailable, excluding, of course, liquids, poisons, glass and explosive substances.

A Health-Destroying Vapor

Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools, and marshy, low lying tracts. The true nature of this miasma is by no means clearly understood, but here are two facts in relation to it that are. The first is, that the periodical fevers which it breeds are of the most virulent type; the second is, that these maladies are rarely cured, although they may be ameliorated, by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and it is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wine-glassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de obenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

Among American manufacturers, few have done our country as much credit as the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, which have been acknowledged best at all great world's exhibitions for many years. See advertisement.

The large sale of Adamson's Botanic Balsam is because when once used it becomes a household remedy. Children like it; it cures their colds and prevents the croup. Sold everywhere at 35 cts.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. tnov9

Warren E. Hillard of Epson last week received a serious wound just below his eye by the accidental discharge of the second barrel of his gun while shooting. The recoil was so great as to break the breech and drive a part of the stock into his face.

The twenty-fourth annual exhibition of the State Agricultural Society opened at Manchester on the morning of the 8th inst., with perfect weather and the largest entry in every department ever known at a State fair. The forenoon was mostly devoted to routine business, receiving entries, arranging articles, etc. The grounds are the same occupied for several years by the State and New England societies. The exhibition was formally opened by Gen. Natt Head, president of the society.

—Hood, in describing the meeting of a man and a lion, said "The man ran off with all his might, and the lion with all his mane."

—A gray hair was espied among the raven locks of a charming young lady. "Oh, pray, pull it out," she exclaimed. "If I pull it out ten more will come to the funeral," replied the one who made the unwelcome discovery. "Pluck it out, nevertheless," said the dark-haired damsel; "it's no consequence how many come to the funeral, provided they all come in black."

Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. ufeb20 79

ANTI-FAT
ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 192 pounds to 162 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLUMPTON, wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady wearer of Allan's Anti-Fat. 'If (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlets on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for those diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning glory of my medical career. Of its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and am confident that I shall not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, and I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottles.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Womb, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not claim this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of their affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CAUTION.
☞ The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every broad contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me a fortune.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & Co.

IT has cared me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., MONTEZUMA, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
W. M. BOWEN, 222 FIRE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 39 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the nauseous compounds that it could not be true. Therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Hartford.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

—In France a friend is never allowed to accompany another to the platform at a railway station unless both have tickets. The rule is never departed from even in cases of aged or infirm people. An abolition of this absurd rule is now proposed.

—An ingenious Nevada tavern keeper, on opening his house, could not find a painter to number his doors; so, taking a tack-hammer and a pack of cards, he began at the ace and continued up to the king, numbering the doors in a novel and entirely original manner.

—Mme. Rhinehardt, the lion tamer, now performing with Coup's Equescurriculum in New York, was attacked by one of the leopards Friday afternoon while performing in the cage of wild beasts. The leopard sprang upon her and fastened his teeth in the folds of her dress. She seized the animal firmly by the throat and held it until the arrival of assistance.

—As a novelty in the way of advertising church services, we give the following from an English paper:—"St. John's English Episcopal Church, Lochee Road. Rev. Dr. Lane will deliver his annual flower lecture on Sunday evening next. Gentlemen will please wear a flower in their button-hole. Ladies know best where to arrange them. Subject:—'Lessons from Flowers.' Carriages and cabs at 8:15."

—The St. Louis Spirit of the Times takes this flight. "The circus is coming. Just for the sake of brevity they call the show the Grand, Glittering, Athletic, Eques-Hippo-Zoolo-Coliseo-Mardi-Gras-Carnival Pageant, and Arenic Combination Tournament of International Magnificencies. A dazzling three hours' dream (as it were) of Oriental gorgeousness, exemplified in realistic splendor and sumptuosity."

—Not a few of the Turkish officers taken prisoners during the late war have accepted service in the armies of their conquerors. The terms offered them were liberal, and they felt no scruple about accepting them. Most of them are to be sent to the Caucasus. Nothing, however, could induce the Turkish privates to follow the example of their chiefs. The inferiority of the Turkish officer to the Turkish private soldier in soldierly qualities has always been insisted upon.

—It is given out that ladies will wear vests precisely like the gentlemen's this winter. When a married man goes to bed he will have to put a chalk mark on his vest, or next morning he may slip on his wife's and not discover his mistake until he inserts his thumb and forefinger in the right-hand pocket for a pinch of fine-cut and finds nothing but a piece of chewing-gum and the stub of a short lead-pencil. Then he will suddenly remember that there was a roll of ten-dollar greenbacks in the left-hand pocket of his vest—that is, if he is an editor, he will—and he will rush back home in Rarus time.—Norristown Herald.

—A few days ago a tramp, who was sparring his devious way along near Reno, conceived a brilliant idea for raising the wind. He knew that the Wells Fargo stage would pass along that road in about half an hour, so he took off his coat, tore his shirt and pockets, rolled in the dust, and finally tied himself, with much difficulty, to a tree. His intention was to tell the stage passengers that he had been foully dealt with by highwaymen, and have a subscription to repair his loss taken up on the spot. The stage, however, took a short cut by a new road that day and didn't go by at all. After waiting until dusk, the tramp tried to take off his bonds, but before he got the first knot loose a grizzly came down out of the mountain and picknicked off the greater part of his left leg.

—A romantic story is being told of one of the members of Gilmore's band, which has just returned from Europe. While they were in Berlin, and at one of their most crowded concerts, a lady screamed "It is he," and fainted. A German Countess, of great wealth and social distinction, had recognized her long absent son as a member of the American orchestra, whom she supposed to be dead. He had spent a fortune in dissipation, and as a last resort made his musical culture available, no one among his confreres suspecting his rank and former position. Too proud to write of his position to his family, they had given up the expectation of ever hearing from him again. The band were playing "The Invitation to Dance," when this little scene occurred, and very soon papa—the Count (the name is not given)—led the wanderer to his mother and his sister, who embraced him with emotional fondness and exclamations of joy. It is said that Gilmore has lost one of his cleverest musicians by this recognition.

An Odious Comparison.

A gentleman who went from Biddeford, Me., to California some years since, and who is now located in San Francisco, writes a letter in which he indulges in a few remarks by way of comparing Ingersoll and Beecher. The California man says: "Bob Ingersoll was out here last winter and gave several lectures. All the ministers in the city preached against him every Sunday, and made him out to be the worst reprobate in the world; but before he went away he gave one lecture at the Grant Opera House, paid $5 admission for himself and family, and gave the entire proceeds of the lecture, over $1600, to the different orphan societies connected with the churches in this city. Although each one received over $250 each, only one of the number had the courtesy to thank him for the money. Lately Henry Ward Beecher came here and lectured, took away out of town more money than Ingersoll, because he gave more lectures, and yet he refused to give one lecture in aid of the yellow fever fund even though he was offered $250. Beecher denounces Ingersoll as an infidel, renegade, etc., but some how or other we Californians think that Ingersoll is just about one hundred per cent more man than Beecher ever dared to be."

A Snake Story.

The "season" being over the sea-serpent has gone adrift, having forsaken his customary watering-place haunts and appeared on shore in Maine. The Biddeford Times says: "The inhabitants of Winslow, on the banks of the Kennebec river, are very much excited over the appearance in that town of a huge snake. A few days ago a Mrs. Smiley was walking in the woods in the vicinity of her home, when she saw what she at first supposed to be a large spotted snake of the common variety, frequently seen in the fields, but which was really only the tail of a reptile which she says must have been eight or ten feet in length. The snake was coiled around a tree, and his head, with distended jaws and forked tongue darting in a frightful manner, was projected over a limb above Mrs. Smiley's head. The lady recovered her presence of mind in a moment and ran for life. A neighbor's house was but a short distance away, and rushing in, Mrs. Smiley fell fainting upon the floor. She says that the snake followed her nearly to the house. The Sunday following as a son of Deacon Palmer was walking to church his attention was attracted to the stone wall beside the road, and on the top of the wall, basking in the sun, lay a monster snake and two smaller ones. Mr. Palmer says the largest must have been ten feet in length. He ran back a short distance to procure assistance, but when he returned the reptile had disappeared. Several parties have been out hunting the snake for the past few days, but as yet without success."

News and Notes.

D. P. Upham, United States marshal for the western district of Arkansas, left Little Rock on the 8th inst., with seventeen prisoners convicted in the federal court at Fort Smith of murder, counterfeiting, etc., and to be placed in northern penitentiaries, mostly at Detroit. There are two Indians among them.

General Lew Wallace, recently appointed Governor of New Mexico, has notified the President of continued disturbances and lawlessness in Lincoln county, in that Territory, and requested the aid of the army of the United States to preserve the peace. The President has therefore issued his proclamation commanding all riotous bands to disperse within five days.

A despatch from London, dated Oct. 9th, says: "It is feared that an accident has happened to Eddystone lighthouse during the storm which is now raging, as no light is visible at Plymouth. The foundation of the lighthouse was recently reported as becoming unsafe."

Gideon J. Pillow, well known as a general of volunteers in the Mexican war, and a brigadier in the rebel service, died at his home in Arkansas on the 9th inst.

On the Northern Central railroad of Pennsylvania, last week, an engine drew from Clarke's Ferry to Sunbury, a distance of thirty-one miles, a train consisting of one hundred and eighty-three empty freight cars, one loaded eight-wheel car, two cabooses and another engine, which was not fired up. The train was drawn up grade at the rate of ten miles an hour, and was 6200 feet long, or 920 feet more than a mile. It is claimed to have been the longest train ever drawn by a single engine.

Wednesday, the 9th inst., was observed in Louisiana as a day of fasting and prayer for deliverance from the pestilence. Up to noon that day the total cases in New Orleans amounted to 10,928, and the deaths to 3303; 143 new cases and 42 deaths were reported that day. Reports from other places showed the disease still spreading, and in many places becoming more virulent, though in some the fever is yielding more readily to medical treatment. Jackson, Miss., reported 15 new cases and five deaths, making a total to date of 80 cases and 15 deaths, 13 of the deaths being of whites.

The Bank of England has raised the price of American gold eagles one farthing and of French Napoleons one penny. This, it is said, caused an influx of £1,000,000 in one day, although the official report gives a less amount.

A London despatch of the 10th says the Eddystone lighthouse still stands, all right.

Intelligence has just been received from New Zealand that five Wesleyan missionaries have been killed and eaten by the bush natives near the Malicola coast. Eighty of the tribe were killed by Malicola traders and the coast natives in retaliation. Where the Malicola coast is we don't know.

Judge Van Brunt of New York has rendered a decision favorable to New York city in the suit by the Astor heirs for an injunction to restrain the city permanently from making the improvements on its water-front authorized by the act of 1871, but the case will doubtless be appealed. Many millions of dollars' worth of property is involved, and the decision is the most important one rendered since the ring trials.

Forty coolies, who had fulfilled contracts on the island of Trinidad, having been taken to Havana by an Italian named Aecchi, under a contract, as they supposed, to labor one year, but really for five years, have been liberated therefrom by the captain-general, at the instance of the British consul.

The Bodwell and Webster Granite Company of Maine have just quarried the largest piece of granite in the United States. It is 76 feet long, 10 feet square, and weighs 1121 tons. It is designed to make a monument for Gen. Wood of Ohio. When finished, the one piece will be 60 feet long, and with the base, plinth and statue, will be about 100 feet high. It cost $13,000 to get the stone on the wharf, and the whole expense of the monument will be $150,000.

Hannah Thorndike, the drunken vixen charged with killing a decent working-woman named Honora Sullivan at Rockland, Me., has been committed for trial on a charge of willful murder.

A party of roughs, while attempting to charivari Harvey Anthony and his bride, ten miles from Watertown, N. Y., were fired upon, and a man named Rice was fatally shot. Stones and other missiles were thrown at the house by the roughs, injuring an inmate.

Peterson's Magazine, for November, one of the cheapest and best of the Lady's Book's, is on our table. The principal steel engraving, "For Mother's Fire," is beautiful; so, also, is the mammoth colored steel fashion plate. But, as a contemporary says, the stories, the fashions, the patterns, in short, everything in "Peterson" is of the best of its kind. For 1879 a monthly Supplement will be given, containing a Full-sized Paper Pattern for a lady's, or child's dress, thus giving to every subscriber twelve such patterns, extra, during the year. These patterns alone will be worth the subscription price. Five original copy-right novelets will also be given, besides a hundred shorter stories. Among the novelets will be one by Frances Hodgson Burnett, and another by the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife." The price of this Lady's Book is but two dollars a year, the postage pre-paid by the publisher. To Clubs the prices are greatly reduced for 1879, viz.: two copies for $3.50, with a superb Mezzotint (24 inches by 20,) "Christ Blessing Little Children," to the person getting up the club; or four copies for $6,50, and an extra copy to the person getting up the club. Specimens of the Magazine are sent, gratis, if written for, to those wishing to get up clubs. Subscribe to nothing else until you have seen a copy of this popular Magazine. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

—A schoolmaster thus describes a money-lender: "He serves you in the present tense; he lends in the conditional mood; keeps you in the subjunctive; and ruins you in the future."

Political.

Thursday night's reports from the elections: Republican majority in Iowa, 15,000; Congressmen all republican with one exception, a demo-greenbacker having got in. Ohio, republican majority 10,000; nine republicans and ten democrats elected to Congress, one district being in doubt. Indiana democratic; Congressional delegation—six republicans, six democrats, one greenbacker. West Virginia democratic, Congressmen and all.

The greenbackers of the 6th district of Massachusetts on Thursday nominated E. Moody Boynton of Newburyport for Congress.

The democrats of the third Congressional district of Massachusetts on the 9th inst., renominated Benjamin Dean to the seat which Mr. Field was elected to fill and which Dean now holds by grace of the "democratic reform House." In the fourth district Leopoold Morse was renominated. In the fifth district Nathan Clark, of Lynn, the greenback candidate, was nominated.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. diwp1079

THE CITY.

Two valuable lots of real estate are to be sold at auction to-morrow. See advertisement.

J. M. Tebbetts announces a new stock of novelties in millinery at 14 Market street. See advertisement.

The barque Harvard, of Boston, commanded by Capt. Pray, of this city, arrived at Batavia, Java, on the 7th, from Madras.

The roughest sea of the season, outside the harbor and in the lower harbor, prevailed on Wednesday. The stiff nor'-wester of Thursday smoothed things off greatly.

O. C. Moore will address the citizens of Portsmouth at Franklin hall this evening, on the financial issues of the day. He will advocate honest money, as opposed to fiat-ism.

The Board of Engineers at their last meeting made the following changes: William H. Lovell, engineer of Moses H. Goodrich steamer No. 4, vice William H. Gardner; Thomas Wardwell, fireman of same steamer, vice William Hudson. Fred C. Young was appointed driver of the supply wagon.

The report that the wages of employes at the navy yard have been cut down twenty per cent is said to be incorrect, no reduction whatever having been made. Neither have the workmen been put on half time on account of the appropriations being expended, but solely because there is not for the present work for the full gang, and putting them on half time gives all an equal chance.

A despatch from Hillsdale, Michigan, Oct. 5th, to the Boston Globe, says: "Howe Call of New Hampshire, the 'silver-tongued,' addressed a large mass meeting here last Saturday, and here again last night replied to Hon. Zachariah Chandler of Michigan, amid the wildest enthusiasm. As he spoke of the next Governor of Massachusetts, cheer after cheer went up at the mention of Butler's name."

The ship Frolic, (before reported arrived at Boston on the 9th inst.,) commanded by Capt. John C. Bush of this city, left Iloilo, May 4th, with a cargo of sugar, sapan wood and mats; passed Anjer June 27th, the Cape of Good Hope Aug. 2d, and St. Helena Aug. 13th; crossed the equator Aug. 28th in longitude thirty-two west, and arrived as before stated. June 28th a French boy named Louis Buesine fell overboard from aloft, and was drowned. September 28th a Swede named Frank Johnson was washed off the forecastle in a gale, and lost.

At the entertainment given by Bryant's minstrels at Music hall, on the evening of the 9th inst., the "lecturer" managed to "ring in" an allusion to "the next governor of Massachusetts, Gen. Butler," and then waited a couple of seconds or so for the expected applause; but the allusion was greeted only by a tremendous burst of absolute silence, and the quick-witted speaker, at once perceiving that what might take well with a minstrel-show audience in Massachusetts was not quite suited to this latitude, immediately went on with his talk—and Ben Butler wasn't alluded to again.

An official from the navy yard made a trip down the lower harbor in the steam-launch on Thursday, to get the opinions of the masters of some thirty fishing schooners as to the advisability of the Direct United States Cable Company's cable being laid in deeper or shoaler water on the coast. With but one exception, every skipper thought the cable should be transferred to deeper water; that one thought the shoalest water possible to find should be selected. Without any exception, the fishing skippers said that if they should foul the cable with their anchors they would put an axe to it, rather than to slip their cables and run the risk of being paid by the Cable Co. for their loss.

After the regular working session of Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows, Thursday evening, the members of the lodge, with visiting brethren from Newmarket and Hampton Falls, and invited guests, sat down to a banquet provided by Osgood Lodge. The tables were handsomely arranged and abundantly supplied with choice viands, and seated sixty persons. After supper speeches were made by Past Grand Master A. F. Craig, Capt. W. Q. Lowd, of Jackson, Miss., Wm. W. Cotton and Arthur Pfeiffer of this city, Emmons B. Philbrick of Rye, the Noble Grand of Rockingham Lodge, of Hampton, and Bro. Robie, of the latter town. The affair was well conceived and successfully carried out, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who anticipated.

There was a walking match of five miles at Franklin hall, Thursday evening, there being four contestants. The match was won by Danny Collins, who made the five miles in fifty-one minutes and twenty-five seconds, beating his nearest competitor, Jacob Burns, by five seconds.

But very few persons from this city took advantage of the cheap excursion rates—$2.50—over the Eastern railroad to Fabyan's and return, on Thursday, not over a dozen in all going from here. The strong and cool wind from the northwest probably had something to do with the small patronage bestowed on this cheap and enjoyable excursion.

Mr. Richard I. Walden, foreman of the Portsmouth Journal office, and Mr. Michael Morrisey, who is in the employ of N. F. Mathes & Co., were passengers on the train which was wrecked at Wollaston station, Mass., on the 8th inst. They were in the car next to the rear, and felt no more of a jar than attends the ordinary stoppage of a railroad train.

Mr. John Stetson, the well known Boston manager, formerly of the Globe theatre, with his newly organized opera Bouffe company, will appear at Music hall next Wednesday evening, Oct. 16th, in the extravaganza burlesque, Evangeline. Miss Nellie Larkelle appears as Gabriel; Miss Louise Sylvester performs the role of Evangeline; Miss Eugenia Paul appears as Eulalie; Mr. Harry Josephs, the original Catharine, appears in the character which he has made famous; Mr. W. H. Lytell has made a hit as Le Blanc; Mr. Larry Tooley, as Capt. Deitrich, is popular; and the celebrated pantomimist, Mr. James S. Maffitt, appears in the character of the Lone Fisherman—his original creation; Mr. E. S. Tarr, the original Bazil, appears in the same character. Other well known artists appear in the various roles, and Mr. John Mullaly, with his special orchestra, besides a fine male and female chorus. Popular prices will be adopted, and reserved seats can be secured at Preston's.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Alderman, Thursday evening:

Usual monthly bills were ordered paid.

Condition of North cemetery was reported bad, and the matter was referred to committee on burying grounds.

Committee on finance recommended that the tax collector furnish the board with a list of those persons who have not paid taxes for 1877, and it was so ordered.

Charles H. Mendum asked relay of sidewalk on Ladd street; S. G. Folsom asked relay of sidewalk corner of Warren and Church streets; and Henry Ladd asked to have sidewalk in front of his residence on Middle street repaired. All granted.

John P. Hart received permission to erect a gas-post corner of Islington and Union streets.

Committee on millpond nuisance reported, and the matter was postponed for one week.

The mayor was authorized to advertise for sale the south mill and machinery.

Committee on accounts reported against the allowance of discount on taxes asked for by the collector, and the bill was laid on the table.

Adjourned.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Oct. 10; Batchelder, J.

John Sullivan, for drunkenness, was fined $3, costs taxed at $5.76. Brentwood for John.

Charles W. Osier, master of the schooner Emma S. Osier, of Gloucester, was arraigned on a charge of assault with intent to kill Henry Snow, one of the crew of the schooner William H. Gaffney of Swampscot, Snow having been shot in the thigh with a revolver bullet. The evidence for the prosecution was contradictory, but all agreed to the firing, which the defence admitted. Capt. Osier said he met Snow at the head of the wharf where the assault took place, and greeted him cordially, having been shipmate with him at one time. They walked down the wharf together, Snow using violent language and daring Osier to fight, and when near his own vessel he (Snow) called on her crew to come and help him, which they did, getting Osier down; the crowd were pounding Osier when he warned them to desist or he would fire, and after the third similar warning he did fire, not knowing whom he hit or if he hit anybody. There was some growling after this, Snow going aboard another vessel to raise a row, and getting his head rapped for his pains. Judge Batchelder discharged Capt. Osier, considering that he acted in self-defence and was therefore justified; and he also discharged Snow, who had been arrested on a warrant sworn out by Osier, thinking the fellow sufficiently punished by being shot and thrashed.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXETER, Oct. 10; Clark, J.

Poor vs. Hudson Ins. Co. The case was opened by Mr. Eastman for the defendant, who stated that the position of the company was that this policy had been cancelled before the burning of the building, and that the warranty as to a family living in the house should be literally and strictly complied with, and in part of the contract to be performed by the assured. The clause relied upon was "warranted that a family shall reside in the house during the year." Mr. Eastman quoted from the decision of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts in the case of Mr. Poor against the Humboldt Ins. Co., upon the question of "family" occupation. The defendants then introduced two witnesses, Mr. A. F. Craig, agent of the company at Portsmouth, and Richard H. Wilson, manager of the company for the eastern States, who testified relative to cancellation of the policy, etc. The counsel for defendants made a request to the court that certain positions as to the cancellation should be stated to the jury in the charge; the court declined to grant the request. The next request was one relative to the warranty as to family occupation, but the court was not inclined to tell the jury what was requested by the defendant. The case was argued by Gen. Marston for the company and Mr. Frink for the plaintiff. The case was given to the jury in the afternoon, and they returned a verdict of $2586.31 for the plaintiff. The defendants filed a motion to set aside the verdict.

THE VICINITY.

The barn of Joseph H. Hanson, two miles from Dover, was burned on the afternoon of Wednesday, the 9th inst. His house was also somewhat damaged. Loss $600; insurance on house and barn $1200.

Barrels are in such demand at South Seabrook that on Tuesday night, the 8th inst., some persons entered the barn of Charles Dow, where were a number of barrels filled with apples, emptied the apples on the barn floor and carried off the barrels.

The apple orchards in Eliot are crimsoned with baldwins. Owing to the extreme low prices of apples the farmers cannot afford to hire help to pick them. At the farm of Mr. George Leighton there are between three and four hundred barrels of specimen fruit, most of them rating No. 1, and many measuring eleven and twelve inches.

The young republicans of Dover have formed a Young Men's Republican Club, and elected officers as follows: J. Frank Seavey, president; Charles A. Fairbanks, Calvin Sanders, John C. Tasker, vice presidents; Frank S. Tompkins, secretary; and an executive committee of five persons for each of the five wards in the city. They have secured a club-room, and evidently mean work.

The Maine State Conference of Unitarian Churches was held in Saco, opening with a sermon on Sunday, the 6th inst., by Rev. J. T. W. Ware of Boston. The conference on Tuesday elected D. N. Sheldon of Waterville president, Jas. Dane of Kennebunk vice president, Rev. C. C. Vinal of Kennebunk secretary, and Mark P. Emery of Portland, treasurer. The convention adjourned Wednesday forenoon.

The 31st annual cattle show of the York County (Me.) Agricultural Society was held at Alfred this week, commencing Tuesday; $125 was taken at the gate the first day, twenty-five cents admission being charged. For twenty years past the annual shows of this society have been held in Saco and Biddeford, which occasioned considerable dissatisfaction among the farmers in other parts of the county, and it was to make things pleasant that the fair was held at Alfred this year. The entries of cattle were numerous, including thirteen bulls, thirty-one cows, twenty-three heifers, and twenty-one yoke of oxen and steers, besides the town teams. The largest pair of oxen belong to Moses Gill of Alfred, girth eight feet eight inches each, and are estimated to weigh about a ton apiece. Forty-nine horses were entered; two lots of sheep, two of swine, and a few fowls. The shows of fruit and agricultural implements were very large.

Naval Matters.

Chief Engineer Frederick G. McKean, formerly attached to the bureau of steam engineering at Washington, has been ordered to duty on board the U. S. S. Ticonderoga at this navy yard, and has reported.

Pay Director Charles W. Abbott, lately on duty at this navy yard, has relieved Past Assistant Paymaster W. W. Barry at the Boston navy yard.

Suit Against the City of Nashua.

Osborn H. Roberts of Boston has entered in the Circuit Court of the United States at the present term an action against the city of Nashua wherein he claims twenty thousand dollars as damages by reason of injuries incurred on the 6th of October, 1876, on Main street, Nashua, near Greely building. Mr. Roberts alleges that he fell into a hole or cellar-way in the highway, and received injuries of a serious nature and became sick and lame. The plaintiff is represented by C. A. Parks and Levi C. Wade of Boston. Messrs. Geo. Y. Sawyer and Sawyer, Jr., represent the city. The case has been continued to the May term of the court.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side oh de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side oh de hous. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

A Health-Destroying Vapor

Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools, and marshy, low lying tracts. The true nature of this miasma is by no means clearly understood, but here are two facts in relation to it that are. The first is, that the periodical fevers which it breeds are of the most virulent type; the second is, that these maladies are rarely cured, although they may be ameliorated, by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wine-glassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. 1m09

Salted Beer.

An amusing trial has just been concluded before Mr. De Ritzen, at the Surrey Assizes, England. James Scott, landlord of the Wellington Beer House, St. Leonard's road, Bromley, was tried for salting his beer. By direct chemical analysis it was proved that there were as many as 140 grains of salt to the gallon. The defendant during his cross examination admitted that in his neighborhood there were thirty public houses, all of which were trying to cut each other out. Talking on one occasion of the difficulty of making a livelihood where there were so many competitors around him, a tall Yankee addressed him: "Stranger, how much would you give to get all the business of the neighborhood?" I said, he replied, "Twenty pounds." The Yankee extended his hand, and saying, "Put it there," left. The next day he came again, and told me, "No success, no pay." I took him into my vault and left him alone. That night all my customers came a dozen times, where before they only came once. They were all of them saying, "I wonder what makes me so dry?" As I was about to close, the Yankee came up and said, "Stranger, that's a success, I want my balance square." I acknowledged the bargain, and, as I paid him the money, I said: "Now you will give me the receipt." "Certain," he said; "we all do it in the States when bizness tends to be dull." "Well, what is it?" I asked. "Why, salt, you d——d British fool," and the Yankee, pocketing his money, left my house. The court, while listening to this evidence, were convulsed with laughter. As salting beer was an offence against which there were no provisions in law, James Scott was discharged.

—The irradation of countenance exhibited by a bridegroom at the moment he leads his chosen one before the alter is certainly very beautiful: but, by way of comparison, did you ever observe the face of a man who, taking down his winter overcoat and shaking out the moths, dives casually into one of the pockets and brings up a forgotten quarter?

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drugstore for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writes: "Your patent from Providence, R.I., sent, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 12 pounds, and she is in every respect improved in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change of habits or diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The wholesale Druggists, Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOULITTE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing it." Sent by Messrs. TOWER & FAIRTHORN, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., writer: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat: 'If the Anti-Fat has had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of these diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while withholding its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe and effectual remedy for all the ills and of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single one of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, roots and barks in their essential form, free from every obnoxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has found its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me inestimable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., MONCAYNE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high enthusiasm of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 225 FINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG,
129 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we have had a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to inform Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers through out the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

THE COVENANTER TO HIS SWORD.

The story of the struggles of the Scottish Covenanters for civil and religious liberty, during the reigns of the First and second Charlieses, is familiar to every reader of history.

The fields of Drumclog, Airsmoss and Bothwell Brig are remembered with Bannockburn, Waterloo and Bunker Hill.

The great American Revolution, which our fathers made a success against the tyranny of the British throne, was but a continuation of the old Covenanters' struggles, and was very largely aided by their sons in this land wielding the same old sword side by side with the sons of those Pilgrims who, on British soil, had together entered into the solemn league and covenant, and stood shoulder to shoulder in the ancient struggles for liberty there.

It is an interesting and well established fact that when the "Flag of our Union" was under consideration, the blue of the old Scotch Covenanters' flag was adopted as the emblem of Liberty in our flag, thus identifying the emblem of Liberty's battle-fields in both the Old and New Worlds.

Thy blade is dimmed with dying martyr's breath,
The scent of wild flowers, the receding shade
Of glories won upon our native heath—
'Tis tyrant blood that rusts thee, trusty blade.
Bright hast thou flashed, my faithful sword;
When battle raged, blasphaming foemen fell
Beneath thy sweep—the battles of the Lord.
The league, the covenant, thy legends tell,
When Claver's galloped down our rugged glen
The murderer's heart not innocence could spare;
But thou wast there, beside our valiant men,
An incarnation—victory to share;
And though thou now art hacked, and red with rust,
Yet from thy scabbard wouldst thou flash again,
As lightning would thou dash into the dust
The tyrant who would show to thee a chain.
Yet our posterity will keep thee bright,
A symbol of the daring heart and hand
Which used thee well for liberty and right,
And built Fame's altar in our native land.
Old friend, I gaze on thee, and sigh farewell,
As visions gleam athwart thy tarnished steel,
To stately thistle—beauteous heather bell—
Bequeath thine honor, guard auld Scotland's weal,
Raise Freedom's beacon on her Grampian wall.
Let every people see the ethereal fire
Unquenchable, forever glow to all;
A meteor unbound, the patriot soul's desire.

R. B. M., Auld Scotland.

A Health-Destroying Vapor

Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools, and marshy, low lying tracts. The true nature of this miasma is by no means clearly understood, but here are two facts in relation to it that are. The first is, that the periodical fevers which it breeds are of the most virulent type; the second is, that these maladies are rarely cured, although they may be ameliorated, by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wine-glassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

Among American manufacturers, few have done our country as much credit as the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, which have been acknowledged best at all great world's exhibitions for many years. See advertisement.

Such a combined effort upon the part of all its attaches is always made to please its guests, that the visitor to the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., is pretty sure to return.

The large sale of Adamson's Botanic Balsam is because when once used it becomes a household remedy. Children like it; it cures their colds and prevents the croup. Sold everywhere at 35 cts.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. tnov9

"Democratic Principles."

The Democratic City Central Committee of Boston had a lively meeting Thursday evening. Some of the Butler men on the committee endeavored to secure the printing of the tickets with Butler's name on them for governor; some of the Abbott men wanted Abbott's name put on; but the leading men were only anxious to prevent an open split, and urged that their success at the polls was the one thing needful, so democratic "principles" were sat upon, and it was finally decided to print the tickets without putting on either Butler's or Abbott's name for governor. The Butlerites were willing to endorse Butler, but the "regulars" were too many for them and voted them down; and yet the Abbott men, though in a good majority, did not dare to endorse Abbott or denounce Butler by a vote. Principle was made subservient to expediency, as usual with that party; but even the surrender of principle did not satisfy the aggressive Butlerites, who organized a bolt after the committee adjourned, but did not transact any business.

"A Secret Chapter."

We have received, with the "compliments of Manton Marble," the author, a pamphlet of twenty-four pages entitled: "A Secret Chapter of Political History. The Electoral Commission. The Truth concerning Samuel J. Tilden, President, de jure, disclosed and stated against some False Representations of his Action, Advice and Conduct during the Winter of 1876-7." This is the famous manifesto in which Mr. Marble speaks of "one McLin, an ague-smitten Pariah in Florida;" of Tilden's "absolute trust in moral forces;" of the "coparceny of spoils," and the "complot," and "lethal weapons fashioned to the hand of every hater of fraud," and "the ark and shekinah of our self-government," and many other beautiful things. We received this document several weeks ago; but we found on glancing at it that it was only a prolongation of the continuous "fraud" shriek in which certain Tildenites—and notably Mr. Marble—have been indulging ever since the great reformer failed to get the office to which he was not elected and which his agents failed to buy or steal, so we threw it aside without comment. And we are not going to comment on it now. The New York Tribune has done that already, and very effectively, by the publication and translation of the telegrams which passed between Mr. Marble and Gramercy park in relation to the purchase for Mr. Tilden of the "ark and shekinah," etc., with "fifty thousand best United States documents." Our only comment on Mr. Marble's "secret chapter" will be to say that the people are tired of the attempt to make the election of 1876 last till 1880, and that Mr. Marble had better have used some other "lethal weapon" than his pen, for it is the endless clamor about fraud made by him and such as him which has led to the publication of the facts, which show that the very men who have been loudest and most persistent in crying "fraud" are those at whose door lies a foul crime against the country, and that Alanton Marble was one of those most guilty.

A Question of Contempt.

Mr. David Wardsworth, the keeper of the jail at Manchester, was some time since complained of by the United States Attorney, that he had in his custody the person of Cyrus Dunn, who had been convicted before the Circuit Court of the United States upon a charge of fraudulently omitting from his schedule in bankruptcy a large portion of his property, and also concealing the same from his assignee, and who had been sentenced by the court at the May term at Portsmouth to be confined for one year in the jail at Manchester. The information filed by the attorney in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court, alleges that although Dunn was duly committed to the jail and has since been in nominal confinement, in fact Wardsworth has not kept Dunn in jail but has allowed him to go away from and remain away from jail, and to go to his home in Manchester frequently, and to go about the grounds of the jail and about the city of Manchester, and despite remonstrances still persists in this, and returns insolent answers, and expresses determination to continue this conduct and so continue in disobedience to the order and sentence of the court, and to allow Dunn to go without the limits of the jail and at large a great part of the time. The filing of this information was followed by an order upon Wardsworth to appear at the present term of the court, and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in disregarding the order of the court, as before stated. Wardsworth engaged Gen. Marston for his counsel, and requested further time to answer to the charge; and the consideration of the case was postponed to the 25th inst., at Manchester. Wardsworth denies the allegation contained in the information. On the other hand it is stated that the occurrences were notorious and well known in Manchester. It is also stated that this is a custom of former days; in the county of Hillsborough it was quite the fashion with the jailors to permit prisoners to go about to work or visit, the jailors taking the responsibility. The case will present an interesting question if how far the jailors, in whose custody prisoners sentenced by the courts of the United States are found, can disregard the orders of the courts relative to the confinement of prisoners, with impunity. Judge Clark sentenced Dunn to be confined at Manchester as the place more agreeable to him, and where he could see his family and friends, without the expense of their going out of town to see him; but the kindness of the judge did not contemplate Dunn's going out to see his family and friends, the etiquette of the establishment being that the prisoner should receive, but not pay visits. The question ought to be settled if there can be any exception in case of a United States prisoner as to confinement; and if jail limits extend over the entire city of Manchester, it is a fact that ought to be judicially determined.

News and Notes.

Great depression exists in British commercial and manufacturing circles, occasioned by the Glasgow bank failure. It is now said that not only has the capital stock of the bank been wiped out, but $20,000,000 besides. Other heavy failures have occurred in various cities. Half the population of the manufacturing town of Blackburn is idle, and mills are daily stopping with no immediate prospect of again starting up.

Patrick Denihe of New London, Conn., aged fifty years, fell down stairs while intoxicated, and broke his neck.

An attempt was made to rob the First National Bank at Fishkill Landing, N.Y., Thursday morning, by three rogues, but in blowing open the safe they put in such a charge of powder that the safe was shivered to atoms and the whole front blown out of the bank. The noise awakened the whole village. The robbers were seen to run away and chase was made, but they escaped with a stolen horse and wagon. The stolen team was found next morning at Highland station on the Hudson river railroad.

A race at Chicago on Friday between Rarus to wagon, Hopeful to harness and Great Eastern under saddle, was won by Hopeful. The latter trotted in 2:17 1-4 and 2:17. It is said that $250,000 depended on the result of the race.

Four miners, named Jenkins Lewis, George Tasker, John Williams and James Ruane, were killed by an explosion of gas in the Prospect shaft of the Leigh Valley coal company at Wilkesbarre, Pa. They were trying to disperse an accumulation of gas, when one of them brought a naked light in contact with it and it ignited.

David D. Nichols went to the Carlton house, Boston, and wished to sleep a few hours and to be called at four o'clock. The clerk went into the room at that hour and found Nichols shot through the head, dead.

Charles Everman and a neighbor, cutting corn in a field near Decatur, Ill., became enraged, when Everman struck the neighbor three times on the neck with a corn cutter, severing the head from the body.

Political.

The reports from West Virginia, Friday, make it appear likely that the Congressional delegation still remains solidly democratic. In Ohio the republicans have probably lost two or three Congressmen, but this is owing to the gerrymandering of the districts, which the democrats reckoned would give them all but four of the twenty districts. The great point of the election is the feebleness of the soft money "nationals" and the loss of the State of Ohio by the democrats, by a considerable majority. Hamilton county in Ohio consists mainly of the great city of Cincinnati, just as Boston is nearly all there is of Suffolk county in Massachusetts. The vote of Hamilton county is nearly all in, and shows a national vote of only 468 in a total of 45,851. Last year the "workingmen" polled nearly 10,000 votes in Hamilton county. Evidently the national party does not grow. The "Ohio idea" is repudiated in Ohio, in spite of Sam Randall, John G. Thompson, Eph Holland, et als.

A dispatch from Detroit says that Tilden will consent to return the stolen books to the custody of the court, his man McCloskey having telegraphed him that the court is determined to exhaust its power to recover them. Tilden yields, therefore.

In Hayti, when Grant's San Domingo commission visited the island a few years ago, hats were selling at $500 to $1000, suits of clothes at from $3000 to $10,000, and russet apples brought from the United States, with the specks cut out, sold at $20 apiece. This was in "fiat money." How does that strike you, workingmen?

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a trifle more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dissp1978

THE CITY.

Two valuable lots of real estate are to be sold at auction to-day. See advertisement.

During the last fiscal year the receipts at the custom house in this city were $15,544.39; expenditures, $6,125.22.

The band attached to the Powhatan will give a farewell concert on Market square this afternoon, weather permitting.

The U. S. S. Tallapoosa, Lieut. McRitchie commanding, arrived at this navy yard on Friday from Washington with stores.

The first meeting of the Ladies' Humane Society will be held at Mrs. Lyman's on Middle street, Monday afternoon, Oct. 14th.

The schooner Brunette has been chartered by Cyrus L. Brown & Co. to take seven hundred barrels of apples to the British Provinces.

The Portsmouth cricket club are to play a match game with the Longwood club of Boston next Tuesday, at the cricket grounds near Frenchman's lane. Game called at 10 A. M.

Miss Myra F. Bickford, whose millinery parlors are at No. 69 Congress street, invites the ladies of Portsmouth and vicinity to call and inspect her stock of Parisian and American styles and novelties in millinery goods, hats and bonnets. Opening on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 16th and 17th.

Mrs. J. K. Barney of Providence, R. I., will speak before the Reform Club at Mechanics Hall, on Sunday at 4 P. M. She will also give a temperance lecture at the Methodist church on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Admission free. Mrs. Barney is a very pleasing speaker, and draws full houses wherever she goes.

Mr. Morris C. Foye, formerly with Staples, Stackpole & Marston, and later with C. H. Marston, has taken the store No. 23 Market street, recently occupied by D. H. Montgomery as a music store, and opened with an entirely new stock of worsteds, fringes, trimmings and fancy goods generally. His invitation to the ladies to call will be found in another place.

Lovejoy & Fowle, 179 Tremont street, Boston, announce in another column carpets at unusually low prices. In order to make room for new goods which are being constantly received, they offer last season's patterns of English Brussels at $1.50 per yard, the goods being of the best manufacture and of the finest quality. A splendid opportunity to secure a nice carpet cheap.

The schooner Lizzie M. Stewart, of this port, Perkins master, before reported as having been ashore on the coast of Maine, ran on Grindle's point at Islesboro' in a dense fog, bilged, filled with water on the next flood tide, and a considerable portion of the cargo of corn ran out of the hatchway. She was floated off by her crew, with the aid of the people residing near, before the arrival of a lot of empty casks that was sent to her from Belfast. She was towed to Belfast and taken on the railway, where it was found she was badly twisted and her fore-foot broken, the total damage to the hull amounting to about $400. The corn saved was sold in Belfast on account of whom it might concern, for twenty-five cents a bushel.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. Eugene Emery of Great Falls has been appointed to teach the winter term of school in Newington.

Rev. F. J. Grimes has closed his labors with the Congregational church at Hampton. Much regret is expressed at his leaving. Mr. Grimes goes to Kinderhook, New York.

Rev. J. N. Power succeeds the late Father M. Lucy as pastor of the Catholic church in Exeter. The new church is to be consecrated Thanksgiving week. Father Power is from Lewiston, Me.

Charles Marseilles, proprietor of the News-Letter, has removed from Exeter to Kingston, N. Y., where he publishes a daily and weekly newspaper from one office, and a second weekly in another part of the place called Rondout. The News-Letter is said to be under the charge of Dr. Wells.

The portrait of Ben Butler, which was missing one morning as the students at Exeter were making their academic devotions, was subsequently discovered in a closet where it had been confined for bad conduct. It has since been restored to its place, and its off eye is said sometimes to wink at the boys who come late to morning prayers.

In the athletic sports at Dartmouth College, the three-legged race was won by G. H. Davenport of Dover and C. S. Sloane of Washington, D. C. The two mile walk was won by J. E. Ham of Dover, in sixteen minutes, forty-five and a half seconds. G. H. Danforth won the hundred yard dash, winning the last heat and the race in eleven and one-eighth seconds.

From the report of the assessors of Dover to the county Commissioners it appears that the valuation of Dover the present year is $7,642,760, and the rate of taxation $15 on $1,000, being one and one-half per cent. The entire amount assessed, for State, county, school and city purposes is $114,656.25. The gain in valuation since 1875 is, on real estate, $1,247,050, and on personal estate $1,163,660.

Gov. Prescott recently took a three days' ride around in Epping and a few neighboring towns, and purchased nearly seven thousand barrels of apples for Messrs. A. & O. W. Mead & Co. of Boston. The apples in that locality are highly colored, and are of the finest quality. The price paid for fine winter fruit was one dollar per barrel, delivered at the depots. The governor raised three thousand barrels in his own orchard.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, Oct. 11; Batchelder, J.

Charles Murray was the only customer Friday morning; not having $9.90 to pay for one drunk bad and applied to his own use, he went to the county establishment at Brentwood to earn that amount.

ABOUT A NATIONAL BANK.

Mr. Editor: The following statement in regard to the Rockingham National Bank of this city will probably be applicable to many, if not all, of the national banks throughout the country. It will serve to show that the shares of these institutions are by no means held solely by what are called capitalists, but that they are distributed through all grades of the community. Whatever benefits they offer are shared in very largely by persons of small means, who have bought shares according to their ability, as a safe and permanent investment. The net dividends for a series of years do not exceed, if indeed they equal, the amount received as interest in well managed savings banks. The only officers of this bank who receive any compensation are those whose time is devoted to the daily care and business of the institution, and no director receives the smallest compensation for the time which he devotes to its affairs. Probably one thousand dollars would cover the average yearly loan of the bank to each and all of its directors.

The Rockingham National Bank began business as the State "Rockingham Bank" in 1813, or sixty-five years ago. It has a capital of $200,000, divided into 2000 shares at a par value of $100 each. The number of stockholders is 193, thus averaging about $1036 to each stockholder. Eighty-eight stockholders own from one share to five shares each; savings banks own 107 shares; charitable societies 44 shares; trustees and guardians 397 shares; and 650 of the 1452 shares owned by private individuals belong to females.

The taxes paid by this bank to the United States and the State of New Hampshire amount to about three and a half per cent. upon its capital of $200,000; its dividends are distributed among 193 persons owning its shares. CITIZEN.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

John Andrew Pickering, Esq., of Newington, was foreman of the traverse jury. In the case of Poor against the insurance company the jury stood from the time of their retirement from the room, it is said, eleven to one for the plaintiff. The jury came in about six o'clock for further instructions as to what constituted "a family." The judge very briefly gave the definition, and they retired and at once brought in a verdict, the minority man yielding.

The court then took a recess, the jury being discharged from further attendance.

Howard and Eastman, the two men indicted for passing a bad twenty-five cent piece, say they were induced to plead guilty by the advice of Sheriff Kent. They supposed from the small denomination of the coin, and the offence being their first, and by their plea of guilty they would be let off easily, but the statute provides only for a punishment by imprisonment for not more than five years and by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars. One of the men has a family of children, which the town of Farmington must now support; and several persons have determined to take steps to obtain a pardon for him in the belief that perhaps he is not as guilty as his "pard."

NEWSPAPERS PAST AND PRESENT.

Editor of the Chronicle: I want to bestow a word or two of compliment on you gents of the modern press, in contrast with what in some respects were the habits of those who wielded "the grey-goose quill" in former years, say half a century or more ago, as appears by the journals that survive of that time. It never seeming to occur to them that it was the right thing to do as a matter of record for after time, they appear to have thought it not needful, oftentimes, to give in their columns local events even of as much interest as the taking of human life, because everybody, they supposed, knew of them at the time of their occurrence; an instance of the latter kind transpiring here at Portsmouth, as appeared not long since in seeking information on such a matter in the old newspaper files. While Napoleon was a prisoner at St. Helena, and the English in constant fear of his being spirited away from there, a young Irishman, of the cultured class of his countrymen, who had been educated as a physician, but who loved the sea far better than the land, was offered by another native of the green isle, who had committed some political offence, his pleasure yacht and a handsome sum in coin if he would take him to a port in France. They were pursued, however, by a British cruiser, who, probably, Englishman-like, "wanted to know, you know," what so small a craft was doing so far at sea, and all her commander could do was to keep on all the way across the ocean, until, never looking for a pilot up the harbor, the little bark reached one of the wharves of Portsmouth. It was in the dusk of the evening, whither had disappeared those who came in her, but three in all, none could tell, and a rumor was at once set afloat that "Bonaparte," as he was called by most, had landed at Portsmouth; a rumor that must have struck terror to the simple minded order of humanity who regarded him as not less to be feared than such a monster as the giant, behind whose snuff-box Jack, of bean-stalk fame, hid himself. It was learned next day, however, that no such distinguished visitor as the exiled emperor had come to town, and that the strangers who did arrive were at a hotel in Market street. The journalists of the present day would regard the arrival from over the ocean of such a craft, and under like circumstances, as something curious, and her commander would not escape an "interviewer," if he had a British cruiser, but not a word was given relating to it in either of the two weeklies then relied upon for the news, the Boston papers being seen but by few. The adventurous young navigator, who was very good looking, remained at Portsmouth, and took to himself as a wife one of its fair daughters. One of their children, a lady, is a resident at the national capital, and their two sons have homes at the south.

While the old time caterers for the press found room in their columns for contributions that were as dry and uninteresting as the proverbial "treatise on farriery" and last year's almanac, furnished a traveller for reading at a country inn on a rainy Sabbath, they gave the briefest amount of room to matters of the deepest interest; the retreat from Moscow, the battle of Waterloo and the battle of New Orleans being found lately in an old file of journals, each occupying a space not a tithe of that now devoted in some of the papers, the New York Herald for instance, to a game of base ball, a boat-race, or that meanest and most despicable, to say nothing of its cruelty, of modern species of sporting, a match at pigeon shooting. To such an extent did the omission prevail to notice events, in former years, of local interest, very important ones not seldom, but for their preservation, after being obtained from the recollection of those who could recall them, in "Brewster's Rambles," they would have been wholly lost to after generations.

People are given to imagine that political editors are not very complimentary now-a-days to each other, or the candidates for office of the party opposed to their own; but if they could see in the old journals the way political opponents wrote of each in Adams', Jefferson's and Madison's time, they would get an idea that the "gall of bitterness" was largely infused in the ink they used, and that some of the people elected to office, judging them by their opponent's estimate, ought to have been sent to a penitentiary instead of being elected to places of trust. The genus politician is about the same in every age. J. H. B.

It is said by the Chicago Inter-Ocean that Senator Jones of Nevada, when he started for the west in August, was, in his own estimation, broken in fortune, although five years ago he was worth five millions of dollars. Extravagant living and reckless giving, according to the Inter-Ocean, had reduced him until he did not know where his champagne and cigars were to come from. The recent lift in mining stocks, has, however, brought him in a million and a half.

Rev. H. H. Hayden of Madison, Conn., acquitted recently of the murder of Mary Stannard there, has been arrested on a bench warrant. Fifty grains of arsenic were found in the girl's stomach, and arsenic found in Hayden's barn is missing. Other new evidence is reported. Hayden is now in jail awaiting trial.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost is the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. 18tu20 79

THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS
Bristol and Providence,
Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly in the World.
Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY and Albany Stations at 4 P. M. (Accommodation) and 6 (Steamboat Express) P. M., connect with these "Floating Palaces" at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.
No line can offer the accommodations presented by this favorite route
ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL.
Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—
NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,
But enabling passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.
Grand Promenade Concert on each Steamer every evening during the summer.
New and Elegant Drawing-Room Cars on Steamboat Express Train.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately went to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat have taken from me one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOUTHITT & GRANT, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N.Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—Two bottles received from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. "It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have given away." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for those diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special disease which is the glory of womanhood, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. In its nature, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who may try it, that I offer it as the specific for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapped to bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful or Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Female Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Dependency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. It does not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 200 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plasters and barks in their essential form, free from every trace contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, regardless expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable. HENRY WELLS, of Wells, Fargo & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering. GEO. W. HOUGHTON, Waltham, Mass.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure. D. W. GRAY, M. D., Muscatine, Iowa.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them. WM. BOWEN, 22 Pine St., St. Louis.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success. WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 159 Harrison Ave., Boston.

WE have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint. S. D. BALDWIN & CO., Washington, Ind.

THE cure effected in my case by Sanford's Radical Cure was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the many remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston. GEORGE F. DINSMORE, Druggist, Boston.

Each package of Sanford's Radical Cure contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Political.

The remarkable contest for re-election to Congress made by Hon. Charles Foster is one of the most gratifying features of the late campaign in Ohio. His district had been so gerrymandered by the democrats as to place him, as the most promising republican candidate therein, in a minority of nearly 5000. But he reduced the majority against him and his party to less than 1,000. It was a gallant struggle under a gallant leader, who deserved a better fate, which it is to be hoped awaits him in the not far distant future.

In 1778 Mrs. Abigal Adams of Massachusetts wrote to her husband, John Adams, afterwards President of the United States: "Our money is very little better than blank paper. It takes forty dollars to purchase a barrel of cider, and fifty pounds lawful for a hundred of sugar; four dollars per day for a laborer, and find him, which will amount to four more." This shows the beauty of the irredeemable money system.

"Let's try old Ben. just once" is the wheedling cry of the patriots who are working up votes for the Butler ticket. Well, that is a plea which has been used before. They tried him as Congressman in the Essex district until they got tired of him. Then they tried him in the Lowell district, and what they think of him there, his constituents have recently told the voters of Massachusetts. How many times must a man be caught and convicted before the people stop trusting him?

There are strong symptoms that Colonel Pelton, Mr. Tilden's nephew, is to be made the scape-goat in the matter of the cipher-despatches, and driven with contumely into the wilderness. This is not fair to poor Pelton, who is in no sense the worst of the lot interested.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. Alvah Conant of Bath and Dr. Eugene Howard of Newburyport have just discovered a vein of rich gold-bearing quartz on the farm of William Simonds of Bath. St. Louis experts deem the discovery an exceedingly valuable one, and preparations to sink a shaft have already begun. The Landaff Gold Mining Company, composed of Newport (R. I.) and St. Louis parties, have just completed a $50,000 mill in Bath, and are working out a hundred dollars a day.

Ingalls Woods, sixty or seventy years old, a farmer living in Laugdon, went out on Friday with a team, to gather apples. Soon after the team came back alone, the horses running. Search was made for Woods, and he was found lying in the road, dead, with his head smashed, the wheels having passed over it. It is supposed the horses ran, throwing him out and killing him instantly.

A very brilliant wedding occurred in Concord at noon Friday, the contracting parties being Miss Helen M. Rollins, only daughter of Hon. E. H. Rollins, United States Senator, and Mr. Henry Robinson, a young lawyer of Concord. The ceremony took place at the family residence on Main street, and the wedding was a private one, invitations being extended mainly to family connections in Concord and elsewhere. Light was excluded from the house, and the interior was brilliantly illuminated throughout. The floral decorations were very extensive and beautiful. Flowers were displayed in profusion throughout every room above and below, many of them being gifts from friends.

John U. Eastman of Chattanooga, Tenn., eldest son of the late Ebenezer Eastman of Concord, died of yellow fever recently, aged fifty years. He emigrated to the south when a young man, and was many years actively identified with the interest of several railways centering in Chattanooga. During the rebellion he bent all his energies to aid in the destruction of the Union, rendering invaluable services to the confederacy as a master of transportation.

—In a fight the other evening, in New York, William Patterson was struck and knocked down. His injuries are very serious. John and Mary Reynolds are under arrest, and there seems to be, at last, some hope of determining who struck Billy Patterson.

—In speaking of a Gough lecture in London, the correspondent of the Liverpool Mercury says: "Mr. Gough's oratory is more like a raging fire than a tiny spark. He rushed along through pathos and fun, exhortation and declamation, now shouting, now whispering, but always suiting his action to his theme dramatically, until he almost took away one's breath. The audience was completely at his mercy. He might before he had finished have said whatever he pleased to it, so ready was it to respond to him."

The Wellaston Disaster.

The evidence taken by the Railroad Commissioners of Massachusetts in their investigation into the causes of the recent disaster at Wollaston indicates that the freightmen were switching from the foundry track across the main tracks when the excursion train was due; that Engineer Hurlburt, of the freight train, while crossing the inward track with his engine and five freight cars, discovered the excursion train approaching at speed; that he put on steam and crossed in safety, at the same time swinging a red light, which the engineer of the Easton, the leading engine of the passenger train, saw. Conductor Hartwell of the freight train ran to throw the switch, but had only partially done so when the train was upon him. The Railroad Commissioners have made a report as follows: "In the matter of the disaster on the Old Colony Railroad near Wollaston station on Tuesday evening, Oct. 8th, in which a portion of an excursion train was thrown from the track and demolished, with a serious loss of life, the Board of Railroad Commissioners, after a full investigation of the facts, a careful inspection of the locality, and an examination of witnesses under oath, finds that the management of the Old Colony railroad does not appear to be in any way responsible for the disaster; that if the rules and regulations of the road had been properly observed by employes it would not have occurred, and that Charles H. Hartwell, the conductor of a freight train, who was switching cars at that point, by his criminal negligence and disregard of well-known rules appears to have been primarily responsible for the catastrophe which caused so serious a loss of life and injury to persons and property. In view of these conclusions the Board has directed the arrest of said Hartwell for manslaughter."

Hartwell was arraigned in Quincy on Saturday, on a charge of manslaughter in causing the death of Patrick J. Reagan, the carsman. He was bound over in the sum of $10,000 to appear, and in default of bail went to Dedham jail.

Ruffianism at the West.

A despatch to the Indianapolis News says that on Monday night of last week seven negroes outraged four white women near Mount Vernon, Posey county, Ind. Thursday night Deputy Sheriff Oscar Thomas, while attempting to arrest some of them, was killed by Daniel Williamson (colored). Friday morning a mob of nearly 3000 gathered and shot Williamson, hanged two others and prepared to hang the rest.

Saturday night despatches gave further particulars. The women maltreated by the negroes were inmates of a vile den, and the negroes were of the most worthless class, one of them having just finished a term in State prison for rape, another having been a few days before acquitted of a murder of which there was no moral doubt he was guilty. Four of the negroes were quietly arrested and lodged in jail; the deputy sheriff was shot from a window in attempting to arrest a fifth, named Harris. Harris' father, sixty years old, was badly wounded and taken to prison. Great excitement was created, and an immense mob, armed with small arms and several cannon, collected. The jail was broken into, the old man Harris stabbed to the heart as he lay dying on a pallet, and the other four prisoners taken into the public square and hung.

At Tazewell, Tenn., a negro was detected in improper intimacy with a prominent young white lady, the wife of Jesse Rogers, clerk and master of chancery of the court of Clairborn county. Her relatives seized the negro, tied him to a mule and dragged him over the mountains, occasionally letting their horses step upon him. They burned his hands off, severed his muscles, and finally hanged and shot him.

A Coos Man gives the U. S. Authorities some Information.

One Russell, who pleaded guilty before the Circuit Court last week to a charge of selling liquors at Dixville without having paid a tax therefor, was sentenced to confinement in the jail at Lancaster for the term of thirty days and to pay a fine of one hundred dollars. The respondent intimated that he would prefer a longer imprisonment and less fine. The court stated that the law required both fine and imprisonment, and they had imposed the lightest sentence required by the statute. The respondent suggested that he was by no means so guilty as many in that region, who both smuggled and sold liquors, and he thought the fine for a first offence was fifty dollars. He evidently had confounded the State law and the United States laws, and takes thirty days' time to consider the difference. But he insisted that there were numerous cases of liquor selling for which no license was obtained, and much of it was smuggled liquor too, and he intimated that there was plenty of game to be found in the upper Coos if the Internal Revenue officers and United States Marshal would hunt in that region.

News and Notes.

The coroner's jury in the case of the Adelphi steamboat disaster at South Norwalk, Conn., in their verdict say: "We find that the steam boiler of the Adelphi exploded because of overwork and overpressure, legalized by a United States statute, increased, after shiftless inspection, and persistently used by the attendants in charge after sufficient evidence of dangerous defects."

The house of John Conquest, about two miles south of Clio, Michigan, was burned Thursday night. The charred remains of Mr. Conquest, his wife and child were found in the ruins, and a coroner's inquest shows they were murdered, and the house then burned to conceal the crime.

During a performance Friday night at the Coliseum theatre in Liverpool, Eng., a fight occurred under the gallery. The audience hearing, but being unable to see the disturbance became alarmed. A cry of fire was raised, when a terrible panic ensued, the people rushing for the doors and sliding down the pillars of the gallery on the heads of the occupants of the pit, where the posts impeded exit. Thirty-five men and lads and two women were suffocated. Many persons were severely injured.

Stephen M. Chandler, the eldest son of the Governor of New Brunswick, while returning from Sackville to St. John on Friday last, in getting out of the wagon near an embankment on the road stepped upon a small stone and pitched headforemost over the bank, striking on the back of his head and dislocating his neck, causing instant death.

William Morris, better known as "Billy" Morris, a noted negro minstrel, died in Boston on Friday at the age of forty-seven years.

Burgess, the notorious Bank of England burglar, was arrested in Niles, Cal., last week.

Mrs. W. C. Ernest, of Paris, Tenn., died recently in Louisville of yellow fever. Many brave men in the Union army well remember her as Nellie Chase, the hospital nurse, whose untiring devotion cheered the sick and wounded, and helped to save many lives. In the earlier part of the war she was with the Twelfth Pennsylvania, and afterwards with the One Hundredth, better known as the "Roundheads." Following this she was stationed in the hospitals at Nashville. After the war she married Capt. W. C. Ernest, and was residing at Paris, Tenn., when the fever broke out. With the old time heroic spirit still moving her, she nursed the stricken people until she was attacked with the plague and died at Louisville, where she was taken. Her husband, Capt. Ernest, died two days after the death of his wife.

The consul at St. Thomas telegraphs from Frederickstadt, St. Croix, to the Department of State, concerning the insurrection at St. Croix. The rioters are apparently controlled. About two hundred and fifty were killed.

A letter from Fort Custer says the bones of the soldiers who fell with Custer remain unburied, and some travellers have carried off skulls as relics, while others have rings and other trinkets made of the bones.

Mr. L. B. White of Holliston, Mass., was attacked in his barn by two tramps Thursday afternoon, who, after beating him, set fire to the barn and escaped. The barn was entirely burned, with sixty tons of hay and some stock.

Bill Longley, a Texan desperado, was hung at Galveston on Friday for the murder of Wilson Anderson in 1875. Longley had killed six white men and two negroes during his career of crime, besides shooting a number of others whom he did not manage to kill.

C. C. Bliss, of this city, has invented a novel arrangement for lighting stores with kerosene, which has been adopted by several of our merchants. The device consists of two tanks, one containing water and the other the oil. Seamless brass pipes lead away from the oil tank to different parts of the store, and the burning fluid passes through these to the lamp fixtures. The water tank is connected with the oil tank and is situated sufficiently high above the latter to force the oil to any point desired. It is a very simple and successful process, and there is no offensive smell from the oil.—Norwich Bulletin.

An English Order for York County Apples.

A year ago last winter L. J. Strout, while barrelling apples, sold to parties to be shipped to parts unknown to him, conceived the novel idea of ascertaining their destination by writing a letter and enclosing therein money to pay the postage on a return letter, and depositing the same in one of the barrels of apples, kindly asking the purchaser of that barrel to write him the date of the opening the same, name and residence of the purchaser, the price paid, the condition of the apples when opened, etc. In about three months from the time of barrelling the apples Mr. Strout received a letter from a merchant in London, Eng., saying one of his customers found the letter and passed it to him, and by him it was very neatly answered, giving all the desired information in regard to the apples, etc. Last winter Mr. Strout received a letter from the same merchant in relation to filling an order for Maine apples, but the quality and scarceness of the fruit last year prevented his filling the order satisfactorily to himself. This week Mr. Strout has received another order by cable for several hundred barrels as samples, from the same parties. As Mr. Strout will undoubtedly fill the order the English gentleman will no doubt be surprised at the size and quality of the fruit, which is this year probably a third larger than two years ago.—Biddeford Times.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. disept19 79

THE CITY.

A meeting of the Greenback Club will be held at Mercantile hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All greenbackers are invited to attend.

Mr. Alexander L. Raud has been drawn as a petit juryman from ward three for the third week of the coming term of the Supreme Court in this city.

There was no local ship news on Saturday. All the vessels that were in port took good care to stay in, and those that were out had to stop out. The blow was heavy on the coast, but the benefits of the generous rain will more than counterbalance any damage done by the high wind.

Herbert F. Norris, Esq., of Epping, the "Young War Eagle of the Democracy," and democratic candidate for Congress in the first New Hampshire district on an extreme repudiation greenback-inflation platform, is to speak in this city od Thursday evening at Franklin hall.

Benjamin F. Williams of this city has taken command of the barque Adolph Engler, of New York, of which vessel he has for some time past been chief officer, and sailed on the 10th inst. from that port with a load of grain for Bordeaux, France. Mrs. Williams accompanied him.

A telegram was received in this city Sunday evening stating that the schooner Free Wind, of this port, Frisbee master, was ashore at Vineyard Haven, coal laden, hull tight. No other particulars were given, but it is probable that she put in for a harbor, and dragged ashore during Saturday or Sunday morning's gales.

The Times of Saturday evening says: "Was the CHRONICLE so ashamed of the republican rally last night in Franklin hall that it had no heart to give it even the slightest mention in its issue of this morning?" We will answer as soon as the Times will tell us where the "sectional dock" came from that it says the U. S. S. Kearsarge is now in at the navy yard.

C. Dwight Hanscom & Co. sold at auction on Saturday at noon the two-tenement house Nos. 44 and 46 Hanover street, Mr. C. W. Robinson being the purchaser for $2147. The same auctioneers also sold the two-tenement house Nos. 8 and 10 Hill street to Mr. Jeremiah Sanborn, for the sum of $1369. Both these lots of real estate belonged to the late John S. Harvey, and were sold by the administrator to settle the estate.

The Boston Post has commenced to have "intelligence of the most cheering character from the Granite State" again. It always has such intelligence every year, up to the day of our election; the day after election the Post roosters generally stand on their heads, and will do so again this year. The rag-baby, on whose aid the "hard-money" democrats of this State counted and to which they most shamefully surrendered, has received a black eye in Ohio. The "Ohio idee," repudiated in the State where it first arose, is not going to carry New Hampshire for the democrats this time.

THE VICINITY.

The selectmen of Somersworth offer a reward of $50 to any person who shall apprehend and secure the person or persons who set fires on the premises of Thomas G. Jameson, Sept. 25th and Oct. 4th and 5th.

Some persons went to the premises of Mr. George L. Brown, of Hampton Falls, one day recently, took a bow saw belonging to him, and sawed in two a wherry belonging to Mr. Brown, at the river near the road.

Gen. Gilman Marston, who was colonel of the 2d New Hampshire regiment during the war of the rebellion, having been summoned to New York as a witness in the court martial on the Fitz John Porter case, left Exeter for that city on Thursday evening last.

The herring fishery was good last week on the coast just to the eastward of this port, the fish having "struck in solid." For several days some fifty fishing schooners were working in the vicinity of Wood island, near Saco river, taking from forty to seventy-five barrels each per night. The storm of Friday night and Saturday drove the schooners into port, and probably sent the herring off the coast again.

The scarcity of water has led to loud murmurs from all quarters. The mills at Rochester were last week run on three-quarters time, and a part of the mills at Great Falls on short time, owing to the low water in the river. The Great Falls Journal says: "The oldest inhabitants say that there was never such a scarcity of water in this village as at the present time. The wells are very low and many of them are entirely dry." The rain of Saturday was badly needed.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

On Thursday evening, at about twelve o'clock, three men went to the stable of Woodbury Locke in this city, and made arrangements with Daniel Low, a young man who works there, to take them to Kittery point, the price agreed upon being three dollars, and as they were strangers the fare was collected by young Low before starting. When near the point of destination one of the strangers said that he had dropped a five dollar bill on the stable-office floor, and accused the driver of picking it up, which he denied. Words and blows followed, but three to one was an unequal contest and young Low was overpowered and robbed of the three dollars which he had received from them, a silver watch and a silk handkerchief. It is supposed that the highway robbers were fishermen belonging to some of the schooners at anchor in the lower harbor, in which case there is not much probability of their detection.

MR. MOORE'S SPEECH.

Orrin C. Moore, Esq., of Nashua, addressed a fair sized audience in Franklin Hall on Friday evening, upon the somewhat hackneyed subject of "Greenbacks." Mr. Moore is known as the editor of the Nashua Telegraph, a daily paper, that has always advocated sound views in politics, and is ably conducted. Its editor has a laudable ambition to be elected to Congress, and at present is passing through the preliminary drill by a service in the legislature.

Mr. Moore speaks fluently, with a penetrating, not musical voice, is well up in statistical information, and strong in his convictions. The part of his speech it was our good fortune to hear dwelt mainly upon results of the issue of paper money by the nations of the old world. The man who goes to hear a stump speech in these days, when the present and future are discussed by the greenback men, who carefully ignore the past, as relating as well to the country as to themselves, wants to hear something practicable and relating to the future condition of the country. There is field enough for every orator here. The greenbackers promise all sorts of prosperity, if their projects can be adopted. Without a careful analysis of the proposition, this seems plausible to the man who gives it only a superficial view. The question is big with opportunities, not to rehearse the history of paper money at the antipodes, centuries ago, but to demonstrate the result of our own speculations while we were in the height of what was deemed prosperity but a few years ago, a penalty for which we pay in subsequent depression till the country again gets in proper trim.

Mr. Moore closed his speech by an exhibition in the subdued light of the stage of what he said were ancient coins. No one in the audience could see them but all took them in faith. When he reached the mite of scripture times, and told of the poor widow, we lost a part of the story by the voice of a democrat near by, who was endeavoring to hire a gamin to go round to James F. Jenness on Hanover street and inform him that here was a chance to add to his collection of rare coins, if he could induce the Nashua orator to part with this and the Herculaneum currency, after it had "run" through the present campaign.

ANOTHER VERSION.

Sheriff Kent, thinking it probable that some people might infer from a paragraph in the report of the doings of the Circuit Court of the United States, as published in Saturday's CHRONICLE, that he had caused to be sent to State prison two persons who were innocent, or at the worst not greatly guilty, says it is true that he was partly instrumental in the locking-up for two years of Frank L. Howard and Edward E. Eastman, but that they were not "induced to plead guilty" by any "advice" of his at all. He gives the following as the facts in the case:

Howard and Eastman lived at Farmington. Howard has a son by the name of John T. Howard, who manufactured the counterfeit coin, and was aided therein by his father and Eastman, both of whom were also engaged in passing the bogus stuff; there were also three other persons connected with this transaction, whose names are known to the sheriff and to the deputy sheriff at Farmington, and who will probably in due time come to grief. The evidence before the grand jury was positive, and there could have been much more of it given if necessary. Howard and Eastman told the sheriff they did not desire to contend with the government, and he so informed the United States attorney; the attorney did not wish to accept their plea, preferring to try the case, but finally, at the request of the sheriff on behalf of the men, did allow them to plead nolo contendere, by which course they no doubt saved themselves from a much severer sentence.

In brief, if Howard and Eastman "say they were induced to plead guilty by the advice of Sheriff Kent," they lie—not a very unlikely thing for counterfeiters and passers of counterfeit money to do, when you come to look at it.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Oct. 12; Batchelder, J.

John Sullivan and William Morrissey were arraigned on a charge of assault on Robert E. Foster. Sullivan was discharged; Morrissey was fined $1, costs $9.18.

AT THE FAIR.

The entries from this vicinity at the State Fair, held at Manchester last week, were not numerous, but the articles entered for competition must have been pretty good, judging from the number of premiums they received.

The only entry of cattle from this city was by Charles Hayes & Son, who made a display of Ayrshires, and working oxen, and took prizes as follows: for best herd, best bull, best cow, best and second-best three-year-olds, best and second-best heifer calves, best two-years-old working oxen. The Messrs. Hayes also exhibited five varieties of fruit, which we believe was the only entry of fruit from this city; the fruit show did not amount to much, anyway.

In the grand procession of town and county teams, etc., Wednesday, were nine yoke of splendid oxen owned by Hon. Frank Jones; and the first premium on county teams was awarded to Col. Frank W. Hilton, for Rockingham county.

The display of ladies' work and manufactured articles from this city was meagre.

Miss Mary E. B. Miller had on exhibition two portraits in oil, which attracted much attention and "universal admiration," (according to the Mirror,) and was awarded a silver medal; Miss Mattie E. Ayers, for carriage blankets, was awarded three dollars, the highest premium given in that class; and these were the only articles entered by ladies of this city, if the lists published are correct.

Jacob H. Haddock & Sons, for window shades, and Oliver H. Cook, for photographs, were each awarded a bronze medal.

Of residents in neighboring towns, J. C. Evans of South Hampton received a gratuity on six pairs of calves; A. P. Joy, of South Newmarket, took 1st premium on muskmelons and baldwin apples.

REAL ESTATE CONVEYANCES.

The following transfers of real estate in Rockingham county, have been presented for record in the office of the Register of Deeds:

PORTSMOUTH.

Joseph G. Barnard of Portsmouth, to the city of Portsmouth, land and buildings, $5000.

Hannah J. Maddox of Portsmouth, to Betsey Sherburne of Portsmouth, land and buildings, $50.

Isabella Ford of Haverhill, Mass., to Thomas Tredick of Portsmouth, land and buildings on Water street, $1040.

Oliver Shores, of Kingston, to Charles H. Mendum of Portsmouth, land and buildings, $1310.

HAMPTON.

Warren Dow of Hampton, to Simon L. Jenness of Hampton, meadow land, $80.

SOUTH NEWMARKET.

Sarah E. Bennett of South Newmarket, to George D. W. Robinson of South Newmarket, salt marsh, $5.

EPPING.

John H. Pike of Epping, to Mary A. Hazlewood of Epping, land, $500.

Naval Matters.

True E. Higgins, seaman, a deserter from the U. S. S. Powhatan, was arrested in this city Friday night and returned to the ship Saturday morning. The ship was intending to sail Sunday morning, but remained at her anchors on account of the weather.

Lieutenant Lyman G. Spalding, attached to the Enterprise at New York, is granted leave of absence for two weeks.

The U. S. S. Speedwell has been put out of commission at the Washington navy yard. Her officers are detached and placed on waiting orders.

Mate Hugh Kuhl is detached from the U. S. S. Speedwell, and ordered to return to duty at this navy yard.

Passed Assistant Engineer Nathan P. Towne is detached from the naval station at New London on the 10th inst., and ordered to the Richmond at Boston Oct. 21st.

—Chicken thieves at Pensacola, Fla., serenade the family they intend to rob, and while the inmates of the house are listening at the front windows to the musicians, the working members of the association clean out the coops in the back yard.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de chenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he doesn't move, how cum he diar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

A Health-Destroying Vapor

Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools, and marshy, low lying tracts. The true nature of this miasma is by no means clearly understood, but here are two facts in relation to it that are. The first is, that the periodical fevers which it breeds are of the most virulent type; the second is, that these maladies are rarely cured, although they may be ameliorated, by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wine-glassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. inov9

Such a combined effort upon the part of all its attaches is always made to please its guests, that the visitor to the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., is pretty sure to return.

The large sale of Adamson's Botanic Balsam is because when once used it becomes a household remedy. Children like it; it cures their colds and prevents the croup. Sold everywhere at 35 cts.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. inov9

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

—Five able-bodied Englishmen at Buxton, England, looked on unconcernedly while a little girl was struggling and drowning in the river Wye, in water two feet deep, lately.

—A letter passed through the mails recently, addressed to a gentleman in "the town in Jefferson county, New York, where beer is sold at three cents a glass." It promptly found its way to the right man at Carthage.

—The importance of knowing how to swim is exemplified by the fact that all the members of the Thorpe family, who were on board the Princess Alice, which was sunk in the Thames, were saved, because the girls as well as the boys were able to swim.

—"Dovey," he said, "I think I was telling you after I came home last night about the necessity of some retrenchment in our expenditures, was I not?" "Well, really, I've forgotten, John," she answered nonchalantly, "turn on the phonograph and see." He turned it on, and all it said was, "Whazzer, whazzer mazzer, (hic) mazzer, whazzer mazzer."

—Rose Fletcher was arraigned before Justice Murray in a New York police court, charged with drunkenness. "What have you to say, Rose?" asked the Court. "I was drunk, am always drunk and am going to keep on getting drunk until my death," replied the woman. "That's very bad," remarked the Justice. "You shouldn't complain, anyway. You make your living by it. If there was no rum, you would be out of work," said she. The judge sentenced her for six months.

—One of the American millionaires who have been doing the Paris Exhibition wanted some champagne with his dinner, but being unable to speak French and gifted at pantomime, made signs to indicate his wishes. Calling a waiter, he put his hands between his knees and made a fierce facial expression, accompanied by a hand movement as though he was pulling a cork, concluding with "fizz, fizz!" The waiter nodded that he understood, went away, and returned soon with a gun.

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and so just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. Its track is made in the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. 1feb20 79

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 192 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A prominent lawyer of Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat have reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & FILLMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. "It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost from twenty-five to twenty-

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH
SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Its measurements and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly established when the system generally and more particularly the blood, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive features of Catarrhal cases differ whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow, bland, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and back part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free nasal discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting a free ingress of the air to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate, to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and such pieces, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye is sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is so freely secreted as to blind the sufferer. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and symptomatic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting a Radical Cure, sent free on receipt of two three cent stamps. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vital importance to all afflicted with catarrh. Each is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaler, Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Mr. Tilden's Answer.

The public await with profound interest the answer Samuel J. Tilden may make to the attempts to cast odium upon him by recent publications of what purported to be cipher telegrams and their translations, addressed by and to intimate friends of his while the decision of the Presidential election was pending. * * Perhaps he preferred to see the whole indictment before pleading to it. This he should be permitted to do. It the Tribune has any more telegrams, or what purport to be telegrams, apparently involving Mr. Tilden in any questionable transactions, now is the time to lay them before the public.—N. Y. Sun.

How gently the Sun man can talk when speaking of his great "reform" candidate! The wildest lie of the most worthless bummer against a republican is instantly taken up by that paper, and with startling headlines paraded as proof of guilt, but how cautious is the Sun's expression, "what purported to be cipher telegrams," when Tilden's conduct is in question! The Tribune—a responsible paper, certainly, to sue for libel—the Tribune has repeatedly said its "purported" cipher telegrams are telegrams; it has told just whom they were sent by, and whom they were sent to; it has repeatedly called upon the senders and receivers for explanations, and repeatedly challenged them to deny their authenticity; it has even sent reporters to all the parties most nearly interested in the attempted corruption, except Tilden, and not one of the whole corrupt crowd dared say a word against the correctness of the Tribune's translations. The Sun need not fear; it can asssume that the "purported" telegrams are genuine, as it would have assumed without any proof at all, or even any semblance of probability, had Tilden been a republican and the Tribune a democratic paper; having assumed so much, it can give us another column about the Awful Brand of Fraud—big A, big B and big F.

—One reason why we accomplish so little in this world is because so much time is lost hunting up collar buttons of a morning.

—The Chicago girl says: "Mamma, just look yonder at that man we took for a stranger. May I never, if he wasn't papa last year."

—There is a prospect that America will presently once more behold a prince. The second son of the Crown Prince of Germany is about to start on a voyage around the world on board a German corvette. Prince Henry holds the rank of a lieutenant in the navy, but his father has specially commanded that he shall be treated like an ordinary cadet. His only privilege is that of having his own apartments, which have been newly but simply furnished.

—The defendant having been guilty of the offense of calling the plaintiff opprobrious names, as "thief," "robber," etc., is duly fined. He pays his fine and asks the judge: "Your honor, there is, I believe, a law against calling an honest man a thief; does the law forbid a man to call a thief an honest man?" "Of course not," replied the judge. "Then sir," says the defendant, turning to his prosecutor, with a triumphant air, "you are the most honest man I have ever met."

—A choice election scandal is talked about in Canada. At the close of the polls in the Minister of Justice's county, according to the story, the returning officer pretended to be sick, put the ballots into a sideboard, which he locked up, and went to see the doctor. A man with a lot of ballots had been placed in the cellar and a hole cut through the floor and the bottom of the sideboard. So soon as the coast was clear he came up, selected a sufficient number of opposition ballots, replaced them with Laflamme tickets, and vanished.

—A little school-girl of Washington stepped in at a confectioner's to buy five cents' worth of candy, the other morning. The clerk looked at the nickel and said, "Sissy, I'm afraid this money is not good." "Oh, but it is good," quickly replied the innocent; "it is good, because papa made it himself. Papa makes lots like that." A secret service operative, in search of "papa's" house, the bringing to light of counterfeiters' tools, the arrest of "papa," and such things, made the little one cry all next day and declare to her mamma that "never, never again, would she buy candy."

The Storm.

The storm of Saturday was disastrous to the coasting vessels, particularly to those in Provincetown and Vineyard Haven, and in the immediate vicinity of those places.

At Provincetown the fishing schooners M. L. Rogers, Maggie Powers, Queen of the West, Exchange, Nettie Hamblin, Bloomer and Crystal Wave, one coasting schooner, and sloop Augustus J. B., were driven ashore, and many others lost anchors and chains.

At Wellfleet schooner Abbie Frankford sank at her anchors, and several vessels went ashore.

At Brewster fishing schooners Kit Carson, Lizzie M. Hannum and Carrie G. Crosley, and a coaster named Brave, were driven on the beach.

Schooner Palos, Wooster, of Boston, was dismasted and filled with water Saturday night off Cape Cod: crew taken off Sunday, except one man who was drowned.

At Vineyard Haven more damage was done than ever before by a gale. Schooners P. T. Willetts, Howard Holden, James Watson, Francis Coffin, R. H. Shannon, William Penn, Mars Hill, Mountain Laurel, Hudson, Florence Newell, Abagail Haynes, B. C. Terry, Northern Home, George Walker, Monticello, Francis Ellen, Timothy Field, Telegraph, Free Wind, Rival, and some twenty other coasters, many of them coal laden, were driven ashore. Many anchors and chains were lost, a number of schooners dismasted or stove by collision, and most of those driven on shore were filled with water. But one life is reported lost, the steward of a vessel that was cut down by collision and sank in three fathoms of water.

Schooner Etta A. Stimpson, ice laden, capsized on Saturday at her anchors near Norton's shoals. The captain and his wife, and part of the crew, got on the bottom of the vessel. The captain's wife died Sunday noon, and the captain Monday morning. The mate was the only survivor.

The crew of Brenton's Reef lightship were unable to keep their lights going, and burned fire-balls through the night as warning signals.

A schooner went to pieces on Hawes shoal, and another one sank in the channel near Cross Rip lightship; no tidings of the crews—supposed all lost. A dismasted schooner rode out the gale south of Hawes shoal.

Three coal laden vessels were driven ashore in Edgartown harbor.

Schooner Clara Smith anchored on Nantucket shoals, drifted over the Horseshoe shoal and sank in nine fathoms. The crew took to the rigging, and were taken off after nineteen hours exposure by steamer Nereus; one man died from exposure, and his dead body was left lashed in the rigging.

The Recent State Elections.

We take from Saturday's New York Sun the following summary of what occurred at the recent State elections; and as that sheet is one of the bitterest and most unfair anti-republican papers in the Union, the summing up may be assumed to be as favorable for the democrats as the circumstances will allow:

Though the election returns from the West are not yet complete, they are sufficiently full for the purposes of an estimate of the losses and gains of the democratic and republican parties on their respective State tickets, as compared with previous elections.

The republican State ticket in Ohio seems to have received a majority over the democratic ticket of about 5,600. The estimates of the two parties vary in their statements, but the foregoing figures, we think are very near the mark. Last year Bishop, the democratic candidate for Governor, beat West, the republican candidate, by a majority of 22,500. Therefore the republican gain at the election of Tuesday on the State ticket, when compared with the result last fall, is 28,000.

The reports of the democratic majority in Indiana over the republicans on the State ticket differ somewhat. The fair average between them will place this majority of about 12,500. It may turn out to be rather more than this. The last general election in Indiana previous to that of Tuesday was in 1876, when Tilden carried the State against Hayes by 5,500. Taking these figures for the basis of the calculation, the democrats made a gain over the republicans in Indiana last Tuesday of 7,000.

The republicans of Iowa have beaten the democrats and greenbackers on the State ticket by a majority of about 15,000. It will be borne in mind that the democrats and greenbackers pooled their issues on the State candidates, and voted for the same ticket. Last fall they ran different candidates for Governors, when their aggregate vote was within a fraction of 8,000 below the vote cast for the republican nominee for Governor. In the light of these figures it will be seen that the republicans of Iowa have made a gain over their combined opponents on the State ticket of 7,000 as compared with the results of last year.

In West Virginia the basis for a calculation is less satisfactory than in the other three States, because no State tickets were run this year, and the returns on Congressmen are confused and incomplete on account of an unexpectedly large greenback vote However, the democratic majorities over the republicans on the three members of Congress appear to aggregate about 3,500. We think 4,500 would be a very large estimate. In 1876 Tilden's majority in the State was 13,700. Therefore, on Tuesday last the republican gain in West Virginia must have been more than 9,000.

It will be seen, then, that the net gain of the republicans over the democrats in these four States is 37,000. These results will attract the notice of the country because of their important bearing upon the next contest for the Presidency.

Private information from West Virginia, Saturday, indicated that Kenna, the democrat from the third Congressional district, who had 7000 majority two years ago, has been defeated by Walker, the fusion candidate. There is also a possibility from late returns that the democratic candidate is defeated in the second district. The democratic national committee, on the day before the election, claimed "democratic victories in Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia, and a democratic gain in Iowa." A week before the election the democratic committee reported that in Ohio the greenback movement would "draw the greater portion of its strength from the republican party. The remark is true of every western State, almost without an exception. From the present outlook of Ohio politics, the democrats are likly to have a good, clear majority on the State ticket." The democrats claimed thirteen Congressmen sure in Ohio, with a reasonable probability of two more; they secured eleven all told.

Revival of "Trade."

It seems to be the general impression in this vicinity that Dr. Chesley, the greenback candidate for Congress from this district, will "at the proper time" withdraw in favor of Mr. Norris, the democratic candidate, or else that Norris will withdraw in favor of Chesley. How well founded these suspicions of a trade may be we cannot say; but there is no apparent reason why the two candidates named should not "pool their issues," democrat and greenbacker standing on the same platform—unless the democratic platform is the stronger of the two in favor of unlimited inflation and virtual repudiation of the nation's obligations. We shall listen with interest to what Mr. Norris has to say on the financial question, Thursday evening in Franklin hall.

It is now rumored in Essex county, Mass., that E. Moody Boynton, the greenback candidate for Congress, will "at the proper time" step down and out in favor of Northend, the democratic candidate; by way of payment, the democratic gubernatorial vote is to be given to Ben Butler. Ben, it seems, was more successful in this case than he was in the Lowell district, where the first greenbacker to whom he made a proposal that he (the greenbacker) should be nominated for Congress, and at the end of two or three weeks withdraw in favor of Tarbox, whom Ben hoped was to get the democratic nomination, "blowed" the unscrupulous proposal in the convention, and another dummy, Richardson of Lowell, had to be put up.

News and Notes.

George T. Hathaway, the Fall River defaulter, was on Monday sentenced to ten years in the Massachusetts State prison.

Affairs in the East begin to look threatening. Russian troops are reported to be moving on Adrianople, and they have re-occupied points once evacuated, driving out the Turkish troops.

George Q. Black, for the last six years collector of the city of Wheeling, W. Va., is a defaulter to the amount of $1,943,938 to the city. He had at one time $70,000 of the city's money on interest in the bank in his own name, on which he drew the interest monthly. Mr. Black is an ardent "reformer."

Eugene A. Cronin, the Oregon lawyer who won such notoriety as a Tilden electoral college in 1876, died at Portland, Oregon, Oct. 12th.

Twenty-three prisoners escaped from the jail at Rochester, N. Y., Saturday afternoon.

In Deadwood, D. T., Sunday, a notorious woman named Mrs. Lovell had a pistol fight with a bar-room man named John Rogers, about the title of some ground. The woman was killed and the man mortally wounded.

Ex-Sheriff Van Blarcom of Hackensack, N. J., was thrown from his buggy on Thursday and suffered a dislocated neck, but still survives. Physicians pulled the dislocated bone in place, when consciousness immediately returned. Should he recover, the case will be remarkable.

A right whale eighty feet long was towed into Portland harbor on Saturday by a schooner that picked it up a few miles off the coast, dead.

New Hampshire Items.

The Unitarians of Keene refuse to accept their pastor's resignation.

The wife of Principal A. P. Kelsey, of the State Normal school at Plymouth, has just inherited the snug sum of $400,000.

The fish commissioners at Plymouth have received from the government hatching-house in California 400,000 more salmon eggs, which are expected to hatch during next month.

At a town meeting at Lebanon, Saturday afternoon, to see if the town would adopt the provisions of the local option cider and beer laws, the hall was decorated and the gallery crowded with ladies. Both laws were adopted by overwhelming votes.

Political.

The New York Tribune pretends that the disclosures it has to make, and will make when it gets ready, concerning the management of the "Tilden and Reform" canvass in South Carolina after the election was over, will throw the Florida performances of the ciphering coparceners entirely in the shade. How anything can be grosser or more corrupt than the attempt to buy the electoral vote of Florida for Tilden, as proved by the Tribune's cipher translations, we fail to comprehend.

Sayler, the notorious demagogue of Ohio, and Goss, who ran for Congress in the district in which Eph Holland and his repeaters elected the Bounding Banning two years ago, were each defeated by over a thousand majority in the late election. But both it is said propose to contest their successful antagonists' seats, feeling confident that "clerk Adams" and the "democratic reform House" can overcome a thousand adverse majority in their cases just as easily as they did in the cases of Belford of Colorado and Jorgensen of Virginia, and will give them seats to which they were not elected just as readily as they gave Dean of Massachusetts the seat belonging to Mr. Field.

Another instance of Butler's extreme love for the workingman has been found. The Cape Ann Granite Company, in which the general holds a controling interest, pays its quarrymen only $1.50 a day for eleven hours of work, and in winter it only pays them from eighty to ninety cents to work from daylight to dark. The sentiment of the quarrymen does not seem to be one of enthusiasm toward the general, and they would vote against him if they dared.

Mr. Haight, formerly member of Congress from New Jersey, requires disciplining. The democrats of Monmouth county have nominated a man who has just served a term in prison for a defalcation of $13,000, and Mr. Haight refuses to support him. He says that he is a party man, but that his allegiance to the democracy stops at the door of the jail. This is not the way to keep the democratic party together.

It is no small satisfaction to reflect that the two unmitigated demagogues, Sayler and Banning, will not occupy seats in the next Congress—that is, unless they should decide to contest the seats of some republicans elected by the people, in which case of course they will be admitted. True, Banning has not even been voted for; but it is not likely such a trifle as that would be considered by a "democratic reform House" when a democrat demanded a seat.

Randall comes in for his share of blame for the Ohio defeat. Democratic leaders are saying that the redistricting scheme was his, and would never have been attempted had he not insisted so furiously that it should be adopted. This is undoubtedly so, but it is unkind to speak of it now, as Randall has a first-class fight on his hands in his own district, with a possible defeat staring him in the face. Do be calm, Messrs. Democrats. You are in a bad way, it is true, but it won't do you any good to have a family quarrel.—Tribune.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

The Supreme Court convenes in this city to-day.

The cricket match comes off at the Creek to-day, game commencing at ten o'clock A. M.

The Powhatan sailed from the lower harbor for Boston at about half-past seven o'clock Monday morning.

The Boston Sunday Globe was for sale on our streets Sunday evening, having come down on a freight train.

Schooner E. A. Rowe, Capt. Edward Robinson, landed 14,000 lbs. of fish on Sunday, the proceeds of one day's fishing. Mr. John Dixon purchased the fare.

Col. Charles G. McCawley, commanding the marine corps of the United States navy, made an official visit to this navy yard on Monday and was received with the customary salute.

At the re-dedication of the Universalist church at Manchester on Friday evening, the prayer of dedication was given by Rev. E. M. Grant of this city, and the sermon by Rev. A. J. Patterson, formerly of this city.

The Times, in answer to our query as to where its "sectional dock" at this navy yard came from, refers us to "the last issue of the official Army and Navy Journal." We don't know of any such paper in the country; we exchange with the Army and Navy Journal, and an excellent paper it is; but we never suspected there was anything "official" about it.

A court martial is in session at the navy yard to examine into the charges against the marine, Lingard, who some days ago stabbed Capt. Marden of the ferry steamer Emerald, and assaulted special police officer Anderson. The court is composed as follows: President, Commander Henry Erben; members, Lieutenants Charles Seymour, Emory H. Taunt and Alton Goodwin, of the navy, and Major George Butler and Capt. William Wallace, of the marine corps; judge advocate, 1st Lieut G. B. Haycock, U. S. M. C.

The schooner Telegraph, of Thomaston, Me., Stevens master, bound from New York for this port with a cargo of railroad iron, was driven ashore at Vineyard Haven in the gale of Saturday, had her bowsprit carried away and received other damage, and was filled with water. The schooner Free Wind, of this port, already reported ashore at the same place, went ashore in the same gale, bringing up alongside another schooner called the Mars Hill; the Free Wind is badly chafed, but remained tight at last accounts; she was bound from Weehawken for Duxbury, Mass., with a cargo of coal.

THE VICINITY.

Work has been commenced on the new lighthouse on the Nubble at Cape Neddick, and it is expected that the light will be ready to exhibit before the winter's storms commence.

Before the Supreme Court at Alfred, Me., Saturday, George Bowden of York was convicted of assaulting the collector of York. Bowden's trial on a charge of arson was set for Tuesday, 15th inst.

Capt. Hodgsdon, Lieut. John Dennett of York, of the revenue marine, and Dr. H. H. Hutton, of the hospital service, have been appointed a board to examine into the qualifications of the life-saving crews of the first district.

Nathaniel Wiggin, Esq., of Greenland, is to address the citizens of Stratham at the town hall on Thursday evening, 17th inst., on the financial question. Ladies are especially invited to be present and hear the greenback doctrine expounded and advocated.

The Great Falls Journal talks as follows about the recent union fair at Dover: "If any of our citizens had been laboring under the hallucination that the late fair at the Granite State park was solely for the enlightenment of our 'horny-fisted sons of toil' in regard to agriculture, etc., a visit of ten minutes duration would have probably caused a change of views. More gambling, catch-penny shows have probably not been got together in this vicinity in a long while. Gamblers, tricksters of all sorts and descriptions abounded on all sides, and many shekels did they rake in from the pockets of our unsuspecting country friends."

EVANGELINE.

Concerning a recent representation of this extravaganza at Chelsea by the Stetson company, which will present it at Music hall to-morrow evening, the Boston Globe said:

It was the familiar extravaganza, music and all, with only a few changes in "business"—all in the line of improvement—and some well interpolated songs to distinguish the "Evangeline" of last evening from the many previous productions of that popular burlesque in this vicinity. Miss Louise Sylvester looked charming in the title role, and acted the part with vivacity. As Gabriel, Miss Nellie Larkelle appeared to good advantage, and she sang uncommonly well. It is pleasant to say that, though the company was new to Evangeline, for the most part the extravaganza had a capital performance. The choruses have hardly ever been better sung, and Maffitt, Josephs, Lytell, Tarr and the rest deserved all the applause that was given them. Without giving the cast in detail, it is sufficient here to say that Mr. Stetson has secured a good company, and one excellently adapted to increase the popularity of "Evangeline."

THE BRICK BUSINESS.

Capt. Wm. Card has a kiln at Dover point containing between two hundred and twenty-five and two hundred and thirty thousand bricks, to be burned when the wood for the same, expected to arrive in two schooners from Cape Neddick, is received.

Schooner Jesse Williamson, Jr., for Baltimore, and the Satellite, Capt. Adderton, for Boston, both brick laden, were at Portsmouth bridge on Monday, and expected to sail next day.

Schooner D. K. Ham is loading with bricks at John Mathes' yard in Eliot, bound for Boston.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, Oct. 12th.

The weather for the past week has been the warmest ever known here for this time of the year, the thermometer standing at 76 and 80 in the shade in some places. Many wells are dry, and water is getting very scarce.

We had a heavy thunder shower on Wednesday evening last, accompanied at the south part of the town by a smart tornado. On the South road eight pine trees in the woodlot of Joseph J. Jenness were uprooted, and S. B. Philbrick's rail fence blown down. An apple tree standing near Benjamin D. Batchelder's house was blown over, and fell upon and crushed to pieces the steps at the end of the ell of the house. Mr. Batchelder suffered by the tornado of August last, having sixteen trees blown down then; he now has but one apple tree standing on his premises. A tree near Nathaniel E. Jenness' house was torn up, his barn doors blown in, and some glass broken in the windows of the house. The squall was very short, and extended over the same course as the August tornado, but was not so wide as that. The ruins of the August tornado still attract visitors to this vicinity.

On Wednesday master Albert E. Seavey, son of Alfred V. Seavey, while unloading a load of corn butts stuck the tines of a fork into his hand, inflicting a severe flesh wound. He is doing well now.

The Rye cornet band, with many members of Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows, recently went to Portsmouth to attend the funeral of Bro. Elihu Dennett, a member of that lodge. On Thursday evening the band attended a concert given by Mrs. Knowles of North Hampton in the town hall at Stratham, and played some fine music to enliven the occasion.

The funeral of Miss Mary A. Bunker, who died on the 10th inst. after a short illness of typhoid fever, took place at the house of Frank M. Philbrick, on account of other members of Mr. Bunker's family being sick. The services were conducted by Rev. Willis E. Hadley, pastor of the Congregational church of this town, assisted by Rev. Mr. Haines of North Hampton, who spoke words of comfort to the mourners. Miss Bunker was universally respected and esteemed for her Christian character; she was a member of the Congregational church, and a teacher in the Sabbath school; and for many years had been teacher of a secular school. She took an active part in the temperance reform movement, was a member of the Rye reform club, and her death will be severely felt in the society and community. Miss Bunker's family has been sorely afflicted with sickness. A brother has been sick for two months with the same disease, and his youngest daughter is now dangerously ill with it.

On Friday the schooner Elizabeth, of Portsmouth, came into the harbor at Locke's neck and is being loaded with apples by Chesley Brothers of this town, who have purchased 2000 bushels which the vessel will take to Nova Scotia.

G. H. Jenness started on Friday with a party for Mt. Desert, Me., on a gunning excursion.

We have been visited to-day by a bountiful rain, which was very much needed.

Many of the democrats in town are much opposed to Norris, democratic candidate for Congress in this district, and it is rumored that not a few of them will go for Dr. Chesley, the greenback candidate.

SCRIBE.

A Health-Destroying Vapor

Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools, and marshy, low lying tracts. The true nature of this miasma is by no means clearly understood, but have are two facts in relation to it that are. The first is, that the periodical fevers which it breeds are of the most virulent type; the second is, that these maladies are rarely cured, although they may be ameliorated, by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this continent fever and ague exists. A wine-glassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

TAX NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all persons who have not paid their Taxes, that it is the duty of the collector on or before the first day of November, to issue notices to all persons whose taxes then remain unpaid, stating the amount of the same, and that if the same shall not be paid, with twenty cents for such notice, within fourteen days thereafter, the Collector shall distrain for the same, which order was passed by the City Councils on June 13th, 1878.

JAMES MOSES, Collector.

What It Means.

It is one of the phenomena of politics that the three greenback candidates for Congress in this State should be ex-republicans. It means simply that the democrats have been too smart for the republicans, and have handicapped their candidates in all the districts.

The above paragraph we clip from one of our exchanges in the interior of the Slate, and the "phenomenon" to which attention is drawn is certainly suggestive. That greenbackism is little more than another name for democracy everything tends to prove. The democratic platforms, State and Congressional, in New Hampshire, have been made as "soft" as possible, so as to hold the soft-money democrats to their old party; and the leading candidates of the greenbackers are taken from the republican ranks, with the double purpose of drawing to the greenback party "shaky" republicans who are displeased with the outspoken honest-money platform of the republican party, and repelling from the greenback party democrats tainted with greenbackism. The greenback movement in New Hampshire is merely a democratic side-show, like the labor reform movement of a few years since; and though it may (and it now looks as though it would) reduce the democratic party to the "scattering" column at the coming election, the republican who votes for it will vote just as the democratic managers of the movement would gladly have him.

—The woman that maketh a good pudding in silence is better than she who maketh a tart reply.

—A prayer meeting was in progress in the church in Mount Vernon, Ind., and a political procession, mistaking the lighted edifice for the hall in which a mass meeting was to be held, marched in with banners flying, to the music of a full band and gave three cheers for its candidate. The clergyman invited the politicians to remain "for their soul's sake," but they declined.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost is the one question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so from the utmost confidence in its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drugstore for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Your Anti-Fat have reduced her weight ten pounds in 192 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health. A great convenience." Another, Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me five and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. DOWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. '21 (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-six pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning point of my medical career. In its use, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottles.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, and I by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from a scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever reason they arise, may be thin and watery, so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow-ish, resulting in a foul odor, or they may be white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the membranes dry and feverish, the throat and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, swelling band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free mattery discharge causes the passages to be well and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The mucus passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into mostly incrustations and hard scabs, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye is sympathetic, becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most vicious neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting a cure with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on the state of the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of one dollar.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Political.

W. C. Hinton, a democratic candidate for Congress in Virginia, at a meeting Thursday night made some outrageous charges against the republicans, which were at once shown to be false by Col. Rolling, a republican. This interference with democratic privileges was properly resented, and Rolling was nearly beaten to death by Hinton and a gang of other ruffians.

Norwich stockholders in the Chicago & Alton railroad, which was outrageously swindled by Mr. Tilden, will be interested in knowing that, with a view to getting further data concerning Mr. Tilden's income on which he did not pay the tax, United States Commissioner Hayne, of Chicago, has been instructed to serve a subpœna on President Blackstone, with a duces tecum clause calling for the production of all bills and vouchers received from Mr. Tilden for services rendered as an attorney during the twelve years ending 1873. Similar papers are to be served upon the officers of all the railroad companies which were swallowed up by the Chicago & Northwestern under the manipulation of Mr. Tilden. — Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin.

Manton Marble, John F. Coyle, C. W. Woolley, Smith M. Weed and Samuel J. Tilden, now are severally demanding that Potter's committee shall be reconvened that they may be put on the stand to testify as to what they know about cipher telegrams. The great difficulty is that each insists on being put upon the stand first, they are all so anxious to relieve themselves of their burden of knowledge. If this statement not true, it would be were the "reformers" mentioned innocent of offence.

The fiendish crime perpetrated by two tramps upon Mr. White, of Holliston, will take something from the force of the resolution in favor of this class of "our fellow citizens" by the democratic convention of New Hampshire, and will go to make public opinion in other States in favor of the New Hampshire method of dealing with these pests of society. If the world owes every man a living, it is only on the condition that he shall earn it; and the most that he can demand of society is the opportunity to work for it. Men who tramp through the country, refusing to work, and demanding the means of subsistence, should be taken care of by the public, but in such a way that they will not have the opportunity to choose for themselves the means of prolonging their guilty existence. The danger from these people calls for severe measures of repression and self-defence.—Providence Journal.

The suits brought by the State of North Carolina against Revenue Agent Wagner and some twenty other federal revenue officers, on charges of excess of authority in making arrests of illicit distillers and persons engaged in fraudulent traffic in tobacco, tried before Judge Bond in the United States Circuit Court at Greensboro, have resulted in the acquittal of Wagner and all the others, except Jesse Hoskins, who was found guilty of using excessive violence in shooting a fleeing distiller.

Greenbackers appear to be scarce in Constantinople. There seems to be no practical limit to the amount of currency "based on the wealth of the nation," which is "flowing into Constantinople from every side," and yet the people are not happy. The objection to the money is the minor one that it has very little value, and the more there is of it the less valuable it becomes. There can, of course, be no parallelism between the condition of financial affairs in Turkey, with an inflated currency, and the condition of affairs we should have here with a similar "blessing." Turkey has been a misgoverned despotism, for years, while this is the land of the free, where the people rule. Still, it seems a little odd that unlimited paper money, which would at once restore prosperity here (according to greenback financiers,) does not have approximately the same effect in Turkey.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Bad State of Affairs.

A recent leader in the London Times, which has so often pointed out to protectionists on this side of the Atlantic that it was the ruinous policy of protection which had so crushed American industry, is worth the attention of those who believed the Times when it held up free trade as the panacea for all our troubles. The leader points out, what has been well known by merchants on this side, that the trade of the United Kingdom has been, for a long period, in a state of depression; that its imports and exports both have fallen off; and that, as a consequence, every conservative influence must be invoked to prevent the crash for which all the elements are in existence. It is stated on good authority that no less than five hundred blast furnaces, and over three thousand puddling furnaces are idle in England, and that it is highly probable they will never open again, owing to the loss of markets and changes in the modes of manufacture. For two years past stagnation in the markets and strikes in the manufacturing centres, have been playing havoc with the trade of the mother country. Those gentlemen who have insisted on attributing all the business depression and disaster on this side to the protection policy, may ponder with advantage the fact that the strongest commercial nation in the world, with all the advantages which a long-standing devotion to the free-trade policy can afford, is now passing through an era of bankruptcy, and feels the pinch of the period even more severely than we do here. In addition to the failure of the City of Glasgow bank for $50,000,000, many smaller but still enormous failures have occurred. Heugh, Balfour & Co., of Blackburn, have failed with liabilities of $10,000,000; T. D. Findlay & Co., of Glasgow, East India merchants, have suspended, with liabilities of over $1,000,000; and smaller firms, owing only hundreds of thousands of dollars, are going down like a row of bricks when the first one is pushed over. This great financial disaster to the United Kingdom comes, too, in spite of England having the larger part of the carrying trade of the world, on the ocean, with free trade in ships as well as in other things. The extreme free trade advocate in this country must certainly remodel the stock arguments which have done such good service for him in years past.

A Queer Performance.

It is asserted that the captain of the United States revenue cutter stationed at Port Huron, Mich., which went to the rescue of an American vessel which was in distress in Canadian waters, was fined $400 for going into those waters, but the Canadian authorities refunded $300, retaining the other $100. This is putting a good round tax on humanity.

The Yellow Fever.

The yellow fever continues to spread, and where it is raging less than formerly it is only because the material is used up. Jeff Davis, Jr., was on Monday reported to be dying with the disease at Memphis; Gov. Nicholls of Louisiana is prostrated by it at New Orleans; and Lieut. Benner, of the United States navy, who went down to Vicksburg with a steamboat load of provisions, has taken the fever there.

Major E. G. Wall, secretary of the Howards at Jackson, Miss., reported the total cases there up to the 10th at 89, deaths 17; death rate about one in 5 1-4 which is small considering the weather.

New Orleans reported at noon Monday, 183 new cases, 29 deaths; total cases, 11,720; total deaths, 3519.

Chattanooga, 14 new cases, 8 deaths; much destitution and suffering.

Helena, Ark., 75 cases under treatment; disease very fatal.

Baton Rouge, 96 new cases, 11 deaths.

Meridian, Miss., 143 cases and 36 deaths to date; disease spreading.

At Mobile, Pattersonville, Bay St. Louis, Biloxi, Fulton and other places, the pestilence continues to increase.

Did Tilden Know?

The New York Tribune says that a prominent democratic politician, an ex-State Senator, who was conspicuous as one of Mr. Tilden's supporters in the Presidential campaign, has expressed himself very freely in relation to the cipher telegrams.

"Did you hear of the existence of these dispatches before you saw them published in the Tribune?" he was asked.

"Yes, and after I first heard of them," he replied, "my confidence in Mr. Tilden began to wane. The full explanation of them in the Tribune must have required a vast amount of work and ingenuity, and it is one of the most remarkable exhibitions of journalistic enterprise I have ever known. It confirms what I thought of Mr. Tilden, and my belief that he used every means within his power to purchase electoral votes in Oregon, Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina.

"Do you believe that these dispatches could have been sent and received at Mr. Tilden's house without his knowledge of their existence?"

"On the contrary, I know that Mr. Tilden knew everything in relation to them. The late Mr. Orton, in reply to my question whether any of these dispatches were delivered personally to Mr. Tilden, assured me that Mr. Tilden had received many of them, and had read them before showing them to anyone else. I said to Mr. Orton that if Mr. Tilden had one particle of prudence, he would not have had these dispatches come to his house."

The Greenback Collapse.

The western nationals were, after all, playing what they would call a "bluff game," and scared the weak-kneed democrats on a very "thin hand." A comparison of their positive published "claims" before the election and the next result makes their movement ridiculous. The greenback national organs claimed a hundred thousand votes in Indiana, and three Congressmen. They cast in that State, where they are strongest, only thirty thousand votes, and with the help of the democrats, not by their own votes, elected one Congressman. They claimed one hundred thousand votes in Ohio, and three Congressmen; and they cast, as nearly as we can tell from imperfect returns, less than thirty thousand votes, and elected no Congressman. They claimed a Congressman in West Virginia, but elected none. Having made a combination with the democrats in Iowa, they claimed four Congressmen, but with the help of democratic votes managed to elect only two, and it is clear that if they had stood alone they would have got none. That is to say, they had not in Ohio and Indiana—the two States where they have the greatest strength—a third of the vote they claimed, and if it had not been for democratic help they would not have elected a single Congressman anywhere. It is absurd for them to talk any longer of a great popular movement. The tide is setting fast against them, and they have made their largest showing, and that amounts to just three democratic representatives elected by the assistance of greenback votes. That is all, and it is a pretty poor second fiddle.—N. Y. Herald.

News and Notes.

The total number of murders committed in Kansas by the savages on their recent raid was forty-three—twenty-three on Sappa creek, fifteen on Beaver creek, one on Prairie creek, and five near Republican river. The Indians carried away a large number of fine California horses from Wilson's ranche.

A severe fight took place Monday afternoon at Brigand Camp, Dakota Territory, fifteen miles south of Deadwood, between the sheriff and posse, and two road agents, in which one of the latter, Tom Price, was four times wounded, and fatally so, and fell into the hands of the authorities. His companion escaped. The sheriff kept on in pursuit, with the prospect of rescuing the treasure taken from the coach Sept. 26th.

The Riley-Davis scull race, fixed for the 19th inst., at Auburn, N. Y., has been abandoned.

The Eastern railroad ticket office in Danvers, Mass., was broken into Friday night, the safe blown open, and about $100 in money and some tickets stolen.

Mary Jane Campbell, twenty-five years old and unmarried, was burned to death by a fire in a boarding house at No. 33 Edinborough street, Boston, on Tuesday.

Prof. King, who ascended in a balloon at Scranton, Pa., during a violent gale Saturday, landed in the afternoon in Montgomery county, Pa., seven or eight miles from Norristown. The balloon was a complete wreck, but King was unhurt.

Miss Kate Coffman, who was called the belle of Grenada, Miss., and "the most beautiful woman in the south," is among the dead by yellow fever.

The Boston Herald says: The statement having been made that O'Leary has offered to walk C. A. Harriman of Haverhill, Mass., 24 to 144 hours, and that Harriman would not accept, the Massachusetts man desires us to state that Mr. O'Leary did not make a proposition, and does not mean to. On the contrary, Harriman has challenged O'Leary for the Astley belt, and has forwarded his deposit of $50 to Sir John Astley of London. O'Leary must give him a chance to contest for the emblem between now and next June or relinquish the belt. Previous to that time Harriman wants to aid in keeping O'Leary busy, and has offered and still offers to walk him a match of 25 to 30 hours, or 120 to 140 miles, for $1000 or $2000 a side; and in order to demonstrate that he does not wish to gain anything from O'Leary's well-earned reputation, he proposes that the winner shall take all the receipts of the gate money. Harriman evidently thinks that he can beat O'Leary, and means to try to do so if he can get a chance.

The handsomest woman in Europe is said to be the Queen of Italy.

Dunlap, the Northampton robber, was detected Sunday in an attempt to cut through his cell in the new Concord, Mass., State prison, but was seasonably discovered and placed in a solitary cell.

An Evansville, Ind., despatch says it is generally believed that Jeff Hopkins, one of the negroes hanged by the mob at Mt. Vernon, was innocent, and grave apprehensions are entertained of more trouble.

Wm. Ackerman, who has been employed as a clerk in the Boston post office for some time, was arrested Sunday morning by special agent Field. It is charged that Ackerman has been embezzling letters for some months back, many of them money letters addressed to the Advertiser, Herald and Globe.

The canning factory at Castine, Me., has engaged in a new enterprise, that of putting into cans fresh mackerel, in the same manner that clams and other fish are preserved. The fish are cut into sections, and in the cans resemble pickled cucumbers. Fresh tinker mackerel from Penobscot bay is a new commodity in the market, and may become as famous as Belfast clams.

Twenty-three vessels were wrecked and seven sunk at Vineyard Haven by the gale of the 12th inst.

Schooner Emma M. Fox, Capt. Vansant, was run into Sept. 26th ten miles off Cape Cod, by a barque, in a thick fog, and has not been heard of since; she is no doubt lost, with all hands.

Political.

The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says the cipher dispatches were in possession of Senator Morton, who received them from the late President Orton of the Western Union Telegraph Co., of whom they were demanded by the then Senate committee of which Morton was chairman. On looking them over he discovered their value, and found ciphers that involved republicans as well as democrats. Morton showed certain democratic bribery dispatches to two prominent Senators, the result being that the demands of Field ceased and the electoral count was proceeded with. The dispatches were probably retained with Morton's effects and obtained from them for publication. Several republican cipher dispatches between Furman, the Chandlers, Edmunds, Gov. Stearns and others relative to the Florida election and the count were then printed, and are now to be found in a public document.

It is announced that the democrats, greenbackers and independents of the Vermont legislature held a caucus Monday night, and nominated A. M. Dickey for United States Senator; also that the "straight greenbackers" held a caucus the same night, and nominated A. M. Dickey for Senator. What the difference is between the "democrats, greenbackers and independents" and the "straight greenbackers," is not made clear.

The Republican party still exists. It is still vigorous, compact, and on the alert. The republican party will go into the next campaign for the election of President with more than a mere possibility; with a fair chance, if we may judge from present appearances, of success.—N. Y. Sun, ultra democratic.

It is announced that Tilden is preparing a statement disclaiming all connection with and responsibility for any cipher dispatches proposing a corrupt use of money to influence the action of the returning boards or Presidential electors in the campaign of 1876. Something more than a "statement" is needed—a card from Charles Francis Adams, for instance.

If there be, in regard to currency, one truth which the united experience of the whole commercial world has established, I had supposed it to be that emissions of paper money constitute the very worst of all conceivable species of currency.—Henry Clay.

"The American people will never condone fraud! Never! Never!"—Gov. Tilden.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes this, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsep19 79

THE CITY.

"Evangeline" at Music hall to-night. See advertisement.

A very large partridge was shot on a tree in Mr. Elisha Tripp's garden on High street, Tuesday morning.

Public speaking in a campaign is a good thing, but it is quiet work among neighbors that makes and brings out votes.

Before Hon. Thomas E. Sawyer, Register in Bankruptcy, on Tuesday, in the bankrupt application of Cyrus L. Brown, at the meeting of creditors William H. Rollins, Esq., of this city, was chosen assignee.

Mr. William M. Thayer, formerly editor of the Portsmouth Times, and now night editor of the Boston Post, has been confined to his residence at Boston Highlands during the last week by a severe attack of pneumonia, but is now convalescent, and will resume his duties within a few days.

Isa H. Leveen of this city, a graduate of the High school, class of '78, and now a student at Andover, Mass., recently competed with 300 others for a prize offered by the Philomathean Society for the best essay on etiquette, and won it. The prize was a book of poems, which Master Leveen presented to the academy library.

The Eastern railroad will on Thursday issue excursion tickets from this city, Greenland, North Hampton, Hampton, Hampton Falls and other places on the line of the road, to Boston and return, for one fare only, good to go to Boston by any train on Thursday, the 17th, and to return by any train on the 17th or 18th. The object is to give residents along the line an opportunity to visit the great exhibition of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanics' Association, now open in Boston. A big excursion should result.

The members of the Granite State base ball club have arranged for a course of assemblies in Mechanics' hall, the first one to be held Thursday evening. We understand that the object is to raise funds to meet the expenses of the next season, and as the young men composing the club have given our citizens the opportunity of witnessing some very pleasant games, and have merited the approval of all by their gentlemanly deportment, they should receive a liberal patronage in their present enterprise.

GREENBACK COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of greenbackers at Mercantile hall, Monday evening, the following ward committees were selected.

Ward one, Marcus M. Collis, William Conn, Elisha Tripp.

Ward two, George E. Stearns, Stewart A. Sheldon, George A. Mudge.

Ward three, Thomas J. Sheldon, Thomas Lester, James W. Goodrich, William H. Haddock.

Ward four, Gardiner J. Greenleaf, James Janvrin, E. B. Grover.

James Janvrin was chosen chairman of the city committee, and George E. Stearns secretary.

SUPREME COURT.

The October term of the court commenced on Tuesday, Judge Stanley presiding; Judge Smith, who was expected to hold the court, being detained by the unfinished term in Belknap county.

The court finds 334 actions on the court docket, and 71 on the equity docket.

The forenoon was consumed in empanelling the grand jury, which was at once sent out under the direction of County Solicitor Harriman. The jury is composed of the following gentlemen:

Thomas E. Martin, North Hampton; Samuel S. Moore, Northwood; W. K. Seaver, Plaistow; William Jenkins, ward four, Portsmouth; Jay P. Brown, Raymond; Emery C. Jenness, Rye; Lester L. Hall, Salem; Abner Clark, Sandown; David E. Randall, Seabrook; John W. Forsaith, South Hampton; Daniel Lynch, South Newmarket; Ezra Barker, Stratham; Leonard A. Morrison, Windham; Stephen S. Shannon, Atkinson; Richard S. Clark, Auburn; Frederic Robinson, Brentwood; Edward P. Fisk, Candia; Benjamin F. Wilson, Chester; John F. Currier, Danville; Wm. A. Churchill, Deerfield; Arthur F. Learnard, Derry.

Frederic Robinson of Brentwood was appointed Foreman.

James W. Marden vs. Clara A. Marden, a divorce case, was heard in the afternoon. Divorce decreed. Page for libellant.

In case Geo. Janvrin vs. Jane S. Janvrin, judgment was ordered upon the report of referee decreeing divorce. Allimony was given to the libellee, and upon this question the libellant seeks to carry the case to the law term.

The court will take a recess until the grand jury reports, perhaps until Friday.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Oct. 14; Bufford, J.

George Eliot, for drunkenness, was assessed $9.90, fine and costs. He went to Brentwood.

TUESDAY, Oct. 15; Bufford, J.

Luella Marden, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was sent to Brentwood for three months, and ordered to pay $8.04 costs. If the statements of the police are one-half true, she ought to be sent to State prison.

Elisha Bellamy, of Kittery, for drunkenness, was requested to hand over $9.90.

THE CRICKET GAME.

The game of cricket between the Longwood club of Brookline, Mass., and the club in this city, at the Creek on Tuesday, drew a large audience, and proved very interesting even to the many who for the first time witnessed this pastime. The visitors included eight players (eleven is the full complement) in their team, which was filled up from Portsmouth players; the Portsmouth club, too, was rather a "picked up" one, but notwithstanding this the efforts of the players to give the lookers-on a day of pleasant recreation were very successful. The Longwoods went first to the wicket, and closed with a handsome score; the Portsmouth men then went in, and to the surprise of their friends led when the first innings was ended. A part of the second innings was played by the Longwoods, but as they could not stop to play it out, and the game is decided on even innings, the victory remained with the Portsmouth club. The following was the score:

Longswoods—fifty-four runs, six byes and four wides. Portsmouth, fifty-three runs, fifteen byes, four leg byes and four wides. Portsmouth's lead on total, twelve.

The Longwoods scored a total of seventy in the second innings, but it was lost as stated by the game not being finished.

There were many good points made by both parties; and though to many a cricket match might be less exciting than a game of base ball, it is a manly and interesting game.

THE VICINITY.

The post-office at Kennebunk Landing, Me., has been discontinued.

Senator E. H. Rollins addressed the citizens of Newcastle on Tuesday evening.

Isaac N. Andrews, of Concord, has been elected secretary of the democratic State committee, in place of Herbert F. Norris, of Epping, resigned.

Benjamin Durgin of Kittery, while blasting for a well at Union Bluff, Cape Neddick, was struck in the back by a rock, which inflicted a serious wound, which at one time it was thought would prove fatal. He is now recovering.

On Monday afternoon Frank Kimball, a brakeman on the Intercolonial railway, while intoxicated, fell on the track near the depot in St. John, N. B., and was run over by an incoming train. He was a native of North Berwick, Me., where his parents reside.

New Hampshire Items.

The Concord Savings Bank has suspended payment.

James A. Adjutant, a resident of Wolfboro, was instantly killed on Friday in Brookfield, by being run over by a heavily loaded team, which he was driving at the time.

A controlling interest in the Ashuelet railroad stock was sold on Saturday to large individual stockowners in the Connecticut River railroad. Over $150,000 changed hands.

—Lawyers are never more earnest than when they work with a will — that is, if the estate is valuable.—Boston Courier.

—Judge Simmons, of St. Louis, holds that street crossings are made for the convenience of persons on foot, and that it is the duty of the drivers of all vehicles, including street cars, not only to check their speed when any person is on a crossing, but to stop where there might be the least danger of a collision.

—An English schoolmaster caned a boy who bit another boy's hand, and when his father took the boy home sued the said father for a quarter's board and tuition, the quarter's notice not having been given. The judge said he would, had he been in the master's place, have done as the master did, as the boy deserved the punishment, and that there must be a very strong case of ill treatment against a schoolmaster to justify a parent in removing a child without notice. A schoolmaster was justified in using a cane, and it rested with his discretion to use it properly. Judgment was therefore given for plaintiff for £28 and costs.

—"A teacher who will preserve order or break heads" is advertised for by a Kansas School Board.

—Suit is to be entered if possible, for the dissolution of the New York elevated railroad corporation, and if successful the road will probably be dismantled.

—Lives of great men all remind us that the average captain never feels insulted by being called colonel; but it is safer, as a rule, to call them all general.

—The Russian papers have lately contained reports about a band of robbers which has appeared in the district of Paulovsk, in southern Russia, and has spread terror through all the neighboring region. It is said to be over 200 strong. The captain is reported to be a peasant woman of singular beauty, who was previously connected with a gang of forgers of rouble-notes. The Russian government is so desirous of procuring the arrest of this female chief that it has set a price of $11,250 upon her head.

—The latest in the collar line are celluloid collars. These articles never wear out, they are as flexible as paper collars, which they greatly resemble, and by simply rubbing them over with a wet sponge all dirt disappears, and a wipe with a dry cloth fits the article for further use. As celluloid is made of guncotton and gum camphor, a stray spark of fire may explode the whole thing, so great care is necessary. A York State smoker dropped a cigar spark on his celluloid collar recently, and the local papers say there wasn't enough of him left to carry off for a keepsake.

From Acute to Chronic

Is an easy stage in cases of dyspepsia. A slight attack of indigestion, especially when there is a predisposition to digestive weakness of the stomach, must speedily culminate in the most obstinate form of the disease. It is well, therefore, to adopt preventive methods early. Although Hostetter's Stomach Bitters overcomes, if persisted in, cases of dyspepsia of long standing, it is obviously the part of wisdom to use it ere the malady assumes a chronic phase. This is particularly true, because as dyspepsia advances, it engenders other bodily evils, such as disorder of the liver, constipation or undue looseness of the bowels, nervous disorders, hypochondria, sleeplessness. These maladies are both prevented and remedied by the Bitters, but how much better to check them in their outset with the great alterative, than to wait until they established a firmer foothold in the system. Surely the advisability of this must be apparent.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de house, wile in de evenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, if he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. nov9

A card from New Orleans, dated Sept. 21, 1878, shows thus:

The undersigned certifies that he held for collection for account of Messrs. L. Plum, 319 Broadway, New York, and that the amount was promptly paid on presentation of the ticket at the office of the company, by M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans.

The Fat Men's Convention.

We can see some pleasure, if no reason, in the convention of the baby show, but we confess we could never see the slightest cause, reasonable or otherwise, for a fat men's convention, unless it be the fact that misery loves company. For fifty or a hundred men, whose several weights range from two hundred to three hundred pounds, to hold a convention simply because of so much surplus avoirdupois, is absurd to say the least. It becomes doubly so when we reflect that obesity is a disease. What would we think of as many persons emaciated by consumption holding a convention to compare their relative weights. There is but one ground upon which we would advocate another fat men's convention, and that is that they will meet to discuss the merits of Allan's Anti-Fat, the only known remedy for obesity. It is safe and reliable. Sold by druggists.

—"O Lord, bless me and make me the boss little girl," is the supplementary supplication of a Boston girl.

—A Mr. Kitchen has been nominated for Congress in Georgia. He is expected to cook his competitor's goose.

—A dollar bill which does not represent a dollar is like a Congressman who does not represent a constituency.—Lowell Courier.

—The time will come when you won't have to leave the theatre between acts to go out and "see a man," Edison is experimenting on waves of light sent thro' the telephone, and says that "before a year I will make you see a man a thousand miles away."

—It is told of Daniel Webster that he was fishing one day when meditating his Bunker Hill speech. As he pulled up a tautog of phenomenal weight and corresponding age he imagined it to be an old soldier of the Revolution, and holding it up before him dangling on the hook he apostrophized it thus: "Venerable man! Thou hast come down to us from a former generation. We welcome thee to the light and glory of this auspicious day."

GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing fully its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it accepting to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your patient have reduced her weight from 192 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman from Boston, Mass., says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat have lost me 32 pounds and reduced 4 inches in waist." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGGETTE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. FOWSLE & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who uses Allan's Anti-Fat. 'I (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-four pounds, and I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlets on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Sleeplessness, Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Prolapsus, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a work of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital force exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the one and car are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the mucous membrane in the internal cases from whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to produce redness and excoriation of the parts with which they come in contact, or thick and yellowish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and superior part of the head feeling stretched, tight, as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free watery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard masses, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, beside being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, larynx and tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is separated, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vital importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

A Facetious Editor.

Greenbackism, by which we mean the advocacy of an unlimited and irredeemable currency, is not a permanent element of our politics. As time passes, the errors of judgment into which so many have fallen will pass away, and when those who have gone into the greenback movement honestly, leave it, those others who have entered it as a short road to office will also desert it. This is only a question of brief time.

Such being the probabilities, it would be suicidal in the democratic party to allow a line to be drawn between itself and the republican party upon the issue of "hard" or "soft" money, with the republicans supporting the former. The republican leaders are, even while secretly negotiating with the nationals in reference to the fall elections, endeavoring to so order the campaign as to induce or force the democratic party into supporting "soft" money. The only chance the republicans have for success in 1880 depends upon the drawing of the lines as stated.—Times.

We can and do fully endorse the first paragraph of the above extract from the Times; but what a facetious fit our neighbor had on when he wrote the second paragraph. The suggestion that the republican leaders are "secretly negotiating" with the greenbackers, and "endeavoring to induce or force the democratic party into supporting 'soft' money," is rich indeed, when it is remembered that the republican conventions all around have adopted the hardest of hard-money platforms and nominated only outspoken hard-money men, while the democratic conventions have almost universally adopted platforms to suit the greenbackers, and nominated men that the greenbackers are satisfied with, in many instances adopting the candidates previously nominated by the greenback conventions. Even the partial defeat of the republican party in Maine by the greenbackers, though the democratic party was reduced to the third position, was hailed as a "democratic victory." There is no need of the republicans endeavoring to "force the democratic party into supporting soft money," at [illegible] that party is fully committed to greenback inflation already, and the only way a man can vote for honest money in New Hampshire this year is to vote the straight republican ticket, State and Congressional, and all the way down to fence viewer.

The War of Races.

A courier arrived at Natchez, Miss., on the 15th inst., from Waterproof, La., and reported that 2500 armed negroes had surrounded Waterproof and threatend to burn and sack the town. It was supposed they had burned up Senegos place on Lake St. John, four miles below Waterproof. A call for arms was made on Natchez, and one hundred men left there on the ferry-boat to aid the whites at Waterproof if needed.

That is the first account; the next one will probably be that the negro rioters have been quelled after a desperate fight; and finally we shall probably find out that some hundreds of desperate and unscrupulous negroes have gotten themselves killed in the most barefaced manner for the purpose of throwing odium on the whites, and that two whites were almost wounded in the furious conflict.

Then there will be peace—and a solid democratic vote on election day.

Prohibition State Convention.

The New Hampshire prohibitionists met in State convention at Nashua on the 15th inst. Eleven delegates with proper credentials, and about thirty irregular delegates who were allowed to vote, composed the convention. This little convention showed its willingness to do what it could toward securing a democratic victory, which the prohibition movement has always aimed to do in the past, by nominating Asa S. Kendall for governor; David Heald of Milford, J. M. Fletcher of Nashua, and Ira Swett, were nominated for railroad commissioners; no other nominations were made. During a discussion it was observed that the prohibition party might be absorbed by the greenback party, should the latter extend an inviting hand, which suggestion shows exactly the animus of the extreme prohibitionists, who are and always have been more eager to defeat the republican party than to advance temperance principles, notwithstanding their loud professions.

The Conciliated South.

How the "great and good Hampton," governor of South Carolina, is "protecting" the republicans of that State in the exercise of their political rights, is shown by numerous letters received in Washingington, all representing that the democrats absolutely refuse to allow republican meetings to be held without dividing the time with their opponents. At the same time the democrats absolutely refuse to divide the time at their meetings with the republicans. The democrats enforce their demand for a division of time with the republicans by the aid of the State militia companies, armed with guns furnished by the United States government at the request of Wade Hampton and Senator Butler! All the accounts agree that the democrats are trying to terrorize the republicans, and that Wade Hampton is doing nothing to protect the latter in their rights. In the district represented by Congressman Sneall the democrats have a body of fifty armed men organed to ride to every point where a republican meeting is called, demand a division of time, and when this is refused they boldly break the meeting up.

The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist insists that the democrats of South Carolina shall defy the lawful direction of the Attorney General of the United States in regard to conspiracies against the political rights of the citizens, and shall continue to disturb, and, if need be, break up the republican meetings. The advice is equally plain and peremptory. Republicans are not to be allowed to hold meetings without the presence and participation of democrats. What that participation is, is well understood. It is the attendance of armed men who will not allow a word said which does not meet with their approbation; it is the warning of citizens not to join in the meetings; it is the threatening of life if they do; it is the savage assaulting of those who are conspicuous in proclaiming their intention to vote the republican ticket; it is armed and violent defiance of the law, and, in the last resort, assassination. The issue is clearly defined. It is, pure and simple, whether the government of the United States can and will protect its citizens in their constitutional rights, when those are rights which it is authorized and required to conserve and defend.

The Charleston (S. C.) News is abandoning its conservative tone, and talking in this fashion: "There are specks of trouble in Sumpter and in Williamsburg, growing out of the refusal of the radicals te give the democrats the right which the democrats concede to them—the right to be heard at every political meeting. Nothing serious can happen unless the radicals try the Cainhoy business again, and there are no restraining orders from democratic quarters this year. Rosewater remedies have no effect on such rascals as Lee and Swails, for instance. The heroic treament is the only mode by which they can be cured, and their followers be set free. The cry in 1876 was, Hampton or Revolution! And the cry now is that every county in South Carolina must and shall, at every hazard, be torn from the grasp of the radical rogues and robbers who still hold or aspire to public office in this State."

At Georgetown, South Carolina, October 7th, the democrats and republicans were each holding a meeting. The democrats were uniformed in Confederate gray and in Hamburg Butler's emblem, red shirts, with sabres and pistols. One of the democratic speakers advised his hearers in these word: "Exterminate the republican leaders. Blot them out. Kill them." Immediately, according to the reports of a witness, the democratic cavalry proceeded to the republican meeting, dashing up with their swords and pistols and ordering it to disperse. They then tore down the United States flag with their sabres, trampled it under foot and tore it in shreds.

Evidently the rebellion did not end at Appomattox, notwithstanding all the gush of the conciliationists.

The Charleston News and Courier (democratic) of the 14th inst. prints a letter giving an account of the assembling of several hundred armed bodies of "red shirts" with a battery of artillery, at Sumpter on the previous Saturday, the forces coming from three counties. The republican meeting for that day was not held, and a republican named Coghlan, on attempting to speak, was threatened and a small body of negroes driven away and dispersed. The letter says Coghlan drew a revolver to protect himself, when over 500 rifles were levelled at him. A cannon was loaded with ten-penny nails and made ready to fire, when several democratic leaders "heroically interfered and prevented slaughter, the town of Sumpter soon assuming its usual quietness."

News and Notes.

Rev. H. H. Hayden, charged with the murder of Mary Stannard in Madison, Conn., has been indicted by the grand jury at New Haven for murder in the first degree.

The large two-story grain warehouse in Lowell, Mass., owned by S. N. Woods & Co., fell with a loud crash Tuesday afternoon. The men working in the building, had a narrow escape with their lives, the debris forming a tunnel at the spot where they were working, enabling them to get out. The building was heavily stored with grain and flour at the time, and the corner support giving way, caused a collapse of the entire building.

Dispatches from Mexico say that the country is quiet and business improving. The trial of General Escobedo has been suspended on account of his illness. The campaign ordered by the Mexican government against the Lipan and Kickapoo Indians, whose border raids were especially annoying to the United States, has ended successfully after much work. President Diaz has ordered a similar campaign against other troublesome tribes.

The town of Belleville, Esmeralda county, Cal., was almost entirely destroyed by fire on the 16th inst.

Special agents of the post-office department report that five members of the famous Round Rock gang of mail robbers of Texas have been captured; also, the arrest of one of the ringleaders of the gang of highwaymen recently engaged in robbing the stages and mails in Arizona, and the capture of several of the murderous gang of stage robbers who for some weeks infested the route between Cheyenne, Wyoming and Deadwood.

Mr. Cyrus W. Field promised the village of Williamstown Mass., four hundred dollars after the last fence on the village street had been taken down. All but one had been removed, but the owner of that obstinately refusing to yield, about midnight on Thursday a band of one hundred and fifty disguised men removed the fence, and piling the material up in the centre of the park in front of the house, burned it.

J. H. Burke, a stockholder of the Consolidated Virginia Mining Company, has brought suit in California to recover from J. C. Flood, J. W. Mackey, J. G. Fair and the Pacific Mill and Mining Company, $26,000,000 alleged to have been wrongfully diverted from the stockholders of the Consolidated Virginia by the defendants in the manipulation of ores and the retention of tailings of the company.

Arthur Cheney, the well known theatrical manager, is dead.

Lena Fick, a German woman of Bridgeport, Conn., and her seven-years-old daughter, have disappeared, and it is believed the mother has committed murder and suicide, which she had threatened to do.

Peter H. Bentzen, mate of ship James E. Ward, was killed on Tuesday by a sailor named Stevenson, just after the vessel left Tybee, Ga. The vessel put back, and the dead mate and sailor were sent to Mobile.

New Hampshire Items.

John L. Kelley's saw mill and carpenter shop, occupied by Dresser & Babbitt, on the outlet of Webster Lake, half a mile above West Franklin Village, was totally consumed on the night of the 15th inst. by fire, while both fire companies were in the East Village, two miles from the fire, celebrating the annual firemen's ball. The fire was evidently incendiary, as the premises had not been used for some weeks by reason of drought. Loss $7000; insured about $5000.

At a meeting of the Governor and Council on the 15th inst., the following were appointed members of the Board Agriculture: Wm. H. Hills of Plaistow, Hiram Parker of Lempster and Albert Demeritt of Durham. Mr. Parker was a reappointment.

E. Jennie Moulton has recovered a verdict for $1000 and costs against the city of Manchester on account of a broken arm caused by a defective sidewalk. The city authorities pay Mrs. Emma A. White $3500 and costs, without trial, for injuries caused by falling on a slippery sidewalk.

The Father of Tom Thumb.

The story of the father of Charles Stratton, known as Gen. Tom Thumb, living at present somewhere in poverty, while his son is surrounded with luxury, is one of those silly canards that are often set afloat in the newspapers. He died some years since at Bridgeport, Conn., and from the costly set of furniture in the bed-room of Mr. and Mrs. Thumb, at their cottage home, presented by him, it would not appear that much if anything like poverty attached to his latter days. B.

Political.

The Vermont legislature on the 15th inst. re-elected Hon. Justin S. Morrill as United States Senator, Hon. Lake P. Poland having withdrawn his candidacy.

The democratic State convention of Rhode Island was held in Providence on the 15th inst., and nominated A. J. Barnaby for Congress in the 2d district, and Edward Bronson in the 1st; there is no election of governor in that State this year. Hard-money resolutions were introduced, but the democrats of Rhode Island have no more principle than those of New Hampshire, and the convention adjourned without the adoption of any platform at all.

John K. Tarbox was nominated for Congress by the democrats in the Lowell district of Massachusetts on Wednesday. This is according to Ben Butler's programme, and Richardson, the greenback candidate, will withdraw in Tarbox's favor "at the proper time." It remains to be seen whether Tarbox can fulfill the other part of the contract, and hand over the democratic vote to Butler.

Manton Marble is out in a card, published by the New York Herald of Wednesday, the 16th inst., in which he denies having taken any part in the attempt to buy the electoral vote of Florida for Tilden, and denounces the cipher telegrams—or one of them—ascribed to him as a forgery.

Charles Francis Adams, the self-constituted judge of the motives and actions of all inferior beings—which means all the human race except Charles Francis Adams—has not yet read the cipher dispatches.

Sunset Cox has announced himself as a candidate for Speaker, and is so confident of an election that he has ordered a new gavel of such proportions as he can lift easily. That used by Randall is too unwieldy for his use.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Twelve schooners, most of them laden with coal, arrived at this port on Wednesday, 16th inst.

The Kearsarge flute and drum corps has reorganized under the former leader, Mr. Abraham Kay.

Col. E. G. Pierce, of New Hampshire, arrived in this city yesterday, and is stopping at the Imperial—Washington Republican.

Excursion tickets to Boston and back over the Eastern railroad for one fare, today; good to go up by any train to-day, and to return by any train to-day or to-morrow.

Harper's Magazine for November is ready for delivery by W. G. Myers and Moses Brothers. It is up to the usual standard of excellence. Copies for sale at the places above mentioned.

Two young men were arrested in this city on Wednesday for a felonious assault on a girl about fifteen years old. One of the parties confessed to a simple assault, and wished to settle the affair.

Mayor Sise was in consultation Wednesday with Mr. Simmons, the government contractor who has done the dredging of the Cocheco river, in reference to the cleansing of the south mill pond.

Mrs. Henry H. Ham of this city met with a painful and serious accident on Wednesday evening, slipping on the steps of a house and breaking both wrists, besides receiving injuries to her head.

The following named persons have been drawn from ward one to serve as petit jurors at the present term of the Supreme Court in this city. William Conn, William F. Batten, Hiram B. Lord.

The pedestrian through Middle street sees the repairs upon the sidewalk and returns grateful thanks, while those bound to Miller avenue appreciate the improvement near the corner of that throughfare, the same street.

Drake and Webster, the "liquor spotters," were in this city on Wednesday; they were closely watched by the saloon keepers and their emissaries, and it is rumored that counter charges will be brought against them if the liquor dealers are prosecuted through their agency.

At a recent examination of students attending Brown University in Providence, R. I., "for excellence in the preparatory mathematical studies," Arthur Edward Gage of this city, a graduate of the high school, took the second prize of twenty dollars. Mr. Gage did not know of the examination until the day on which it occurred.

The schooner John Bracewell, coal laden, came up the river on Wednesday morning and proceeded to Dover in tow of the tug Mystic. This schooner is to load with three thousand barrels of apples on her return trip. The schooner M. E. Eldredge came up at the same time in tow of the tug Clara Bateman, having a cargo of coal consigned to C. E. Walker & Co., and was berthed at Concord railroad wharf.

The Republican State Committee assigned Judge Charles E. Batchelder of this city to the following named places to speak during the campaign: Newport, Oct. 14th; Charlestown, 15th; Lyme, 16th; Monroe, 17th; Groveton, 18th; North Stratford, 19th, afternoon; Colebrook, 19th, evening; Milan, 21st, afternoon; Gorham, 21st, evening; Lancaster, 22d; Whitefield, 24th.

The U. S. S. Ticonderoga at the navy yard presents a fine appearance, with her masts on end and her top-sail yards across; she is being rapidly fitted for sea, and will leave for the coast of Africa about the first of December. The Kearsarge, in the dock, is being calked, and is to have a new suit of copper; she will be ready not a great while after the Ticonderoga; her destination is not yet announced.

Portsmouth is well represented in Seabrook just now. Rev. Wm. A. Rand, the Congregational minister of South Seabrook, and Rev. Mr. Berry, the Methodist minister, are both natives of this city. Miss Ella A. Newton, daughter of Mr. Wm. C. Newton, teaches in the lower room, and Mr. Moses Yeaton, Jr., in the upper room of the graded school at South Seabrook; both these teachers are graduates of Portsmouth high school, and are spoken of in the highest terms as instructors by the parents of their pupils.

John Currier, Jr., of Newburyport, launched his 94th vessel on Tuesday, the 15th inst. She measures 1650 tons, and has not yet been named. She is owned by Thayer & Lincoln of Boston, Capt. Andrew Mack, who will command her, and others. Capt. Mack was a former resident of this city, and for some years commanded the ship Yosemite, formerly of this port.

The Eldredge Brewing Co.'s lager beer brewery is progressing finely. Two stories are up, and the gang of workmen has been largely reinforced, that the brick work may be finished before cold weather sets in.

THE FREE WIND.

A private letter written from Vineyard Haven to a friend in this city by one of the owners of schooner Free Wind, of this port, Frisbee master, before reported stranded at Vineyard Haven in the great gale of the 12th inst., under date of the 14th, has been handed us "to make an item of if thought of sufficient interest," and we make an item by publishing the whole of it, as follows:

I arrived here this afternoon, went aboard the vessel, and find her tight. I do not think she is in a very bad place; in fact, considering the circumstances, think she is pretty lucky. We shall commence to-morrow to discharge some of the coal to lighten her; expect the insurance agent here to-morrow, but shall call a survey and get to work without waiting, as every moment counts here, there are so many vessels ashore and the workers' ideas creep up so fast on prices. I never saw so many vessels ashore at once, and there must be a very heavy loss of property. Saw Capt. Talpey, of the Clara E. Simpson, and Capt. Staples, of the M. E. Eldredge; both here and rode out the gale without much of any damage. The Eldredge dragged some. We can't tell how much the damage to the Free Wind is until she comes off; think one of the pintles of the rudder is broken, and the other may be. The chances are she will have to go to New Bedford to be calked some. Capt. Frisbee went out in his boat with one man during the gale after he was ashore, and saved the lives of three men at the risk of his own life; one of them was the captain of one of the vessels; they were on a boat that was bottom up, and completely exhausted when rescued. It must have been an awful storm here, from what they all say about it.

THE VICINITY.

A barn containing thirty tons of hay and farming tools, belonging to Seth Watson, near Dover, was burned about midnight on the 15th inst.; loss $1000; partially insured.

A boat race for the championship of the Saco river took place at Saco on the 15th inst., there being twelve starters. The race resulted in a dead heat between Charles Johnson and George E. Hight.

Sarah Nolan fell down the elevator of one of the mills at Newmarket on the 15th inst., a distance of thirty-five feet, breaking her jaw in two places, dislocating her hip and ankle, and receiving severe bruises about the head. Her injuries were fatal.

The New Hampshire Pastoral Society met at Exeter on the 15th inst.; president J. N. Chase of Exeter in the chair; Rev. C. A. Towne of Dover delivered the annual sermon. It was voted to dissolve the society and form a new organization under the name of the Conference of Baptist Ministers of New Hampshire; Rev. E. E. Cummings of Concord was chosen president of the new society, Rev. E. C. Spinney of Concord vice president, and Rev. Noah Hooper of Exeter secretary and treasurer.

Dover's firemen had a jollification on Tuesday, the 15th inst., when they received as guests the Naiad Queen steamer company of Newburyport. In the forenoon the Dover companies and visitors paraded the principal streets. In the procession were the steamers Cocheco and Fountain, the hook and ladder Lincoln, and the hand engine Tiger, of Dover, and the visiting steamer Naiad Queen. The steamer trial between the Cocheco and Naiad Queen was won by the latter, which threw a stream 214 1-2 feet. A grand firemen's ball took place in the evening.

—Strauss shows which way the waltz goes.

—About this time the man who keeps a few valuable account books at home, is pleased, upon reference to them, to find them full of fern leaves and flattened caterpillars and such, which the dear girls are pressing.

—A man at Fulton, N. Y., recently laid his finger on the table in front of a buzz saw to feel the momentum of the air. The saw was going so fast that the teeth could not be seen. His finger was taken off. While he was looking at it the fireman came up with the question, "How did you do it?" "Why, I put my finger down so," answered he, placing the other forefinger, as he thought, well away from the teeth. To his horror, the saw took off that one, too, at the second joint.

—Men whose business is looking up.—Astronomers.

—At a barbecue at Silver Creek, Ga., last week, eighty-four sheep and thirty oxen and hogs were roasted.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

From Acute to Chronic

Is an easy stage in cases of dyspepsia. A slight attack of indigestion, especially when there is a predisposition to digestive weakness of the stomach, must speedily culminate in the most obstinate form of the disease. It is well, therefore, to adopt preventive methods early. Although Hostetter's Stomach Bitters overcomes, if persisted in, cases of dyspepsia of long standing, it is obviously the part of wisdom to use it ere the malady assumes a chronic phase. This is particularly true, because as dyspepsia advances, it engenders other bodily evils, such as disorder of the liver, constipation or undue looseness of the bowels, nervous disorders, hypochondria, sleeplessness. These maladies are both prevented and remedied by the Bitters, but how much better to check them in their outset with the great alterative, than to wait until they established a firmer foothold in the system. Surely the advisability of this must be apparent.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. mov9

Travellers often wonder why their fellow-travellers are so loud in their praise of the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, but, after a visit themselves, they are satisfied of its famous excellence.

Why throw away so much money trying worthless medicines, when for 35 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure coughs, colds, sore lungs and croup? Give it a trial. Adamson's Balsam will do it.

Some of the new styles of Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs introduce a style of finish with embossed gold bronze ornamentation, by a new process; at once the most elegant and chaste finish yet employed on such instruments. Prices are very low for such workmanship.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. mov9

What will the irredeemables do with Canada, Cuba, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa? They trade with us nearly $1,200,000,000 a year, counting imports and exports. They have always stuck to a coin basis and will stick there. They will not touch your "absolute money" of paper with a ten-foot pole. They will laugh at it as you would at the red savage's money of shells if he should offer it in trade to day. What will the irredemables do with California, Nevada, and Oregon? They are States in our Union, subject to the present law making greenbacks a legal tender, but they utterly refuse to obey it. They have stuck to gold coin as the basis of all their finances. They now refuse to acknowledge the silver "dollar of the daddies," as received by order of the Congress just adjourned. They will scornfully reject your "absolute money" of paper, and all the fleets and armies in creation cannot make them accept it.—Granite State News.

To the Judge of Probate for the County of Rockingham.

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENTS ALFRED F. SMITH of Hoosick in the County of Rensselaer and State of Texas that he is Guardian of George A. Smith of West Hoosiek, County of Hudson and State of New Jersey by the appointment of the Judge of Probate for the said County of Rockingham; that his said Ward seized of an interest (under the will of Abby M. Johnson late of city of Portsmouth in said Rockingham County, deceased) in a certain part or parcel of real estate in said Portsmouth with the buildings thereon on Middle street, so called, bounded as follows, to wit: Northerly by said Middle street, Easterly by land of George E. Marden, Rev. Charles Smith, Joseph W. P. Carter, and others, Southerly by land of Robert Shillaber and Westerly by Park street, so called. That said Ward's interest is as follows, to wit: one-half in common and undivided upon and after the death of Albert C. and Mary Jane Manson and the survivor of them, whose interest in said estate has been conveyed to and is now held by Joshua B. Johnson.

That it is necessary for the support of his said Ward and will be conducive to his interest to have his Ward's interest in said premises sold; wherefore he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.

Dated the 30th day of September, A. D., 1878.

ALFRED F. SMITH, Guardian.

Rockingham, ss.

UPON the foregoing petition, it is ordered that a hearing be had thereon, at a Court of Probate, to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of November next; and that the said petitioner notify all persons interested therein, by publishing a copy of the same, with this order thereon, three weeks successively in the Portsmouth Daily Chronicle printed at Portsmouth the last publication whereof to be one week at least previous to said day of hearing.

$200 Investment--$1,114.25 Profit.

R. S. Webb, of Phila., Pa., writes Aug. 15th, 1878: "Messrs. Lawrence & Co.; Yours containing remittance for $1,114.-25, as profits on my 200 shares, is received. Accept my thanks, as I am very well satisfied. As you request you may use this letter. I would recommend every one who feels disposed to speculate to send for your circular." The new way of operating in stocks by the Combination System enables people with large or small capital to reap similar benefits. By this excellent plan, the orders of thousands of customers from city and country are pooled into one immense sum and operated as a mighty individual account. Each member of the Combination secures all the advantages of the largest capital united with experienced skill. An investment of $10 pays $50, or 5 per cent. on the stock during the month. $100 makes $700 profit or 7 per cent., and so on as the market moves. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular explains everything. (Copyrighted and sent free.) All kinds of Stocks and Bonds wanted. New Government Loan supplied on best terms. Best references furnished. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y., City.

The Washington, D. C., Star of the 15th inst. says: "It can be authoritatively stated that there is no truth whatever in the statements variously made that the President has decided, or is about to decide to change what is known as his southern policy. The principal reason for the statement is supposed to be the letter written by Attorney-General Devens to the District Attorneys of Alabama, Louisiana and South Carolina, directing them to enforce the United States election laws. This letter was written after such facts had been laid before the President as clearly proved that, under existing circumstances, no fair election could be held in these States."

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction and Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an unerrable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S druggists for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 195 pounds to 160 pounds, and she says she feels improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known wholesale druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWERS & FULLERTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. All the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exhibit this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, postpaid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those afflicted.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever cause they arise, may be bland and mild, or so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or they may be of a fetid character, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be all or any of the last of secretion, be accompanying pain and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was confined by a tight band, which is the first stage of this latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free mattery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The mattery secretion flowing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into crusts, distributed and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A Catarrhal Survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for the treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in a new remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in its directions, proves it to be a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for treating with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be sent free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases of Catarrh. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada, and by WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

"FIAT MONEY," AT THE CORNERS.

Rev. P. V. Nasby, the great "finanseer," gives the Toledo Blade some further account of the success of his grand fiat-money scheme. He says:

The amount of prosperity the Corners is labrin under, just now, is miraculous. Me and Issaker Gavitt hez issued over three hundred thousand dollars uv cur fiat money, and ez I perdictid the Corners is prosperin to a degree that no one, not even myself, ez sang win-ez I am, never dreamed uv.

Issaker Gavitt and me hev quit shoein fiat money and the Town Council hev taken it in hand, so that it shall hev an oflishel look.

The money they ishoo reads this:

THIS IS A DOLLAR,
Sekoored by the faith of Confedrit X Roads.

These bills are signed by the mayor and clerk uv the corporashen, and ez they are pri[illegible] in two colors with a green back, they look ez good ez any money I ever saw.

The question was how to git em into cirkle'ashen. Money ain't good for nothin unless it cirkelates, and so the council resolved on a system uv internal improvements to git em out.

Accordingly they let the follering contracts:

A new city hall to cost $250,000.

Publick skool building to cost $10,000. (This wuz considered extravagant, but the main plot is to get the money into cirkelashen.)

A ship canal to connect Confedrit Run with Sucker Crik. Ez ther ain't no water uv any akkount in either, a ingenious system uv artesian wells hez to be bored, and sufficient water to float a steamboat is to be pumped into em by steam engines. The estimated cost of this necessary improvement is one million of dollars.

A narrer-guage railroad to connect the Corners with Secessionville on the Loolsville road, costing five hundred thousand uv dollars.

A plank road to Davisville, to cost two hundred thousand dollars.

Steam fire engines and a complete fire department, to cost fifty thousand dollars.

This is ez far ez the council hez got, but other appropriations will be made for other improvements ez fast ez the money is wantid to get into cirkelashen, that being the main plot now.

The contrax was all let to citizens uv the Corners, mostly to members of the council, and they wuz all based on the price uv a drink, plane, fifty cents. The council hed the money printid to pay the contrakters with. Ez we didn't want to wait long before the era uv prosperity set in, it wuz votid each contrakter shood hev an advance of twenty-five per cent on the amount uv his contrack, that the money might be got into cirkelashen to wunst, and the good effects might be felt immediately. This wuz done, and some $500,000 wuz paid to em.

The effeck is terrific. The wages uv labrin men have gone up to $7 a day, and it is difficult to prokoor them at that. Whiskey hez risz to fifty cents a drink, without sugar, and seventy-five with. The groomin shoemaker which used to get five dollars for a pare uv stogy boots is getting twenty dollars now; he aint particular about sellin even at that price. Everybody hez got all the money they want, and the Corners is baskin in the beems uv unlimited prosperity. This fiat money is a big thing.

The only spot on our shinin sun is Bigler and Pollock. They refoose to tetch our money at all, and ez they keep goods wich we must hev it's inconvenient. And then Joe goes about askin all sorts of fool questions. He wants to know who's ever goin to redeem the money? He wants to know what good this money is agoin to be in Loolsville, where our supplies come from primarily? He wants to know who is agoin to pay the taxes for all these improvements, and how we will feel when the bubble bursts and we are left with a immense debt onto our shoulders?"

I answered him that he didn't know nothin about finanseering. That the very essence uv fiat money wuz that it wuzn't never to be redeemed, that the people wuz a takin it for their goods and labor, and that they wood pay it out for more goods and labor, and that it would keep on forever in one endlis round.

"But" sed Josef, "the contraktors hev got to hev iron and tools and things, and the laborers hev got to hev shoes and a great deal of liker, and a little suthin to eat occasionally. It's all very well so long ez they kin trade among themselves, but how will it be in Loolsville? Will they take it there?"

That is the cloud that hangs over us. Will they take it in Loolsville, where we hev to buy our goods?

We must move on the legislacher and git the State to adopt the Corners' idee, and then we must get to Congress and compel the ishoon uv fiat money by the General government, makin it legle tender wherever the flag floats. And that it may be got into cirkelashen the General Government must be paternal, and must imitate the Corners in the matter uv internal improvements. There must be a ship canal from Chicago to Toledo, the Erie Canal must be enlarged so ez to pass the Great Eastern, the whole Mississippi Valley must be kivered with levees and everything else; there must be custom houses and post offices built in every city and village, and as for railroads, Lord bless us! they must be built from everywhere to everywhere, and all at the expense uv the Government, for the purpus uv gittin that money into cirkulashen in sufficient volums to meet the requirements uv trade. If the bloodid bondholders want to keep their bonds all rite, they must take principle and interest in this kind uv money. Them ez are held abroad shood be repoodiated to-wunst, and hev done with em.

There are forty milyuns uv people in this kentry, and I insist that enuff public works shood be put through to give every man, woman and child in the Yoonyun at least $2,000 uv money. A healthy war wood gift it into circulashen faster, but I am averse to bloodshed. I am as tender in my feelins ez I am broad in my finashel views.

This is my finanshel noshun, but they ain't original with me. The democratic and nashnel leeders are holdin the same noshens in a modified form. They will advance to my posishun when they see how the thing works in the Corners.

I don't want no gold, nor no silver. A paper dollar is good enuff for me, so ez it will buy likker, and I kin git enuff uv it. Wut do I keer for debt, when that debt ain't never going to be paid? Gold is an exploded idee! Ring out the old and ring in the new! We want more money and we are going to hev it.

P. S.—The trouble that Josef profesied hez come already. Peiter, the shoemaker, sold out his stock gaily, for fiat money, and went to Louisville to get more leather. The Loolsville leather man woodent give him a bit uv leather for our money, and that is all he hez. He offered em three prices, but they declined frigidly, and he came home without a single side. He swears he has bin robbed, and he is so disloyal ez to d—n the council, and me, the originator uv the idee. I told him to start a tannery hisself, and be independent uv the outside world, but he wanted to know how he wuz agoin to do it with fiat money? The fact is sosiety needs reorganization. There must be some way devised to compel Loolsville to take our money. Ez no fiat money is ever going to be redeemed in gold or anything else, why ain't ourn jist as good ex anybody's?

These Bloodthirsty Negroes.

The second report concerning the tremendous uprising of bloodthirsty negroes at Waterproof, La., comes from Natchez under date of Oct. 16th, and says that a fight occurred the previous day four miles from Waterproof, in which thirty-six (one account says only ten) negroes were killed, and the rest dispersed. It is further stated that no plantations were burned by the blacks on the 15th, as the first account reported. More armed men had left Natchez for the scene of the disturbances, and Nicholls had ordered some of the State militia of Louisiana to that point. "The general impression is that the negroes will not again re-assemble, and no further trouble is anticipated."

It may not be out of place to remark that Waterproof is in Tensas parish, La., a parish that gave Tilden 464 votes and Hayes 3207, by both the returning board and democratic counts, which agreed. We trust that the Waterproof trouble will not be suspected of being simply a Mississippi-plan massacre of colored republicans, for the purpose of turning a parish hitherto overwhelmingly republican into a democratic one.

News and Notes.

Douglass Goodale, son of a wealthy and highly respected citizen of Atlantic, Iowa, has been arrested as one of the highwaymen who robbed the Black Hills stage coach a few weeks ago, stealing $30,000 and killing two men. Two of the robbers were caught on the Platte river, and hanged until they confessed; then they were let hanging. Three other men were arrested at Adair, Iowa, for the same crime.

A comparison of the work done by the vessels of the revenue marine service at the principal ports on the Atlantic coast, from Boston to Baltimore inclusive, for the first three months of the current fiscal year with the corresponding period of last year, shows a considerable increase in commerce. The total number of vessels boarded in July, August and September, 1877, at Boston, Newport, New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, was 3,264, and the total number boarded during the same time this year was 5,632, an increase of 2,368. The most notable increase was at Baltimore, where 315 vessels were boarded this year, and only 300 during the same period last year.

The schooner Josie W. Calderwood, arrived at Gloucester from the banks, reports the loss of two of the crew, William Tate of Nova Scotia, and Charles Russell of Bucksport, who left the vessel in a dory to attend trawls October 9th and failed to return.

Some years ago a Dr. Lewis was driven out of Holly Springs, Miss., because of his political sentiments. When the yellow fever broke out there recently he hastened thither and aided the sufferers till he was smitten down and died.

Littell's Living Age, in its issue for the week ending Oct. 19th, begins the publication, from the author's advance sheets, of a new serial story by George MacDonald. The new story is entitled "Sir Gibbie," and promises to be one of much interest.

Mrs. Mattie Farrell, an aged widow, was found dead in her bed at Detroit, Wednesday morning, having evidently been murdered. Mrs. Farrell's son, a worthless fellow, has been arrested for the murder.

Reports from Mexico of the murder at Atzala, by a mob incited by the priests, of 125 Protestants, and the wounding of many others, are at hand.

The Secretary of State has received from the consul of the United States at Lyons, France, through Dreyfus, Kohn & Co., of New York, the sum of $1200, being the amount of a subscription raised in the former city in aid of the yellow fever sufferers.

A young man named Neil met an old farmer named Gerhart in a saloon at Burke City, Ky., and went home with him to spend the night. At the house Neil asked the old man to drink, when his son interfered; Neil instantly stabbed young Gerhart, who fell to the floor; Mrs. Gerhart sprang to the rescue, begging for her helpless son's life, when Neil drove his knife into her heart, killing her instantly; he then gave young Gerhart another slash with the knife, letting out his entrails, and then fled, after severely wounding a younger boy who begged for his mother's life. Even a Kentucky population felt the need of stern measures in such a case as this, and the young monster Neil was arrested and—put under $2000 bonds.

The number of failures in the United States for the third quarter of 1878 was 2,853, as compared with 1,816 for the same quarter last year; liabilities $66,000,000, as compared with $42,000,000 for the same period of 1877. This increase was not due to the approach of resumption, as some greenbackers would have us believe, but to the repeal of the bankrupt act, which made some shaky and more dishonest merchants hasten to get rid of their obligations before the national swindling law became a thing of the past.

Gen. Howard telegraphs to the war department the extensive stealing of horses from Umatilla Indians by white men, and the unprovoked murder, also by whites, of an Indian. Prompt measures are to be taken in the premises.

During a marriage in a colored church at Lynchburg, Va., Wednesday evening, a panic was caused by the falling of a piece of plastering, and at least ten persons were trampled to death.

New Hampshire Items.

The Union Lace Company of Kennebunk, Me., have leased for ten years the large mill at Lake Village, owned by the Lake Company, and for a long time unoccupied, for the purpose of manufacturing boot lacings, tape, braids, etc., which will give employment to about one hundred and fifty employes. A smaller mill owned by the Lake Company is leased for the same time by R. N. Calvin of Kennebunk and J. A. D. Gross of Boston, for the manufacture of wickings, twine and yarn, employing about seventy-five hands.

The grand jury of Cheshire county brought in bills of indictment against fifteen persons for violating the liquor law, three for being tramps, three for larceny, one for breaking and entering, and four for fraud and embezzlement.

Base ball at Dartmouth has been given a death-blow by the recent bad defeat of the college nine by Amherst College players and a subsequent accident during a practice game, in which two fielders running after a ball collided, one of them being knocked senseless and having four of his upper teeth broken out, while the other had his face badly gashed between the eyes. Several of the best players refuse to participate farther in the sport.

Political.

At a republican meeting in the court house at Hickesford, Va., Adolphus Trotter, a colored man applauded some statement made by U. S. Marshal Ramsdell, who was speaking. William A. Reese, a democratic leader, thereupon called Trotter to the door of the court house, and blew his brains out. So intense is the excitement created among the republicans of the place that it is thought likely Reese will be complained of for assault.

The Ohio greenback strength outside of the democratic ranks amounts to 25,000 votes in round numbers. How is that for a "Tidal wave?"

Mr. Tilden in a published card denies all knowledge of the cipher telegrams recently published by the N. Y. Tribune, and of any "crooked" political transactions whatever.

A Washington special says that Senator Mitchell, of Orsgon, has been interviewed in relation to the Tribune's cipher dispatches. He says he has no idea how the Tribune obtained the dispatches, as they were ordered boxed and returned to the Western Union Telegraph Company. He says that leaving the dispatches relating to southern States aside, if the Senate had sustained him in compelling the cashier of the Third National bank to produce Tilden's bank account, he believes he could have shown disbursements of between one and two millions from Tilden's private account.

Holman of Indiana seems to have lost his seat in Congress through a mean trick that he tried to play on a disabled soldier. He thought he had a private understanding with Fitzhugh, the doorkeeper, that the soldier should not be appointed to a place, though Holman was to recommend him for appointment in his presence. Fitzhugh afterward told the story, and Mr. Holman's constituents rejected him as he deserved.

—It was formerly the custom in Scotland to allow a culprit at the gallows to sing a psalm when a reprieve was expected. One of the chaplains to the famous Marquis of Montrose, being condemned to death for attending his master in some of his exploits, and being ordered at the gallows to name a psalm, selected the one hundred and nineteenth, being the longest in the Bible. His reprieve arrived when the psalm was about half sung. The selection was fortunate. Any other would have caused him to be hanged.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsep19 79

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Howe Call, Esq., will probably address the greenbackers of this city on the Saturday evening before election.

The fishing schooner Grace Choate landed at Tredick's wharf on Wednesday 15,000 lbs. of fish, 8,000 lbs. being cod.

Major Green C. Goodloe, paymaster of the marine corps, was in this city on Tuesday. His visit was official, in connection with the paying of the marine guard at the navy yard.

The schooner Velocipede, Capt. Thos. Jamieson, on Thursday brought in 16,000 lbs. of fish, 10,000 lbs. of which was large cod, the proceeds of one day's fishing. Mr. John Dixon purchased the fare.

The schooner Free Wind, Capt. Frisbee, was hauled afloat at Vineyard Haven on the 16th inst. by the United States revenue steamer Samuel Dexter, after she had been lightened of part of her cargo of coal.

Prof. Tourjee, of Boston, will give an entertainment, consisting of a lecture on music and singing by the audience, at Mercantile hall this evening. All members of the Philharmonic society, and other singers, are specially invited to be present. Free to all.

Several of the lady teachers of the public schools availed themselves of the opportunity to visit some of the public schools in Boston on Thursday. The half-fare rates to Boston drew a large number of passengers, the heavy trains reminding one of "railroad day."

The Times has made—or attempted to make—considerable fun at the expense of Howe Call, Esq., as a political speaker. If Mr. Call can't discount the Young War Eagle of Democracy, and then make a better speech and more stirring political appeal than Mr. Norris did in Franklin hall on Thursday evening, he'd better do all his speech making in Michigan and not afflict his party friends in this city at all.

Miss M. Parloa, the noted lecturer on and teacher of cooking, ex-chef of the Appledore house, Isles of Shoals, author of the "Appledore Cook-Book," teacher of a class at Miss Morgan's school in this city and of classes in Boston and elsewhere, has returned from a trip to Europe, where she has studied in the best schools of cookery, and on the 16th inst. reopened her regular school of cookery at No. 171 1-2 Tremont street, Boston.

Hon. Frank Jones is not in the habit of doing things by halves. He wants the water to run in the bowls to be set in the second story in his new block now building on Congress street; the aqueduct main on Congress street will not send the water high enough, and he is taking it from the State street pipe through Fleet street to the building; of course he has struck a ledge in the work, but such obstacles never stand in his way for a long time.

Now the report is that Herbert F. Norris, the democratic candidate for Congress from this district, and Lafayette Chesley, the greenback candidate, will both withdraw "at the proper time," and Hon. John W. Sanborn of Wakefield be supported by both parties. It does certainly seem absurd to have two candidates running for Congress in this district on one platform; and the soft-money men will never be able to defeat the honest-money candidate, Joshua G. Hall of Dover, so long as they keep two candidates in the field as at present.

John F. Dixon, who ran away from this city some months since with a disreputable woman, leaving behind a wife and two children and carrying off clothing, jewelry and other articles which he had procured from dealers without paying for, has been found at Sherbrook, Canada. We understand that he has been arrested, but it is not likely that anybody cares enough about his return to take the trouble of procuring extradition papers, and he will probably be allowed to remain under Her Britannic Majesty's protection as long as he chooses.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Oct. 17; Bufford, J.

Walter Prior and Herbert Marden were arraigned on a charge of assaulting Clara David with felonious intent. The evidence not sustaining this complaint they were discharged, but were immediately re-arrested on a charge of simple assault, adjudged guilty, and ordered to pay a fine and costs amounting to $14.02 each. They appealed, and were ordered to recognize in the sum of $100 each for their appearance at a higher court.

The young men after a while thought better of it, paid their fines, and departed—to behave better in the future, it is to be hoped. They came near finding themselves in a bad fix this time.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

City Clerk gave notice that contingent and street-sprinkling appropriations are exhausted.

Mrs. William Pettigrew's request for permission to remove two trees in front of her residence on Pleasant street was referred to the Mayor with power.

Nathan F. Mathes received permission to encumber corner of Bow and Ceres streets for building purposes.

Request of flute and drum corps for use of Elm street ward room for practice was laid on the table.

Petition of George Bilbruck and others for a drain at the corner of Bartlett and Pine streets was referred to the committee on drains to report.

City Marshal's quarterly reports of arrests, and fines and costs collected, were referred to the committee on police.

City Solicitor presented a report concerning law cases now pending against the city. The suits of Ozro J. Hobbs and other members of a former police force for witness fees were referred to the committee on claims to report some method of settling the same.

It was voted that a hearing be had at the next meeting in regard to certain charges against members of the police force.

The committee on burying grounds reported that the cost of making the necessary repairs at the Point of Graves would be twenty-five dollars, and for the North cemetery forty dollars; report accepted, and the committee authorized to have the work done.

Mr. Moses, collector of taxes, appeared before the board in explanation of the bill presented to them in relation to discount on taxes. The bill was taken from the table, and ordered to be paid.

Ald. Norton presented the following, which was passed:

Voted, That the committee on abatement of nuisance at south pond be authorized to draw up specifications for the proposed alterations at south mill bridge, which after being approved by the Board of Aldermen shall be distributed for the purpose of receiving proposals for the work to be done, said bids to be opened at a regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen and the contract given by them to the lowest responsible bidder, the Board reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

A motion by Ald. Hadley to reconsider the vote passed at the previous meeting authorizing the Mayor to sell the south mill, having failed to pass, he submitted the following:

I hereby make the offer of 3 1-2 per cent rental upon $5000, for the use of the south mill building, machinery and water privilege, for a term of five years; the lessee to allow the use of the water privilege to the city during the term of eleven weeks in each year, say from the first of July to the second week in September; the city to make outlay of $100 for repairs, other repairs to be done by lessee.

On motion of Ald. Hodgdon the vote to sell the mill was then reconsidered for the purpose of entertaining Ald. Hadley's offer, and the further consideration of the matter was postponed for one week.

Adjourned.

THE YOUNG WAR EAGLE.

Herbert F. Norris, Esq., the Young War Eagle of Democracy, and democratic candidate for Congress from this district on a greenback-inflation platform, delivered a greenback anti-national-bank speech in Franklin hall, Thursday evening, to an audience fair in numbers when he commenced, but wofully thinned out before he got through. Benjamin M. Parker, Esq., presided, and four of the dozen or so vice presidents appointed took seats on the platform, viz.: Hon. Daniel Marcy, Hon. Moses H. Goodrich, and Messrs. Henry F. Wendell and Nehemiah Moses, two of whom, at least, Messrs. Marcy and Wendell, are directors in national banks! There was nothing like enthusiasm during the meeting, which seemed much more like a funeral service than an old-time democratic rally, though a dozen earnest democrats under the lead of Dea. George B. French, did manage to get up a cheer for somebody or something after about half the audience that remained to the close of the lecture had got out of the hall. Where Mr. Norris stands on the question of specie payments no human being but himself can tell, and he took good care not to. We only add now that if this was the shriek of the Young War Eagle of Democracy, we pray Heaven we may never hear the hoot of the Venerable Owl.

THE VICINITY.

The house, barn and thirty tons of hay, owned by Granville Wells of Kennebunk, were burned on the night of the 16th inst. Loss $4000; insurance $2500; fire incendiary.

Herring are reported very plentiful in the vicinity of the Shoals.

The Supreme Court for York county, Me., adjourned on the 16th inst. The case of State vs. George Bowden of York, for arson, was not proceeded with on account of some informality in the indictment. The jury brought in verdicts of guilty against Bowden, on indictments for assaulting an officer in the discharge of his duty, and for perjury.

Mrs. Eunice L. Young, of Kittery, eighty-five years of age on the 25th of September, reads, writes and sews without glasses, having never used them. She has recently set together, very nicely, patchwork for four quilts—containing respectively 505, 525, 594, and 1113 pieces—total in the four quilts, 2736.

The Great Falls Cadets visited Dover on Wednesday evening, the 16th inst., and were received by the Strafford Guards, who escorted them through the principal streets to the city hall, where a prize drill took place. The Cadets are composed of the most respectable young men in Great Falls, and the company is one of the best-drilled in the State. Col. John J. Dillon, Col. D. J. Vaughan, inspector and mustering officer of the State troops, and Capt. Charles H. Wells, acted as judges.

From Acute to Chronic

Is an easy stage in cases of dyspepsia. A slight attack of indigestion, especially when there is a predispositon to digestive weakness of the stomach, must speedily culminate in the most obstinate form of the disease. It is well, therefore, to adopt preventive methods early. Although Hostetter's Stomach Bitters overcomes, if persisted in, cases of dyspepsia of long standing, it is obviously the part of wisdom to use it ere the malady assumes a chronic phase. This is particularly true, because as dyspepsia advances, it engenders other bodily evils, such as disorder of the liver, constipation or undue looseness of the bowels, nervous disorders, hypochondria, sleeplessness. These maladies are both prevented and remedied by the Bitters, but how much better to check them in their outset with the great alterative, than to wait until they established a firmer foothold in the system. Surely the advisability of this must be apparent.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, if he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. nov9

Why throw away so much money trying worthless medicines, when for 35 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure coughs, colds, sore lungs and croup? Give it a trial. Adamson's Balsam will do it.

Some of the new styles of Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs introduce a style of finish with embossed gold bronze ornamentation, by a new process; at once the most elegant and chaste finish yet employed on such instruments. Prices are very low for such workmanship.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by all Druggists.

—Brighton, England, has been startled by the apparition of a man mounted on a bicycle of colossal dimensions, who glides along on a level with the tops of the lamp-posts, towering above the height of ordinary carriages. The driving-wheel of this machine is nearly eight feet in height, so that the rider's head is some twelve feet from the ground. The wheel is 260 inches in circumference, and constructed on the rigid principle. The backbone is made of a seamless steel tube, and has steps projecting for mounting and a second handle for steering while the rider is getting into the saddle.

—The Emperor of China has the power of conferring the oldest decoration mentioned in history. This is the Yellow Tunic, which is made of yellow silk and has on the back a dragon, the arms of the Chinese Empire, embroidered in gold and black silk. It is the most distinguished order in China, and is conferred only on extraordinary occasions. Only two Europeans have ever received it—the Englishman, Colonel Gordon, who rendered great service to the Chinese government during the Taeping rebellion, and the French engineer Giquel, who built a military arsenal in Northern China.

When the greenbacks were issued as a war measure the democrats voted against them in Congress, denounced them in their press, and declared them unconstitutional in their conventions. After the war was over the democratic judges of the supreme court gave an opinion against their constitutionality. And now, when an issue that was justified by the republicans only on the ground of military necessity, and which was pronounced by the democrats unjustifiable, even on that ground, is within half of one per cent of par, and the treasury is prepared to redeem it according to law, the democrats demand its unlimited continuance and its unlimited increase. When it was necessary they opposed it; when it is less necessary they support it. They are opposed to greenbacks in time of war, when the public credit is strained to its utmost tension. They are in favor of them in time of peace, when the public credit is at the highest point. When opposition to the greenbacks embarrassed the Government, the democrats opposed them; when their continuance can be dispensed with they support them. The greenback was a republican measure; but coupled, with its issue was the pledge of the national faith that it should never exceed a fixed amount, and that it should be redeemed at the earliest period practicable. Under that pledge and with a wise system of finance it has rendered an important office in supplying currency and in facilitating the operations of the Government. Under that pledge and with that system it has now nearly reached the period fixed for its redemption; and to postpone that period and to increase the issue, as the democracy now demand, would be a violation of the principles of its origin, as well as of all sound financial policy.—Staunton Valley Virginian.

Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route or through travel. In
Construction and Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the road, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and parallel a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

ANTI-FAT
ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week. In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to prove, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 195 to 145 pounds, and she is in every way improved in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." Sold by all Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. FOWLE & FLANDERS, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. At the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, and I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is also a different remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, lifted it out as the chief of my crowning gems of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly and yet willingly to state my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectation of a single invalid lady who would try for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensation, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Miscarriage, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single end or purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats, amongst, of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary in severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the vital energies are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from a scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eyes and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever cause they arise, may be thick, white, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellowish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head heavy and oppressed, and it is if was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free matter discharges causes the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most vicious neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to immediately prepare for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, stamps it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15th.

It is a well known fact that Kearney, when here, received very little countenance from any reputable source. Business men, politicians, and a vast majority of the members of the various local labor organizations, were so pointed in their avoidance of the unprepossessing demagogue, as to afford him no encouragement to repeat his visit. Cohen and his handful of loafers and strikers who have given the police some trouble and occasioned a good deal of excitement, first and last, have had no better success in enlisting sympathy or in committing any one caring aught for reputation, to their lawless programme. Even the masses of our colored population, who, more than any similar number of our other residents have suffered from the effects of the business depression of the past five years, turned deaf ears to the constant appeals made them to unite with the gang, and have decisively negatived every proposition made to array them against the authorities. In short, our citizens have repeatedly demonstrated their law-abiding character and their lack of sympathy with agrarianism. But the laboring and business element of this town feel that they have ample ground for their impatience, that is more and more taking the form of indignation as weeks lapse into months and months into years, and there is no apparent move made to undertake the works for which comparatively large appropriations have been made, some of them more than two years ago, and thus furnish labor and give business a fresh impetus. And it is not easy to feel otherwise than that those entrusted with the work for which these appropriations have been voted, are supremely indifferent to the distress everywhere prevalent, also those works had been undertaken long ago and pushed to completion. July 5th, 1876, Congress, still prompted by the patriotism and other inspiring things imbibed on the occasion of the members' visit to the Centennial Exposition the day previous, voted $200,000 wherewith to complete the Washington Monument. After a good deal of dilly-dallying among the officials, including a survey by an army engineer whose conclusions were subsequently found all wrong, it was decided an additional $30,000 was required to strengthen the base that the superstructure might be entirely safe. It was voted, and early last spring it was announced that everything was in readiness and that the work was to go right on to completion. Now beyond tearing off the old wood work left on the top of the marble shaft when work was discontinued nearly twenty years ago, and carting a little earth from one part of the ground to another, giving employment to only a handful of laborers, nothing seems to have been done; and at the rate of speed manifested by the custodians of this fund in pushing the work, George Washington will have been forgotten many thousand years before the monument is completed, if only that is requisite to keep his memory green. This illustrates the spirit that seems to have governed relative to other public works for which appropriations were made months ago. Our well-paid, luxuriously lodged, and over-fed officials seem too intent on their own ease and pleasure to spare a little of their squandered time to the duties made by law incumbent on them, and whose prompt execution would afford vital relief to scores who seem their superiors in everything but official position. There is also a growing fear that in our change of District Commissioners we have fallen into the hands of modern reformers—or at least that a majority of the new board are justly entitled to the kind of distinction implied by that designation. Burdened as we are with debt, while advocating rigid retrenchment by cutting down the salaries of school teachers, policemen and other workers, and while looking on with apparent unconcern and self-satisfied complacency at the effort to reduce the rate of day laborers to fifty cents a day, they are reported as ransacking the law for authority to increase the District Attorney's salary to $5000.

Recent investigations by those largely interested in the shipment of cattle to Europe, seems to have aroused new interest among business men of Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, in new railroad enterprises, having among their other special objects, the furnishing of better facilities to this trade and its larger development. The direct shipment of cattle, though of comparatively recent beginning, has become a business of considerable magnitude. Lack of transportation facilities seems about the only bar to its almost indefinite expansion. Coupled with the "hard times," the arbitrary course and exorbitant rates demanded by our only railroad to the Pacific have served to confine the limits within which it could be profitably carried on, as has been the case with ordinary kinds of business that has been forced to seek a market over Huntington's road. As intimated before, many heretofore hostile to the new lines projected, and a large class of business men who were indifferent so long as they were furnished fair accommodations even though at high rates, seem about to unite with the advocates of competing lines, to free themselves from the exactions and intolerable tyranny of the existing monopoly. These Republican Cipher Despatches.

The New York Tribune intimates that there is a short way of dealing with the twaddle the democrats are pouring out upon the country concerning the awful republican cipher dispatches which they want published. The most important republican cipher dispatches of which anything is known are those of Hon. William E. Chandler. He has openly declared he is not only willing, but would be glad to have the opportunity to translate his dispatches, furnish the key, and place the matter in evidence before the Potter committee. When he was on the stand he tried to get the examination to turn in that direction, but the democrats carefully headed him off. They can get all the information on that subject they want any day, by simply calling the Potter committee together. But they won't do it. They don't dare to. That committee was gotten up to make political capital for the democratic party, and have the bills paid from the national treasury; not to get at the truth. And the democrats know that if the committee were to meet again it would be impossible to avoid considering the Marble-Pelton-Woolley cipher despatches relative to the purchase of the electoral votes of Florida and South Carolina, which the "reformers" are especially anxious to avoid. That "investigation" musket has killed more at the breech than the muzzle.

Manton Marble having denied complicity in or knowledge of any "cipher" fauads, the Tribune is not long in its rejoinder to Mr. Marble. It admits for the present that Mr. Marble may not be the author of the one telgram, number forty-eight, in the list of cipher dispatches, which he especially disclaims. It was signed "M," and Mr. Marble's other secret dispatches were signed "Moses." But it was of the slightest consequence of all the lot, and had no reference to bribery. Its disclaimer leaves the rest of the dispatches unaccounted for, and it is a very violent presumption that, because this single telegram may be unauthentic, that the rest fall to the ground. It would hardly do for a criminal to claim an acquittal on a charge of felony because an unimportant witness was mistaken, in a piece of evidence that was not vital to the accusation, leaving all the rest uncontradicted. The Tribune properly characterizes Mr. Marble's defence as childish, and gives him notice that he will be called upon to stand a cross-examination under oath before the eyes of the whole country. The fatal weakness of his denial is noticed by journals of his own party, and altogether the burden of proof is once more shifted to the shoulders of the defendant. His plea of "not guilty" is not taken as sufficient so long as the chief evidence remains unchallenged and uncontradicted.

A Terrible Experience.

The barque Susan, of New Bedford, Peakes master, left that port on the morning of Saturday, the 12th inst., on a whaling voyage, with a crew of twenty-five men all told. She took the great gale of that day at noon, and at seven o'clock in the evening capsized. Eight men, who were in the forecastle at the time, got on beards, chests and dunnage stuff and kept themselves above the water. On Sunday noon two of the men dived down through the companionway and came up outside. One man who could not swim was left in the forecastle; the other five fell into the water and were drowned. The two who got out lashed themselves to the weather side of the wreck. Tuesday morning New York pilot boat No. 8 fell in with the wreck and took off the two who were on the outside, and then cut through the bluff of the bow and took out the man inside, alive. One man who had lashed himself to the rigging at the time the ship capsized was left, the roll of the vessel having nearly cut him in two. Three men only of the ship's company of twenty five were saved, and were landed at Stonington, Conn., on Thursday.

News and Notes.

John Wooldredge of Lynn has been appointed foreman of the grand jury of the Circuit Court of the U. S. for the district of Massachusetts. Mr. Wooldredge was formerly president of the Eastern railroad Co., and possibly it was from his experience in that place the authorities of Lynn deemed him a proper person for this discriminating position.

Leroy Beaumont, formerly a colonel in the United States marine corps, attempted to murder his mistress, Agnes Heidee, in Patterson, N. J., Thursday; he was arrested, and tried to hang himself to a grating in his cell. He is a confirmed opium eater.

Thomas Belknap, treasurer of the high school committee of Hartford, Conn., is a defaulter to the amount of $11,000.

Mrs. Lorena Alexander, of Bridgeport, Conn., has been indicted by the grand jury for the murder of "Stuttering Jack;" her paramour, Basset, will also be tried for the same crime. The dead body of Richard Cones, a member of Howe's band who has been missing since May 10th, has been dug up near the old carriage shop where the infamous pair lived. The murder of a girl named Bertie Bailey, and other crimes of the pair, are likely to be proved against them.

The board of control of the anthracite coal producers resolved at a meeting in New York, Wednesday, that the production for November shall be 1,800,000 tons, the production this month being 1,200,000. The officers were directed to invite the various interests to a conference, with a view to an arrangement for 1879.

Russia has asked the powers to compel Turkey to execute the Berlin treaty. It is reported that England's reply will be a curt denial of the request to join in putting any pressure upon Turkey and a declaration that she is doing all she can and must not be hurried.

Harper's Magazine for November beautifully concludes a beautiful volume. The number opens with a bright little paper describing a "Free kindergarten" in New York city, with exquisite pictures by Miss Curtis of real children involved in the enchantments of Froebell's wonderful system, and has besides an attractive table of contents.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (dux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

From Acute to Chronic

Is an easy stage in cases of dyspepsia. A slight attack of indigestion, especially when there is a predisposition to digestive weakness of the stomach, must speedily culminate in the most obstinate form of the disease. It is well, therefore, to adopt preventive methods early. Although Hostetter's Stomach Bitters overcomes, if persisted in, cases of dyspepsia of long standing, it is obviously the part of wisdom to use it ere the malady assumes a chronic phase. This is particularly true, because as dyspepsia advances, it engenders other bodily evils, such as disorder of the liver, constipation or undue looseness of the bowels, nervous disorders, hypochondria, sleeplessness. These maladies are both prevented and remedied by the Bitters, but how much better to check them in their outset with the great alterative, than to wait until they established a firmer foothold in the system. Surely the advisability of this must be apparent.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. nov9

Why throw away so much money trying worthless medicines, when for 25 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure coughs, colds, sore lungs and croup? Give it a trial. Adamson's Balsam will do it.

Travellers often wonder why their fellow-travellers are so loud in their praise of the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, but, after a visit themselves, may are satisfied of its famous excellence.

Some of the new styles of Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs introduce a style of finish with embossed gold bronze ornamentation, by a new process; at once the most elegant and chaste finish yet employed on such instruments. Prices are very low for such workmanship.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept19 79

THE CITY.

Philip Phillips, the great sacred song singer, will sing at the Methodist church in this city next Monday evening, Oct. 21st. Go and hear him.

Mr. John T. Coles of Boston, one of the ablest temperance speakers that ever stood upon a platform—because he speaks from a terrible personal experience—will address the friends of temperance on Sunday evening in Mechanics' hall. Admission free.

The schooner Czar, which has made several trips to this port with coal, went ashore on the Pea Patch bar, below Newcastle, Delaware, on the night of the 16th inst., while on her way from Philadelphia for this port, coal laden. After getting aground she was run into by the steamer E. B. Souder, had her main boom and rail broken, and filled with water; the steamer escaped unhurt.

THE VICINITY.

The Biddeford Times says "a schooner in loading at Kittery with best baldwin apples for the south at 16 3-4 cents a bushel, and at Sanford the farmers will cart and pile apples for cider at three cents a bushel."

Major Urch, greenbacker and repudiationist, addressed a large audience in the new town hall at Stratham on Thursday evening. We learn that the Major's eloquence and reasoning captured the Strathamites, horse, foot and dragoons. Major Urch is booked for a speech at Epping.

A party of calithumpians in Saco recently "tendered a serenade" to a couple who got married last fall, and assembling in large numbers, racked the midnight air with doleful sound. This failing to bring either of the favored parties to view, the serenaders then tied all the doors with strong cords, climbed upon the house and put something over the top of the chimney so that useful portion of the house would not "draw," put cart wheels upon the shed, and finally got into the cellar and helped themselves to cider and apples.

A CARD--CITY MISSION.

The rooms engaged for missionary business in Treadwell's block, corner of Pleasant and State streets, up one flight, are now ready, and open during office hours. I shall be glad to receive garments of any kind; also shoes, etc., for the poor among us. Papers and magazines will be received for distribution at the almshouse, jail, county house and among seamen, and in the general work about the city; and a faithful record kept of the same. I shall be ready to aid families in securing good help, and to aid good house-girls in securing places, and to give any information relative to the general city mission work, from 10:30 o'clock A. M. to 12:30, and from two o'clock to four P. M., at No. 64 State street.

WILLIAM A. LOYNE,
Volunteer City Missionary.

POLICE MATTERS.

At the last meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Ald. Hadley, chairman of the committee on police, said he had been informed that a man named McCarthy had been arrested by a special police officer not on duty at the time of making the arrest, McCarthy's offence being that he was somewhat intoxicated; that he was brought before the police court, fined (with costs) $9.90, and not being able to pay would have to go to Brentwood; that from the information furnished him (the alderman) he thought some notice should be taken of the case, and he suggested that the matter be referred to the committee on police.

Mayor Sise thought that as executive officer of the city he should have been notified of the matter, and should have some voice in it.

Ald. Norton thought, for the benefit of all parties concerned, that an investigation should be made by the whole board, and not before any one person, whose mind might be biassed one way or the other.

Ald. Laighton said he had heard of a circumstance alleged to have occurred at the Concord railroad depot on Wednesday evening, when a man was arrested, confined in the station house, and released without a trial. Also that a person arrested at Music hall, whom he was informed had offered some violence to the officer making the arrest, had been released without being brought before the police court. In view of such reports he thought some measures should be taken to vindicate the officers if deserving, or to censure them if they have exceeded their duty.

The Mayor said that complaint had been made to him by a gentleman connected with Music hall, in regard to petty disturbances there; and that after a person had been arrested for the offence by the officer, as stated, the same gentleman interceded in behalf of the offender, and secured his liberation.

It was finally voted that an investigation should be held in relation to these charges at the next regular meeting of the Board.

SUPREME COURT.

FRIDAY, Oct. 18; Stanley, J.

In divorce case Janvrin vs. Janvrin, the court ordered the execution for sum allowed as alimony to be stayed for ten days, if libellant, Mr. Janvrin, gives bond with sureties in the sum of $2000 to pay the sum decreed, unless the report of referee shall be set aside. Dodge of Dover for Geo. Janvrin; Stickney for Mrs. Janvrin.

Case No. 32, M. V. B. Stimson vs. Jackson & Co., was entered "neither party." This case has once been sent to the law term, and has been in court for several years.

In case of Ruth A. Raitt vs. George R. Raitt, a divorce was decreed. Hackett for libellant.

Katie F. Rowe vs. Charles H. Rowe; divorce decreed. Hackett for libellant.

The grand jury reported in the afternoon, and were dismissed. They found forty-six indictments, among which were the following:

Charles A. Walker and Eliza Walker, Portsmouth, keeping disorderly house.

Timothy Lynch, Portsmouth, disorderly house.

John Murphy, Portsmouth, aggravated assault.

Annie S. Fay, malicious mischief, (putting kerosene in water tank at Hotel Wentworth at Newcastle).

Andrew Ward, breaking and entering.

Matilda Perry, aggravated assault, two indictments, (abuse of a child at Deerfield.)

George Roberts, incendiarism.

The following named parties were arraigned:

Henry Gadding and Robert Gadding, the notorious "Gadding boys" of Hampton, two indictments each for breaking and entering; plea nolo contendere. Sentence: Henry, three years in State prison on first count, two years on second, and to pay half costs; Robert, one year in jail and $50 fine, on each indictment, and to pay half costs.

John Sheehan and Patrick Sheehan, Portsmouth, aiding and abetting in the murder of Eugene Sullivan; plea, not guilty. Same, aiding and abetting in concealing dead body of Eugene Sullivan; same plea. Trial set for Thursday, 17th inst. Page for defence.

William Coombs, breaking jail at Exeter; plea, not guilty.

John W. Greeley, Charles E. Greeley, and George Greeley, stealing hens; plea, guilty. Sentence: John and Charles to State prison for two years; George to State prison for two years, or reform school during his minority.

Cora Frazer, horse stealing; reading of indictment waived; plea, guilty. Sentence: one year in jail, and to pay fine of $50, and costs of prosecution.

Thomas Hoyt, Portsmouth, malicious mischief; reading of indictment waived; plea, guilty. Sentence: nine months in county jail, and to pay costs.

Frank Graves and James Mahoney, Portsmouth, stealing silver ware from Francis E. Langdon; plea, not guilty.

John L. Lamprey, William E. Clements and William E. Butler, breaking and entering; plea, not guilty—subsequently retracted, and a plea of nolo con. entered. Dismissed on their own recognizance until the April term of court.

Joseph J. Morrison, stealing a gold watch from Mrs. Fred S. Wendell; plea, not guilty—subsequently retracted and a plea of not. con. entered. Sentence: one year in jail, and to pay costs.

Clarence Jenness, indecent assault; plea, not guilty.

Thomas E. Drake, (one of the "liquor spotters,") perjury; plea, not guilty. Dismissed on his own recognizance, to appear at April term.

Newell Hayes, horse stealing; plea, not guilty. Trial assigned for Wednesday, 23d inst.

George Cochran, assault with intent to kill; plea, not guilty. Trial assigned for Wednesday.

Michael Gilligan, breaking and entering store of Fred S. Wendell; plea, not guilty. Trial on Thursday, 24th inst.

Charles A. Taylor and Jeremiah Toomey, breaking and entering; plea, not. con. Sentence deferred until Wednesday at request of counsel.

The court adjourned to Wednesday morning, 23d inst., at half-past ten o'clock.

MAKING A TRADE.

A highly influential lot of democrats and greenbackers met at the Rockingham house in this city, Friday evening, to sell their "principles" to the highest bidder, and to throw in as "boot" those republicans who have been deluded into taking part in that democratic side-show, the greenback movement. Among those present at this auction of political principles were Herbert F. Norris, the "Young Eagle of Democracy" and democratic candidate for Congress from this district; Lafayette Chesley, greenback candidate for Congress from this district; John W. Sanborn of Wakefield, an old dyed-in-the-wool democrat to whom it was a week ago said the greenocratic managers proposed to sell the followers of Norris and Chesley—including the republican dupes of the greenback managers; Rolles of Ossipee; and many other magnates of both wings of the democratic party, from abroad and from this city. Whether the trade that has been talked of was consummated by this precious conclave of bartering "reformers" we are at this writing (midnight of Friday) unable to tell; but it will soon be known whether the republican greenbackers have been sold, though the price may not be mentioned for some time yet.

A POPULAR HOTEL.

Several families in our city will make their home beneath the hospitable roof of the Rockingham house this winter.

This hotel maintains the high reputation for excellence in every department it has gained under the continued management of Col. Hilton. Every care is taken as to the comfort and cleanliness of the rooms, and the table always is liberally provided with every article of diet a reasonable person could desire. Col. Hilton's experience in this line of business, and his observation throughout the country, enable him to know what is wanted, in this not always well understood business of keeping a first class hotel.

We can point with pride to the Rockingham, as one of the very best hotels in the United States. Portsmouth should be grateful to its owner for the liberal manner in which its enlargement and improvement was consummated, and ought to appreciate the fact that the present lessee is constant in his endeavors to make the house attractive to visitors here at all seasons of the year.

The Rockingham is one of the strong points in Portsmouth, and our out-of-town friends constantly testify their approbation of this widely celebrated establishment.

A NUISANCE THAT NEEDS ATTENTION.

In another place will be found an account of statements made at the last meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen concerning certain alleged transactions of the police. Concerning the particular incidents referred to we only know what was said by the different aldermen; but we do know that a moderate exceeding of his duty by a police officer at Music hall would be regarded by the public as a very venial offence, provided it had the effect to check the incipient rowdyism that has been steadily growing more aggressive among a certain class of the habitues of the gallery, until it has become an unbearable nuisance to every decent person who enters the hall. When a man procures a ticket to the hall he secures a right to a seat, and to whatever undisturbed enjoyment he can get from the entertainment offered on the stage; this much, and no more; but not a few of the gallery crowd seem to fancy that their purchase of a ticket gives them not only the ownership of the house, but also the right to interfere ad lib. with the rights of others. It is high time they were disabused of this idea; and the best, and indeed the only way to do this is to put a few of the "smart" youths before the police court, and give them whatever the laws allows—with the additional benefit of a free advertisement, which we promise them they shall have if we can get hold of their names. If the police will at once and effectually abate this nuisance we guarantee them the thanks of the gentlemen who own the hall; we think they can count on the support of the city government and of every respectable man and woman in the city; and we know that at least one newspaper will back them up in the use of whatever force is necessary to effect the much desired end, even though a score or so of roughs should get their heads broken before it is accomplished.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

As the train from Manchester on the Concord & Portsmouth railroad was nearing Candia, Friday night, the engine struck a team on a crossing, the carriage being occupied by Mr. Thompson L. Newell, of East Candia. The engine struck the carriage near the forward wheels, throwing Mr. Newell and the remnants of the carriage to one side and the horse to the other. Mr. Newell was thrown into the air by the concussion, and fell in a heap near the remnants of the carriage; his hands were badly lacerated, and he was considerably jolted and bruised. The only thing of consequence remaining of the carriage was one of the hind wheels. The horse received several wounds, which bled freely. Mr. Newell was accorded all the courtesy possible by Conductor Wyatt, who carried him to the East Candia depot and left him with his son, who happened to be on the train at the time of the accident. From the actions it was judged that Mr. Newell was somewhat deaf, and did not hear the approaching train.

Naval Matters.

Commander Bartlett J. Cromwell is ordered to the command of the Ticonderoga, now fitting out at this navy yard.

Lieut. Comdr. Henry C. Nields is detached from command of the Fortune, and ordered to the Ticonderoga Nov. 1st as executive officer.

Lieut. Kossuth Niles is detached from the Swatara and ordered to the Ticonderoga; the other officers of the Swatara are detached and placed on waiting orders.

Lieutenants Hobart L. Tremain and Franklin J. Drake; Master Charles E. Vreeland; Ensigns Frank E. Fletcher, Harry H. Hosley and Walter S. Hughes; Surgeon H. M. Wells; Paymaster Wm. J. Thompson; Gunner Cornelius Dugan, and Sailmaker Chas. E. Tallman, are ordered to the Ticonderoga.

Passed Asst. Surgeon Richard Urquhart is detached from the Franklin, and ordered to the Ticonderoga.

Boatswain James T. Barker is detached from the New York navy yard, and ordered to the Ticonderoga.

Lieut. Emory H. Taunt, attached to this navy yard, is granted leave of absence for one month from Oct. 25th.

Those persons who attended the political lectures of Orrin C. Moore and Herbert F. Norris at Franklin hall this week, draw comparisons very unfavorable to the democratic orator. Even the greenbackers acknowledge that Mr. Moore made a strong presentation of the "honest-money" view, and that he left no one in doubt as to where he and other republicans stand on the question of payment of the bonds, specie resumption, etc.; while not even the most ardent democrat pretends that Mr. Norris' "argument" amounted to anything at all, or that he defined the position of himself or his party on any important point. Mr. Moore we believe made republican votes; Norris may have made greenback votes, but certainly did not make any democratic ones.

Successful Stock Operations.

There is much talk about stock operations and the rapid fortunes that are amassed by them, but very few people understand just how it is done. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City, have published full details of their new Combination Method of operating in stocks, which is wonderfully successful. By pooling the orders of thousands of customers into one immense sum and operating them as a whole, each patron is placed on an equality with the largest operator, and vast profits are divided pro rata among shareholders every thirty days. $25 makes $100, or four per cent on the stock in the month; $100 makes $750, or 7 1-2 cent; $150 makes $1,500, and various profits according to the movements of stock. Safety and success are the distinguishing features of this system. S. Y. Sanger, of San Francisco, Cal., writes: "I have made so much money in the same time as I have by your Combination System." The new circular (copyrighted and sent free) explains all details. All kinds of Stocks and Bonds wanted. New Government Loan supplied. Best References. Address Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully called to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

ANTI-FAT
ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week. In placing itself before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, one of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions, and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to Ackerman's drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 10 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, Sharp, Dohme & Smith, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & FLEMMING, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. "I (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from 200 to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Allan's Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is the best patent medicine pleasantest. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
ROYAMIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax of my growing gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a specialist in the most confident manner. I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not call this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, for $1.00. It treats fully and plainly of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from the mucus passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scales, incrustations, and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when profusion of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of the most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in its directions, evince it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the extent in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to be afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also Observations on diet and the general health of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be sent free on receipt of a stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Political.

Some of the blessings of fiat money are enjoyed by the people of Buenos Ayres. There is a six-column paper, called the Buenos Ayres Herald, of which the subscription price is put at the low rate of thirty dollars a month, paper currency; that is, about a dollar a number. The subscription to a paper of the same size here, would be about seventy-five cents a month. The advertisements, too, will be found edifying reading by soft-money men. The clothing house of Grand St. Martin advertises suits of clothing for $700. Another house offers to sell children's suits at prices ranging from $150 upwards, and still another firm advertises a new line of choice cravats at $100 each. It seems, from the market report of this journal, that a gold dollar at that time was worth $31.95 in paper.

There is but one lesson to be learned of Tuesday's election. The result in Iowa, Indiana and West Virginia conveys nothing to the common stock of public knowledge. The result in Ohio means, as to the next Presidential campaign, Grant and plenty of hard-money.—Louisville Courier-Journal, (inf. dem.)

Lippincott's Magazine for November is noticeable for the diversity of its contents. The opening paper, on Long Island, or to use the Indian name by which the author calls it, "Seawanhakh, the Island of Shells," is descriptive and historical. Natural history is represented by a paper on "The Harvesting-ants of Florida," by Mrs. Mary Treat. George Kennan, author of "Tent Life in Liberia," concludes his interesting account of the "Unwritten Literature of the Caucasian Mountaineers." Henry T. Finck writes of "Music in America," and L. Lejeune gives a lively and intelligent criticism of the pictures in the Paris Exposition. "Rambling Talk about the Negro" is by Jennie Woodville; "Docteur Alphege," by Annie Porter; "Deserted," by Edward Bellamy; and a humorous extravaganza entitled "The After-Dinner Speech of the Baroness Contaletto," with two serials—"For Percival," now drawing to a conclusion, and "Through Winding Ways," should not be overlooked.

The Eclectic Magazine for November contains nineteen articles, and is sufficiently varied in topic and method of treament to please all classes of readers. The portrait this month is a steel engraving of Rev. William Adams, D. D., for nearly forty years one of the leading clergymen of New York, and now President of the Union Theological Seminary. The leading paper on "Giordano Bruno and Galileo Galilei," is rich in biographical interest and also contributes a most instructive chapter to the early history of science. "The age of the Sun and Earth" is another scientific paper of the highest interest and value, and the editorial department of "Science and Art" is fresh and varied in its record of scientific progress. "Brockden Brown," is a biographical sketch of the earliest American novelist; and the account of "The Plantin Museum at Antwerp," is curious.

—An Italian proverb: There are few men who are not a great deal more solicitous about their wives' consciences than their own.

—The monument to the memory of the late Vice-President Wilson has just been put in place in the rear of the chapel on the grounds of the Soldiers' Home at Washington. It is granite, seven feet six inches by four feet three inches at the base, five feet high, and bears the following inscriptions in large raised letters: On the front face, "Henry Wilson, the Soldiers' Friend;" on the opposite, "Erected by the Enlisted Men of the Army;" on the end, "Died Vice-President of the United States, November 22, 1875."

—"I am a yellow-fever sufferer, and I want a four-bit dinner," said a red-nosed specimen, stepping into a Clay street restaurant. "But there is no fever in the city," objected the proprietor. "Exactly," blandly rejoined the gentleman, rubbing his nose, "exactly; but my wife resides in Memphis, and she is down sick with it, and is therefore unable to support me as usual. Perhaps your customers might like to club together," he continued, glancing round pleasantly. When he picked himself up from the floor he felt as if the customers had indeed clubbed together—all together.—San Francisco News Letter.

—In Colonel Stevens' book, "The Connaught Rangers in the Crimea," just published, there are some curious illustrations of the erratic course often taken by cannon ball and bullets. "A round shot," says the colonel, "passed under the horses of one gun and over those of the next gun, without touching a man or a horse." As another colonel was leading on his men, a bullet pierced his holster and lodged in his prayer book. The gold band of Colonel Stevens' cap was grazed by a ball, but his head escaped. In the trenches one day a man called out to him, "Don't sit there, sir; the round shot are coming over every second!" He moved, and a round shot instantly dashed into the seat he had vacated.

The Young War Eagle's Scream.

For some time previous to last Thursday evening we felt very curious to know what Herbert F. Norris, Esq., of Epping, the "Young War Eagle of Democracy," would have to say concerning financial matters—where he would take a stand on the money question; on Thursday evening we expended an hour or more in listening to him; we know what his talk was, but we do not, nor does any one else, know from that talk where he is on the money question, for in his hour's talk he said but one thing, viz.: "The national banks must go."

He commenced by charging the present condition of the country to the republican party, and contrasted it with the good old times when democracy had possession of all the offices; he did not, however, draw attention to the fact that the last democratic administration of the country had to pay twelve per cent for money for current expenses, and had hard work to get it at that price, while the country can now borrow all it wants at four and a half, and even four per cent!

He made a point, or tried to, by comparing the State expenses in 1854, under democratic rule, with the expenses of recent years under republican rule; he did not refer to the two years of democratic rule under the Weston administration, when the expenses were just about the same as in the years preceding and following, nor did he tell his hearers that in the happy days of 1854 the wages of the laborer were so low that the hard-up man would hardly accept them to-day, farm laborers receiving from ten to twelve dollars a month, and laborers by the day from seventy-five cents to a dollar. We happen to know how farm laborers' wages were then, for we worked on a farm that very year.

When it came to discussing greenbacks, bonds and "honest money," he entered into quite an argument to show that the democratic party, "ever since it was first started seventy-eight years ago," had always insisted that gold and silver was the only constitutional currency; that the democrats fought the greenbacks during the war, and proved them unconstitutional; but that the republicans as a war measure justified the greenbacks, and with them saved the Union. His argument amounted to just this: "The democrats always insisted upon coin, and opposed greenbacks when they were a national necessity; now that the necessity for the unconstitutional greenbacks no longer exists, it is quite right for the democrats to advocate their continuance." But Mr. Norris took the best of care not to draw any conclusion from his arguments, or to say whether he is in favor of coin alone, or coin and greenbacks together and interchangeable, or irredeemable greenbacks alone, as the national currency.

The bonds he "demands shall be paid," but he doesn't say in what kind of stuff he will pay them. He did indeed assert that the bonds "were bought with a dollar worth only thirty-eight cents," and argue that payment of a debt in money "as good as that received" is an honest payment; leaving the only inference possible to be drawn that he is in favor of "honestly" paying the national debt with dollars worth thirty-eight cents each!

There had to be some extra demagogism in his speech, of course; he put in considerable of it in his well worded appeal to the prejudices of the foreign-born voter, and in his skillful attempt to make out that the employer is the enemy of the employed; but even on these points he left almost everything to be inferred.

On two points only did he speak plainly, and one of these points was concerning the present system of national banks. "The national banks must go." He not only spoke plainly and decisively against these banks, but he made statements ridiculously at variance with the truth. He read a lot of figures which he claimed shew that the profits of the national banks of Boston are thirteen per cent on the capital invested! The statement was ridiculous on its face; for as anybody who chooses can set up a national bank on complying with the law, such profits as Norris spoke of would draw all the capital in the country into the business. The fact is that several millions of dollars of currency have been surrendered by the Boston banks—more than a million within a year—because there was no profitable use for it, which would hardly have been done if they could have gotten Norris' thirteen per cent. The record shows that of sixty-one banks in Boston, one paid a dividend of five per cent on the first day of October, instant; seven paid four per cent, two 3 1-2 per cent, fourteen three per cent, one three per cent quarterly, five 2 1-2 per cent, seventeen two per cent, one 1 1-2 per cent, and four passed their dividends entirely, not having made anything to divide. Not much "thirteen per cent" there. Mr. Norris has no excuse for making such recklessly untruthful statements as he did, for on application to the democratic candidate for governor, Hon. Frank A. McKean, who is a national banker, he could have learned the facts in the matter.

Said Mr. Norris: "If we abolish the national banking system, what shall we have in place of it? In answer I will say that I am in favor of the government issuing the needed currency, not in the interest of the bankers and bond-holders, but of the people." This sounded well, and produced more show of enthusiasm than any other utterance of the evening; but it meant nothing. He did not say how he would have the government get the needed currency into the people's hands, nor does he know; but "the interests of the people" sounds nicely in a political speech even though it be uttered by the most unscrupulous of demagogues.

The other point on which he spoke decisively was as to his wanting votes; he said he was the regular candidate of the democratic party, and on this ground, and also because he faithfully represented democratic principles, he asked the suffrages of the people of the first Congressional district.

But he won't get enough of such suffrages to send him to Congress, and the oftener he repeats the speech we have referred to the fewer votes he will get from people who believe in knowing what principles they are voting for before they deposit their ballots.

News and Notes.

The Boston & Maine railroad pays a dividend of three per cent, Nov. 15th.

Robert McAulay, grand chaplain of the Orange Young Britons of Toronto, Ont., has been missing since the 1st inst. His body was found in the river on the 18th, the back of the head having a bullet hole in it. The murder is attributed to the late religious disturbances in that region.

The residence of Wm. G. Taber, in New Bedford, was entered by burglars early Wednesday evening, and robbed of watches, jewelry and other articles, valued at about two thousand dollars. The family were absent at the time, two female servants only being in the house.

Steamer John Bramhall, from New Haven for Constantinople with a valuable cargo of arms and ammunition for the Turkish government, went ashore on Little Gull island, twelve miles from New London, during a dense fog Friday evening. Saturday night she was reported in a dangerous position, with eleven feet of water in the hold. Crew safe.

It is feared that the Arctic exploring schooner Florence, Capt. Tyson, is lost with all hands, thirteen men all told. She left St. John, N. B., Sept. 26th, for New London, Conn., and is now nearly three weeks overdue.

The Glasgow Bank has absolutely sunk $63,000,000 within a few years.

In Lebanon, Ohio, a young man named Board, who belonged to a temperance society, charged two of his fellows with drunkenness, who were acquitted. In retaliation they preferred a similar charge against him, and he was dismissed. Enraged at that, Board went to a field where his informers were at work, and shot and killed both of them.

There was a slight frost at Memphis on Thursday night, and slightly cooler weather is prevailing in the whole Mississippi valley. The fever epidemic has passed its worst point, though the death rate is still heavy and new cases are occurring. The terrible distress occasioned among the laboring classes by the stoppage of all business will continue for many weeks yet.

During a horse race at Hartford, Conn., Friday, the first and second heats in the 2:31 race were won by Shadow; in the fourth heat the horse fell dead.

The American Journal of the Medical Sciences for the quarter ending Oct. 1st, is issued and contains the usual amount of information of value to the profession. Henry C. Lea, publisher, Nos. 706 and 708 Sansom street, Philadelphia; $5 per year, free of postage.

From Acute to Chronic

Is an easy stage in cases of dyspepsia. A slight attack of indigestion, especially when there is a predisposition to digestive weakness of the stomach, must speedily culminate in the most obstinate form of the disease. It is well, therefore, to adopt preventive methods early. Although Hostetter's Stomach Bitters overcomes, if persisted in, cases of dyspepsia of long standing, it is obviously the part of wisdom to use it ere the malady assumes a chronic phase. This is particularly true, because as dyspepsia advances, it engenders other bodily evils, such as disorder of the liver, constipation or undue looseness of the bowels, nervous disorders, hypochondria, sleeplessness. These maladies are both prevented and remedied by the Bitters, but how much better to check them in their outset with the great alterative, than to wait until they established a firmer foothold in the system. Surely the advisability of this must be apparent.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. nov9

Why throw away so much money trying worthless medicines, when for 35 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure coughs, colds, sore lungs and croup? Give it a trial. Adamson's Balsam will do it.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes thus, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsep10 79

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Ship Paul Jones, Capt. Gerrish, has sailed from Shanghai for Manila.

Among the recently announced failures is that of the potato crop; assets small.

The republicans of ward one are requested to meet at the ward room on Elm street at half-past seven o'clock Wednesday evening, on business connected with the present campaign. A full attendance is especially desired.

The State Teachers' Association at Concord, Friday, elected E. P. Ruggles of Dartmouth college as president for the ensuing year, and R. H. Perkins and William H. Gardiner of this city as two of the three secretaries.

The Times up to Saturday night had not heard of the political auction held by the democrats and greenbackers in room ten of the Rockingham house Friday night, when all the "principles" offered for sale were bought in by their holders, the prices offered not being satisfactory.

The ship Calcutta, Capt. Hanser, bound from Rangoon to the English Channel, was towed into Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, Oct. 1st., by the American schooner Georgette Laurana, the Calcutta's rudder being gone. The captain of the schooner claims fifty thousand dollars salvage.

Mr. Thomas Carleton was picked up Saturday afternoon by men from Doane's wharf, who saw him overboard in "the pool" below Newcastle second bridge, and put off in a boat to his assistance. His dory was picked up by Mr. William P. Israel and another man, who found her capsized and with her mast-thwart broken. Mr. Carleton received no other harm than a thorough wetting.

Of course no good democrat who last week listened to and applauded Mr. Norris' Franklin hall diatribe against national banks, and believed his denunciation of them as oppressors and swindlers of "the people" to be just, will vote for Hon. Frank A. McKean for governor, Mr. McKean being prominently connected with the Indian Head National Bank of Nashua. The Young War Eagle's effort must therefore result in a fearful amount of democratic ticket-scratching on election day.

Capt. B. F. Williams of this city, commanding the barque Adolph Engler, has had a rough experience on his first trip as master of this vessel, of which he has for several voyages been chief officer. The barque sailed from New York for Bordeaux, France, on the 10th inst., and was knocked on her beam ends by the great gale of the 12th and had her decks swept and cargo badly shifted. She put in at Delaware Breakwater on Friday, the 18th, to repair damages. Capt. Williams' wife we believe accompanied him on this voyage, and if so has probably imbibed a very poor opinion of the delights of a life on the ocean wave.

We are not yet positively assured whether the Friday night conference in room ten at the Rockingham house was due to certain would-be democratic leaders who desired to sell the democratic voters of this Congressional district to the greenbackers, or to the desire of the greenback leaders to sell their followers to the democrats; all we know to a certainty in the matter is that there was a desperate attempt among certain prominent men of both the parties named to trade off "principles" for votes and office, that the attempt disastrously failed, and that it has rendered the election of Hon. Joshua G. Hall of Dover as Congressman from this district a doubly-assured assurance.

Lieut. Nathaniel J. Coffin, of this city, who is still suffering from the effects of a wound in the head, received in May, 1863, in an action on the banks of the Nansemond river, has just made application to the governor of New Hampshire for an examination by a board of New Hampshire surgeons, with the view of obtaining from the State officials a certificate of his being entitled to a pension from the United States. His application is presented to the governor by his honor Mayor Sise, under the city seal. There is no doubt that he deserves a pension. The nature of the wound so affected his head that he was unfitted for properly applying for a pension until it was so late as to make it difficult to procure the proper vouchers. We have known Mr. Coffin from boyhood, and believe that he is above any misstatement in the matter, and what we hear and know of him prior and subsequent to the rebellion leads us to believe that there are many worthy men on the pension list much less deserving than he.—Journal.

We are able to give our political friends in other parts of the State some news which they will not dislike to receive, regarding the way things are working right about here. In this city, where the sore-headedness of certain disappointed democratic politicians and republican ex-office-holders first crystalized into a "national" greenback movement, the few republicans who were drawn into it by the hue and cry raised by the greenbackers, or by their specious arguments and false premises, are rapidly dropping back into the republican ranks; and a democrat whom we have always found to be well informed and reliable on political matters tells us that the same may to a great extent be said of those democrats who joined the greenback movement from any other motives than those of revenge.

THE DEMO-GREENBACK CONFERENCE.

There are several accounts current concerning the "secret" meeting of democratic and greenback leaders in room ten of the Rockingham house, Friday night. One story is that the leaders met fully determined to make a trade, and that the only reason a trade was not effected was because there are not half enough offices in the district. None of the aforesaid leaders have enough political "principles" to weight them down in a race for office, and each party was perfectly willing to sacrifice its principles for the sake of votes; but each party wanted the offices, and there's where the hitch occurred. The democratic managers thought the greenbackers should support Norris for Congress, he being as good a greenbacker as Chesley; while the latter's supporters thought a straight-out greenbacker more worthy than a greenbacker who attempts to disguise himself as a democrat. All agreed that only union would give any show of defeating the republicans; but they were unable to unite on any satisfactory plan for dividing the spoils, each party wanting the whole lot.

Another account is that sent to the Boston papers, to the effect that "the conclave was called together by members of the democratic party to consult relative to the feasibility of the withdrawal of Herbert F. Norris, democratic candidate for Congress in the first district, and Lafayette Chesley, the greenback candidate, in favor of some other individual acceptable to both parties. The conclave held a session which extended far into night and resulted in Chesley's peremptory refusal to withdraw, which has, it is understood, settled the matter." That such a scheme as this was under consideration was talked of a week before the conclave met, John W. Sanborn of Wakefield being mentioned as the probable compromise candidate.

A third version is that the conference was engineered by Charles A. Sinclair, son of Hon. John G. Sinclair; that none of the prominent leaders of the local democracy were invited; that both parties wanted to buy, and neither would sell at any reasonable price; that the Young War Eagle would not consent to have his wings clipped, and that Henry Peyser and some others denounced the auction so furiously, threatening to secure the calling of another convention in case Norris was switched off, that the plan of swapping principles had to be abandoned. It is further stated that Mr. Norris, before the conclave met, said he was not and would not be a party to any trade, and intended to maintain his present position as the regularly nominated democratic candidate until the proper dignitaries of his own party requested his withdrawal; and further, that he took no part in any of the "negotiations."

Still another yarn is that the greenback managers got up the meeting, but their demand was so absurd, being nothing less than the almost unconditional withdrawal of Mr. Norris, that no agreement could be reached.

The points on which all accounts agree are that there was an attempt at bargain and sale between the "mint-drops" democracy and the "fiat-money" men, and that it fell through on account of the greed of one or both parties to the transaction; and that the result of such a shameless attempt at barter must be deserved disaster to both sides.

Among the prominent politicians present (Herbert F. Norris, the democratic candidate for Congress, was at the Rockingham house that night, but as we have before stated, his friends deny that he was one of the auctioneers,) were Lafayette Chesley, greenback candidate for Congress, George E. Hodgdon, chairman of the greenback State committee, George N. Proctor, democratic and greenback candidate for county commissioner, John Q. Rolles of Ossipee, John D. Brown, democratic candidate for county commissioner, A. Langdon Jenness, democratic candidate for sheriff, John W. Sanborn of Wakefield, Charles E. George, John S. Treat, Wm. Conn, Henry F. Wendell, Henry Peyser, Thomas H. Odion and others.

If any aggrieved participant in the abortive attempt at sale wishes to explain matters, we shall be happy to hear from him.

THE VICINITY.

The young democracy of Dover have organized a club, with Charles A. Dore as president, Joseph E. Ham secretary, and Benjamin E. Whitehouse treasurer.

Senator Rollins delivered a ringing honest-money speech at Hampton, Friday evening, and handled the repudiation schemes of the greenbackers without gloves.

The greenbackers of Greenland have organized a club, with P. B. Holmes president, Nathaniel Wiggin vice president, and William F. Bennett secretary. They claim to have thirty voters in that town, drawn about equally from both the old parties. The greenback party of the town of Stratham claims a membership of eighteen.

As a number of persons were proceeding in a team from Newmarket to Stratham, Thursday evening, to attend a political meeting, Mr. Edward O'Leary of South Newmarket, a man about forty-five years of age, thinking the team was being driven too fast for safety jumped out, and struck upon his head. He was taken up insensible, and died on Friday, without having regained consciousness.

The mother of Mr. Henry Calkins of Exeter made the coffee for the family on Friday, and not getting it strong enough at first put in some more—the addition proving to be horse medicine. The result was that Mr. Calkins and his three sons, his mother and an old lady named Williams, were all taken sick; Mrs. Williams became delirious, and the others became dizzy and lost their sight, but prompt medical attendance saved them, and no serious results are anticipated.

A Hampton correspondent writes: "A young man who went to the beach Sunday before last reports that he found two men seaweeding, two were gathering mussels from the rocks and one was picking up coal which was left on the rocks by the wrecked schooner Hampden. Such desecration of the Sabbath is a disgrace to the community." Which of the parties it was, the chaps who were at work or the young man who walked out for pleasure, that desecrated the Sabbath, the correspondent does not say.

There was a town meeting at Hampton, Friday, at which the voters of the town authorized the selectmen to remove settlers who have built houses on the rocks and near the beach, the sites of which are claimed by the town. About fifty-three well-built houses are erected, some of which are owned by Manchester parties. There has been a dispute with the town for a long time over the right of building there. The settlers claim that the land belongs to the government, and not to the town of Hampton. The result is looked forward to with interest.

Mr. Abram M. Drake of Dover having been nominated for the State senate by the greenbackers of that district, has been persecuted therefor in a petty way, according to the Democrat, which says that on Thursday night, "in the still hours, when all honest men and decent people, not employed as public watchmen, were in bed and asleep, some nocturnal hell-birds went and plastered the fences and buildings of Mr. Drake where he resides, all over with placards inscribed in large type, 'Greenbacks,' 'Rag Baby,' 'Honest Money,' and we don't know what else;" for which the editor thinks the perpetrators should receive "forty lashes at the whipping-post."

An Epping correspondent of the News Letter says: "A grand rally of the greenbackers of this town and vicinity was advertised to be held at Bunker's hall for the 8th inst. Flaming posters, headed with a spread eagle and the words "Have you heard from Maine?" were posted conspicuously about town. The evening arrived, as also did the speakers, Hazen and Sulloway, of Manchester; the hall was lighted and put in order for the great demonstration, but no crowd gathered, and the meeting was postponed until Thursday evening, the 10th, when it met with the same result as before, except that this time the speakers did not put in an appearance. Thus ended the great greenback rally. The people here have heard from Ohio and the elections in other States as well as that of Maine. The greenback wave, which at one time threatened to roll over the town, is fast receding."

"Major" George S. Wentworth, of Salmon Falls, who it is said keeps a liquor saloon and has long kept it in defiance of the State law, has gotten himself into further trouble by also defying the Supreme Court. It seems that there were a number of indictments found against him, but he failed to appear at the late term of the court in Strafford county to answer, and a copias was issued and placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Legro of Rochester, who took with him Deputy Sheriff Nason of the same town and went to Wentworth's saloon to arrest him. On reaching the place they found a lot of hard-looking customers in the saloon, but the officers gave them due notice, and none of them ventured to interfere; Wentworth, however, fought vigorously, and the officers had to handcuff him and tie him with cords before they could take him to Dover jail, where they finally placed him to stay until he can find sureties in $5000 for his appearance to answer when wanted.

At Exeter last winter several stores were robbed, a large amount of clothing being taken from the store of George S. Cutts. The parties have just been arrested and sentenced to seven years' imprisonment in Lawrence, Mass., for stealing in that city. They confessed to entering the stores at Exeter.

GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of

$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

THE GREAT

FALL RIVER LINE,

BETWEEN

BOSTON and NEW YORK.

THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS

Bristol and Providence,

Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly, in the World!

Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY Railroad Station at 4:30 (Accommodation) and 6 (Mammoth) and Fall River Depots, connect with these "Floating Palaces" at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.

No line can offer the accommodations presented by this favorite route.

ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL,

Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—

NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,

But enabling passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.

Grand Promenade Concert on each Steamer every evening during the summer.

New and Elegant Drawing-Room Cars on Steamboat Express Train.

BROOKLYN ANNEX STEAMER connects with this Line only, leaving Pier 28, North River, New York, on arrival of steamer from the East. Passengers and baggage for Brooklyn transferred free.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ring Worm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color, and a dull, or yellowish-brown spot on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seed. They are entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. They does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and enclosed in glass tubes, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from nostrils, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried RIGHT UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from mild to loathsome, may arise, may be to thin to irritate, so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow, like cream, and a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surface looking dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free mattery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The mattery matter running down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the matter becomes hard and forms into scales, resembles, and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throats as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery on rising in the morning, the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, marks it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with simple directions for effecting a cure with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, a speedy and permanent cure. Also testimonials from all parts of the country attest the importance to all afflicted with catarrh, health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

"THE BOSTON BARD."

In years gone by among the contributors to the press of the "city of notions," was a young man named Robert S. Coffin, but who was earlier known from his signature of "The Boston Bard." As his productions were much above the average of newspaper rhyme then, and very much above no small proportion of what appears as such now, they were always acceptable wherever bestowed, and found plenty of readers. The following, that appeared several years previous to that ever-admired poem, may have given to Drake the idea for "The American Flag:"

COLUMBIA'S FREEDOM.

When Freedom, 'midst the battle storm,
Her weary head reclined,
Around her fair, majestic form
Oppression pain had twined;
Amidst the din—beneath the cloud,
Great WASHINGTON appeared,
With daring hand rolled back the shroud,
And thus the sufferer cheered:

"Spurn, spurn despair! be great, be free!
With giant strength arise!
Stretch, stretch thy pinions, Liberty,
Thy flag plant in the skies!
Clothe, clothe thyself in glory's robe,
Let stars thy banner gem!
Rule, rule the sea—possess the globe,
Wear victory's diadem!

"Go tell the world a world is born,
Another orb gives light,
Another sun illumes the morn,
Another star the night.
Be just, be brave—and let thy name
Henceforth Columbia be;
Wear, wear the oaken wreath of fame—
The wreath of liberty."

He spake, and lo! the stars of night
Forth to her banner flew,
And morn, with pencil dipt in light,
Its blushes on it drew.
Columbia's chieftain seized the prize,
All gloriously unfurl'd,
Soared with it to his native skies,
And waved it o'er the world!

Of a roving disposition, like many another disciple of Faust, he started off to see something more of the world than Boston afforded, and in time, stopping here and there meanwhile, reached New York, then much farther away, seemingly, than now, in this age of steam—where the habit of moving on May-day gave him a theme for the following humorous poem:

THE FIRST OF MAY.

First of May, clear the way!
Baskets, barrows, trundles;
Take good care, mind the ware!
Betty, where's the bundles?
Pots and kettles, broken victuals,
Feather beds, plaster heads,
Looking glasses, hair mattresses,
Spoons and ladles, babies' cradles,
Cups and saucers, salts and casters,
Hurry, scurry—grave and gay,
All must budge the first of May.

Now we start, mind the cart!
Shovels, bed clothes, bedding,
On we go, soft and slow
Like a beggar's wedding!
Jointed stools, domestic tools,
Chairs unbacked, tables cracked,
Gridiron black, spit and jack,
Trammels, books, musty books,
Old pointers, ventilators,
Hurry, scurry—grave or gay,
On we trudge the first of May.

Now we've got to the spot,
Bellows, bureau, settee;
Ropes untie, mind your eye,
Pray be careful, Betty!
Jove! what's this? Broken ware;
Decanters dashed, china smashed,
Pickles spoiled, carpets soiled,
Sideboard scratched, cups unmatched,
Empty casks, broken flasks!
Hurry, scurry—grave or gay,
Deuce take the first of May!

Journeying onward, after remaining for a while in the now great city, which did not then extend as far up town as Union square, he was heard of at various places in the Empire State, Auburn among others, through the newspapers, in which he left poetic memorials of himself. Entering on a chilly autumn day one of the newspaper offices where he found employment when he wished it while on his travels, the man who was arranging the columns—in typographical phrase "making up"—for the next issue, said to him as he went home for his dinner, "Robert, we have nothing this week for 'the poet's corner;' can't you give us something seasonable?" and on his return he found the following in the right place, the poet's corner, which the author had put in type without stopping to write it upon paper:

MY WIFE, MY CAT AND ME.

Let winter come, with chilling look,
And strip the summer bower;
He cannot rob me of my book,
Or philosophic hour.
Yes, let him come, with aspect chill,
The leaves strip from the tree—
There's three that can be happy still,
My wife, my cat, and me.

The storm may howl, the snow may fall,
The frost may glitter bright;
I heed them not, while on the wall
The hearth-fire shows its light;
Nor care I how the wind may blow,
If from a dun I'm free,
For little will suffice, you know,
My wife, my cat, and me.

The fool may pleasure take in wealth,
I covet not his pelf;
He's richer who's a mine of health,

Who lives not for himself.
How sweet to hote for brighter days,
Though they should never be
While warm we sit before the blaze,
My wife, my cat and me.

And when old age, with silent pace,
Strews o'er our heads the snows,
Ploughs furrows deep upon the face,
And steals the full-blown rose,
How sweet 'twill be when death shall come,
To know that then we three
Shall sleep together in one tomb,
My wife, my cat, and me.

The idea of the cat finding the same earthly resting place at last with her master and mistress is rather a comical one, yet there is something very soothing in the lines that contain it, if a fanciful one to the author, who was unmarried. The following was his reply when some one had said he was often inclined to ask what is true charity, so frequently were good people imposed upon, in bestowing their benevolence, by the undeserving:

"WHAT IS CHARITY?"

'Tis not to pause when at my door
A shivering brother stands,
To ask the cause that made him poor,
And why he help demands.

'Tis not to spurn that brother's prayer
For faults he once has known,
'Tis not to leave him in despair,
And say that I have none.

The voice of Charity is kind,
She thinketh nothing wrong;
To every fault she seemeth blind,
Nor vaunteth with her tongue.

In penitence she placeth faith,
Hope smileth at her door;
Believeth first, then softly saith,
"Go, brother, sin no more!"

Some one had said "A man may go far, and tarry long away, if his health be good and his hopes high, but when flesh and spirit begin to fail, he will hear a voice calling on him to return to his early home and the haunts of his childhood." So did the subject of this sketch return from his wandering, and after lingering for a season, he went to his final rest while still in his youth from that saddest of maladies, known as consumption, and the grass of many summers has been green upon his grave. The Incorruptible Democracy

Of Massachusetts seem quite as ready to sell out to the greenbackers as the Maine and New Hampshire democrats have shown themselves to be. Ben Butler is the candidate of the great mass of the democratic party, and even those who don't like his candidacy don't dare to say so, with a few exceptions; and every minor convention held shows more and more the wretched vacillation and want of principle of the once sturdy democracy. In the second congressional district, Friday, Hon. Edward Avery was nominated, and made a speech in which he avoided every vital issue of the day with wondrous skill; and no platform at all was adopted, that noble champion of "principle," Frank Bird, urging that course because "no resolutions could be introduced that would not create discussion!" The democratic convention in the first senatorial district enlisted openly under the greenback flag, and adopted Chellis, the greenback candidate, as the democratic one.

Wheeler and Wilson at Paris.

The following despatch came across by the cable Monday afternoon: "Exposition Universelle, Paris, Oct. 21st. Wheeler & Wilson, Union square, New York, are awarded for their new Sewing Machines one of the special grand prizes of the Exposition—the only grand prize awarded for sewing machines—over eighty competitors.

State Unitarian Association.

The sixteenth annual meeting of the New Hampshire Unitarian Association will be held with the Second Congregational society in Concord on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 28th and 29th of October. Among the matters of business to be transacted at this meeting are these: "Shall the present State organization be dissolved, and our churches left to seek new relations with other associations and conferences?" "Shall we unite with the Universalists in holding a series of Grove Meetings the coming season?" "Shall we try to establish a Liberal School in New Hampshire?" The members of the Second Congregational society offer the hospitality of their homes to all who may attend this meeting, and the committee of assignment will be in attendance at the church, on the arrival of the forenoon trains on Tuesday, and thereafter throughout the meeting. It is requested that, if possible, all such persons send in their names beforehand to J. C. A. Hill, of Concord. Return tickets at reduced rates will be issued by the Concord railroad.

News and Notes.

Mob outrages are becoming very frequent in Connecticut. A Mr. Middlings of Harwinton being suspected of poisoning four horses of Leonard Bradley, and attempting to poison Bradley's family, a mob went to his house Oct. 12th intending to tar and feather him, but he was away. The mob went again Sunday night but he had again fled. They removed his furniture, tore down the house and fired it, leaving nothing but ashes. They then departed, after telling Mrs. Middlings that if they could find her husband within forty miles they would hang him to the nearest tree.

A telegram to the agents of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company gives the following changes in date of sailing from San Francisco: Steamer Belgic sails Oct. 24; steamer Gaelic, Nov. 16; steamer City of Tokio, Dec. 3; steamer Oceanic, Dec. 17; steamer City of Peking, Jan. 4. There will be no steamer from San Francisco on Nov 1.

A two-mile sculling race for a purse of $2000, between Evan Morris and Fred Plaisted was pulled at Pittsburg, Pa., Friday, and won by the former, who crossed the line about three lengths ahead of his opponent. Morris' time is claimed to be the fastest on record for a race of this description. It was thirteen minutes forty-five seconds, Plaisted ending seven seconds later.

A special to the New York World denies the report that Ida Lewis, America's Grace Darling, is engaged to be married to a well-known gentleman at present residing in Newport. She was married some time ago to an honest seafaring man named Wilson, whose home is at Black Rock, Conn., and by whom she is the mother of one child. It is said that Wilson is a hard-working, honest, well-conducted man, but Ida, for some unexplained reason refuses to live with him.

At Talladega, Ala., Thursday night, Frank Bowden, Louis Whitson and Alfred Plowman were examining an old pistol in Bowden's room. Plowman handed the pistol to Bowden, when it accidentally went off, killing Plowman almost instantly. The parties are all prominent young men of the place.

William Bromhall, who was charged by his only brother, Edward, with pushing him out of a boat in the Sound and trying to drown him so as to get the property he inherited from his father, was before the city court, New Haven, Saturday, to answer the charge of attempt to murder. His counsel argued for postponement for four weeks. Prosecuting Attorney Pickett claimed that there was no good reason for postponement, and said the result might be an attempt at settlement outside of the court, something that would never be done with his permission. The court continued the case one week. The boys are of good family, and the case has excited much interest. Edward saved his life by swimming five miles in the dark, and landing on a reef in East Haven.

By a railroad collision at Pont-y-pridd, Wales, Sunday, twelve persons were killed outright, and about forty more wounded, several of whom will die.

The secretary, managing director and six other directors of the suspended City of Glascow bank were arrested Saturday on a charge of fraud. The burden of the bank's immense losses will fall primarily on about two hundred wealthy shareholders. Many disastrous failures of large employers of labor throughout the United Kingdom are anticipated in consequence.

James Sawyer & Co., of London, have failed; estimated deficit, £2,000,000. Alexander Bell & Sons have failed, with heavy liabilities. Hanna, Denno & Wilson, engineers at Paisley, Scotland, have failed with liabilities of $350,000.

Scribner's Monthly for the past year has been richer in pictorial interest and literature than ever before since it was started. It is difficult to see how it could be improved upon, yet the publishers propose to take every advantage possible of past experience to improve the coming volume. The announcements of papers and authors in their prospectus warrants the public in relying upon receiving a magnificent illustrated library of reading for the price of the subscription, $4.00. Send for a prospectus to Scribner & Co., 743 Broadway, New York.

"The Rag Fair" and "Little Stay at Home" are the titles of two new books, for the holiday season of the present year, by L. Clarkson, whose "Gathering of the Lilies" last year, and "Violet" of the year before, were so popular. The "Rag Fair" is a superbly illustrated work, the designs having been made by the author, and engraved on wood. For genuine literary power, and original artistic design, it far surpasses any previous effort of this successful author, and may safely be considered the most remarkable book that has appeared for years. The "Little Stay at Home" is a collection of delicate and charming writings for the little ones, very handsomely illustrated, and in every way made attractive for children. Both books will be published by F. W. Robinson & Co., Philadelphia, and will be ready early in November.

St. Nicholas commences the sixth volume with the issue for November, 1878, and will contain three new serials by Frank R. Stockton, Susan Coolidge, and Katharine D. Smith, all profusely illustrated, also a continued Fairy Story, by Julian Hawthorne. An enlargement of the magazine is contemplated, and that it will be in the future as in the past the most charming publication for young people in the world, is more than guaranteed. $3.00 a year. Scribner & Co., New York.

Wide Awake, published by D. Lothrop & Co., Boston, is a most charming magazine. Its stories, illustrations, etc., are bright and taking, and it is a constant delight to the little people, and large ones as well. Subscribe for it as a holiday gift to the children, and they will be delighted a whole year. Price, $2.00.

New Hampshire Items.

George, youngest son of the late Hon. David A. Ward, accidentally shot himself with a pistol at Concord on Saturday afternoon. The ball entered his abdomen, and the wound is considered fatal. He is fifteen years old.

Mr. Arba Kidder, sexton of the Woodland cemetery at Keene, aged about seventy years, while at work on Sunday shoveling out sand from a newly dug grave, fell dead in the place he was preparing for another. His death is supposed to have been from heart disease.

—What is that which never asks any questions, but has to have many answers? A street door.

—They were playing at cards, when all of a sudden the game was interrupted, angry words passed and the players rose: "See here, you're holding altogether too many aces." "What do you say, sir?" "I say you are a swindler." "I will call you to account for this unpardonable insult." "I am at your service at any time." "Here is my card, sir." [Throws down, by mistake, another ace which he draws from his pocket.]

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dissept19 79

THE CITY.

United States Senator Rollins and Hon. William E. Chandler will speak in this city on the evening of Thursday, Oct. 31st.

Piscataqua Lodge of Odd Fellows on Monday evening voted by a small majority to secure quarters in Jones' new block when finished.

The steamer James A. Gary, Capt. Grant, put in at this port Sunday morning, took on board three hundred barrels of apples and sailed Sunday evening for Calais, Me.

Rev. James DeNormandie of this city will deliver an address on "Our work in the State" before the Unitarian Association meeting at Concord on the 28th inst. The address will be followed by discussion.

William T. Norris, Esq., of Danville, the law partner of Herbert F. Norris, democratic candidate for Congress from this district, Charles A. George of Burnstead, and Andrew J. Hoyt of Exeter, addressed a greenback meeting in Franklin hall, Monday evening.

The Times on Monday managed to hear of the "political auction" at the Rockingham house on Friday night, in time to get a brief mention of it in the issue of Monday evening. It made a very "funny" item, but didn't give the public any information worth mentioning.

The directors of the New-York, Lake Erie & Western railway have created the office of General Manager, to which they have appointed Mr. Robert Harris, formerly of this city and late president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, and an experienced railroad officer.

The schooner Telegraph, which was wrecked in the great gale at Vineyard Haven on the 12th inst., while on the way from Richmond to this port with a load of railroad iron, was condemned, and the hull and materials saved from the wreck were sold on Monday. About half of her cargo of iron has been taken out by divers.

Two fellows, named William H. Moulton and James Keenan, were thirsty early in the day Monday, and not having any spare cash on hand thought by cunning to secure the necessaries for a first-class drunk, and so stole a two-gallon jug of cherry rum. The police were notified and succeeded in arresting the thieves, who were locked up in the station house to await an interview with Judge Bufford this morning.

By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that Mr. Milton Nobles is to appear at Music hall on Thursday evening in "the Phœnix"—concerning which, and his acting in the piece, the Boston Journal says: "It is seldom that an actor succeeds as an author, especially when he plays the leading part in his own piece. Mr. Milton Nobles may be looked upon as an exception to this rule. 'The Phœnix' is full of striking situations. It is not essentially a drama, for it is full of the elements of genuine comedy, and it is in this light of the piece that Mr. Nobles shines. The play is sufficiently full of the popular elements to afford an evening of thorough enjoyment, as it caters to the lover of comedy as well as the supporter of sensational drama. The fire scene and the gambling saloon, especially the finale of the latter scene, are highly dramatic in construction, and powerful in situation."

THE VICINITY.

Mr. George W. Goodwin, of the "Witch Trot" district of South Berwick, has captured nine foxes since the first day of October.

Mr. F. W. Roberts in a letter to the Biddeford Times says the nolle prosequi in the case State of Maine vs. George Bowden of York, indicted for arson, was asked for by the Attorney General "on account of newly discovered evidence which was indubitably fatal to the prosecution," and not on account of any informality in the indictment.

Henry Arlington of New York, while gunning in the woods near Hampton Monday morning, was it is feared fatally shot through the accidental discharge of his gun through the trigger striking the branch of a tree, the entire charge of the gun lodging in his body. He was conveyed to a house near by, where he now lies in an unconscious state.

Mrs. Clara McIntire, an elderly lady of York, recently carded a quantity of wool, spun it into yarn, dyed it, and knitted a pair of stockings a yard long, in two days and a half, besides performing her other duties in the meanwhile. It was hardly necessary to say that Mrs. McIntire is "elderly," as not many of the young girls of the present day know how to do the work specified.

The York and Kittery Christian society's pulpit at Beech Ridge, York, is now filled every Sunday by Mr. Whitney of North Berwick, and the singing is led by a quartette choir. The Sabbath school, assisted by the choir, gave a concert in the church last Sunday evening, which was largely attended by the dwellers in the vicinity. The Ladies' Aid society of Kittery and York held a meeting in the church on Wednesday of last week, the reports and remarks being of considerable interest.

Eben Kennison of Epping was arraigned before the police court in Exeter on Monday for making counterfeit money, and having in his possesssion instruments and dies for the manufacture of counterfeit coin. Kennison's premises were searched last week by Deputy Sheriff Odlin, and small counterfeit coin and implements of their manufacture were found. Kennison was placed under bonds of $400 for his appearance at the April term of court. J. Warren Towle of Exeter appeared for the State, and Charles H. Smith of Newmarket for the respondent.

Referring to the visit of the Great Falls military company to Dover, the Democrat says: "According to all reports the Great Falls Cadets beat the whole world and the rest of mankind in the perfection of their drill and the very nice accuracy of their every movement. No such practice was ever before seen in this part of the world, at all events. Unbeknown, perhaps, to these cadets, there was one old United States army officer present who knew all about the tactics, and he averred that he had never seen anything quite equal to the display of the cadets last night. He is enthusiastic in their praise. It is not too much to say that they have no superiors anywhere. They apparently know it all, and the only wonder was how and when they got it. It is perfectly evident that the most thorough and persistent practice under a skillful proficient as commander can alone account for it. All our people want them to come again." It was this company which won the reputation of being the crack one of the State, on inauguration day at Concord, last spring.

Mr. John K. A. Hanson of this city was over through portions of York and Kittery one day last week on an advertising excursion. He was dressed in the green suit which has become so familiar on our streets, and created a decided sensation. In one place he looked over a wall as a ploughman drove a yoke of oxen up to it, and the usually stolid animals, after a brief look at the astounding apparition, started on a furious run, ploughed zigzag furrow clear across a mowing field, tumbled the ploughman into a ditch, and only stopped when the plough brought up against the roots of an apple tree. Horses snorted and disappeared in the woods, hens cackled and flew under the barn, and school children fancied they had discovered a new kind of grasshopper. It is even said that several old farmers commenced the rapid repetition of such of the ten commandments as they could recall to memory, under the mistaken impression that a being whom we will not name had arrived to call them to account for their greenback heresy.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Oct. 21; Bufford, J.

Nathaniel Danielson, for drunkenness, was assessed $11.90, and not having the money to pay was sent to Brentwood.

Edward Chamberlain, another drunk, was sent to Brentwood $9.90 worth.

John Thompson, a marine, paid $9.90 for the one drunk he had expended.

Edward Keefe, for brawl and tumult, was also ordered to hand over the frequent $9.90, and did so.

JOHNSON'S UNINERSAL CYCLOPAÆDIA.

U. S. Navy Yard, Portsmouth, N. H., Naval Constructor's office, October 19th, 1878.

Mr. J. Reid, Jr.; Dear Sir: For three years I have been the fortunate possessor of Johnson's Encyclopædia, using it as a work of reference in preference to others that I have. I consider it the best I have ever seen, and every professional and business man would do well to secure it when able so to do. The articles are very complete and can be relied upon.

THEODORE D. WILSON,
Naval Constructor, U. S. N.

Naval Matters.

Lieut. Edward W. Sturdy is detached from the naval observatory and ordered to the Ticonderoga.

Admiral Paulding, senior flag-officer on the retired list of the navy, son of the captor of Major Andre, and the last surviving officer of the battle of Lake Champlain, died at Huntington, L. I., Sunday.

Ensign David Daniels is detached from the Wabash, and ordered to the Ticonderoga.

Passed Asst. Engrs. Samuel Gragg and Joseph P. Mickley are ordered to the Ticonderoga.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de evenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

From Acute to Chronic

Is an easy stage in cases of dyspepsia. A slight attack of indigestion, especially when there is a predisposition to digestive weakness of the stomach, must speedily culminate in the most obstinate form of the disease. It is well, therefore, to adopt preventive methods early. Although Hostetter's Stomach Bitters overcomes, if persisted in, cases of dyspepsia of long standing, it is obviously the part of wisdom to use it ere the malady assumes a chronic phase. This is particularly true, because as dyspepsia advances, it engenders other bodily evils, such as disorder of the liver, constipation or undue looseness of the bowels, nervous disorders, hypochondria, sleeplessness. These maladies are both prevented and remedied by the Bitters, but how much better to check them in their outset with the great alterative, than to wait until they established a firmer foothold in the system. Surely the advisability of this must be apparent.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

Why throw away so much money trying worthless medicines, when for 35 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure coughs, colds, sore lungs and croup? Give it a trial. Adamson's Balsam will do it.

Travellers often wonder why their fellow-travellers are so loud in their praise of the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, but, after a visit themselves, hay are satisfied of its famous excellence.

Some of the new styles of Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs introduce a style of finish with embossed gold bronze ornamentation, by a new process; at once the most elegant and chaste finish yet employed on such instruments. Prices are very low for such workmanship.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamak on of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. tnov9

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

The fact of the business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

Political.

Mr. S. J. Tilden denies that he knows anything of the cipher deppatches. The fact is, old Sam is "breaking up." A man whose memory was so bad as long ago as the income tax returns were made up as to forget to return the enormous sums he then received, would in the bustle of the Florida business perhaps forget this trifle of the cipher despatches. It is not to be wondered at. It is purely a loss of memory.

A New York paper publishes a letter from Salt Lake City, Utah, which tells of a scheme of the Mormon priesthood and democratic leaders to colonize Arizona and New Mexico with Mormons, so as to make those territories democratic. Large numbers of the Saints are said to have already been quietly emigrating thither upon the order of the leaders, and many more are preparing to go during the winter and spring; also, that a large number of Mormons in the southern States are emigrating to these new territories.

One McDonnell, who edits the Labor Standard, a communistic paper of Paterson, N. J., having been indicted for libel, some of his political friends threaten dire vengeance on any juryman who votes for his conviction.

If the "Ohio idea" resulted in a loss to the democrats, on the popular vote, of 28,000 since last year's election, it does not present a very encouraging inducement to follow it in other States. If this is true in general, it is pre-eminently so in Massachusetts.—Boston Post.

—"What I'd like to know," said a school-boy, "is how the mouths of rivers can be so much larger than their heads."

—The leading tenor of Vienna, who is driving the people there wild with enthusiasm, was formerly a baritone. In despair at some love affair he cut his throat and was taken to the hospital to die. A clever doctor mended him and he came out of the sick room the sweetest tenor in the world. The rest are ready now to cut their throats for jealousy.

—Some of the bodies of the drowned in the Princess Alice disaster were taken from the water, robbed and thrown back again, and in more than one case drowning passengers were passed by boatmen with the remark, "Oh, never mind him, he's alive; look out for the dead ones." This is owing to the regulation which provides that a reward of five shillings be paid for the recovery of every dead body, but fails to reward the rescuer of the living.

The Question of Profits.

"What is the profit and what the risk" are the first considerations in every business transaction. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City, make large profits monthly for their customers, by the new Combination System of operating in stocks at the N. Y. Stock Exchange. By this system they mass together various sums from thousands of customers and with the aggregate become giants in the street, placing their patrons on an equality with the kings of finance, whether the amount invested be great or small. $15 pays $75, or 5 per cent on the stock during 30 days. $75 pays $455, or 6 per cent; $200 pays $2,000, or 10 per cent., and so on, according to the market. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s circular (copyrighted and sent free) contains "Two working rules for success in stock operations," and explains everything. The Brooklyn Journal, April 29th, says; "Messrs. Lawrence & Co. have many facilities by which their customers secure advantages not otherwise obtainable. Our editor made a net profit of $101.25 on an investment of $20 in their combinations." The standing and responsibility of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., is unquestioned, and they furnish best of references. Highest market prices paid for all kinds of Stocks and Bonds, and new Government Loan supplied. oct22,nov1

—The item being circulated throughout the country that Christine Nilsson lost eight thousand pounds in two months is believed to be an ingenious advertisement of the anti-fat man.

—A Cincinnati liquor dealer applied to a customer for a letter of recommendation of a certain brand of whiskey he had recently sold him. The customer wrote: "I have tried all sorts of insect poison, and find none equal to your old cabinet whiskey."

—A San Francisco paper says that the convicts in the State prison have contributed more to the relief of the yellow fever sufferers than the State officers at Sacramento; the newsboys more than the railway officers, and the theatres more than the churches.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and Strafford counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

In use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Scrofula, Salt-Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly, or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ringworm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the care of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and continues to astonish physicians generally, that so powerful a remedy for this fatal disease should be discovered. It promotes the secretions, loosens the cough, relieves the night sweats and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are nearly larger than mustard seed, and are strictly vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. Infinitely superior to the Pill or Bolus in every respect. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escapes the sensative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are superseded and inclosed in glass vials, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden boxes, or paste board boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, alternations, coughing from throat, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or bulter applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of Cold in the Head by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. The temperaments and constitutions vary in severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from accumulous conditions of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the peculiar feature in all catarrhal affections of whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acrid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow-ish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, so as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The first mentioned discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing difficult, if not difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing down from the nose and throat, the mucous secretion becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard masses, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is expelled in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this now serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to seek speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Political.

William P. Kirk, nominated for alderman at large by the Tammany democrats of New York city, was formerly a school trustee, and was expelled from that position for blackmailing the teachers in the public schools.

The democratic board of aldermen of Brooklyn having made a special appropriation of $20,000 for the streets, the mayor has vetoed the bill on the ground that it was a shallow and hypocritical dodge to aid politicians in the forthcoming elections.

The latest report from Waterproof, La., shows that the "riot" there was a serious affair—for the colored republicans. The colored men, 400 strong, fired on a party of fifty whites, and didn't graze a man! The whites then killed eight negroes and wounded a lot more. When the republican account finally gets along we shall undoubtedly hear of another Coushatta affair.

—"Love is blind," and that's the reason why it can get along with one small hand-lamp, turned down as low as it will go, as well as under a blazing chandelier of fifty burners.

—"Whereas, dresses with trains raise in the streets clouds of dust injurious to the public health, the wearing of such dresses on the streets is hereby prohibited," says an ordinance just promulgated at Prague.

Hayes' Title.

However varied may be the opinions concerning the validity of Haye's title to the Presidency, there is not a question in the minds of either democrats or republicans upon one important point, viz: the unquestionable right of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines to the title of the Standard Remedies of the age. Listen to the voice of the sovereign people.

New Orleans, June 10th, 1878.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—Your Pleasant Purgative Pellets seem to be particularly adapted to wants of the people in this warm climate, where bilious affections are particularly prevalent. I regard them as the best cathartic I have ever tried.

Yours truly, JOHN C. HENDERSON.

Boston, Mass., May 14th, 1878.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—Your Golden Medical Discovery has cured my boy of a Fever Sore of two year's standing. Please accept our gratitude. Yours truly,

HENRY WHITING.

Well-Toned Systems.

Systems toned and renovated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are most effectually defended from disease. That supreme invigorant soon overcomes that distressing feebleness consequent upon ailments which impoverish the blood and relax the muscles. Vigor, appetite, sleep return to the wasted frame, and every physical faculty gains greater activity through its benign influence. Nor is this all, for the Bitters have a most genial and cheering effect upon the mind of the despondent invalid, which is the natural effect of the increased bodily vitality which they produce. Nervous symptoms disappear in consequence of the use of this medicine, and the evil consequences so to result from a premature decay of the physical energies are averted. Dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatic ailments, urinary and uterine irregularities, malarial diseases, and many other disordered conditions of the system, are remedied by the Bitters.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

The certain reliability of the monthly drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery Company have received during the raging of the epidemic a pretty severe test. Many persons were afraid that the drawings would be postponed, and others apprehensive that they could not get any response to their letters; but the management of this sterling institution has never seated or postponed a drawing since its incorporation in 1868, and has established a reputation for integrity and regularity of management unprecedented in the history of similar enterprises.

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

Thousands of testimonials to the efficacy and remarkable cures of Adamson's Botanic Balsam can be produced from leading citizens of the New England States. It cures colds, coughs and all throat and lung troubles. Sold everywhere at 35 cents.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclaim t on of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. tnov9

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

HILL'S HAIR & WHISKER DYE, Black or Brown, 40 cents.

The American Ship is an eight-page weekly devoted to nautical matters, engineering, naval and revenue interests and American industry in general. It is finely printed on good paper, and the early numbers (number three appeared Oct. 16th) are carefully edited and well filled with interesting matter and valuable information. Price $3.00 a year, single copy ten cents; address "The American Ship, No. 3 Park place, New York city."

The November number of the Folio contains six pieces of sacred and secular music, a portrait of Mlle. Eme Roseau and the usual amount of reading matter; single number 15 cts., or $1.50 per annum. Published by White, Smith & Co., 516 Washington street, Boston.

The Granite Monthly for October has a sketch and wood-cut of the handsomest man in Great Falls, W. J. Copeland. Fred Myron Colby contributes a day at old Kittery. Miss Lucia Moses of Somersworth sends in a finely written "rhapsody on old clothes"—a new idea for a woman; the latter article is one of the most readable of the kind that has appeared in the Granite for some time; the freshness of ideas, clothed in appropriate and gracefully expressed language, leads us to believe that the young writer will take a high rank in magazine literature should she incline to employ her pen in this kind of literary labor.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. liebl20 79

THE GREAT

FALL RIVER LINE,

BETWEEN

BOSTON and NEW YORK.

THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS

Bristol and Providence,

Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly in the World!

Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY Railroad Station at 4:30 (Accommodation) and 6 (Steamboat Express) P. M. connect with these "Floating Palaces" at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.

No line can offer the accommodations presented by this favorite route.

ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL,

Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—

NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,

But affording passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.

Grand Promenade Concert on each Steamer every evening during the summer.

New and Elegant Drawing-Room Cars on Steamboat Express Train.

BROOKLYN ANNEX STEAMER connects with this Line only, leaving Pier 28, North River, New York, on arrival of steamer from the East. Passengers and baggage for Brooklyn transferred free.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Scrofulous Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Experience has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has acquired the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system, and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and hurtful ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from Food, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotched Feeling about the Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age will not impair the potency of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved uninjured for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulceration, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PARKER'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY COLD to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and readily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, when the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge qualities of matter. The discharge from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from a simple cold in the head, may be dark and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow, fetid, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the membrane be dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free mattery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but like a boil or felon it is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucous membrane is found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery; in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, caused frequently by inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other. Thus, Every step in its preparation, every line in its direction, marks it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with valuable directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diseases of the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is accompanied with a bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. FOR SALE BY DRUGGISTS, wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Political.

Since 1866, Austria has had an absolutely irredeemable currency. The Austrian note promises nothing; it bears simply the declaration: "This State note will be received and paid out by all the imperial and royal depositories and officers for all payments which are not required by law to be made in coin." Such a currency our American philosophers predict will pay off the public debt and stand at par with gold and silver; but the Austrians find their absolute money a long way below par; their public debt amounts to 1625 millions of dollars, and is increasing; their five per cent consols sell in London for 57.

The greenbackers and democrats of the third district of Massachusetts have made a trade, and nominated for Congress Benjamin Dean, who now fills the seat in Congress to which the people elected Walbridge A. Field.

The Western Union Company collects the telegraphic "copy" from a wide area of country in New York and sends it to a paper mill. The agents of the company could sell this paper to anybody it chose. The New York Tribune controls one paper mill, and it is conjectured that the cipher telegrams were possibly sent to the Tribune's mill.

The "conservative" News and Courier, of Charleston, S. C., acknowledges that the armed and disciplined bodies of "redshirt" democrats break up republican meetings, and justifies them in so doing—as that is what the clubs were organized for and the republican majorities can be kept down in no other way.

Among the strangest features of the present political situation is the recent cessation of hostilities, as it were, against the administration by the New York Sun. The exposure of the cipher dispatches seems to have taken the wind out of Mr. Dana's sails. He no longer howls as of yore for the installation of Tilden, "the honest man and great ring-breaker," in the White House.

Gen. Thomas Ewing, democratic Congressman from Ohio, is of the opinion that the currency question will result in a partial disintegration of the republican and democratic parties, and a reformation upon the monetary issue; he concedes to the republican party the purpose of maintaining the resumption act, and honest money, and he says, and with tolerably good means of knowing wherof he speaks that three-fourths of the democratic party is committed to the repeal of the resumption scheme, and to greenbacks. And he declares that the democrats of the west and the south see and will act alike in this matter.

When any democrat has a cipher dispatch addressed to the house of Rutherford B. Hayes, or sent from his house by his nephew and confidential secretary, let him bring it to the Tribune immediately. If it embraces any proposition to pay $200,000, or $50,000, or any other sum, or anything else, for an electoral vote, then it will be time enough to talk about republican dispatches.—New York Tribune.

An Opening for Americans.

The captain of the schooner "E. J. Palmer" of New York, from Laguna, Mexico, says his vessel makes four trips to that place in a year, and that the only other regular trader between New York and Laguna is a Mexican brig. These two vessels represent the sum total of New York's trade with this Mexican market, for there are few, if any, chance vessels that touch there from here. But Laguna does a flourishing business with Europe, and sends there large quantities of logwood, cedar and maghogany. The captain says it is a noteworthy fact that the best quality of logwood is sent there, while only the third class grade is shipped to this country. This remark is applicable to all the logwood exportations from other countries selling the article; the United States invariably gets the worst grade. Hides are also exported. The herds are wild and no cultivation of them is undertaken. The imports from the United States consist in a great measure of machinery and hardware, the former for sugar works situated there. No dry goods are imported from this country. The custom duties are very high, in some cases higher than the price of the article imported, as for instance on kerosene, the duty being $3 per box. The same fact is true in reference to flour. Laguna has the best harbor in Mexico, and possesses a few wharves.—New York Bulletin.

—In 1862 a young man of Bastrop, Tex., enlisted in the Union army, leaving behind him his sweetheart, a beautiful girl of sixteen. No letter came from him after Chancellorsville, but two weeks ago he returned after many adventures in foreign lands, claimed the hand of the lady, who had remained faithful to his memory, and was quietly married to her.

—A daughter of Brigham Young has become an actress, under the name of Cecil Grey.

—Sunburned sea-moss as a fashion color quite usurps the place of elephant's breath and mad rooster.

More Evidence.

Manton Marble, in a vain endeavor to avert some of the damaging effects of the Tribune's expose of the cipher telegrams which passed between him, Woolley, Coyle, et als., on the one side, and Pelton, Tilden's nephew and private secretary, on the other, (which telegrams prove that the democratic "visiting statesmen" in Florida and South Carolina attempted to buy for Tilden the electoral votes which they acknowledged in their telegrams were honestly for Hayes, and that some one at Grammercy Park, Tilden's residence, agreed to pay the money demanded,) some days ago published a card in which, without daring to deny that the damaging telegrams charged to him were sent by him, he did boldly deny that he sent an unimportant one that was not charged to him at all!

A little later Tilden came out in a card, in which he denied all knowledge of the telegrams and of any attempt to buy for him the electoral votes of Florida and South Carolina. It is not pretended that any of the telegrams were addressed to Tilden; but they were addressed to and answered by his nephew, Pelton, his private secretary and an inmate of his house, and were sent by Manton Marble, Smith M. Weed, who is one of Tilden's right-hand men in the interest of reform, and by Coyle and Woolley, also noted Tilden workers; and neither one of the parties implicated has dared question the authenticity of the despatches, or the general correctness of the transiations made by the Tribune.

A large number of the earlier of these infamous despatches were sent to Hon. Henry Havemeyer of New York, an ardent supporter of Tilden and one of his near neighbors, but a man of high reputation for probity. The Tribune early suggested that Mr. Havemeyer probably knew nothing of the contents of the despatches which passed through his hands, and that he soon got tired of being made a post-office, as the telegrams to him stopped all at once. Mr. Havemeyer has now published the following card, which is strong corroborative evidence of the authenticity of the telegrams as published in the Tribune:

Regarding the cipher despatches relating to the late Presidential election, which recently appeared in the New York Tribune, and some of which have, either in the address or signature, my name or initials, I never sent any of those despatches and never authorized any one to send them or any of them for me. I never knew and do not know the meaning of the cipher or any of the ciphers in which they or any of them are written, and could not read them if I would. During a short period immediately after the late Presidential election a large number of telegrams were sent to my address for other persons and called for by messengers. The practice was commenced without my consent, and after a few days discontinued by my requirement, because their frequency rendered them a great annoyance. I never knew the contents of any of those telegrams, and I do not therefore know whether any such despatches as have been published in the Tribune were among those so received or not. I have waited until this time for the completion of these publications that I might make a statment once for all.

Suspected Murder.

Much excitement has been created in Charlestown, Mass., by the arrest of Dr. George W. Speare, a young homeopathic physician, on a charge of inducing a school girl not quite sixteen years old and named Mabel Whitman to poison her mother with arsenic. The mother, Mrs. Laura J. Whitman, died on the 16th inst., and medical examiner Draper thought she had been poisoned by Paris green, which the daughter said she had been using; but her friends insisted on a post mortem examination, and arsenic was found in the stomach. It is known that the girl purchased arsenic twice and morphine once on her way home from school.

What Congressman Rainey Says.

Congressman Rainey, of South Carolina, is admitted, even by the democrats, to be a man of irreproachable character. It was Rainey's work as member of the committee on enrolled bills at the last session, at a time when the democratic members of that committee were incapacitated from excessive use of liquor, which alone prevented an extra session. Mr. Rainey declares that the statements relative to the recent outrages in South Carolina are lamentably true. He says:

I cannot call to mind any period under the republican administration in South Carolina when there has been so much unrest and feverish excitement among the people. One thing is very certain, republicans are threatened on every side simply because they see fit to differ politically with the democrats. No man in South Carolina can escape ostracism who has independence enough to assert his own personal convictions, if they happened to be antagonistic to those entertained by the democrats. The fact is, difference of opinion is not tolerated at all, and it is evidently only a question of time when they will endeavor to make the light now going on in South Carolina one between the races. I am fully convinced of the fact that there is a determination on the part of the democracy to crush out republicanism, which means stifling republican majorities, for in South Carolina there is unmistakably a republican majority of from 25,000 to 30,000, and in my own Congressional district we have an actual majority of between 5000 and 6000. This is fully established by the recent census.

How to Float a Stranded Ship.

A fine British iron ship of 1100 tons register went ashore near the entrance of San Francisco harbor in a dense fog about a month ago. Settling upon a rock, a hole was stove in her bottom and the lower hold soon filled. In this condition she was abandoned by her captain and crew and sold for account of the underwriters in England. A company of steamboat owners and mechanics bought her for less than $3000, and proceeded to float her and bring her into port, a process which was accomplished in a novel and very effective manner. After stopping up all openings in her decks and shoring the lower deck to resist the heavy pressure to be placed under it, compressed air was forced into the lower hold by powerful pumps. The ship soon floated, and was towed up to town and put in the dry-dock. The break in her plating, which is four feet by eight, can be repaired and the ship made as good as new for $3000. The whole cost of the purchase, recovery, and repairs will not exceed $12,000, and the estimated value of the vessel, with her repairs completed, will be fully $60,000.

Seas and Notes.

In San Francisco, Oct. 4th, a decree of divorce was granted Henry Channing Beals in a suit against his wife, Mary E. W. Beals, for adultery with Baldwin Gardner, Mrs. Beals being allowed to take her maiden name, of Mary E. Ward. The divorce was granted at two o'clock in the afternoon; at four o'clock Gardner and Miss Ward were married, and at half-past five o'clock P. M., Mrs. Gardner breathed her last, she having been rapidly sinking for some months. The same clergyman who married Miss Ward to Mr. Beals officiated at the second ceremony.

Up to Sept. 27th but one whale had been taken by the entire Arctic ocean whaling fleet, the ship John Howland having secured that one.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says Samuel J. Tilden is engaged to be married to a St. Louis belle, and that the wedding will take place within three months.

Dan Dement, the Missourri railroad robber, who escaped at the time of "Big Mike" Rouke's recent capture, was found by the officers on Monday night in a dugout in Thompson's creek. He fought like a tiger and was finally shot dead. This breaks up a desperate gang.

A new iron war steamer, No. 203, built for the Russian government was launched at Philadelphia on the 22d inst., in the presence of the Russian Legation. Before the launch, mass was celebrated upon an altar on the lower deck by Father Bjerring of New York, after which the ship and crew were blessed by the priest, in accordance with the forms of the Greek church.

Cleopatra's Needle, which has been brought from the Nile and set up with much trouble and expense on the banks of the Thames, is showing a disposition to crumble to pieces after its exposure to salt water and the unaccustomed climate of England.

A man named Chaffin eloped with the wife of a friend named Newton at Spiere's Mills, Ky. Newton pursued and shot Chaffin dead.

Peter Brass and Adam Drummond quarrelled over the ownership of a horse collar at Port Fulton, Ind., and Drummond attacked Brass with a knife, when the latter shot him dead.

The New Free Press of Vienna complains that the export of Hungarian wheat is almost at a standstill, party in consequence of the Americans underselling the Hungarian markets.

"The American" who is the author of the interesting estimate of Gladstone's career and position as a statesman, in the September-October number of the International Review, has received a letter from Mr. Gladstone, from which we are permitted to make the following extract: "It is not for me to express an opinion upon its substance, considering how far beyond my merits is the estimate it forms of my character and conduct. But I was greatly struck, in reading it, with the success the author had achieved with a familiarity and substantial accuracy which seemed to put a negative on the idea that he could be a foreigner. Any inadvertencies that I discovered were altogether insignificant. I sincerely hope that if the picture you have here drawn is too good, yet it may be an incentive to endeavor at approaching the high standard it exhibits." Horace White, Geo. W. Julian Albert Rhodes, A. R. Spofford (Librarian of Congress), Rev. Dr. John Hall, Professor Johannes Von Huber, of the University of Munich, Germany, J. W. Green, of St. Catherine's College, Cambridge, and P. G. Tait, Professor of Physics, College, Edinburgh, will contribute to the November-December number of the International.

We have received from the publisher, Arthur P. Schmidt, No. 40 Winter street, Boston, a collection of piano music, and also the "Musical World," a monthly publication devoted exclusively to music, and containing from twenty to twenty-four pages of new "salon music," which supplies an obvious want in piano-forte literature.

George Richardson, colored, living at Whipple, Va., and one McDonald, drivers of mail wagons for the House of Representatives in Washington, have been arrested on a charge of being implicated in a recent robbery of the mails in the House post office.

In an extract from a letter written by Jefferson Davis to a friend in New York he says: "The noble generosity of the northern people, in this day of our extreme affliction, has been felt with deep gratitude and love more for the fraternization, of which nearly fully one, than would many volumes of rhetorical assurances."

William B. Cooper, nephew of J. Fenimore Cooper, of New Utrecht, L. I., committed suicide with morphine on Friday, leaving a statement declaring that three women whom he names poisoned his wife, who died suddenly last July. He says they estranged him from his wife and that his heart was breaking with grief and remorse. The evidence tends to substantiate the charge.

The Best Plan.

The most profitable plan for operating in stocks is that of uniting capital of various sums by combining or pooling the orders of thousands of customers and using them as one mighty whole, which has been done successfully by Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York city. By this co-operative system each investor is placed on an equal footing with the largest operator, and profits are divided pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. An investment of $10 would pay $50, making 5 per cent. on the stock during the month. $25 would return $150, or 6 per cent.; $100 would make $1000 or 10 per cent., and so on, according to the market. Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, June 29th, says: "The combination method of operating in stocks is the most successful ever adopted." New York Independent, Sept. 12th, says: "The combination system is founded upon correct business principles and no person need be without an income while it is kept working by Messrs. Lawrence & Co." The firm's new circular (copyrighted and sent free) contains "Two unerring rules for success in stock operations," and explains everything. All kinds of Stocks and Bonds wanted. New Government Loan supplied. Address Lawrence & Co., Bankers and Brokers, 57 Exchange Place, New York city.

—Eben W. Keyes, of Denver, Colorado, made his wife legal owner of all his property, so that it might be out of the reach of his creditors. The wife separated from him after a quarrel, and refused to surrender a dollar to him. Served him right.

—Probably no men ever stood closer against a wall than did the four miners who, working in the shaft of a Nevada mine, heard the hoisting car break from its fastenings far above their heads. They knew that there would be just a foot of space between the falling car and the wall, but they were not so sure about their own thickness, and there was no time for calculation. They made themselves as flat as possible, and escaped injury, although the shirt of one man was torn off.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dswpt1079

THE CITY.

The auction sale of wood announced for Wednesday was postponed on account of the weather to Saturday afternoon at half-past two o'clock.

Sloop Alice arrived at Spring market on Wednesday with a cargo of corned halibut heads. We believe that this is the first large lot ever introduced to this market.

The reform club meeting which was last Sunday announced for this evening at Mercantile hall, has been postponed to Sunday evening, on which occasion Mr. Charles W. Gardner will address the audience.

A list of "delinquent tax-payers"—delinquent tax-lovers, they should be called—is being now put in type; those who don't want to be advertised gratis in this manner will do well to walk up to the collector's office and settle at once.

The sentence of Taylor, the "pardner" of Toomey in the horse stealing and burglarizing raid through the State last spring, to five years in State prison, will not strike those who suffered from the operations of the precious pair of thieves as being unduly severe.

A long, heavy sign on the second story of the grocery store of Butler & Laighton, No. 1 Market square, blew from its fastenings at about five o'clock Wednesday evening, and fell to the sidewalk with a crash. Luckily no person happened to be where it struck.

Mr. Harry Clogg, head salesman in Jordan & Marsh's, Boston, has just recovered two thousand dollars in a suit against the city of Boston, for injuries received in falling into a cellarway. We are informed that Mr. Clogg is soon to become a resident of this city and to wed one of Portsmouth's fair daughters.

A San Francisco paper reports the death at Fort Townsend of Mr. Oliver F. Gerrish, formerly of this city, which occurred Oct. 7th. No further particulars have as yet been received by the relatives resident in this city. Mr. Gerrish was a prominent merchant here many years ago, and at the time of his death was a member in good standing of St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 56, F. & A. M.

The Manchester Mirror most irreverently says that "Conn, the Portsmouth patriot, who thought that when he was removed from the postal service the republican party had accomplished its mission and should die, was in town Monday night. He says the attempt to bring about a coalition between the democrats and greenbackers, which failed last week, will succeed before election."

"The Phœnix" will appear on Music hall stage this evening. We have never seen the play, but a Portsmouth man (himself no mean amateur performer) who has seen it assures us that it is a first-rate thing. The Boston Post says it is "a typical American drama, and a better one it would be hard to find." The Traveller says: "The drama, while sensational in its climaxes, is powerfully constructed, with a plot of absorbing interest and many admirable situations. The duplicate role of Carroll Graves and Jim Bludso has been made a shining comedy part, and in the hands of Mr. Nobles its telling points are made to sparkle at their highest. The company supporting Mr. Nobles is an unusually strong one, and the drama is well set. The gambling scene was very life-like, and the culminating tableaux splendidly drawn. The fire scene at the end of the first act was one of the best representations ever seen in Boston."

SUPREME COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 23; Smith, J.

The court came in at 10:50 o'clock in the forenoon. The jury for the first two weeks were sworn. After the time of trial of certain civil cases was set, County Solicitor Harriman notified the court that he was ready to proceed with the criminal docket, in the following order: State vs. John Murphy, State vs. George B. Cochrane, State vs. Timothy Lynch.

Judge Smith announced that Attorney General Tappan had notified him that he was sick and under a physician's care, and would be unable to attend before Wednesday of next week.

Charles A. Taylor, of Newburyport, was brought into court for sentence. Albert R. Hatch appeared in behalf of the prisoner, and presented testimonials of Taylor's former good character from several prominent citizens of Newburyport. Taylor's mother was present and testified as to his former good conduct, and Sheriff Kent made a statement as to the prisoner's behavior since his arrest. Judge Smith sentenced the convict to five years in the State prison at hard labor. Toomey, Taylor's companion in crime, was not brought up for sentence on account of the absence of Gen. Marston, his counsel.

State vs. John Murphy, for aggravated assault with an ice-hook on Eugene Coffey, was the first case tried. Coffey testified that on the 18th day of August last, he and Murphy, with several other persons, were at work in the ice-house at Jones' brewery, when defendant and he had some words of dispute, after which witness turned to walk away, when he was struck on the head and knocked down, having one rib broken and receiving other injuries which confined him to his house for nine days. Cross-examination failed to bring out statements materially differing from the direct testimony.

The other witnesses on behalf of the State in the main corroborated Coffey's statement.

Murphy said that after the hard words were used as stated, Coffey made an attempt to strike him with a manure-fork, and the defendant placed the ice-hook against him to protect himself from bodily harm.

The case was given to the jury at half-past four o'clock. After coming in for instructions as to what constitutes an "aggravated" and what a "simple" assault, the jury returned a verdict against Murphy as being guilty of the latter offence, and he was fined $10, with costs.

Edward B. Cochrane, colored, assault with intent to kill Benjamin F. Shepard. Defendant retracted his plea of not guilty, and pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated assault. Sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for four months, and to pay costs of prosecution.

Albert Gove, a minor arraigned on a charge of stealing harness from Dr. Jones, pleaded guilty of stealing five dollars' worth, and was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars, and costs of prosecution.

The trials in order for to-day are Michael Gilligan, breaking, entering and stealing money from the store of Fred S. Wendell, and Timothy Lynch, keeping a disorderly house on Bridge street.

The following is a list of the petit jurors for the second and third weeks: Joseph Willis, George E. Cutts, Exeter; William H. Deverson, Thomas Martin, Geo. E. Stackpole, George E. Burtt, ward two, Portsmouth; Oliver Adams, William P. Israel, ward four, Portsmouth; Josiah Richardson, Charles S. Emerson, Candia; Gardner N. Weare, Washington N. B. Tilton, Deerfield; Edward L. Jones, Geo. Moore, Derry; Lewis E. Fogg, Israel F. Norris, Epping; Elbridge G. Greeley, William P. Nevins, Londonderry; Walter Wiggins, Charles V. Doe, Newmarket; Thomas A. Dow, Frank A. Walton, Seabrook; James Ayer, Aaron W. Joy, Salem; Stephen F. Godkin, Plaistow; Martin V. B. Gile, Raymond; Richard P. Goss, Rye; William B. Wells, Sandown; Richard S. White, South Hampton.

THE STORM WARNINGS.

Some of the seafaring men of this port wonder if the storm-warning signals are as late in going up in other places as they are at this station. The signal for the great gale of the 12th inst. was not set until about eleven o'clock in the day, many hours after the gale had commenced; and on Wednesday no signal was up until long after the storm had begun. No cautionary signal was up at six o'clock, in fact, when the storm had been raging half a day. We are informed on good authority that cautionary signals were ordered to be hoisted at Newburyport, on Wednesday, at one o'clock A. M., and that no order was received at this station for display of signals until eight o'clock Wednesday evening. Nineteen hours later in a distance of twenty miles.

THE VICINITY.

A large barn belonging to Mr. Lyman Tibbets of South Berwick, with all its contents, was destroyed by an incendiary fire on the night of the 22d inst. Loss $2000; no insurance.

Hon. Joshua G. Hall of Dover, and Ex-Gov. Walter Harriman addressed the citizens of Epping at the Congregational chapel on the evening of the 22d inst., on the issues of the campaign. A large and enthusiastic audience was in attendance. His Excellency Gov. Prescott presided.

An incendiary fire in Salmon Falls broke out in the stable of Major G. L. Wentworth, at 7:45 o'clock on Monday evening, and his buildings were totally consumed. Loss, $3000. The fire damaged the two-and-a-half story dwelling-house of E. S. Newell, station agent of the Boston & Maine railroad. Loss, $2500.

As two butchers were driving into Saco one evening recently, with a large heifer fastened by a rope to the rear of a stout wagon in which they were riding, the heifer from some cause suddenly became enthused, and jumped fairly into the wagon, whereupon the men immediately got out. The heifer soon capsized the wagon, whereupon the men immediately got out. The heifer soon capsized the wagon, and danced about on it, until she reduced it to a wreck, knocking out the bottom and smashing things generally. She was finally towed back to her former home by a yoke of oxen.

Well-Toned Systems.

Systems toned and renovated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are most effectually defended from disease. That supreme invigorant soon overcomes that distressing feebleness consequent upon ailments which impoverish the blood and relax the muscles. Vigor, appetite, sleep return to the wasted frame, and every physical faculty gains greater activity through its benign influence. Nor is this all, for the Bitters have a most genial and cheering effect upon the mind of the despondent invalid, which is the natural effect of the increased bodily vitality which they produce. Nervous symptoms disappear in consequence of the use of this medicine, and the evil consequences sure to result from a premature decay of the physical energies are averted. Dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatic ailments, urinary and uterine irregularities, malarial diseases, and many other disordered conditions of the system, are remedied by the Bitters.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. nov9

The certain reliability of the monthly drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery Company have received during the raging of the epidemic a pretty severe test. Many persons were afraid that the drawings would be postponed, and others apprehensive that they could not get any response to their letters; but the management of this sterling institution has never seated or postponed a drawing since its incorporation in 1868, and has established a reputation for integrity and regularity of management unprecedented in the history of similar enterprises.

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

Why throw away so much money trying worthless medicines, when for 35 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure coughs, colds, sore lungs and croup? Give it a trial. Adamson's Balsam will do it.

Thousands of testimonials to the efficacy and remarkable cures of Adamson's Botanic Balsam can be produced from leading citizens of the New England States. It cures colds, coughs and all throat and lung troubles. Sold everywhere at 35 cents.

GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS

Of every description, constantly on hand.

To the Judge of Probate for the County of Rockingham.

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENTS ALFRED F. SMITH of Houston in the County of Harris and State of Texas that he is Guardian of George A. Smith of West Hoboken, County of Hudson and State of New Jersey by the appointment of the Judge of Probate for the said County of Rockingham; that his said Ward seized of an interest (under the will of Abby M. Johnson late of city of Portsmouth in said Rockingham County, deceased) in a certain part or parcel of real estate in said Portsmouth with the buildings thereon on Middle street, so called, bounded as follows, to wit: Northerly by said Middle street, Easterly by land of George E. Marden, Rev. Charles Smith, Joseph W. P. Carter, and others, Southerly by land of Robert Shillaber and Westerly by Park street, so called. That said Ward's interest is as follows, to wit: one-half in common and undivided upon and after the death of Albert C. and Mary Jane Manson and the survivor of them, whose interest in said estate has been conveyed to and is now held by Joshua B. Johnson.

That it is necessary for the support of his said Ward and will be conducive to his interest to have his Ward's interest in said premises sold; wherefore he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.

Dated the 30th day of September, A. D., 1878.

ALFRED F. SMITH, Guardian.

Rockingham, ss.

UPON the foregoing petition, it is ordered that a hearing be had thereon, at a Court of Probate, to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of November next; and that the said petitioner notify all persons interested therein, by publishing a copy of the same, with this order thereon, three weeks successively in the Portsmouth Daily Chronicle printed at Portsmouth the last publication whereof to be one week at least previous to said day of hearing.

Georgie Clark, four years old, son of Mrs. E. A. Clark of Manchester, was drowned in a pond at Derry on the 22d inst.

Nelson F. Noyes of Woodville, who sustained a compound fracture of his left left leg at the ankle some time ago, died the other day, soon after having the limb amputated above the knee.

The Woman Who was Afraid of Being Kissed.

A man was walking along one road, and a woman along another. The roads finally united, and the man and woman, reaching the junction at the same time, walked on from there together. The man was carrying a large iron kettle on his back; in one hand he held by the legs a live chicken, in the other a cane, and he was leading a goat. Just as they were coming to a deep, dark ravine, the woman said to the man, "I am afraid to go through that ravine with you; it is a lonely place, and you might overpower me and kiss me by force." "If you were afraid of that," said the man, "you shouldn't have walked with me at all. How can I possibly overpower you and kiss you by force when I have this great iron kettle on my back, a cane in one hand and a live chicken in the other, and am leading this goat? I might as well be tied hand and foot." "Yes," said the woman, "but if you should stick your cane into the ground and tie the goat to it, and turn the kettle bottom side up and put the chicken under it, then you might wickedly kiss me in spite of my resistance." "Success to thy ingenuity, O woman!" said the policeman man to himself, "I should never have thought of this expedient." And when they came to the ravine he stuck his cane in the ground and tied the goat to it, gave the chicken to the woman, saying, "Hold it while I cut some grass for the goat," and then, lowering the kettle from his shoulder, imprisoned the fowl under it, and wickedly kissed the woman as she was afraid he would.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of

$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the trave ling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Scrofulous, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ring Worm, Rash, Itch, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and permanent cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are sugar-coated, tasteless, and small. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Fullness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, and in regard to Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping the sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass vials, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in pasteboard boxes, or in paper boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, swelling, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs on ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passage, and the cleansing or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy sold by druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the pores of the skin are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from a scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from would seem, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or they may be of yellowish, coalting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it were encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free watery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off, but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the matter becomes hard and crusts into scabs, lacerations and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require the persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most painful neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE are confidently believed are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and synoptic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is worth ten times the price of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

The Value of Swimming.

Among the few survivors from the terrible wreck of the Princess Alice are three members of the same family—Mr. Thorpe, of the old Kent Road, a young man seventeen years of age; his sister Miss Thorpe, who is a year older than himself; and his brother, a mere boy of nine. All three owe their lives to the fact that they were able to swim. When the terrible crash was heard and the doomed vessel began to settle down, these three children—for children they almost are in years, if not in courage and presence of mind—found themselves struggling in the water. The boys, it would seem, were somehow separated from their sister. They were both picked up by the same boat, and were, when it helped them from their perilous position, swimming side by side. The sister, who was older than either, achieved her own safety. She struck boldly out, and—in spite of the incumbrance of her garments, the force of the tide, the darkness of the night, and the danger to which she cannot but have been subjected by the frantic efforts of those who were struggling around her in the water to catch and cling to any object within their grasp—succeeded in reaching the bank. It seems little short of a miracle that, under such circumstances, a mere girl, not twenty years of age, weighted with her heavy woman's dress, bewildered by the suddenness of the catastrophe, frightened—as she must have been—by the terrible nature of the scene, and helpless for want of her natural protectors, should have been able single-handed, to save her life. The feat is the more remarkable when we bear in mind the fact that Miss Thrope is not—as are some young women of her age—a swimmer of eminence. That she can hold her own gallantly in the water the result has sufficiently shown. But she is merely an English girl, who, like her brothers, has been taught to swim. She has never attempted the distance from London Bridge to Greenwich; she has never, so far as appears, competed for any prize: and, were it not for the fact that she owes her life to her own skill and presence of mind, her ability to defy a sharp current on a cold, chill, dark night would be no matter of public record; and yet the exploit she accomplished is, if we consider it, almost marvelous. The tide was rushing swiftly down; the water must have been cold and benumbing; the night, as we know, was dark and foggy; there were round about her all the horrors of the scene; the "last farewell" was rising from river to sky; in the water the strugglers were grappling, in their last agony, each with each—and yet through all these horrors she sought her way with a calm, quiet confidence which men who have stood under fire and committed death in other and even less sudden shapes might well envy her.—London Standard.

Hayes' Title.

However varied may be the opinions concerning the validity of Hayes's title to the Presidency, there is not a question in the minds of either democrats or republicans upon one important point, viz: the unquestionable right of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines to the title of the Standard Remedies of the age. Listen to the voice of the sovereign people.

New Orleans, June 10th, 1878.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—Your Pleasant Purgative Pellets seem to be particularly adapted to wants of the people in this warm climate, where bilious affections are particularly prevalent. I regard them as the best cathartic I have ever tried.

Yours truly, JOHN C. HENDERSON.

Boston, Mass., May 14th, 1878.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—Your Golden Medical Discovery has cured my boy of a Fever Sore of two year's standing. Please accept our gratitude. Yours truly,

HENRY WHITING.

—"Satan died here," reads a Pittsburg sign; but it was not until an astute Alleghany Dutchman inquired when he died there, that the people understood that they could get satin dyed.

—Some of the boys at Carrollville, Wis., made a midnight parade, wrapped in sheets, and starting from the village graveyard. Their idea was to scare whoever saw them. They succeeded. Three women went into convulsions at the sight, one sick man was thrown into a relapse, and a girl broke her arm by a fall in climbing hastily over a fence. There is nothing like practical jokes.

—Mrs. Livermore tells of a youth whom she and other women educated for the ministry. When he was to preach his first sermon, they were cheered to hear him take for his text the announcement that women should "keep silence in the churches." This is almost equalled by the action of the Milford, Mass., Reform Club, which, after the women had labored all the year to collect money to buy furniture for the club-room, voted to give women members leave to withdraw from their meetings. The indignant women have retaliated by taking away the furniture, and not to blame either.

—Milliner (to Captain who has been buying a hat for his wife)—"Tell your wife, if she wants it dressy, to put a pancake of six feathers poised high on one side, with feathers curling forward, place a lizard or beetle to hold it, and put another lizard on the band that covers the curtain. That's easy to remember." The captain (to his wife)—"She said, if you wanted it dressed up, to put a pancake and sixteen poisoned feathers curled up forrid, clap on some lizards and beetles to belay them with, and cover the lizard on the band with your curtains."—Harper's Bazar.

The Greenback Prospects.

In an article on the claims of the New Hampshire greenbackers as to what they will do at the coming election, and the probability as to what they really will do, the Manchester Mirror says: "A week ago they claimed Coos and upper Grafton almost solid, and were so far gone with enthusiasm, that they believed Johnson, their candidate for Congress, would beat both his competitors. This week they are roosting lower, and, if other sections of the State are like Manchester, they have good reasons to abate something of their great expectations. No one can tell, of course, how many greenback votes will be cast in Manchester, but here as elsewhere the democrats are busy pulling out the men they have sent into greenback clubs, and the republicans who have been inclined to vote for Mr. Brown, (the greenback candidate for governor,) seeing that he is merely a cat's paw to pull democratic chestnuts out of the fire, are withdrawing of their own accord; so that it is certain that a great many men who have talked soft money are not going to vote that way. * * * Very few democrats will be permitted to vote the greenback ticket, except in towns and districts where their votes will not affect results, and it is but reasonable to expect that the number of republicans who will permit themselves to be used by those who have been life-long opponents, will not be large. Another fact which will tend to materially reduce the greenback vote, is the repudiation of the craze in the west, as shown in the October elections. As long as it was made to appear that the party stood a chance of sweeping several of the great central States in 1880, and dictating the choice of a president, it naturally attracted to itself many who always, unless they make a mistake, go with the party that wins; but to-day it is so evident that a party, which in the place of its birth has dwindled in two years into insignificance, will not be consulted much two years hence, and that no one is likely to go with the greenbackers for the sake of winning in '80. Again, the certainty of defeat in this election will not make many greenbackers. When Mr. Chesley and Mr. Sulloway were nominated, they had reason to believe that before the campaign closed they would receive the democratic endorsement, and at the polls the democratic vote. But the bargain upon which this expectation was based has thus far been repudiated, and, as matters stand to-day, both of them are certain to be distanced by their competitors of both the old parties, and a vote for either is simply a vote thrown away. And the same is true of Mr. Brown, the candidate for governor. * * If we could be assured that the greenback vote would be evenly spread over the State, we should have no fears of the result. The danger lies solely in the possibility that in a few towns and districts, which are republican by small majorities, there may be enough third-party men to defeat our candidates for the legislature. Against this danger republicans must guard."

The Storm.

The great storm which prevailed in New England on the 23d inst. originated in the Gulf of Mexico on Monday morning. The velocity of the wind was fifty miles an hour. The rainfall was large, but not as heavy here as further south. The area covered by the storm is a narrow belt along the coast. The gale was most severe in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, where it became a destructive tornado. Upward of forty churches in Philadelphia were more or less damaged, the spires of several being swept away by the gale. Hundreds of dwellings were unroofed and in many instances entirely demolished, while railroad depots and warehouses suffered severely. Seven person are reported killed and about seventy-five wounded. The property loss will reach several hundred thousand dollars. The havoc in other parts of Pennsylvania, though less severe than in the city, was very destructive. In New York city, Brooklyn and on Coney island, also in other sections of New York and in New Jersey, the damage to property was very great. In Suncook and Claremont, in this State, considerable damage was done through the blowing down of chimneys, fences, etc., and at Suncook a partly-erected building was thrown down, crushing another in its fall. Great damage to shipping is reported on the Jersey and Delaware coasts, and a number of wrecks along the New England waterfront.

News and Notes.

Heavy frosts have occurred in the Mississippi valley, and the yellow fever scourge is abating.

A number of steamers have been searching for the capsized whaling barque Sarah, but up to Wednesday evening without success. Several vessels that were not searching for the wreck report seeing it, about forty miles from Block island.

Green Brimmer, a prominent farmer of North Pownal, Vt., was brutally assaulted by three drunken tramps, while driving along the highway, Monday afternoon. One of the rascals threw a stone which struck Mr. Brimmer in the back of the head, knocking him from his wagon, insensible. The miscreants then attempted to rifle his pockets, but farmers who were cutting corn in a field near by ran to his assistance, and a lively battle ensued in which the tramps were terribly beaten, and one of them received such a thorough thrashing that he was scarcely able to stand. They were then taken to the village and put under arrest. Mr. Brimmer was taken home, where it was discovered that his skull had been fractured. He is in a critical condition.

The Dollar Then and Now.

In 1864 a greenback dollar would buy two yards of calico. Now it will buy 16. In 1864 the workingman's $1.50 for a day's work would buy three yards of calico for his wife. Now his $1 a day will buy her sixteen.

In 1864 it took the laborer, working at $1.50 a day, twenty-two and one-half days to earn enough to buy a barrel of pork. Now if he only gets $1 a day he can buy a barrel in eight or nine days.

In 1864 the price of a day's labor, $1.50, was equal to that of three yards of brown muslin. Now the price of a day's labor —$1—is equal to that of twelve and one-half yards of brown muslin.

In 1864 a day's labor at $1.50 would buy one gallon of molasses. Now a day's work at $1 will buy two and one-half gallons.

And yet the greenback orators and papers ask the laborers of this country to vote to go back to the currency of 1864.

The dollar of 1864 was a "cheap dollar," measured by the gold standard, as it was not worth fifty cents. The dollar now is worth about a dollar, but the inflationists want to introduce one that will be "cheaper" even than that of 1864, for they demand one that is to cost nothing, and that will be worth all it costs.

—It is now generally urged in extenuation of Ananias' offence that he was raised with no other playmates than a couple of gas meters.—Burlington Hawkeye.

—"Did you attend the church fair last night?" asked a minister of a male member of his congregation. "Yes, sir." "I didn't see you there," said a sharp-eyed deacon, "I saw you by the outer door at closing-up time." "Well, I attended two of 'em home."

—The most extraordinary marriage ceremony on record recently occurred at two places at once—Washington Courthouse, Ohio, and Georgetown, Colorado, the bridegroom being at the latter place and the bride at the former, being wedded by telegraph, through 3000 miles apart. Immediately after the ceremony was concluded the bride started to meet her husband in his western home.

—A farmer from Auburn, Me., drove into Lewiston a few days since, and was met by a veteran jockey lying in wait to see whom he might devour. "Good morning," says the jockey; "you've got a nice-looking beast there." "Yes, he's full of ginger!" "That's just the kind of horse I want." So they swapped. The next morning the jockey found his beast had truly been stuffed with ginger to subdue wind.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. ditsept19 79

THE CITY.

Most of the pleasure boats on the river have been put into winter quarters.

The goers on the water say the river was rougher on Wednesday than it has been for many years.

Smelters have been doing well around the wharves and in the north millpond during the last few days.

The schooner Czar, before reported wrecked on the Pea Patch, below Newcastle, Del., on the passage from Philadelphia to this city, has been gotten off and towed back to Philadelphia for repairs.

The schooner Lizzie M. Stewart, Capt. Perkins, which was towed into Belfast, Me., some days ago, in distress, having been ashore, has been repaired, and sailed for Prince Edward's island on the 19th inst., to load.

Mr. Joseph Cheever of this city, who has for some time been postal clerk on the train running to North Conway, has been transferred to the forencon train running between this city and Boston, returning on the afternoon train.

"The Phœnix" did not draw a large audience to Music hall, Thursday evening, but those who were present enjoyed themselves greatly. There is a lot of fun in the piece, and the company performs it in good shape. The entertainment deserved a full house.

The meeting of the Reform Club on Sunday evening, to be addressed by Mr. Charles W. Gardner, is to be held at Mechanics' hall, and not in Mercantile hall as heretofore announced. A praise service will commence at seven o'clock and continue half an hour. The subject of Mr. Gardner's remarks will be, "Ripe and Unripe Fruit."

Mr. John K. A. Hanson on Wednesday and Thursday of this week was engaged in circulating a petition to the city government to sell the south mill and machinery, intending to present it on Thursday evening, the 31st inst. He secured numerous signatures, but as the city fathers at their last meeting authorized the mayor to go ahead and sell the property, the petition will not be needed.

President Rockwell of the Eastern railroad, with some of the directors, went over the road on Wednesday in a special car, arriving here at noon and leaving for North Conway at three o'clock P. M.; from North Conway they went over the Portland & Ogdensburg road to Portland, and returned by the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth and the Eastern roads to Boston. The party dined at the Rockingham.

The schooner L. L. Hamlin, Capt. Velzer, has been chartered to bring to this port the cargo of railroad iron saved from the schooner Telegraph, wrecked at Vineyard Haven in the gale of the 12th inst. The wreck of the Telegraph was sold for $25. The schooner Free Wind, of this port, Frisbee master, blown ashore and damaged by the gale which wrecked the Telegraph and so many other vessels, was towed to New Bedford from Vineyard Haven on the 22d inst., by steamer Monohansett. The schooner P. T. Willets, another vessel well known at this port, to which she has frequently brought cargoes of coal, and also a sufferer by the gale of the 12th, is at Vineyard Haven awaiting the arrival of a new rudder stock.

THE VICINITY.

Rev. D. B. Murray has resigned the pastorship of the Congregational church in North Hampton, and his resignation has been accepted by the society.

Mr. George Christenson launched at Kennebunkport on the 19th inst. a finely-modelled fishing schooner of about twenty-five tons old measurement. The boat is for sale, and is not named.

Henry Arlington, of New York, who accidentally shot himself while gunning in the woods at Hampton on the 21st inst., died on the 23d without having recovered his consciousness after the accident.

A Greenland correspondent of the Times denies the accuracy of the statement recently furnished us in regard to the number of greenbackers in that town; our informant placed the number at thirty, but the Times correspondent says there will not be ten greenback votes polled. Glad of it, if it's true, and we hope it is.

THAT "AUCTION."

The Dover Democrat quotes liberally from the letter of Mr. Henry Peyser to the CHRONICLE concerning the part he took—or did not take—in the abortive "political auction" at the Rockingham house, and adds:

The only Dover man who was present at that donation party was Squire John R. Palmer, the man who runs the greenback machine here in Dover, and in fact, throughout Strafford county. He is the grand sachem of the organization, and is so considered. He was there to speak for the entire greenback party of this county. Of course he thinks the democrats who were at the "meeting" referred to, made a great mistake in not accepting the greenback Chesley donation when nobody could find a place to put it where it could be of the least possible use in the world. And here, by the way, we understand from good authority that but for the up and down, perpendicular stand of a couple of our State committee men who were present, the beautiful trade would have been made as far as possible for a handful of men without the shadow of authority could have made it. Those two uprights were Henry F. Wendell of Portsmouth and Joseph Q. Roles of Ossipee. Every true democrat in Dover and everywhere else commends their decision. Don't swap horses in the middle of the stream, because if you do both riders are sure to be drowned.

Both riders are sure to be drowned anyway, this time; the representative in Congress from the 1st New Hampshire district, for the next two years, will not be named either Norris or Chesley.

SUPREME COURT.

THURSDAY, Oct. 24; Smith, J.

Case State vs. Michael Gilligan was called. Defendant was charged with breaking and entering the store of Fred S. Wendell on Market street, Portsmouth, on the night of July 1st, and stealing money therefrom.

Mr. Wendell testified that on entering his store on the morning of July 2d he noticed on the floor articles that were in the money drawer the previous evening, and on further inspection found that the money which had been left in the drawer, and which included several foreign coins, had been removed. Several coins were shown the jury, and identified by Mr. Wendell as being his property and a part of the money stolen from the drawer.

Three other witnesses testified that between twelve and one o'clock on the night of the robbery Gilligan entered the place of Samuel Wilson, went into a room in which two women were sleeping, and threw some money on the bed; and when he was asked where he got it replied that he had "cleaned out a till," or words to that effect. Some of the police officers, when on the witness stand, testified that they would not place entire confidence in the unsupported evidence of the three witnesses mentioned, even though it was given under oath.

The respondent made a statement under oath to the effect that he spent the first part of the evening of July 1st at a meeting of one of the fire extinguisher companies, after which he went to several places, drinking several times. At a late hour he went to a house on the upper part of Market street, got into a shed and went to sleep, and did not awake until next morning. Evidence was produced as to Gilligan's reputation for truthfulness, from which it appeared that those who know Gilligan best think his statements most trustworthy when corroborated by other persons.

The jury, after being out a short time, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Charles S. Walker and Louisa Walker pleaded nol con. to an indictment for keeping a disorderly house, and were let off on payment of costs and promising to behave better in the future. Indictment filed.

Timothy Lynch, indicted for keeping a disorderly house on Bridge street in this city, paid costs and was allowed to go on his promise of good behavior, the indictment not to be brought up against him so long as he behaves himself.

Toomey, the itinerant burglar and partner of Taylor, was brought up for sentence, and sent to State prison for ten years.

No other business being ready, the Court took a recess until Monday.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

Mr. Rice of Boston, the civil engineer who under the instructions of the last Board of Aldermen made plans for the abatement of the nuisances at the north and south millponds, appeared and explained the plan he presented a year ago. Mr. Rice said he had brought to this city a gentleman who had been engaged by the city of Boston to lay drains; that he had examined the plan made by Mr. Rice, and thought the work could be done for the amounts estimated by him.

J. M. Tebbetts asked for a crosswalk on Miller avenue opposite Highland street; referred to the committee on streets, with power. Request of George Stott for repairs to sidewalk on Hanover street was referred to same committee, with power.

Wm. D. Fernald asked leave to open Market street, and Alexander Robinson to open Morning street, to lay drains; referred to committee on drains, with power.

Frank W. Miller sent communication to the Board regarding the acceptance of naphtha light.

On petition of Marcellus Bufford and others for two naphtha lights on Richards avenue, it was voted that petitioners have leave to withdraw.

Notice was sent to Board of a pig-pen nuisance maintained by Michael Leary. Referred to committee on mill-pond nuisance. Request that a ditch in the rear of the Peirce mansion on Court street be cleaned out was referred to same committee.

The committee on claims, to whom was referred the suit of Israel Marden and other former police officers for witness fees, reported that the case had been tried before a referee, who is to render a decision at the present term of the Supreme Court, and recommended that the Board take no action until such decision is announced.

The committee on drains reported on petition of George Bilbrook for drain corner of Bartlett and Pine streets, recommending that a drain be laid. Referred back to same committee, to estimate probable cost, and report.

The matter of investigating certain charges against members of the police force was brought to the attention of the Board, and it was voted that an investigation be held next Thursday evening, and that watchmen Underhill and Lewis, special police officer Waldron and the two regular officers who made the arrest at the Concord depot at his request, City Marshal Entwistle and officer Joseph B. White be notified.

Voted that petition of Abraham Kay for use of Elm street ward room be taken from the table, and referred to Ald. Hadley.

Voted that Ald. Hadley be allowed to withdraw his offer for the rent of the south mill and machinery.

Voted that the Mayor be authorized to sell the south mill and machinery on Saturday, Nov. 2d.

Adjourned.

Old Time Chronicles, No. 174.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

The Dearborn family is one of the oldest ones in America, Godfrey Dearborn, the immigrant, having come over the waters previous to 1639, and that year was among the early settlers of Exeter, and some years later moved to Hampton, perhaps a third of a mile west of the railroad station, where portions of the house he erected are still standing. In his line of descent was a long list of physicians. It is proposed to notice those of them that were natives of North Hampton.

I. Dr. Benjamin Dearborn. He was son of Joseph, who was of the fourth generation of the immigrant, and was born Dec. 15th, 1725. He graduated at Harvard College in 1746. Possibly he might have studied the medical profession with Dr. Benjamin Rogers of Portsmouth. At any rate, he married his daughter Ruth and settled in Portsmouth. He died April 9th, 1755, aged 29 years. In the north burying ground is the following inscription on his grave stone.

Here lies buried
the body of Doct.
BENJAMIN DEARBORN, who departed this life
April ye 9, 1755, in the 30th year
of his age.

II. Dr. Levi Dearborn, brother of the above, was born March 7th, 1730. He became a physician, practiced in North Hampton. He lived on the place where some years ago Col. John Taylor did, and now Edwin Lamprey. He also lived on the Judge Daniel Gookin place, now in possession of John F. French. Judge Gookin married Dr. Dearborn's daughter. This Dr. Dearborn stood high as a physician, was town clerk many years, also representative in the Legislature. He died in North Hampton, and the following inscription is found in the old burying place north of the center.

In memory of Doctor LEVI DEARBORN, who after a life of extensive usefulness in his calling departed this life
March 28, 1792. Aged 62.

III. Dr. Henry Dearborn. He was the twelfth child of Simon, who was of the fourth generation of the immigrant. Simon was born in North Hampton, and it is supposed in a garrison a few feet from the present Congregational church. His wife was Sarah Marston, a descendant of Thomas Marston, early at Hampton, of whom Gen. Gilman Marston of Exeter is also a descendant. Henry Dearborn was born a few rods southwest of North Hampton center, Feb. 23d, 1751. The family afterwards lived in Epping, north of the center. He studied medicine, settled in Nottingham, married for his first wife Mary Bartlett of that town, went into the service when the war commenced, was captain in the battle of Bunker Hill, rose to colonel and continued to the close of the war. After this, he held various offices, among which was that of Secretary of War in President Jefferson's Cabinet, and Major General in the war of 1812-15. He died in Roxbury, Mass., June 6th, 1829, aged 78 years; was buried in Mount Auburn.

IV. Dr. Jesse Dearborn was born in North Hampton Feb. 12, 1807, and settled as a physician in Palmyra, Mich., where he died June 10, 1848, aged 41 years. He was a son of the late Deacon Nathaniel Dearborn.

V. Dr. Brainard Dearborn was born in North Hampton March 3d, 1842. He is now practicing the medical profession in Portsmouth. He is a grandson of Dea. Nathaniel Dearborn.

THE CAMPAIGN SPEAKERS.

The following are a few of the appointments of speakers made by the Republican State Committee:

Stratham—J. H. Gallinger of Concord, Oct. 30th.

South Hampton — M. T. Ludden of Maine, Oct. 31st.

Newcastle—M. T. Ludden, Nov. 1st.

Dover—Joshua G. Hall and Orrin C. Moore, Nov. 4th.

Portsmouth—Senator Rollins and Wm. E. Chandler, Oct. 31st. Ex-Gov. Harriman, Nov. 4th.

Frank W. Hackett, Esq., of this city, is making speeches in the western part of this State. He speaks at Walpole this evening, at Marlow 26th, Stoddard 28th, Washington 29th, Gorham 30th, Epsom 31st, and at Great Falls on Monday evening before the election.

The committee are prosecuting the campaign with a vigor that promises the best results, and hardly a hamlet in the State but will have at least one meeting addressed by an able speaker before the campaign closes.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. inov9

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

Thousands of testimonials to the efficacy and remarkable cures of Adamson's Botanic Balsam can be produced from leading citizens of the New England States. It cures colds, coughs and all throat and lung troubles. Sold everywhere at 35 cents.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. inov9

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

HILL'S HAIR & WHISKER DYE, Black or Brown, 40 cents.

MARRIED.

RANDALL — DEMERITT. In Newmarket, Oct. 12th, Mr. Andrew Randall and Miss Martha E. Demeritt.

Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS
THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. The GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while entirely safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the study only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

THE GREAT
FALL RIVER LINE, BETWEEN
BOSTON and NEW YORK.
THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS
Bristol and Providence,
Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly in the World!
Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY Railroad Station at 6:30 in the evening, and PROVIDENCE (Stonington Express) P. M., connect with these "Floating Palaces" at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.
No line can offer the accommodations presented by this favorite route.
ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL,
Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—
NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,
But affording passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.
Grand Promenade Concert on each Steamer every evening during the summer.
New and Elegant Drawing-Room Cars on Steamboat Express Trains.
BROOKLYN ANNEX STEAMER connects with this Line only, leaving Pier 28, North River, New York, on arrival of steamer from the East. Passengers and baggage for Brooklyn transferred free.

By its great and thorough Blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, lack of appetite, and generally feeling "used up," and have tried everything you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood, both by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, rank, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness in the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their searching influence. Are not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and hermetically sealed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes, for all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, illness, dullness; pain in forehead, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, tenacious, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or the latter applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried UP and PERFECT APPLICATION to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharges generally proceed. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. The temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a wonderful or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from a specific cause, as the effect of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the ear and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases, whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellowish, exciting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper parts of the head feeling constantly hot, as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The former catarrhal discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing difficult. If no such difficulty is experienced, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting the air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs, the matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate, to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, it simply becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard masses, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat, as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery. And in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ears also become seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, producing ringing in the head, deafness, and pain, extending frequently to inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such effections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the circular, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the loathsome, destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with Sanford's Radical Cure a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. This is sent free with each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Nasal Syringe, and all directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

No. 9 CONGRESS ST., AGENTS.

Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23d.

Some time ago a rumor was current here to the effect that the work of the Halifax Fisheries Commission was to be reviewed by the home government, with a view to ascertain whether the very general feeling of dissatisfaction existing among citizens of the United States against the award is well founded, and to the removal of any just (from its point of view) ground of complaint, if any should be found. The almost universal voice of dissent awakened in this country when the nature of the verdict reached at Halifax was first made known, has not been forgotten. The feeling in New England, whose people were more directly interested and were supposed most competent to judge, was especially pronounced against the justice of the award; and the sentiment, so far as expressed, of members of Congress, was almost or quite as decided, that it was unwarranted in equity. But after all the facts brought out by the discussion had been considered it was decided that we could not refuse to pay it, though opinion was divided as to our legal right to do so, founded on the refusal of Mr. Kellogg, the United States Commissioner, to join with the other two to make the Commission's decision unanimous. Before the matter had wholly subsided, I believe the Belgian Minister, (urged by the British representative as the third referee and reluctantly accepted by Mr. Fish, finally) was generally acquitted of the biased part that he at first was thought to have acted against us; and we seemed to settle to the conviction when the appropriation needed to satisfy the claim was voted, that our Secretary of State had left the way open to the bad bargain we ultimately decided to ratify by his over anxiety not to appear too illiberal or too exacting. Interest has been revived in the matter, and our reluctance to payment is not likely to be lessened by a statement going the rounds, that, exclusive of "constructive damages," which were decided inadmissible in the Alabama claims, $1,500,000 would more than cover every charge against us in England's itemized bill, or, to put it technically, the "British bill of particulars."

The eighth annual report of Conrad White, Indian Agent at the Winnebago Agency, Nebraska, presents one of the occasional cases in the desert stretch of Indian incapacity for the callings, trades and professions of civilized life, that cover almost every page of the history of our dealings with the savage tribes found occupying American soil, from the first landing of Columbus on it, down to date. When he first assumed charge of these Indians he found them unsettled, living chiefly in tepees, located, if at all, on unhealthy bottom lands, with almost no knowledge of agriculture and helping to make up the grand army of copper-colored mischief-makers subsisting on government rations, and furnishing our military abundant occupation in driving them in from their raids and marauding expeditions and constantly watching them lest they should stray from their limits to outside mischief. For the year ending June 30, 1871, their rations alone are reported to have cost Government $27,972.72. They then held their little property in common, which was a fruitful source of trouble, and were were governed by fourteen hereditary chiefs, bitterly averse to adopting the customs of civilization. At the date of present report about every head of family holds a government patent for eighty acres of land, vested in them and their heirs, without the right of alienation. On their land are ninety frame houses costing $660 each; twenty-four frame houses with brick basements, costing $668.75 each; and fifteen brick houses, each costing $698. There are several other good houses constructed by the agency carpenters and Indians. Aggregate amount of land under cultivation, 2500 acres. They depend wholly upon the products of this land and on the wages received as laborers on lands adjoining their reservation for their sustenance, save three pounds of flour per week to each Indian scholar, given chiefly as a stimulant to punctual attendance at school. All males above twenty-one years of age vote for the twelve chiefs annually elected. Individual wealth amounts to $250,000; and their number desiring the application of state laws is constantly increasing as the advancement in the arts and usages of civilized life becomes more marked.

A Terrible Record.

The shipping suffered severely by the storm of the 23d inst. Steamer Rattlesnake, from Boston for Philadelphia, went ashore on Collins beach; ship John Barbour, from Philadelphia for Hamburg, was driven on a shoal at Lewes, Del., and filled with water; barque State was driven high and dry at Lewes, after cutting away her masts; ship A. S. Davis, of Searsport, Me., from Pabellan de Pica for Hampton Roads, was totally wrecked south of Cape Henry, and only one of the crew of nineteen men escaped; schooner Mary Tice foundered off the harbor of New Haven, and two lives were lost, the rest of the crew saving themselves by lashing themselves to the rigging; steamers Massachusetts, Louisa, and Ide, and twenty-three schooners, were driven ashore on the Middle Ground and Drum Point, below Baltimore; schooner Buckeye was wrecked near Newcastle, N. C., and the captain, his wife, two sons and a seaman drowned, and schooner Estelle Bright was wrecked at the same place, her captain and two seamen losing their lives; schooner H. F. Potter was wrecked off Cape May, N. J., and two men drowned, the rest of the crew being rescued from the rigging by the life-saving crew; a tug was wrecked below Philadelphia, and her men have not been heard of; steamer Express foundered off North Point, below Baltimore, and twenty of her crew and passengers were drowned; two schooners, names unknown, were wrecked at Absecom inlet, and all hands lost; and a number of other vessels, small schooners and sloops, were totally wrecked, but without much loss of life.

A despatch from Fernandina, Fla., Friday evening, says the passengers and crew of the steamer Houston, 1515 tons register, have arrived there, the steamer having foundered on Fayingpan shoals on the 23d inst.

Steamer Matilda, from Fredericksburg, Va., for Baltimore, had not arrived up to Friday night, and it was feared she had foundered in the gale.

The Pestilence Waning.

The St. Louis board of health has raised the quarantine of that city.

The Howard Association of New Orleans on Thursday voted to close their labors Saturday, believing by then the fever would be subdued. The cases on hand will be treated until restored.

Memphis had eight deaths and twenty-three new cases, but the latter were mainly among the returned refugees.

From other places the reports are favorable, the frosts having effectually checked the fever.

News and Notes.

Mabel Whitman, the Charlestown, Mass., school girl suspected of poisoning her mother, was arrested Thursday evening.

John D. Vacelet, his wife and two sons, living near Vincennes, Ind., were murdered in their beds Thursday morning, their heads being cut and smashed with axes, two of which were found in the rooms. A farm hand who had been living with Vacelet has been arrested for the murders.

Judge Bompus, of the District Court of East Norfolk, Mass., on Friday rendered a decision on the Wellason disaster, finding Hartwell, the freight conductor, and Hosbert, his engineer, guilty of gross negligence, and Hartwell was held in $10,000 to answer; he forfeited bonds. Westgate, the engineer of the excursion train, Judge Bompus held was not a fit person to have charge of such a train under such circumstances, though a competent engineer.

An unknown man asked for bread at a house on Forty-second street, New York, Wednesday night, and was refused. He staggered away crying, and fell dead of starvation.

The cargo of the British steamship John Bramhall, ashore on Little Gull island, Conn., is insured for over $1,000,000, mainly in foreign offices; the ship and freight are insured $200,000. About one-fifth of the cargo has been removed in a damaged condition, and there are hopes of saving the vessel.

By the caving in of a gravel bank on the grounds of the Brighton abattoir, near Boston, three men were buried. Thomas Haley is dead, and the other two are seriously hurt.

In Chicago a burglar broke into the residence of Engineer McClellan of the Hyde Park waterworks. Hearing a noise McClellan sprang up, seized the man and a scuffle ensued. The burglar succeeded in drawing a revolver, shot McClellan in the neck and afterward stabbed him several times with a knife, and then made his escape. The wounds are serious and perhaps fatal.

Two employes of a Boston furniture firm visited Framingham, Mass., on Thursday, broke into Michael Crelly's house and carried off $109 worth of furniture which he had bought and paid for on the installment plan, claiming that he had failed to pay twelve dollars of interest.

A tramp entered Leonard's hotel at Winslow, Quebec, Wednesday, and stepping to the bar demanded something to drink. The proprietor of the hotel, Mr. Leonard, refused, when the tramp drew a revolver and shot him through the heart, killing him instantly. The tramp ran from the hotel and boarded the train for Sherbrook, Quebec. Sheriff Loomis of that place was telegraphed to and arrested a man answering the description of the tramp.

The First National Bank of Auburn, Ind., which suffered so heavily from the defalcation of George Hazard, late cashier, has closed its doors, and will go into liquidation.

The New York Sun says that Benjamin T. Babbitt, the soap man, has recovered judgment against Charles R. Beckwell and Thomas B. Lewis, former clerks, who are in the State prison on charges of fraud and embezzlement from their employer, for $216,998.

Gen. James S. Whitney, of Brookline, Mass., died suddenly of heart disease on Thursday, while on his way home from Boston. Gen. Whitney has for many years been prominent in the democratic party, having several times been a delegate to the national conventions of that party. He was collector of the port of Boston under Buchanan. He presided over the recent Faneuil hall convention of the Democrats, which nominated Judge Abbott for governor of Massachusetts.

Charles W. Pontez, employed until recently as "policy clerk" by the New York Life Insurance Company, was arrested Wednesday evening for complicity in the great $64,000 forgery by which the Union Trust Company was victimized, months ago.

Mary Moen, aged ninety-five years, was run over in New York by a horse-car and fatally injured, Wednesday night.

The widow of Gen. Phil Kearney died in New York Thursday morning, aged seventy-five years.

Gen. Sheridan has received additional reports of lawlessness in New Mexico. The cut-throats are known as "wrestlers." They recently killed three citizens near Fort Sumner by shooting and hanging. The postmaster at Roswell, Lincoln county says that it is unsafe for him to remain in his office without protection. All inhabitants for miles around have fled to the mountains. Advices report another body of men killed at Puerto de Luna.

Edward Hartman, a commercial traveller belonging in Baltimore, was in Lumberton, N. C., Thursday, and was called upon by a respectable young lady named Linkman, who while shaking hands with him drew a pistol, and exclaiming "You have ruined me, and I'll ruin you," shot him fatally. It is stated that Hartman had betrayed her under promise of marriage.

S. C. Salisbury has produced a fluid fuel from the residuum of petroleum and coal tar, after experimenting for twenty years, and promises to banish coal with it for creating steam. The fuel is carried in pipes, leaves no ashes or clinkers, consumes its own smoke, quickly causes a terribly intense heat, and has been so successfully tested at the Brooklyn navy yard that glass and iron makers were convinced that it will revolutionize their industries.

New Hampshire Items.

The McNally-Newton case at Hanover, reported some time since, wherein John McNally sued Tyler J. Newton, a boot and shoe dealer of that town, for wood, lights, room rent, etc., used and consumed during a period of over three years while courting the plaintiff's stepdaughter, was recently heard at Lebanon before a referee, and on his decision was dismissed from court by the judge. The whole affair was brought to a peaceful conclusion on Thursday by the marriage of the defendant and the young lady.

The money-drawer of F. C. Hardy's dry goods store in Keene was relieved of $90 on Thursday. Two men entered, one engaging the lady clerk, who happened to be alone, while the other took the money. One of the men has been arrested.

The body of Charles E. Crouch of Gilsum was found in a mill pond Wednesday. It is supposed he fell from a plank while crossing over. He was fifty-one years old.

Political.

Senator Kernan of New York made a speech to the Abbott wing of the Boston democracy in Faneuil hall on Thursday evening. Mr. Kernan made an able and convincing speech, and was "squarer than a block" on the question of honest money and the honest payment of the national debt.

Secretary Sherman, in giving his views upon the cipher dispatches, draws a parallel which ought to bring a blush to the cheeks of the Potter committee. He contrasts the treatment which he received, from that committee and from the democratic press, on being accused of writing a brief and harmless letter which has never been produced in public, and the treatment which is accorded to Mr. Tilden and the other persons implicated in the terrible accusations of the ciphers, by the republican press. And the Secretary adds force to the comparison by insisting for himself that the accused persons should have every opportunity to clear themselves, and that there should be no hasty judgment.

The democratic committee in Louisiana that had Congressman Acklen's case in hand were too high toned and persistent in their moral sense to be influenced in their action by the white-washing effort of Governor Hahn, Collector Smith, and others who attempted to apply the brush to his dark case. Acklen had to "step down and out" of the canvass. His mistake was in not getting a certificate of innocence from his associates in Washington.

The New York Evening Post of the 23d inst. says: A gentleman well known in national politics told the following to a reporter of the Post this afternoon: "You remember that despatch about the mules, don't you—'Send seven more mules'—signed by Abram S. Hewitt? When it was first printed Mr. Hewitt denied that he had ever sent it. A short time afterward I met Mr. William Orton and we began talking about the despatch. 'Would you like to see the original?' asked Mr. Orton. 'Certainly,' I replied. Thereupon Mr. Orton put his hand into his pocket, pulled out a handful of telegrams and showed me the one on the mules. It was in the handwriting of Col. Pelton. Pelton had written it, signed Mr. Hewitt's name to it and sent it on its benign errand."

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal, who has evinced a due degree of caution in speaking of political affairs in South Carolina, renews his exposition of the condition of things in that State, based upon full and trustworthy testimony. The sum of the whole is, that the democrats have determined, and Governor Wade Hampton is with them, that no republican shall hold office in South Carolina, and that there is now no profession that a fair election is to be held. "Meanwhile," continues the correspondent, "the federal administration considers itself powerless. The District Attorney is unable to obey the letter of Attorney General Devens, or to execute the laws." In some counties in South Carolina the republican majority is as twenty to one. The "courtesies" which are passing between the Federal and State courts prevent the release of the United States officials, the revenue officers who are put in jail for performing their duty; government arms are used to break up lawful meetings of the citizens; the people of South Carolina say to Governor Wade Hampton, "the laws of the land shall not be enforced;" Governor Hampton says to President Hayes, "the national laws are not and cannot be enforced in South Carolina;" and the federal government is sorry, perhaps, but sees no way to remedy the evil. Possibly Hampton might be induced to enter into a contract not to assert his sovereignty outside the Palmetto State.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes thus, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept19 79

THE CITY.

Great reduction in the price of oysters at Freeman's. See advt.

The cricket club of this city will probably play a return game with the Longwoods of Brookline, Mass., next week.

The auction sale of wood, postponed from Wednesday on account of the weather, takes place to-day. See advertisement.

At Music hall, Tuesday evening, Miss Blanche Mortimer will appear in "The Two Orphans," supported by a strong cast, with Mr. J. J. Coleman as the cripple. Admission 25 cts.; reserved seats 35 cts., to be procured at Preston's.

On Wednesday evening, 23d inst., New Hampshire Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., voted to take quarters in Hon. Frank Jones' new block when it is completed. Osgood Lodge voted on Thursday evening to postpone the consideration of the subject for one week.

The Concord railroad corporation has declared a dividend of five per cent, payable on the first day of November. The Boston & Albany railroad has declared a dividend of four dollars per share, payable Nov. 15th. Manchester & Lawrence railroad, five per cent, Nov. 1st.

If any one is desirous of seeing a massive net-work of iron beams, let him ascend to the fourth story of the Eldredge Brewing Co.'s lager beer brewery, on a step-ladder forty-two feet high, and there he can view it. The fifth and last story will be twenty feet high, and will be finished in about two weeks.

The Martinez English Opera Company, comprising Mlle. Isidora Martinez, the Spanish prima donna, Mrs. Barry, and Messrs. Wilkie, Cooper, Brand, Gilbert and Felch, tenor, baritone and bass soloists, and a full chorus, will on Wednesday evening next, at Music hall, present the beautiful opera "The Bohemian Girl," with all the needed accessories. This opera is one of the most pleasing ones ever written, and the company is capable of rendering its wealth of melody as it deserves. See advertisement.

THE VICINITY.

Herbert F. Norris, Esq., of Concord, candidate for Congress in this district, spoke at Greenland on Friday evening, when he endeavored to enlighten Messrs. Frink, Peterson and Pickering upon the financial position of the democracy.

Saco river rose six feet and a half in about twelve hours, during and after the storm of the 23d inst. Considerable damage was done to the musquito fleet of Saco yachts, a number of them being torn from their moorings and sunk.

"IT PAID THE SOLDIER!"

Good, honest, full legal tender greenbacks! It paid you and I; it paid the soldier! and it must pay the bondholder. We want no other money!

The foregoing, exclamation points and all, is the heading of a poster now before us announcing a greenback meeting in this city; and it reminds us of the retort made to us by a greenbacker some weeks ago, when we spoke disparagingly of "fiat" currency, viz.: "Money that was good enough for the soldiers is good enough for me."

Our greenback friend is no fool, and he was as well aware before we told him as he was afterward, that in so speaking he was merely employing the clap-trap catch-word of a demagogue—a lofty-sounding sentence calculated and intended to deceive the ignorant and unthinking. He knew perfectly well that the "money which was good enough for the soldiers" was not the "fiat money" of the greenback-inflationists, an empty declaration that a worthless piece of paper shall be taken as money, but on the contrary was a solemn promise of the nation to pay to the holder in real money the sum mentioned on the note. Said Solon Chase, the father of the greenback: "These notes are obligations of the United States. Their name imports obligation. Every one of them expresses upon its face an engagement of the nation to pay the bearer a certain sum. The dollar note is an engagement to pay a dollar, and the dollar intended is the coined dollar of the United States; a certain quantity in weight and fineness of gold or silver, authenticated as such by the stamp of the government."

The poster referred to, in the impression evidently sought to be conveyed by its head-lines, simply lies; for in all discussions of the currency question it should be borne in mind that the greenback which, as it is said, did good service during the war, is no more like the irredeemable, non-exportable, non-purchasing fraud which the greenbackers of today propose to issue, than the note of a perfectly solvent and honest man is like the forged paper of a bankrupt without any assets.

HOW BIG IS THE "FIAT" DOLLAR TO BE?

In February last, when the greenback club of this city was formed, we published its platform, or constitution, or bill of rights, or declaration of principles, or whatever else it may be called, and propounded two queries, viz.:

I. If the government can "create" money by the mere revolution of a printing press, why should the people ever be taxed?

II. What need is there of the "credit of the people," or any other credit, behind a currency it is not pretended is ever to be redeemed, and which promises nothing at all?

We offered the privileges of our columns to any greenbacker to answer; and one of our greenback friends did answer—in a two-column article in which he did not in the most remote manner refer to either of the questions we wished to have answered!

There is another thing about the "fiat" dollar, which is to be "based on the credit of the nation" and "not on specie," which we have never had explained to us, and that is, how big the fiat dollar is to be—what it is to represent—how much it is to be worth. It must represent some stated value; there must be some standard. The gold dollar of to-day is tangible; it is a specified number of grains of gold, and we know just what such a quantity of gold is worth in the various markets of the world, and that is the measure of value of the gold dollar.

But we are utterly at a loss to know how much the "fiat" is to be worth; it will not do for the greenbacker to say that his dollar is to be worth as much as 25.8 grains of gold 900 fine, (the present gold dollar,) for that will be adopting a specie (or bullion) basis for the "money of the future," and acknowledging that gold has a value by which the value of other things can be measured and expressed, and that the fiat dollar can have no such value. But there must be some standard of value for the greenbacker's dollar; it must represent something—and something that will convey to the mind an idea when it is spoken of. Is the "fiat" dollar to represent a day's work, and be worth a day's work? and if so, is it to be the day's work of a Ben. Butler or a Sam. Tilden, or the day's work of an editor, a coal-heaver or a farm laborer? Is the "dollar of the future" to represent the price of a barrel of flour, or a farm, or a ship, or a paper of pins? If not, what then is it to represent, and how much is it to be worth?

If any of the greenback men can explain this matter so that we can understand it, we will lay the information before our readers; we shall only insist that any answer must be an answer, and not merely a collection of glittering generalities and lofty-sounding phrases about the beauties of greenbackism, and that the advocate of "fiat" money shall not use the world's standard, gold, to measure the value of his pet dollar with.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

The case of Wadsworth, the Manchester jailor, for contempt, was postponed on Friday to Nov. 7th, on account of the engagement of Gen. Stevens, the counsel for Wadsworth.

MORE FRUITLESS BARGAINING.

The democratic and greenback State committees held sessions in Concord, Thursday evening, the democrats at the Phœnix hotel and the greenbackers in Bailey's block. Frank A. McKean, Herbert F. Norris, E. A. Peterson, John H. George, Frank Jones, Harry Bingham and other leaders of the democracy were present; of prominent greenbackers, George E. Hodgdon, John T. Hulme, Wm. T. Norris, E. C. Bailey and others. There was considerable "negotiating" going on during the evening, and at about midnight a committee from the greenbackers went to the democratic meeting and were admitted; but it is understood that no bargain could be struck.

It is stated that after the magnates had left Concord on Friday morning, after the conference at the Phœnix hotel, Messrs. George E. Hodgdon and H. F. Norris remained to see if some trade could be agreed upon, and the time until the afternoon train left was spent in this endeavor. At one time, it is asserted, the greenbackers expressed a willingness to withdraw their candidate for Congress in this district, provided Norris would withdraw, and G. E. Hodgdon be taken as the joint nominee; but the ancient democrats declined this proposal, and will now labor to keep their men from voting the greenback ticket. Indeed, the democratic committee suggest that next week their orators shall ignore their Rochester platform, and talk hard money. The trouble at Concord seems to have been that everybody wanted to gain instead of conceding anything.

Naval Matters.

Commander Henry Erben is detached from this navy yard, and Comdr. Henry L. Johnston from the Norfolk navy yard, and placed on waiting orders.

The U. S. S. Powhatan, bearing the flag of Rear-Admiral John C. Howell, from this port by way of Boston, has taken up her old anchorage in the North river, near the foot of Twenty-third street, Brooklyn. The Powhatan will, at an early day, depart for Norfolk, from whence she will start on an extended cruise among the West India islands.

Doctor J. Winthrop Taylor, U. S. N., has been advanced to the rank of surgeon-general, the highest office in the medical department of the navy. Forty years of honorable service in all parts of the world, in peace and war, have given him an unquestioned right to this distinction. Dr. Taylor's home is in Boston, but he has friends everywhere.

Well-Toned Systems.

Systems toned and renovated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are most effectually defended from disease. That supreme invigorant soon overcomes that distressing feebleness consequent upon ailments which impoverish the blood and relax the muscles. Vigor, appetite, sleep return to the wasted frame, and every physical faculty gains greater activity through its benign influence. Nor is this all, for the Bitters have a most genial and cheering effect upon the mind of the despondent invalid, which is the natural effect of the increased bodily vitality which they produce. Nervous symptoms disappear in consequence of the use of this medicine, and the evil consequences sure to result from a premature decay of the physical energies are averted. Dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatic ailments, urinary and uterine irregularities, malarial diseases, and many other disordered conditions of the system, are remedied by the Bitters.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

Fact vs. Theory.

On August 2d, 1878, Western Union Telegraph stock sold at the New York Stock Exchange for $84 1-2 per share. September 18th, 1878, this same stock sold at 96 1-4—a fluctuation of 11 3-4 per cent. in 47 days. 10,000 shares of this stock bought at 84 1-2 on a margin of 1 per cent. required an actual capital of $10,000. The same stock sold at the advance price of 96 1-4, showed a profit of $1175 per 100 shares, or 11 3-4 per cent. on the stock. On the whole 10,000 shares the actual profit was $117,500 or 11 3-4 times the capital used within the brief space mentioned. People often theorize about supposable cases. The above are hard facts shown by the official record. Very few persons, however, are able to invest singly the $10,000 necessary to reap such fabulous profits as were gained by the above transaction, but Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York city, have issued a new circular showing how large or small sums may be used successfully in stock speculations by their new Combination Method of pooling thousands of orders into one immense sum and operating them as a whole, which places every customer on an equality with the largest operators, and divides profits pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. By this system large profits are made in short periods. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent.; $50 pays $350 or 7 per cent.; $100 makes $1000, or 10 per cent. on the stock during the month, according to the market. The new circular explains everything; also contains "Two unerring rules for success in stock operations," and much other valuable information. Copyrighted and sent free. This firm furnishes best of references as to standing and responsibility. All kinds of Stocks and Bonds, wanted. New Government Loan supplied. Apply to Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York city.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

THE

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and Southwest but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, this Prince's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Broken Down, Scrofulous, Feverish Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it gets the part and relieves all.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and early stages of Consumption, it has proved, in the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of clean, crude, and bulky vegetable matter. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Biliousness, Costiveness, Impure Blood, Pains in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations, from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotches, Feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Are mild and yet powerful in their operation. These Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, other times thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. The term for each class will consist of twelve lessons, and tickets for either may be had, for One Dollar, at the Chapel on either of the above named evenings.

In others, a dryness, dry, watery, watery, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and spitting to clear the throat, sneezing, coughing, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling in throat, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, in about half how long suffering. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Douche. This is the only form of treatment yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried Right to and Remain Long Enough to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently form, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, none of directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, insufficient clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the nervous and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharging quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from mucous membrane, may be thick and viscid, or acrid, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow, like mucilage, or fetid odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the throat and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was enveloped by a tight, unyielding bank. The latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free mattery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs, the mattery matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, must it seems to us, scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is subject.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, treating with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped around each bottle of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases of Catarrh. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Meat Eating and Rum Drinking.

Charles Napier, an English scientific man, has been testing the truth of Liebig's theory that liquor drinking is compatible with animal food, but not with a farinaceous diet. The experiment was tried upon twenty-seven liquor-drinking persons with results substantiating the Liebig theory. Among the more striking instances of reform brought about by a change of diet was that of a gentleman of sixty who had been addicted to intemperate habits for thirty-five years, his outbursts averaging one a week. His constitution was so shattered that he had great difficulty in insuring his life. After an attack of delirium tremens, which nearly ended fatally, he was persuaded to enter upon a farinaceous diet, which, we are assured, cured him completely in seven months. He seems to have been very thin at the beginning of the experiment, but at the close of the period named had gained twenty-eight pounds, being then of about the normal weight for a person of his height. Among the articles of food which are specified by Napier as pre-eminent for antagonism to alcohol are macaroni, haricot beans, dried peas, lentils, all of which should be well boiled, and flavored with plenty of butter or olive oil. The various garden vegetables are said to be helpful, but a diet mainly composed of them would not resist the tendency of intemperance so effectually as one of macaroni and farinaceous food. From this point of view high glutinous bread would be of great utility, but it should not be sour, such acidity being calculated to foster the habit of alcoholic drinking. A like remark may be applied to the use of salted food. If we inquire the cause of a vegetarian's alleged disinclination to alcoholic liquors, we find that the carbonaceous starch contained in the macaroni, beans or oleaginous aliment appears to render unnecessary and therefore repulsive, carbon in an alcoholic form.

New Hampshire Items.

The case of David Wadsworth, who was summoned to appear before the United States district court this morning, by District Attorney Joshua G. Hall, of Dover, was postponed at the request of Mr. Hall until the 7th of November.—Mirror.

Correct, with perhaps a slight inaccuracy. Wadsworth was summoned to appear before the Circuit Court of the United States by the Court for a contempt in disregarding its orders, and not by the District Attorney. His case was postponed at the request of Wadsworth, who wanted Gen. Stevens to defend him, and hence the delay as the General had other engagements. With these trifling changes the statement is in accordance with the facts.

Political.

The theory is advanced by friends of Tilden that the electoral votes in Florida and South Carolina were for sale, and that he did not buy them, and that hence it follows that Hayes or his friends did buy them. This is quite as cool as Tilden's disclaimer of all complicity or knowledge of the cipher dispatches. The evidence that an attempt was made to purchase the votes for Tilden rests on the declaration of the men who undertook the crime; the evidence that votes were for sale rests on the same authority, which is not so good for an accusation as it is for a confession. The evidence that the money was ready, but was not supplied in season, rests on the same authority of Mr. Tilden's friends. The negotiation appears to have been as blundering in its execution as it was criminal in its purpose. The inference that because the friends of Tilden failed to make the infamous bargain the friends of Hayes must have succeeded is quite too violent for credulity. The conspirators may be credited to convict themselves; but their testimony is not good against others.—Providence Jour.

No republican has of late been more unjustly abused than Mr. William E. Chandler, of New Hampshire. We have not thought his utterances at all times wise, but it is not becoming in any friend of this Administration to undertake to put down by unworthy insuendoes the man whose sagacity and skill honestly saved for them the votes they had honestly received in Florida, and thus placed Mr. Hayes in power. For that service Mr. Chandler has had no reward but calumny, and he would be less or more than human if he did not feel a little sore about it. Much of what he says, however, in his late speech in New Hampshire, receives a fresh significance from the recent dispatches from the States of South Carolina and Louisiana, and few republicans will question the correctness of his conclusions.—Tribune.

—Lady Burdett-Coutts is a good and kindly woman, as well as a wealthy one. She has lately refused all invitations, and stays quietly at home, altogether engaged in nursing an old companion, who, after many years' faithful attendance on the good baroness, has become very ill and blind.

PORTSMOUTH, Oct. 26th, 1878.

Another Startling Exposure.

As if the New York Tribune's laying bare of the infamous work sought to be accomplished in South Carolina and Florida by the "Copenhagen" cipher despatches of Manton Marble and his coparceners, was not enough to shatter the "reform" pretensions of Samuel J. Tilden and his party friends, despatches from Washington now announce that the republicans are at last in possession of the principal facts connected with the working up of the forged documents and perjured testimony upon which the Potter resolution was based. Anderson, the notorious witness, has at last prepared a written statement and furnished corroborated evidence to sustain it, showing how the agents of Tilden from New York and Washington went to work to manufacture a basis upon which to set up the Potter investigation. For a long time the republicans who were approached declined to have anything to do with the matter, as they did not believe Anderson could make any statement which would command the least confidence, but finally they were induced to look into his statement and examine his proofs, and the result has been that a complete exposure awaits most of those who were active as Tilden's agents in working up the Potter investigation. The story will disgust a good many democrats in the House, who were deliberately deceived in regard to the real character of the documents which were exhibited to them as proofs that a case against Secretary Sherman and the President could be made out at once if the democrats would pass a resolution of inquiry. It can be proved that a "Sherman letter" was forged and carried to Washington by Weber, brother of the murdered supervisor. It was photographed there, and these copies were to be used so the parties might avoid being technically guilty of circulating a forgery, since these were only photographs. After these were taken experts examined them and compared them with Secretary Sherman's handwriting, and agreed that it would never do to try to pass the letter as a genuine one. It was next decided to introduce testimony to the effect that Dan Weber's wife had destroyed the original, but that the copy which Anderson had made here, and which he afterwards produced, was a true copy. Either because Mrs. Weber could not be prevailed upon to swear to this story, or because some other link in the manufactured story could not be supplied, this line of perjury was dropped, and it was finally agreed that Tom Weber should swear to the story that he found the Sherman letter in a box with his deceased brother's papers, and destroyed it without mentioning his discovery even to any member of the family. Proof of the forging of the Weber-Anderson agreement is also available, and in short, the whole diabolical plot by which the Potter investigation was worked up and forced upon the democrats of the House is now known to the republicans, and will be established to the full satisfaction of the country as soon as the Senate committee charged with the inquiry into the charges against Senator Matthews meets. It is understood that Anderson will then appear and free himself from the load of falsehood he took upon himself in the Potter committee. The payments of money to Anderson for preparing the testimony, and the persons who paid it, are known. The part taken by Col. Pelton, Tilden's nephew, in working up the case and forcing it through the House is also now known. The persons who took part in manufacturing oral testimony for several witnesses before the committee are also known, and some of these will probably be soon proceeded against criminally for subornation of perjury. Some of the democrats involved in these transactions have known for some weeks that the danger of the republicans obtaining a clew to their crooked transactions was very great, and their efforts to avert this trouble have been untiring. The evidence of their attempts to prevent exposure will be about as interesting, and at the same time as convincing of guilt, as any of the rest.

News and Notes.

On Thursday afternoon General James S. Whitney and Mr. James P. Thorndike attended a meeting of the bondholders of the Boston Water Power Company. They separated about four o'clock. Mr. Thorndike fell dead at 4:30 that afternoon, and General Whitney died at 6:30 P. M. of the same day.

Cardinal Paul Cullen, the Roman Catholic archbishop of Dublin, Ireland, died Thursday afternoon.

Over a hundred of the negro insurgents in Santa Cruz have been executed.

An attempt to shoot King Alfonso of Spain was made on Friday by a communist named Juan Moncasi. No one was hurt by the bullet. The assassin was arrested.

Steamer Gen. Barnes, bound from Havana for New York, was wrecked in the great gale of the 23d, near Cape Hatteras. Her passengers and crew were rescued by schooner H. W. Drew, of Belfast, Me.

Greene Brimmer, of Pownal, Vt., the old man who was knocked down and beaten in the road by three tramps, died Thursday night. Congdon, the tramp who smashed Mr. Brimmer's skull with a stone, is in jail; the other two were fined, paid their fines and cleared out before the extent of Mr. Brimmer's injuries were known. Vermont is not troubled with any such "accursed tramp law" as that which annoys the greenbackers of New Hampshire.

Rev. W. H. H. Murray of Boston had his right hand badly shattered by the bursting of his gun on Thursday, while shooting ducks at Guilford, Conn.

A barge on the Hudson river had her stem pulled out by the tug that was towing her, Friday, and sank head foremost. The captain, his wife and two children were drowned.

—"My way of life is fallen into the sear, the yellow leaf," as the cabbage remarked after it had been transmuted into fine Havanas.

—A resident of Jamaica, Long Island, did a shrewd thing the other day. While out gunning he shot a quail, in violation of the game law, and some of his neighbors, who saw the act performed, prepared to lodge information against him. He anticipated them, however, by going to a magistrate and entering a complaint against himself, was fined $10, which he paid, and then claimed half the fine, which is by law given to informers, received the $5 and went his way rejoicing.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dsept1979

John C. Lewis has been drawn as a petit juror from ward two, to serve this week and next at the Supreme Court.

The Mirror tells us that Joseph W. Hildreth of this city, superintendent of the Manchester & Lawrence railroad, is to take up his residence in Manchester.

The Eastern railroad will issue half-fare tickets to Boston on Tuesday, good to go on any train that day, and to return on any train either Tuesday or Wednesday.

A liberal gift has been sent to the Faith Home in this city by Miss Ann P. Coffin, whose attention was drawn to this deserving charity by her brother, the late Thomas M. Coffin.

Mr. Brackett J. Trefethen of this city has sub-contracted for the work of building the walls of Jones' new National block. This means that the work will be done in a workmanlike manner.

The Dover Democrat of Friday says: "The trade between the democrats and the greenbackers of the first Congressional district is declared 'off.' Now for honest business, and jockeys to the rear." That very day the attempt at a trade was continued at Concord; and the "jockeys" are so far from being sent to the rear that another conference of demobackers and greenocrats was held at the Commercial hotel in this city on Saturday, to barter principles and swap candidates for county offices.

Patrick McGlinchy of Portland, formerly of the Portsmouth Brewing Co., has with two others purchased the Tucker brewery at Manchester, which has for some time been idle. The new owners have made extensive improvements and are now engaged in brewing ale. The first few attempts were not satisfactory, but it is claimed that the concern is now able to get up a good article, though it will be hard work to bring into market a production that can have such a high repute as the ales sold by Jones & Co. and the Portsmouth Brewing Co.

"The Two Orphans," which is to be played at Music hall on Tuesday evening by Palmer's Combination, is a remarkable play. It is a drama of great power, continuous action and effective tableaux, and presents a fine picture. The management have placed the admission fee at so small a figure that everybody can afford to attend the performance. The general admission fee is only 25 cents, which entitles to a seat in the right or left sections of the parquette or in the gallery. The balcony and parquette centre are reserved, at 35 cents. Reserved seats at Preston's.

The workmen upon the foundation of the new National block, at the corner of Fleet and Congress streets, having completed the cellar, will be succeeded by the contractors' men who will put up the walls of the building. Besides going ahead with the new block, Mr. Jones will at once begin work for a fire-proof storehouse for malt, to be erected about fifty feet from his malt house in Albany street. The building will be of brick, with slated roof; it is to be one hundred and twenty feet long and fifty feet wide, built in the most substantial manner, and capable of sustaining great weight. At times, the amount of grain stored by F. Jones & Company is enormous; at present they have a large quantity on storage in the elevator at Portland. The new building will be accessible by a railroad track, so that grain loaded in Canada can be removed from the cars without extra handling, and from this building it can be taken to the malt house by steam power.

The Martinez English Opera Company gave the "Bohemian Girl" at Manchester Friday evening, and had a very large and cultivated audience. The Mirror says: "The cast of characters as a whole was good, Mdlle. Martinez of course sustaining the principal role. She was the heroine and star. Possessed of natural attractions to a considerable extent, her presence upon the stage is exceedingly pleasing, and, combined as it is with high musical capabilities, she necessarily wins favor with her hearers. As Arline, the daughter of the count, she acquitted herself most creditably. Her voice is quite sweet and well under control, and she uses it with much expression and feeling. Her manner is modest, and her acting easy and natural." Mrs. Barry as the gypsey queen, Mr. Brand as Count Arnheim, and Mr. Felch as Devilshoof, are warmly commended by the Mirror, as is also the chorus; the opera "gave universal satisfaction," and "the gentlemen whose efforts brought about the open merit the thanks of the public for providing such an enjoyable entertainment." At Music hall Wednesday evening.

The flags at the navy yard were displayed at half mast from sunrise to sunset, Saturday, and thirteen minute guns fired at noon, as a mark of respect to the memory of Rear Admiral Hiram Paulding, the senior officer on the retired list of the navy, and the last surviving officer of McDonough's victory on Lake Champlain. Admiral Pauiding was the son of John Paulding, who will ever be famous in American history as one of the three incorruptible captors of Major Andre, during the revolutionary war.

The Times, in a notice of a new picture, says "the scene is off the Isles of Shoals and represents the end of 'White island' with the lighthouse and life-saving station." We have long thought there shou'd be a life-saving station at the Shoals, and are glad to learn that one has been established there, though we should think White island not the best place for it, as no life-boat or surf-boat ever invented, no matter how well managed, could ever get clear of those rocky shores in a heavy storm.

It is proposed to heat all our schoolhouses with coal fires. There was a time when many of the school boys were warmed with birch, but what was a common occurrence thirty or forty years ago is now regarded as a matter of history, though many a then roguish boy, now a man, acknowledges the salutary results of this fine execution by the old masters.

Fred Tibbetts, who was killed in Goshen on the 21st inst. by the accidental discharge of his gun as he was getting over a wall while squirrel hunting, was a son of Mr. Charles H. Tibbetts of New Boston, formerly a resident of this city.

THE VICINITY.

The shoe factory at Kennebunk has started up.

A New Bedford whaler is being repaired in Thompson's dock, Kennebunk.

The Dover Democrat has heard that there are two hundred and fifty greenbackers in Dover, but doesn't believe it.

The Union Religious Society of Eliot has received from T. R. Roach, treasurer of the Howard Association of Vicksburg, Miss., an acknowledgement of the receipt of $23.71, contributed by the society.

The Cocheco Manufacturing Co. of Dover is throwing two iron bridges across the Cocheco river, to accommodate tramways for the transportation of coal from their large coal storehouse to the furnaces in all their mills. The saving effected in the end will be very large, though the present expense is heavy.

Schooner Annie Frye, bound for New York with one hundred and seventy tons of plaster, put into Biddeford Pool for a harbor in the gale of last week, and dragging upon Lobster rocks, pounded on them for four hours. Her rudder was knocked away and about twenty feet of her keel taken off, but she finally got into a safer position and has been beached for repairs.

James Coton, of Biddeford, a man eighty-three years old, was fined six dollars and costs by the police court of that town on Friday for stealing wood, and in default was sent to jail. Coton and his wife were found by an officer unloading wood from a team at half-past one o'clock in the morning; the man who owned the team swore he did not know Coton had it, and it was shown that the wood came from a wood-yard not far off.

ANOTHER POLITICAL AUCTION.

A SALE EFFECTED THIS TIME!

THE DEMGREENOBACKRACY IN COUNCIL.

On Saturday forenoon the minds and tempers of those straight-out Jackson democrats who believe in the "mint-drops" money which their party for over forty years has insisted is the only constitutional currency of the country, and who would prefer defeat under the democratic banner to aiding a party opposed to all democratic principles and traditions in gaining a victory, were much exercised over the arrival in town of numerous light-weight politicians, greenbackers and professed democrats. The hard-money democrats wondered what new dark-lantern scheme was on the carpet, and it was soon noised abroad that there was to be another attempt at trading off "principles." The dealers assembled at the Commercial hotel on Vaughan street, secured one of the parlors, and commenced the barter.

We are informed on good authority that the trading was confined to candidates for county officers. Just what terms were made we cannot say, further than the democratic candidate for sheriff, rather than be kicked off the ticket, promised that if elected he would appoint Charles H. Joy of this city, greenbacker and ex-republican, as one of his deputies—a promise as worthless as a "flat" dollar, for Col. Kent is to be his own successor.

Some real democrats tried to get at what was being done, but information was refused them, point blank; and judging from the exultation which shone in the faces of the greenbackers after the auction was over, they had the best of the trade.

Among the most prominent politicians present were George E. Hodgdon and Frank W. Rand of this city, Andrew J. Hoyt, and Messrs. Carpenter and Leavitt, of Exeter, and A. Langdon Jenness of Deerfield, democratic candidate for sheriff. The prominent democrats of the county were conspicuous by their absence; and from the comments made in our hearing during the day and evening concerning the dicker, by men who have never been anything but democrats politically, we are inclined to believe that the Commercial house auctioneers will find it hard work to deliver the goods according to contract on election day.

THE BARGAINS.

Since writing the above we have learnd the result of the vendue, and as it may interest republican greenbackers and democratic hard-money-men to know whom they have got to vote for, we give them the list, as follows:

For county solicitor, George E. Hodgdon of Portsmouth, chairman of the greenback State committee, vice Joseph F. Wiggins of Exeter, shovelled off.

For sheriff, A. Langdon Jenness of Deerfield, democrat (so-called,) vice Charles H. Joy of Portsmouth, promised an appointment as deputy sheriff if he can get it.

For county treasurer, George W. Lane of Derry, greenbacker, vice George S. Rundlett of Epping, democrat, sold out.

For register of deeds, Frank W. Rand of Portsmouth, the democratic candidate, vice True W. Thompson, greenbacker, false to his colors.

For register of probate, Andrew Jackson Hoyt of Exeter, greenbacker, vice Jay C. Brown of Deerfield, withdrawn under the terms of sale.

For county commissioners there are to be candidates quan. suff.; our information is that Seavey of Rye, greenbacker, withdrew in favor of Joy of Portsmouth, greenbacker; that Whitney of Derry and Brown of Raymond, democrats, and Griffin of Auburn, will all run. What is to become of Proctor of Exeter, the third candidate on the democratic ticket, we at the present writing have not been informed; but it doesn't matter much, for even if the democratic candidates for county officers had ever had a chance of election, the disgraceful bargaining with the greenbackers by one wing of the democracy would have destroyed it, for we do not believe there is time between now and election day for the traders to whip into line all their party friends who are disgusted with such trafficking and who say their votes are not to be sold by any self-appointed auctioneers. We shall see.

A SCOUNDREL ADRIFT.

Jeremiah Toomey, alias John Haley, the notorious thief and burglar who was last week sentenced to ten years in the State prison, made his escape from the officers of the law on Friday evening, risking his worse than worthless neck, but unfortunately not breaking it, in so doing. He was on his way to Concord in the cars at the time, Sheriff Kent and Deputy Sheriff Shepard of Raymond occupying a seat behind him. Toomey was handcuffed, and his feet shackled with irons passed around the foot-rest of the seat before him; but he managed to work off one of his shoes and slip the shackle off over his foot, thus freeing his legs, and suddenly darted to the door of the car and jumped off, the sheriff barely touching his coat as he grabbed at him when passing through the door. The train was then between Massabesic and Manchester, running about twenty miles an hour; and on arriving at Manchester the officers hastened back to the place where the thief took his daring jump, and aided by the local police made search all night for him, but without success. The escaped convict is twenty-one years old, five feet and nine inches high, dark complexioned, and weighs about one hundred and seventy-eight pounds; he had on when he escaped a pair of handcuffs, a pair of leg-irons and one shoe, but no hat. Col. Kent has been an officer for twenty-two years, and Toomey is the first prisoner who ever escaped from him.

SAVED ANOTHER ONE.

At about half-past four o'clock Saturday afternoon a son of the late Capt. Christian Johnson, eleven years of age, who was playing with other boys upon Adams & Co.'s wharf near the navy yard landing, fell into the river where the tide was running at the rate of six knots an hour, and would doubtless have been drowned but for the prompt action of Mr. Robert Anderson, who heard the outcry, and assisted by Mr. B. Trefethen of Kittery hastened to the rescue in a boat. The little fellow was hauled in, much frightened and nearly exhausted. Mr. Anderson has been instrumental in saving nearly a dozen persons from drowning since he has had charge of the government landing at the foot of Daniel street.

LOOK OUT, TRADERS!

We are informed on good authority that a meeting of the democrats of this city and vicinity who are opposed to any and all the movements of so-called democrats looking to the making of any coalition with the greenback party, will be called some time during the present week, when all the measures tending to place the true democratic party in a false position will be denounced and pronounced frauds.

THE STAKES GOBBLED.

One evening not very long ago two young gentlemen of this city engaged in a game of cards at their boarding-house, and after playing a while with varying fortune each recklessly staked his beloved but not luxuriant mustache on his skill and good luck, the winner to have the bliss of destroying his antagonist's pet ornament. When the game was nearly finished the kerosene lamp by the light of which they were playing "took a hand" in the sport, and blew up, scattering broken glass and blazing fluid in all directions. The fire was put out without serious damage, but when the excitement had subsided it was found that the stakes were not worth further contesting for, one side of one gay gambolier's hirsute adornment being entirely gone, while the other one's upper lip was singed close, clear across. The game was given up, and one of the young men started for the mountains next morning, while the other went to the beach for a week's shooting. Both are now back, and persons who have tried the experiment say it is easy to get up a row with either of them just by asking them something about kerosene or euchre.

Naval Matters.

Commander Henry F. Picking is detached from duty as inspector of the first lighthouse district on the 1st of November, and ordered to settle his accounts.

Capt. Joseph S. Skerrett is ordered to duty as lighthouse inspector of the 1st lighthouse district on the 1st of November.

The Ticonderoga will go into commission Nov. 1st, and is expected to be ready for sea about Nov. 15th. She will make a trial trip to Norfolk, where she will be joined by Commodore Shufeldt early in December, for his commercial cruise to the coast of Africa. [The Army and Navy Journal says: "In certain circles it is believed that the real mission of the Ticonderoga is to convey Gen. Grant to India, Siam, and other eastern countries, and the calling at African ports will be only an incident en route. The fact that General Grant has delayed his departure, and intends spending the winter in Paris, gives a strong air of probability to this belief. It will give the ship time to get to Aden ahead of him, via the Cape of Good Hope."]

Gunner Wm. T. Devlin is ordered to the Ticonderoga, and not Gunner Dugan, as incorrectly reported last week.

Acting Carpenter Alonzo C. Burroughs is ordered to the Enterprise; also Acting Boatswain Patrick Haley. Boatswain J. Allen and Carpenter George W. Green are detached from the Enterprise, and placed on waiting orders.

Commander Thomas H. Eastman is detached from the Ajax, and placed on waiting orders.

Commander Henry L. Johnson is ordered to duty at this navy yard Nov. 15th.

Orders have been received at the Boston yard to fit the Wachusett for sea as soon as possible after the Richmond is finished.

Capt. J. H. Higbee and Lieut. Randolph Dickens, U. S. M. C., have been ordered to the Richmond.

Lieut. Comdr. Charles W. Tracy has been placed on the retired list of the navy, in accordance with the finding of the examing board.

—A soft thing—Flat money.

—A son-net—Your neighbor's pretty daughter.

—William H. Brown, a book thief who has operated in the vicinity of Boston, has been arrested and sentenced to six months in jail. The idiot! why didn't he simply borrow the books and forget to return them?

—The muskrat has been heard from just in time to prevent embarrassing mistakes. His architecture is of the lofty Mansard roof variety, indicating plenty of cold to the squre inch during the approaching winter.

—James Miller started from Ohio with his family for the far west, travelling in an emigrant wagon drawn by two horses. In Missouri one of the horses died, and he stole another to replace it. He was arrested, convicted, and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment. Lately his term expired, and he resumed his journey his family having lived in the neighborhood of the prison while waiting for him to be released.

Well-Toned Systems.

Systems toned and renovated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are most effectually defended from disease. That supreme invigorant soon overcomes that distressing feebleness consequent upon ailments which impoverish the blood and relax the muscles. Vigor, appetite, sleep return to the wasted frame, and every physical faculty gains greater activity through its benign influence. Nor is this all, for the Bitters have a most genial and cheering effect upon the mind of the despondent invalid, which is the natural effect of the increased bodily vitality which they produce. Nervous symptoms disappear in consequence of the use of this medicine, and the evil consequences sure to result from a premature decay of the physical energies are averted. Dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatic ailments, urinary and uterine irregularities, malarial diseases, and many other disordered conditions of the system, are remedied by the Bitters.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. mov9

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of

$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offloaded by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to Auxanas's drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing to a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 190 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, I was laden with fat. I have lost twenty-five pounds and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOUGITTIE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Hudson, N. Y., write: "We are THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT! Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to three pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Send for testimonial circular sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPRS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation and knowledge, having treated such results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and do confidently assert that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single valid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Flushes of Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, postpaid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely on those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

BENSON'S CAPCINE Porous Plaster.

A Wonderful Remedy.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any Physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For LAME BACK, Rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys, Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all ills for which porous plasters are used, it is simply the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price, by Seabury & Johnson, 21 Platt Street, New York. tnov20

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity and symptoms. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the system is organic in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from secretions accumulation of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the ear and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal affections, when catarrh cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow-ish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The nasal passages cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate, to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing down from the nose and throat, the mucous becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages that it at times requires very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye is sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The bronchial, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make special preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantage offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, makes it a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most distressing and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is contained in each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's improved Inhaler, by which all diseases for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canada, and by WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Political.

Horatio Seymour has written a letter to the democratic committee of New York, wherein he claims that a revision of our navigation laws, giving free trade in ships, will place us at once on the road to prosperity. England has "free trade in ships" and in most other things, but her prosperity is not marked just now.

Sunset Cox has a democratic competitor in his district to dispute his claims to re-election to Congress. Sunset regards this as no joke.

A Washington dispatch to the Boston Transcript says the Republicans in Congress intend to insist upon a thorough inquiry into the cipher dispatches, and to bring their authors before the committee, in order that the whole truth may be brought out. If there be any law to reach them, they will be prosecuted to the fullest extent.

Whoever speaks with condemnation of the political murder of negroes by white men is at once accused of "shaking the bloody shirt," the accusers frequently being men who took precious care there should be no stain of blood upon their garments during the late civil war. However, those who speak out in defense of the oppressed expect to be jeered at by upholders of the oppressors, and are not minded to make complaint.—Portland Press.

Hayes' Title.

However varied may be the opinions concerning the validity of Haye's title to the Presidency, there is not a question in the minds of either democrats or republicans upon one important point, viz: the unquestionable right of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines to the title of the Standard Remedies of the age. Listen to the voice of the sovereign people.

New Glarus, June 10th, 1878.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—Your Pleasant Purgative Pellets seem to be particularly adapted to wants of the people in this warm climate, where bilious affections are particularly prevalent. I regard them as the best cathartic I have ever tried.

Yours truly, JOHN C. HENDERSON.

Boston, Mass., May 14th, 1878.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—Your Golden Medical Discovery has cured my boy of a Fever Sore of two year's standing. Please accept our gratitude. Yours truly,

HENRY WHITING.

—The cat is the most reliable poet—it can always depend upon its mews.

—Romance of Battle Creek, Mich.: A handsome young fellow in California saw the picture of a girl whom he learned to be a resident of the Michigan town, wrote to her, liked her answering letter, and began a correspondence which ended in their betrothal. A week ago he came east to marry her, made certain discoveries as to her character, and an hour later was on route for California again, alone.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

Thousands of testimonials to the efficacy and remarkable cures of Adamson's Botanic Balsam can be produced from leading citizens of the New England States. It cures colds, coughs and all throat and lung troubles. Sold everywhere at 25 cents.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. tnov9

PORTSMOUTH, Oct. 26th, 1878.

News and Notes.

The Treasury of the United States is now engaged in preparing checks for the payment of interest on the five per cent bonds falling due on the first of November. The total amount necessary to pay this instalment of interest is $6,000,000.

"Dr." and Mrs. Newman of Lynn, Mass., who succeeded in securing property of Lorenzo J. Lougee, amounting to $2900, by causing Lougee to believe it necessary in order to secure the care of his wife, have been sentenced by the Superior Court at Lawrence. Newman was sentenced to five years in the State prison, and his wife to five years in the house of correction at hard labor.

It is stated that the action of Russia in buying and building ships of war, and contracting for supplies of munitions of war in the United States, has formed the subject of a recent correspondence between England and the United States, in which the former takes a very high tone, and insists that the United States will be held to a very strict accountability. It is also stated that war between England and Russia is inevitable.

Jefferson Davis has been singularly unfortunate with his sons. Joseph H. fell from the piazza of the executive mansion in Richmond during the war and was killed; William died of diphtheria in Memphis in 1873, and Jefferson, the only surviving one, has died in Memphis of the yellow fever.

J. P. McDonnell, editor of the Labor Standard, was convicted at Paterson, N. J., of libel, in calling non-striking operatives of the Adams mill "scabs," and fined $500. It was at once paid by the workingmen and women of Paterson, who drew McDonnell around the streets in an open barouche by hand, amid great rejoicing.

At Benwood, W. Va., Aeror Patterson had the top of his head blown off by the accidental discharge of a gun on the shoulder of Thomas Sproul, who was walking ahead of Patterson.

The lighthouse on Pool's island, in the upper Chesapeake, was carried away in the great storm. No tidings of the keepers.

Ed. Hartmann, the drummer who was shot by Miss Linkhaw at Lumberton, N. C., is not expected to survive. Miss Linkhaw gave birth to a child two hours after the shooting.

A New York dispatch to the Boston Traveller says the inventor Edison is dangerously ill at Menlo Park. Physicians are in constant attendance. Though it is published as only a severe attack of neuralgia, it is believed that lung disease is the real trouble.

A two-dollar bill issued by the Smithfield, R. I., Exchange Bank in 1823, one year after its organization, was presented for redemption, in clean order and excellent condition, one day last week. It was found among the effects of a lady recently deceased.

A band of Cheyennes were captured Thursday, disarmed and started for Camp Robinson. The savage prisoners mutinied, however, when they learned their destination, and getting the rifles they had secreted, resumed a hostile attitude. They surrendered on Saturday, starved and frozen out, after forty-eight hours of exposure.

The little Arctic-exploring schooner Florence, recently reported missing, arrived at Provincetown, Saturday, leaking and out of provisions. The last morsel of food on board had been consumed that morning.

The shooting accident by which Rev. W. H. H. Murray's hand was shattered occurred as follows: While loading one barrel of his gun the other was accidentally discharged; his right hand was over the end of the muzzle, and the two middle fingers were blown off at the second joint and his little finger at the first joint. His index finger remains intact. It was some time before the wound could be dressed, as when the accident happened Mr. Murray was in a boat, three miles from shore. The wind dying away, the little craft drifted slowly in at a point a mile away from his house, and over that distance the gentleman was obliged to walk. It is expected that he will be out again in a few days.

A suit involving the price of an ordinary mantel has just been tried for the fourth time in New York. The costs have amounted to many times the sum involved.

A project is mooted to cut a canal through Florida, to save time in transportation and risk of shipwreck of vessels bound in and out of the Gulf. Florida ought not to be cut off in this way without a "returning board" for those on the other side of the canal to cross upon.

A gang of burglars entered the building of the Manhattan Savings Bank, in New York, Sunday morning, compelled the janitor to surrender the keys of the bank and the combination of the safe. They then quietly and thoroughly plundered the safe and carried off bonds and cash amounting to nearly three millions of dollars, of which two and a half millions are registered in the name of the bank and therefore not negotiable. The thieves got $11,000 in cash; also valuable jewelry, private papers, etc., stored there for safe keeping.

Following the Vanderbilt and Stewart estates, the estate of the notorious Madame Restelle has got into the courts of New York. When a wealthy person dies in that city the lawyers always see that their share of the estate comes out first.

An unfortunate depositor in the German Savings Bank of New York who gave vent to his feelings by charging one of the trustees with being the biggest thief of the whole, has been arrested and held to bail at a suit instituted by the trustee, who wants $5000 damages for the distinction.

Mr. Geo. Vandenhoff has recently concluded an engagement at Booth's theatre in New York.

The tramps who recently gagged and outraged Mrs. Edwin Warner of Charlemont, Mass., have so far escaped detection, and it is not likely they will ever be punished for their crime. Portions of Mrs. Warner's underclothing, and the gag used by the ruffians, were found on Friday in the ravine where Mrs. Warner was assaulted. The people of Charlemont would not object to Massachusetts adopting "the accursed tramp law" of New Hampshire, in case the New Hampshire greenbackers succeed in driving it off the statute books of this State.

New Hampshire Items.

Horace F. Morse and William Oakes of Eaton got into a dispute Saturday about a line fence. A desperate quarrel ensued and Oakes struck Morse with a slung-shot inflicting a severe wound on the head. Morse knocked Oakes down, beat him on the back and head with a large club, bruising him fearfully. Oakes is expected to recover, though seriously injured. The trouble between them is of long standing.

Deacon C. S. Tuck of Brentwood committed suicide at six o'clock on Sunday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The deceased was 78 years old and was born and always resided on the spot where he died.

—A fly never appears to such disadvantage as when he is mounted on his head in the centre of your squash pie, rubbing his hind feet together in the air.

—A Norwich teacher was practising her youthful class in original composition, and gave one pupil the subject "Boy" to write upon. The subject was to be treated of in three parts—first, what is it? Second, what is its use? And third, what is it made of? The lad wrestled hard for a few minutes in desperate perplexity and then wandered up to the teacher's desk radiant with enthusiasm and submitted the following:—"A boy is an animal; his use is to carry in wood; he is made of bones."

It having been widely advertised under the caption of

"America Ahead in Spool Cotton,"

that the Jury on Cotton textiles, yarns, and threads, at the Paris Exposition, decreed a Gold Medal and Grand Prize to the Willimantic Linen Company for "Spool Cotton especially adapted for use on Sewing Machines," over all the great thread manufacturers of the world, we owe it as a duty to the public and to Messrs. J. & P. Coats to announce that

No Grand Prizes were decreed at Paris for Spool Cotton.

We are advised by cable of the following awards:

J. & P. COATS, GOLD MEDAL.

Willimantic Linen Co., Silver Medal.

And we claim for the work of the First Prize that as they have established in Rhode Island the largest Spool Cotton Mills in the United States, where their Spool Cotton is manufactured through every process from raw cotton to the finished spool, AMERICA, as represented by Messrs. J. & P. COATS, IS SELL AHEAD IN SPOOL COTTON. 1dec29

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. disept10 79

THE CITY.

The Portsmouth Brewing Co. are putting up a building for storage purposes, ninety feet long by twenty wide.

Miss Sidney Conlan, who works in the factory, had the end of one of her fingers badly crushed by getting it caught in some of the gear on Saturday.

Unusually high tides are prevailing; on Sunday the water flowed over the road at Lafayette bridge, and the meadows in that vicinity were submerged.

A valuable team horse belonging to E. H. Winchester, Esq., died last week after a short illness of colic. He was a beautiful gray, weighing over thirteen hundred pounds.

The marine guard for the Ticonderoga, numbering twenty-five men, arrived in this city from Charlestown, Mass., by the three o'clock train Monday afternoon, and proceeded at once to the navy yard.

Palmer's Combination at Music hall this evening, in the Two Orphans, with Miss Blanche Mortimer and Mr. J. J. Coleman in the leading parts. Admission 25 cents: reserved seats 35 cents. See advt.

The south mill-pond overflowed on Sunday, probably with delight at the prospect of giving up the work of turning the wheels of the old mill. The pond got on something of a spree—indeed, was quite full.

The singing at the Court street Christian church is now led by a double male quartette, of which Mr. L. E. Martin is conductor. The choir meet regularly for rehearsal, and the improvement in the quality of the singing is very noticeable.

By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that it was J. & P. Coats who received the first prize—a gold medal—at the Paris Exposition for their standard spool cotton, thus showing that it stands as yet unequalled for hand and machine sewing.

Only two fishing schooners brought in fares on Saturday, viz.: the Velocipede, Capt. Jamieson, and the Can't Come It, Capt. Robinson. The latter vessel brought in 5000 lbs. of fish, and the Velocipede 25,000 lbs., the biggest catch of the season for one day's work.

A report from Alexandria, Va., of the 24th inst, says: A two-masted schooner, supposed to be the T. J. Trafton, is ashore on the flats opposite Fort Foote, a few miles below this city. She is reported to have on board about sixty tons of fish. The tug Kate took a pull at her yesterday evening, but failed to get her off.

A course of eight lectures is to be given at Miss Morgan's school by Mr. James T. Fields, Mr. George W. Haven, Rev. James DeNormandie and Rev. John Albee, each gentleman giving two lectures. The first of the course will be by James T. Fields on Friday evening, Nov. 1st; subject, "Literary and artistic life in London thirty years ago."

Mr. Charles F. Locke has commenced putting in the foundation for a large house to be immediately erected on the corner of Lincoln and Miller avenues, for Mr. Charles M. Leighton, from plans drawn by Mr. Wm. A. Ashe. The building is to be a fine one; it will be closed in this winter, and finished ready for occupation early next season.

In the southern wall of the upper story in the new brewery building by the Eldredge Brewing Co.,—which, by the way, is one of the most substantially constructed buildings in the city,—is a granite ledge, above which is a slight recess. "Can you tell me," asked a visitor, of one of the brewery men, on Sunday, "what that granite shelf is placed up there for?" "It is for a statute," said the man. "Ah," said he of the enquiring mind, "I presume it must be the statute regulating the sale of lager beer, passed last July by the Legislature."

The Martinez English Opera Company will present the Bohemian Girl at Music hall to-morrow evening. This company has opened no less than sixteen of the leading Lyceum courses of New England during the present month—good evidence of popularity. Of the prima donna the New Bedford Standard says: "In personal appearance Mlle. Martinez is unmistakably of a Spanish type of beauty. Delicately formed, she is piquant, sparkling and pretty, with flashing sympathetic eyes, now saucy, now tender and languishing, and the inimitable grace of motion that is the hereditary charm of Spain. She has a wealth of long, dark hair, which is the admiration of all and the envy of many. Intellectually Mlle. Martinez stands high, being fluent in five different languages, and many of her musical compositions have been honored by public rendition in this country and in the old world. Mlle. Martinez possesses a pure voice of sweetness and power, and her method is faultless. She is highly gifted with the faculties of quick and close study, and what is particularly interesting to the ladies, her wardrobe is unsurpassed by any artist in the country. She has made many friends wherever she has appeared, and her fine voice and dramatic ability have been recognized by all the leading artists of the day."

Alderman Thomas J. Whidden of Boston, a native of this city, is lying dangerously ill at his residence. On Thursday last he had a stroke of apoplexy, and since that time he has been able to see only his physician and attendants.

THE VICINITY.

A building owned by Samuel Cousens at Salmon Falls, occupied as a grocery store, was restroyed by fire Friday night; insured.

The summer cottage and buildings at Goose Rocks, Biddeford, owned by Mrs. Joseph Cleaver, were burned Friday night; no insurance; incendiary.

Somebody broke into and robbed the post-office at Epping Corner on Friday night, stealing therefrom about twenty dollars in cash and postage stamps.

Mr. Smith Perry and Mrs. Tabitha Lucas of Dover were thrown out of a team in that town on Friday, through the running away of the horse, which was frightened by a train of cars. Mr. Perry was seriously bruised and jarred, but had no bones broken; Mrs. Lucas was badly bruised, and had both bones of one leg broken just below the knee. The wagon was knocked to pieces.

LANE vs. LANE.

We particularly invite the attention of republicans (and honest-money democrats who dare to be true to their principles) to the similiarity of the names of the candidates for County Treasurer of Rockingham county on the republican and "fusion" tickets. The republican candidate is George E. Lane, of Exeter; the fusion candidate is George W. Lane, of Derry, a pronounced greenbacker. Look out for your ballots on election day.

SUPREME COURT.

MONDAY, Oct. 28; Smith, J.

The first case put on trial was State vs. Eliza A. Crafts, for selling liquor at Hampton. The evidence for the State was that a search of defendant's premises was made by Sheriff Kent, Deputy Sheriff Brown and Oliver Loomis, who found liquor in small quantities, and all the implements for the keeping of a bar; and that a United States license for retailing liquor occupied a conspicuous place in the room. The only evidence for the defence was given by the respondent, whose testimony was that the liquor was purchased on the morning of the day the search was made, for the use of her husband; that she had not sold, and had no knowledge of any one else having sold, any liquor on the premises. When asked who procured the license to sell she declined to answer. The case was argued by A. R. Hatch for the defence, and Harriman for the State; the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

State vs. Newhall Hayes, stealing a horse from Michell Reeves of Candia last spring. The evidence was that Reeves, who is a Frenchman ninety-one years old, some time since removed from the State of New York to Candia, taking with him a horse which he bought before leaving New York, and which he traded with a man in Suncook for the animal alleged to have been stolen by Hayes.

Rose Hayes, wife of the defendant, testified that her husband told her that he was bound to have that horse; that he left home on a Wednesday evening and did not return till the following Tuesday morning, when he came to a window of the house in which they then lived, in the town of North Ashburnham, Mass., and spoke to her; that she went to the door and found her husband, who had this horse, which she fully described; that he had taken the harness off and hid it in some bushes; that he then drove the horse toward some woods, and told her if she ever exposed him he would murder her. She said she had often been cruelly treated by him, being frequently beaten, and that she wanted nothing to do with a thief. Her testimony was not shaken by cross-examination.

Another witness testified that Hayes came to his house to trade horses, and that they did trade; that some time after, Hayes came back to get his horse, not being satisfied with his bargain, but witness refused to accede to Hayes' demands. Shortly afterward Hayes met him in another place, seized the horse's bridle and demanded the animal, and during a scuffle which followed Hayes drew a pistol, which was taken from him by witness and a constable. Witness described the manner in which the horse's tail and ears had been clipped, to alter his appearance, the latter part of his testimony being corroborated by another witness, who now has possession of the horse.

At this stage of the proceedings the indictment was quashed on account of its describing the stolen animal as a "dark brown mare" instead of a "dark brown horse." Hayes was held for further action. Patten of Manchester for Hayes.

Case State vs. Mary York of Newmarket, for liquor selling, was next called, and nol. pros'd.

William Coombs, the notorious jail-breaker, was brought up. Coombs was some years ago convicted on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, fined $100 and $49.62 costs, to stand committed to Exeter jail until paid He escaped after being in confinement one month and twelve days; was recaptured by Sheriff Kent and lodged in Exeter jail on the 17th of last June, and remained there until brought to this city. The court ordered him to be confined in Exeter jail for three months, and to pay costs of prosecution; to stand committed until paid.

Edward Bean and Moses Bean, of Nottingham, were charged with breaking and entering the granary of David Bean, and stealing wheat, corn, etc., therefrom.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Oct. 28; Batchelder, J.

Daniel Hurley was charged with stealing a tub of butter from the Eastern depot. He was adjudged probably guilty, and held in $200 for his appearance at the term of the Supreme Court to be held in Exeter next April. Hatch for the railroad; Page for respondent.

Edward A. Clough and his son were complained of by Washington I. Drake, who charged them with taking down the bars of a right-of-way leading from Banfield road to the residence of the Cloughs, which right-of-way is crossed by the track of the Eastern railroad, Drake maintaining that through such removal of bars his cattle were let on to the track, thereby endangering them and the lives of the travellers on the railroad. The case was continued to Saturday on the promise of the respondents to keep the bars closed in the meantime, their counsel, Mr. Harriman, being unable to attend as he was engaged at the Supreme Court.

Newell Hayes, for stealing a horse in Candia, was bound over in $400 to answer at the April term of the Supreme Court. Jail in default.

A BRILLIANT SOMERSAULT.

Greenbackism, by which we mean the advocacy of an unlimited and irredeemable currency, is not a permanent element of our politics. As time passes, the errors of judgment into which so many have fallen will pass away, and when those who have gone into the greenback movement honestly, leave it, those others who have entered it as a short road to office will also desert it. This is only a question of brief time. Such being the probabilities, it would be suicidal in the democratic party to allow a line to be drawn between itself and the republican party upon the issue of "hard" or "soft" money, with the republicans supporting the former. The republican leaders are, even while secretly negotiating with the nationals in reference to the fall elections, endeavoring to so order the campaign as to induce or force the democratic party into supporting "soft" money. The only chance the republicans have for success in 1880 depends upon the drawing of the lines as stated.—Times, two weeks ago.

On Saturday last, committees of the democratic and greenback parties met in this city to arrange for a coalition of the two parties on county nominations in Rockingham county, and after discussing the situation, agreed upon the following ticket. * * We are heartily glad that this arrangement has been made, and can see no reason why any member of either party can refuse to support or vote the ticket.—Times, Oct. 28th.

OLIVER F. GERRISH.

We take from the Democratic Press, of Port Townsend, W. T., the following obituary of the late Oliver F. Gerrish:

On Thursday morning last the news came from Victoria by telegram, announcing the death, in that city at about eight o'clock the previous evening, of one of our most highly respected townsmen, Oliver F. Gerrish. As per our notice last week, the period had arrived in Mr. Gerrish's illness at which death was expected at any moment. The various flags of the city were at once swung at half-mast. On Friday morning the remains were brought to this city, for interment, per the steamer Dakota; the funeral took place from the residence of deceased at one o'clock on Saturday under the immediate charge of Port Townsend Lodge, No. 6, of Masons, deceased having been an old member of the Order, and having attained the 32nd Degree. Mount Baker Lodge No. 9, I. O. O. F., of which Order he was a member, united with the lodges of Masons of this place, in the burial ceremonies; the funeral was one of the most largely attended that ever happened within this county.

In the loss of Oliver F. Gerrish, Washington Territory is deprived of another of her leading business men. As a business man, and in business circles, as well as socially and in public life generally, deceased was both respected and esteemed by all with whom he was brought in contact.

Deceased was born in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, and at the time of his death was forty-eight years of age. He had, ever since a boy, been engaged in mercantile business; for seven years he was a clerk in one of the leading business houses of Portsmouth, when he bought out his employers, and succeeded them in their business until, sometime in the year 1863, on account of ill-health in his family, he closed out his business, and came to this coast, locating in this city in 1864, at once establishing himself in the mercantile business, as the successor of Gerrish & Perkins, the senior member of which firm was his brother—Geo. Gerrish, now residing in Clallam county—and ever since that time up to his death, he continued in that business. For several years deceased had been entrusted with the responsible position of County Commissioner, by the people of his county, into which office he carried his business tact and experience, and to him is given largely the credit of our county affairs being in so flattering a condition. Deceased was proverbially known as a kind and affectionate husband and father, and his loving family and relatives have a host of sympathizers throughout the Territory, and in this county in particular. "May he sleep in peace."

Could Not Stand It.

I notice by the CHRONICLE that, after abusing Mr. Hayes, calling him "a fraud," and other hard names, ever since he was inaugurated as President, and claiming that Uncle Sammy Tilden was the one entitled to the place, the late revelations of the New York Tribune with regard to the cipher despatches, have been more than even Dana, of the New York Sun, could stand, capable as he he is of shouldering any amount of iniquity, provided it is on the side of the party he chances at the time to advocate, and it always happens to be the democratic side, yet claiming the Sun to be neutral in politics. While enumerating in relation to some matter, other journals as republican, democratic, etc., a newspaper, somewhere, lately ranked the Sun as "blackguard," and surely, under Dana's editorship, it has well won the title, for never before did so much vituperation emanate from any other sheet as the Sun in New York city; losing all its force from its frequent reiteration in relation to the same individual, besides becoming ridiculous by giving the reader an idea of the editor being troubled with a perpetual stomach-ache. B.

—Mrs Partington says the only way to prevent steamboat explosions is to make the engineers bile the water on shore.

—A Georgia negro, whose father had refused him the loan of a mule to attend a funeral, organized a funeral at home by killing the old man.

—A tramp who had volunteered as a nurse in the yellow fever hospital at Chattanooga was arrested and taken to jail for having previously stolen a coat at Wartrace.

—A resident of Grand Rapids, Mich., invested $3000 with a Chicago broker, being desirous of accumulating a fortune with rapidity. He lost it all and was sued for $3.75 of a balance.

—Herman Beeser, a boy of fifteen years, residing near Blairstown, Ia., hanged himself because his father made him stay at home and saw wood instead of allowing him to accompany him to town.

—A woman in Vermont was offered a new dress if she would walk twice around a graveyard at midnight, and the way she walked in and won it made her husband's hair stand up straighter than if he had seen a dozen spooks.

—"So," said a lady, recently, to a merchant, "your pretty daughter has married a rich husband?" "Well," slowly replied the father, "I believe she has married a rich man; but I understand he is a very poor husband."

—Doting mother; "Yes, I shall be happy to give you the wages you ask, but I shall expect you to love the dear children." Nurse—"I shall be very happy to do so, ma'am; but of course that would be an extra."—Funny Folks.

—There was a novel prosecution at Burlington last week against three tramps who had for several weeks lodged in a barn, just inside the city limits. They were arraigned under a provision in the riot act, forbidding the assemblage of two or more men for unlawful purposes, and were convicted and sentenced to ninety days in the State workhouse.

We always knew that Gen. Butler was sharp on a bargain, but we did not suppose he would descend so low as to dispute the wages of the clam diggers. The poor fellows who furnished the bivalves for the Ipswich symposium asked fifty cents per bushel, but the Butler committee thought that too high, and tried in vain to beat the clam diggers down to twenty-five cents. But then, you know, the General is a friend to the working classes, and it won't do to encourage high prices.—Haverhill Gazette.

—A pretty long list might be made of men who have owed their advancement in life to a smart answer at the right moment. One of Napoleon's veterans, who survived his master many years, was wont to recount with great glee how he had once picked up the Emperor's cocked hat at a review, when the latter, not noticing that he was a private, said carelessly "Thank you, Captain." "In what regiment, Sire?" asked the ready-witted soldier. Napoleon, perceiving his mistake, answered with a smile, "In my Guard, for I see you know how to be prompt." The newly-made officer received his commission next morning.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

FULL-SIZE PAPER PATTERNS !

☞ A Supplement will be given in every number for 1878, containing a full-size pattern sheet for a lady's or child's dress. Every subscriber will receive, during the year, twelve of these patterns, so that these alone will be worth more than the subscription price. Great improvements will also be made in other respects. ☜

"Peterson's Magazine" contains, every year, 1000 pages, 12 steel plates, 12 colored Berlin patterns, 12 mammoth colored fashion plates, 24 pages of music, and about 900 wood cuts. Its principal embellishments are

SUPERB STEEL ENGRAVINGS!

Its immense circulation enables its proprietor to spend more on embellishments, stories, &c. than any other. It gives more for the money than any in the world. Its

Thrilling Tales and Novelettes

Are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1878, in addition to the usual quantity of short stories, FIVE ORIGINAL COPYRIGHT NOVELETTES will be given, by Ana S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Jane G. Austin, and that inimitable humorist, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife."

MAMMOTH COLORED FASHION PLATES

Ahead of all others. These plates are engraved on steel, twice the usual size, and are unequalled for beauty. They will be superbly colored. Also, 1 frontispiece and other receipts; in short everything interesting to ladies.

N. B. As the publisher now prepays the postage to all subscribers, "Peterson" is cheaper than ever; in fact is the cheapest in the world.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week. In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to Acheman's drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writes for a patent from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 190 pounds to 132 pounds, and there has been no improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOTTY & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. FOWLE & FLETCHER, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to three pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPRS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while administering its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and to its acceptance I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations as a simple invigorating tonic, in the form of any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a specific purpose, being a most perfect specific in all those diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state of condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in The People's Common Sense MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, postpaid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats largely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from an scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal affections, whether causes mild or severe, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they commonly contain mucus, and yellowish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The nasal passages become so swollen as to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and in extreme cases it is necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of the mucus passing from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to render persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery. In the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most tormenting neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

DEPARTED.

The river danceth along, dear love,
O'er its frolicsome path to the sea;
And the waves shine bright in the clear moonlight
As ever they're shone on me.

The grass, and the leaves, and the stars, dear love,
Are bright as in Summer nights (?);
But the night-wind's song, as it fleeth along,
Seems sadder than ever before.

And the grass, and the leaves, and the stars, dear [love,
And a breath of the perfumed air,
Take me back, take me back, in life's weary track,
To the beautiful nights that were.

And I listen, and wait, and watch, dear love,
Till the pulse of my heart grows dumb,
For eyes that have gone, and a voice that has flown,
And a step that never will come.

The shadows lie dark on the wave, dear one,
The charm from the night-wind hath fled,
And I'm now alone, with the bright hours gone,
And the phantoms of sweet days—dead.

The State Finances.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 22, 1878.

Mr. Editor:—The writer of the article in the People and Patriot of last week, on the State finances, either willfully or ignorantly misrepresented the facts. The figures are unreliable.

In the first place, he has included in his statement of the revenues of the States for a portion of the time covered, the entire amount of the savings bank and railroad taxes. The savings bank tax is in no sense a source of revenue, not one cent of it being retained in the Treasury; and the same is true of a considerable proportion of the railroad tax.

Secondly: he boldly asserts that of the revenues collected during the past twelve years, all not applied to the reduction of the debt have gone in extravagant appropriations and in salaries to State officials. I have prepared a tabular statement, exhibiting the amount of the State debt at the close of each fiscal year for the past twelve years, together with the Annual Revenue, Interest, and Expense Accounts and the reduction of the debt during the same period. The aggregate amount disbursed in that time, on account of interest, has been $2,672,320.88. All other expenses, including salaries, appropriations for specific purposes, and for our charitable and reformatory institutions,—in fact, expenses of every kind except interest,—$2,382,981.93, while the reduction of the debt has been $2,677,575.50.

The citizens of the State will be interested to see the figures for some of those years, and then they can judge of the sincerity of those sham reformers in shouting for economy, and practising the reverse when opportunity offers.

I give below the figures for six years, commencing with 1871:

Year ending	State Debt	Revenue	Interest	Expense	Reduced Debt
June, 1871,	$2,500,087 93	$793,753 16	$190,753 16	$140,774 71	$419,204 46
June, 1872,	4,338,134 30	725,184 45	140,154 96	*163,540 70	427,658 70
June, 1873,	4,182,100 44	421,313 51	251,063 33	183,545 36	6,868 62
June, 1874,	3,298,590 03	740,002 24	225,728 77	174,022 85	303,779 42
June, 1875,	3,141,330 45	905,654 21	216,029 80	*184,304 83	85,259 57
June, 1876,	3,039,538 30	803,228 19	229,679 31	162,856 02	111,791 96

* Democratic Administration.

The reduction of the debt for the year 1871-2 is the actual reduction of the old debt: the large increase in the debt reported was caused by the issue of $2,205,695.44 war loan bonds to reimburse the towns for their war expenditures. It will be observed that the Interest Account largely exceeds all the other State expenses.

A very significant fact is that the expenses for the first year of Gov. Weston's administration were $14,566.07 more than his republican successor. The democracy makes a still worse showing the next time they obtain control of the State. For the year ending June 1, 1875, the expenses of a democratic administration were $9,611.94 more than its republican predecessor, and $15,447.92 more than the republican administration following. And yet these men have the hardihood to ask to be returned to power to relieve the people of their burdens, and the State from impending bankruptcy!

SOLON A. CARTER, State Treasurer.

Hon. Carl Schurz spoke to the republicans of Boston in Faneuil hall Monday evening; the hall was crowded long before the time set for speaking to commence, and a large crowd had to be locked out of the building. The Post says "his speech was received with hearty approbation, and at every available point rounds of applause were given." He portrayed in a graphic manner the evils of inflation, particularly to the workingman, and the benefits of resumption; in other words, he made a square honest-money speech.

Republican Rally!

For Honest Money and Honest Principles!

The Republicans of Portsmouth and vicinity and all others who believe that the prosperity of the country and the greatest good of the greatest number can best be promoted only by sound action in relation to our currency are invited to meet

AT MUSIC HALL,

On Thursday Evening Next,

where addresses will be made by

Hon. Edward H. Rollins,

Senator in Congress from this State,

— AND —

Hon. William E. Chandler,

Late Secretary of the Republican National Committee.

The addresses will begin at half-past seven sharp and the audience are requested to be in their seats by that time. Doors will be opened at 7:15.

☞ Ladies are invited.

PORTSMOUTH, Oct. 26th, 1878.

The Outlook.

The canvass of the republican State committee is in as forward a condition as is usual the week before election, and indicates the election of three republican members of Congress, the probable election of Gen. Natt Head by the people, and a working majority of republicans in both houses of the legislature. The advices received do not point to any such greenback vote as the leaders of that party expect, or pretend to expect, and the accessions to the greenback ranks are coming now from the democratic party almost entirely, as has been the case for some time past; and many hard-money democrats will either stay away from the polls or vote the republican ticket, not being able to swallow the shuffling platform of the democratic party or to stand its subsequent trading with inflationists. The only danger is—and that is a danger easily averted by work which there is yet time to do, and which is being done very generally—that in some of the close towns the greenbackers and democrats may manage to capture representatives to which they are not by their numbers entitled, and thus endanger the election of a republican to the United States Senate. The Congressman in this district is considered safe for the republicans, and so is the entire county ticket; and it only remains for every republicans to do his whole duty toward the election of the legislative candidates of his district and town, to ensure an old fashioned republican victory.

The Political Mixture.

The Dover Democrat makes an earnest appeal to greenbackers who were once democrats not to vote for the greenback candidate for Congress from this district, as it will only help Hon. Joshua G. Hall to an election. This was not what the democratic leaders encouraged the greenback movement for; it was intended to draw off republican votes only, but it has worked badly for the democracy. Very many of the republicans who were for a while led away by the specious arguments and loud bluster of the greenbackers, are drawing out of the movement now that its true character as a democratic side-show is so clearly revealed; but the democratic leaders find it a good deal harder work than they anticipated to pull out of the greenback clubs the voters they sent in as decoys for inflation republicans, and they are everywhere surrendering to the greenback forces on condition that they receive half the offices.

This truckling will lose the fusionists not only the votes of those republican greenbackers who see that they are simply being made tools of to further the ambition of a few unprincipled leaders who have sold them to their old political antagonists, but will also drive many honest-money democrats into voting the republican ticket, as a rebuke to the party leaders who have abandoned the old democratic faith and virtually declared in favor of unlimited paper inflation; and that such declaration is possibly made in a Pickwickian sense, and only for the purpose of capturing the greenback vote, does not mollify the hard-money fellows one bit.

The only way to vote squarely for honest money and the maintenance of the national honor unsullied, in New Hampshire this year, is to vote the republican ticket; a vote for the greenback ticket is simply a vote to aid the democracy; a vote for the democratic ticket may be a vote for honest money, but there is rather more than an even chance that it will prove the other way. The republican ticket is the only one an honest man can vote and know just what principles he is voting for.

News and Notes.

In Warwick, R. I., Saturday afternoon, John F. James, a boy, was firing a revolver at some chickens, when at the fourth shot the ball entered the brain of Samuel Beggs, who was painting in the rear of his house. He died in twenty-four hours, and leaves a wife and seven children.

Andrew J. Fayes, of Newton, Mass., threw himself in front of a train of cars on Monday, and was instantly killed, his head and both legs, and one arm, being cut off. He was a barber, forty-five years old, and leaves a wife and five children in destitute circumstances. Ill health, which prevented him from working, probably induced the act.

Margaret Mehan of Fort Edward, N. Y., a school teacher, over sixty years of age, was abducted Sunday night, and probably murdered. One of her supposed murderers is under arrest.

R. A. Pedrick, customs clerk of Benkard & Hutton of New York, has disappeared. He has been stealing for years, the amount of his stealings being over $100,000. How he got rid of the money cannot be discovered, as he never drank nor gambled, so far as known, and lived very modestly.

A watchman at the Concord (Mass.) State prison has been put under arrest for collusion with certain prisoners to aid in a general jail delivery.

A Mrs. Knowles of Becket, Mass., fifty-two years old, who has been treated all summer for dropsy, has surprised herself and everybody else by giving birth to a fine boy.

Harry Brooks of Holyoke, Mass., who started from Hartford with seven companions to nurse yellow-fever sufferers at the first outbreak, is the only one of the eight to return.

John Anderson, in a difficulty near Marshallville, Ga., was stabbed fatally by Henry McRea, colored. He shot the negro twice, killing him instantly.

Pierre Provost, who was in prison at Vincennes, Ind., for the murder of the Vacelot family of four persons, hanged himself in his cell Saturday night. He undoubtedly would have been taken from jail on Sunday and hanged by the citizens had he not taken his own life.

New Hampshire Items.

There is a petition in circulation for the appointment of Judge William L. Foster of Concord to the bench of the United States Circuit Court, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Shepley.

L. D. Johnson of Lancaster, a freight brakeman, was seriously injured by being crushed between a car and a bridge near East Concord Monday evening. He was climbing up the side of the car.

In Canaan, a few days since, after hearing a greenback orator, Rev. Mr. Dalton rose and suggested "that in accordance with the doctrine just explained it would be a good idea for the people of the town to petition Congress to give each resident a million dollars, so that all could have equal possession, and that no one would be more obliged to labor than another."

That Boy.

Dramatis personnæ.—A young American in roundabout and leggins perched upon the fence devouring a huge piece of mince pie, and a maiden of five summers, in pantalettes, looking very wishfully at the gormand on the fence. Young America—"I say, sis, does your mar make mince pies? If she does I'll bet they aint so good as my mar's." Little Miss (timidly)—"I like mince pie awfully well." Young America—"Well, now, that's funny! Just look here (drawing a quarter of a pie out of his jacket pocket) and it's boss, too! Aint my mar good?" (carefully stowing it away in his pocket). That boy "is father to the man" who must have his cigars and any other masculine luxury his contemptible selfishness craves, while his poor sickly wife must do the work of two women ("girls waste more than they earn," he says), and for the want of a little money to purchase a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the sovereign remedy for female diseases and weaknesses, she is literally dying by inches—and all because of that masculine selfishness that would not divide the childish luxury with his playmate, and now tacitly refuses his wife the luxury of health.

that the Jury on Cotton textiles, yarns, and threads, at the Paris Exposition, decreed a Gold Medal and Grand Prize to the Willimantic Linen Company for "Spool Cotton especially adapted for use on Sewing Machines," over all the great thread manufacturers of the world, we owe it as a duty to the public and to Messrs. J. & P. Coats to announce that

No Grand Prizes were decreed at Paris for Spool Cotton.

We are advised by cable of the following awards:

J. & P. COATS, GOLD MEDAL.
Willimantic Linen Co., Silver Medal.

And we claim for the winners of the First Prize that as they have established in Rhode Island the largest Spool Cotton Mills in the United States, where their Spool Cotton is manufactured through every process from raw cotton to the finished spool, AMERICA, as represented by Messrs. J. & P. COATS, is still AHEAD IN SPOOL COTTON. dec29

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dissp1019

THE CITY.

The schooner Active, Capt. Matthews, is loading with seven hundred barrels of apples for the Philadelphia market.

The schooner Mary Willey, recently arrived at this port with a cargo of coal, took the largest part of it to the Shoals for Laighton Bros. & Co.

Alderman Whidden of Boston, formerly of this city, is not dangerously ill as reported; it is Alderman Whiton who is sick, and he is getting well.

We are informed that there are large numbers of smelts in the north millpond just now. Large numbers of smelts have inhabited the pond for a long while.

The schooner Silver Moon, Capt. Moore, arrived at this port on Tuesday from Mount Desert, with three hundred and seventy-five bushels of potatoes—the first cargo of the season.

The pleasing opera of the Bohemian Girl, with all its beautiful music, will be presented at Music hall this evening by the Martinez English Opera Company, one of the finest lyric organizations in the country. See advertisement.

The cargo of coal of the schooner Free Wind of this port, stranded at Vineyard Haven in the great blow and afterward floated and towed to New Bedford, has been sold at the latter place. The Free Wind will be repaired on the ways at New Bedford.

As the Times must be very much at a loss for political matter at present, not knowing to which party it belongs, we suggest that a few of its recent flings at "Bill" Conn, 'Squire Hodgdon, 'Squire Call and other leaders of its new party would be pleasing reading for them just now.

Col. T. S. Robinson, of Salisbury, Mass., died Oct. 27th, aged seventy-four years. Col. Robinson was known as a hotel keeper for more than forty years; he was long connected with the old Eastern Stage Hotel in Boston, and was a landlord at various times in Manchester and Centre Harbor in this State, Augusta, Me., Fredericton, N. B., and in this city.

Schooner Anpares arrived at this port from Mt. Desert, Me., Tuesday afternoon, with 361 bushels of potatoes. Schooner Belle is loading 300 bushels of apples for Mt. Desert, and schooner Senator with about the same quantity for Sedgewick, Me.; the Grey Eagle is taking on board 1000 bushels for ports to the eastward; and the Juliette, with 1500 bushels, has sailed, also for the eastward.

The republican rally at Music hall, Thursday evening, will furnish our citizens an opportunity of hearing the best speaking given here during the present campaign. Senator Rollins and Hon. William E. Chandler are fluent and interesting speakers and keen disputants, and all who attend will have their interest held to the end. The veteran patriot and honored citizen, Ichabod Goodwin, the "war governor," will preside; and ladies are especially invited to be present.

We are really glad that the greenbackers have at last secured an organ—the Portsmouth Times—that has got some kind of ability, for the greenbackers previously had no recognized official organ in Rockingham county, and the Granite State, of Manchester, the central organ of the greenback party, is the thinnest thing in the shape of a party organ and a newspaper that we ever saw. The "patent inside" is quite readable; if the managers would only get the outside also printed on the "patent" plan it would be a great improvement of the concern.

Last spring two brutal fellows named William Franklin and Edward W. Thomas, Jr., of Franklin, set their two bulldogs fighting for a stake of nine dollars and "the championship of the Franklin intervales," and the dogs literally tore each other in pieces. The New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals heard of the disgraceful affair, and the energetic secretary of the society, Judge Charles E. Batchelder of this city, spent several days in Franklin and vicinity to work up the case, the result being that one of the ruffians, Franklin, was convicted before the Supreme Court in Concord, and fined $50 and costs, which he paid by lying in jail through the summer. The other two-legged brute, Thomas, rid the State of his presence until he thought the trouble had blown over, and then returned only to fall into the hands of the ever-vigilant society with the long name; he was arraigned before the Supreme Court at Concord at the recent term, and received the same sentence as the other scoundrel, $50 and costs, with jail in default.

Bill Coombs, the jail breaker, was taken from this city to Exeter on Wednesday to serve out the sentence imposed by the Supreme Court. It is understood that other complaints will be preferred against this slippery rascal when his present sentence is up.

The cricket club of this city went to Brookline, Mass., on Tuesday to play a return game with the Longwoods. The score resulted in favor of the Longwoods, fifty-eight to forty.

THE VICINITY.

The store of Rufus Varrell, at York harbor, was broken into one night last week about $25 in money, with cloth, boots and other goods, stolen.

The republicans of Exeter had a grand rally Monday night, when addresses were made by Charles H. Burns and William E. Chandler to a large audience.

The Dover Democrat had not heard up to Monday evening of the putting off the democratic county ticket of Rockingham county, by the Commercial house conference of self-appointed committees, of several of the regularly nominated candidates of the democratic party. Its issue of that evening still gave the democratic ticket, including the name of Joseph F. Wiggin of Exeter for solicitor, instead of that of George E. Hodgdon of this city, and with other startling errors.

NOMINATE THE BEST MEN.

The republican caucuses for the nomination of candidates to be voted for on Tuesday as Representattves to the Legislature, will be held on Friday evening. With the tendency to put upon every other city and town the burden of taxes, as seen of late, and in view of the fact that other cities and towns will be likely to send the best men who will consent to serve, and with our less number of members than formerly to represent us, it is important that we send our strongest men to look after our interests in the Great and General Court. In times past, Portsmouth had an influence in the halls of legislation of our State, through the prominent and able men sent as her representatives. The present exigencies none the less demand the services of men who possess an influence in committees and upon the floor, and it is to be hoped that in the selection of candidates this important consideration will not be overlooked.

CAN'T SEE THE DIFFERENCE?

Some people appear to be unable to see the difference between a democrat and a greenbacker.—Portsmouth Times, Oct. 22d.

Correct. Particularly so, just now. For county solicitor on the democratic ticket, George E. Hodgdon of Portsmouth, greenbacker; for county treasurer on the democratic ticket, George W. Lane of Derry, greenbacker and ex-republican; for county commissioner on the democratic ticket, Charles H. Joy of Portsmouth, greenbacker and ex-republican.

ALL MADE PLAIN.

The Scriptures prohibit any man who has a candle lighted on top of a hill from hiding it under a bushel basket. [We are not exactly sure about this, but if we do happen to be getting a little "rusty" on our Scripture it is a comfort to reflect that no greenbacker will ever find it out, as it is not to be supposed that any of that party ever read as far as "Thou shalt not steal" and "Thou shalt not bear false witness."] Hence, when a young man has jumped into a knowledge which other men of equal abilities and superior advantages expend their lives in vainly trying to acquire, it is his duty to tell his less fortunate fellows all about it. Maj. Urch proposes to do this, as the following extract from a handbill announcing one of his greenback speeches will prove:

The iniquity and corruption of the money power will be fully exposed; the cause of the present scarcity of labor and money made plain.

This is a liberal promise, surely, and there can be no doubt that Adam Smith's "Wealth of Nations" will be forever relegated to deserved obscurity after that veteran student of political economy, Maj. Urch, has once explained things. We should really like to sit at the feet of this Gamaliel, and learn. We would particularly like that expose of the corruption of the money power, as that is a power we never belonged to, and never shall. But isn't the Major a little mixed when he talks about the scarcity of labor and money? We know that money is scarce enough with some people, notably with those who don't want to work for it; it has been scarce with us more than once, when we didn't want to work for it, and wouldn't; but it is plenty enough now, in banks and other places, and easy enough to get at low interest, if you have got anything to hypothecate. And as to labor being scarce—we have been told all along that there was more labor than could find employment, and we believe it; it has always been so—was so when we were a boy; there were idlers and grumbers even during the war, and there are idlers now—many who wouldn't work on any terms, many who will only work at picked jobs, and some who cannot get work of any kind, though the latter class is not one-fifth as numerous as the greenbackers pretend. But there! if we keep on we shall be suspected of the impertinence of offering information to a gentleman who not only knows all about the most abstruse questions of political economy, but does not hesitate to acknowledge it.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The trading off of candidates by the democrats and greenbackers has sadly disarranged the make-up of our neighbor, the Times. On Monday evening, of all the imposing array of nominations which has for weeks occupied the head of its editorial columns, only the State and Congressional tickets remained. Not even the democratic county ticket of Rockingham county was displayed, the editor probably not having had time to find out where that ticket has gone to. The Times having hauled down the democratic colors and gone over to the greenbackers, leaves the CHRONICLE as the only straight-out democratic paper in the city; and we therefore print the full county ticket of the party, as arranged by the various conventions of delegates duly chosen by the democratic voters:

Solicitor—Joseph F. Wiggin of Exeter.
Sheriff—Amos L. Jenness of Deerfield.
Treasurer—George S. Rundlett of Epping.
Commissioners—George N. Proctor of Exeter, John D. Brown of Raymond, George K. Whitney of Derry.
Register of Probate—Jay C. Brown of Deerfield.
Register of Deeds—Frank W. Rand of Portsmouth.

Besides the above regular ticket, which bears only the names of candidates regularly nominated in convention, there is in the field a spurious affair, several of the candidates on which were nominated by themselves in a private caucus of office-seekers held at the Commercial house in this city last week; but about half of the candidates on this ticket being greenbackers, and several of them republicans who only left that party when they could no longer hope to get office through it, we leave the displaying of that ticket to the greenback organ.

GROSS INJUSTICE.

In the name of fair play we protest against the unjust manner in which the nominations on the commercial ticket have been distributed. Howe Call, Esq., who went down in Maine and by his eloquence reduced the democratic party to the third position, and who since then has been in the far west, facing Indians and panthers and things, and crushing Zach Chandler with ponderous argument and brilliant oratory, is not even nominated for hog-reeve; while George E. Hodgdon, Esq., who has done no more arduous work than go to Concord and try to get himself nominated as a "compromise" candidate for Congress, is put up for county solicitor. However, Mr. Hodgdon was only nominated by about a dozen persons, the voters who are expected to cast their ballots for him having had no voice at all in the matter; and it will be strange if Mr. Call, when he gets through demolishing Mr. Chandler, can't also muster a dozen friends to nominate him as a democratic candidate for some place.

SUPREME COURT.

TUESDAY, Oct. 29; Smith, J.

State vs. Moses Bean and Edward Bean, continued. In this case defendants were charged with breaking and entering the granary of David Bean at Nottingham in June, 1876. The State's evidence went to show that on the night of June 9th, the granary, the door of which was closed and secured with a nail, was entered, and wheat, corn, beans, salt and baskets stolen from it; that shortly afterward David D. Bean and his brother Horace went to the house of Joshua Bean, father of the defendants; that they met one of the latter coming from an old barn opposite their house, with some salt, and in the barn found concealed some of the stolen wheat and beans; that there was a confession of the crime by one of the accused, and that the place where part of the stolen goods had been concealed was shown to Horace Bean.

For the defence the evidence was contradictory as to the stealing and the confession. Testimony was introduced to show that during the summer of 1876 the father of the boys, Joshua Bean, was sick, and that on the night in which it was charged the theft was committed a number of relatives of the family were in the house, and that the respondents did not leave the house that night.

Evidence was also produced to show that the matter was settled on payment of $100 in behalf of defendants, by advice of the late County Solicitor Small. On the part of the State this was admitted, and that the complaint then sworn out was not to be brought forward if the parties behaved themselves.

The case at three o'clock was given to the jury.

Hatch, and Mellows of Newmarket, for respondents; Harriman for State.

Case State vs. Obadiah Bean, of Kingston, for aggravated assault on Clarence Thyng of that town, Thyng being then an officer, was next called, but not finished when the court adjourned.

A ZEALOUS CONVERT.

The Times, since it went over to the inflation soft-money party, exhibits the new-born zeal customary with young converts, and goes in for the hybrid county ticket more strongly than it ever did for the democratic one. On Tuesday evening, in an article on the escape of Toomey, it stated that "Toomey's father is a rich man, a resident of Newburyport, only twenty miles distant"—and went on to suggest and argue that Sheriff Kent was bribed to let Toomey escape. Throwing aside the absurdity of this suggestion, (for if the sheriff was intending to let the prisoner go he could have let him out of jail, and not have forced him to risk his precious neck by jumping from a train going at twenty miles an hour,) every person who knows Col. Kent will treat it with the contempt it deserves. But it may not be amiss to say that the "rich man," Toomey's father, is a respectable but very poor working man, a watchman in the Ocean mills at Newburyport.

"FIAT" MUSIC.

Chesley, greenback candidate for Congress, and a Captain Brown, of Battle Creek, Michigan, extolled the virtues of an irredeemable and worthless currency to a fair audience in Franklin hall on Monday evening. They had with them a "greenback vocalist," whose singing was pretty good for "fiat" vocalism, but wretchedly mean for the genuine article. However, he concluded each verse of one of his alleged songs with the line "And we'll hang the d—d galoots," which shows that if he isn't much of a singer he is a statesman and a polished gentleman. The "d—d galoots" our greenback brother from the west proposes to hang we believe are the wretches who, having saved their earnings instead of squandering them, have invested their savings in the interest-bearing bills of credit of the United States.

$200 Investment--$1,114.25 Profit.

R. S. Webb, of Phila., Pa., writes Aug. 15th, 1878: "Messrs. Lawrence & Co.; Yours containing remittance for $1,114.-25, as profits on my 200 shares, is received. Accept my thanks, as I am very well satisfied. As you request you may use this letter. I would recommend every one who feels disposed to speculate to send for your circular." The new way of operating in stocks by the Combination System enables people with large or small capital to reap similar benefits. By this excellent plan, the orders of thousands of customers from city and country are pooled into one immense sum and operated as a mighty individual account. Each member of the Combination secures all the advantages of the largest capital united with experienced skill. An investment of $10 pays $50, or 5 per cent. on the stock during the month. $100 makes $700 profit or 7 per cent., and so on as the market moves. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular explains everything. (Copyrighted and sent free.) All kinds of Stocks and Bonds wanted. New Government Loan supplied on best terms. Best references furnished. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y., City. oct17-28

The charge is made by special agents of the post office department at Washington that a colored boy arrested for the theft of letters from the post office of the House of Representatives has been for some time doing the work of at least three clerks in that office who were each paying him $10 per month, while they were absent under full pay. All the clerks in the House post office are democrats, of course.

United States Senator Johnston of Virginia, is said to be in New York trying to attract immigration to Virginia. He may as well spare himself the trouble. Two things the South must learn and practice before they can attract settlers. They must respect the personal and political rights of all their citizens, which is not now their custom; and be honest with the people whose money they have borrowed, and whom they are now proposing to swindle. When they cease to be outlaws and repudiators, valuable settlers may go to them—not before.—Philadelphia Press.

Dr. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instuction in Virginia, publicly charges that $858,000 collected and set apart for the public schools has been illegally appropriated to pay the ordinary expenses of the State. Dr. Ruffner is a democrat, and Virginia is and always has been a democratic State.

Though Shaking Like an Aspen Leaf

With the chills and fever, the victim of malaria may still recover by using the celebrated specific, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only breaks up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the business far more thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect wholesomeness and invigorating action upon the entire system. Testimony is concurrent, positive and ample showing the decisive nature of its effects, and that it is no mere palliative. Physicians concede its influence, and there is a constant influx of communications from persons in every class of society, avouching its merits, and bearing witness to its superiority over other remedies for malarial disease. It is especially popular throughout the West, wherever fever and ague prevails as it does in many of the fairest and most fertile portions of that vast region.

A Tale of Two Cities.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21, 1878.

The undersigned certify that they held for collection for account of H. C. Williams & Co., brokers, 49 Wall street, New York, half ticket No. 52,313, Class I, in the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew the capital prize of twenty-five hundred dollars on Tuesday, Sept. 10, 1878, said ticket having cost the sum of one dollar at the office of H. L. Pinn, 319 Broadway, New York, and that the amount was promptly paid on presentation of the ticket at the office of the company, M. A. Dauphin, P.O. Box 692, New Orleans.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. inov9

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

The seed of consumption can be destroyed by the use of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, the great remedy for coughs and colds. Price only 25 cts.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. inov9

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

FULL-SIZE PAPER PATTERNS !

☞ A Supplement will be given in every number for 1879, containing a full-size pattern sheet for a lady's or child's dress. Every subscriber will receive, during the year, twelve of these patterns, so that these alone will be worth more than the subscription price. Great improvements will also be made in other respects. ☜

"Peterson's Magazine" contains, every year, 1000 pages, 12 steel plates, 12 colored Berlin patterns, 12 mammoth colored fashion plates, 24 pages of music, and about 900 wood cuts. Its principal embellishments are

SUPERB STEEL ENGRAVINGS!

Its immense circulation enables its proprietor to spend more on embellishments, stories, &c. than any other. It gives more for the money than any in the world. Its

Thrilling Tales and Novelettes

Are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1879, in addition to the usual quantity of short stories, FIVE ORIGINAL COPYRIGHT NOVELETTES will be given, by Ann S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Jane G. Austin, and that unrivalled humorist, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife."

MAMMOTH COLORED FASHION PLATES

Absent of all others. These plates are engraved on steel, twice the usual size, and are unequalled for beauty. They will be superbly colored. Also, Household and other receipts; in short everything interesting to ladies.

N. B. As the publisher now prepays the postage to all mail subscribers, "Peterson" is cheaper than ever; in fact is the cheapest in the world.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen, Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle. Another, a physician, writing for a patent from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 192 pounds, and leaves her health improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change in my diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four pounds, one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PEARSON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from her five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost!" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, during dyspepsia, and is also a specific for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate its natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while wielding its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, claimed it as the chief and crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it from any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural cause, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensation, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it eliminates with a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in Dr. PIERCE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats fully of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of these affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the sedative feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acrid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow-ish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the throat and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unpleasant band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free mattery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and by their presence, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eyes become painfully bloodshot, inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter if secreted is more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, producing visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when production of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

In a retrospect of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Everywhere its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of this disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the extent in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting a cure with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to the afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

New Publications.

Christmas is coming, and the season when parents will be reminded of the wants of their heirs expectant, fast approaches. The problem as to what is a suitable present for the young folk is in a great degree solved by the timely publication by Roberts Brothers of two books deserving attention from the world-wide repute of their respective authors. "Under the Lilacs," by Louisa May Alcott, is one of the books which delight children. Every juvenile reader who has attained an age to read Miss Alcott's works, can but appreciate her cheerful style and pleasing portraiture of young people in her books. The last work possesses the same charm that is enjoyed throughout all its predecessors, and shows her undiminished power in this field of literature, where she has taken a front rank in a department wherein success is attained only by the few who possess the faculty of satisfactorily meeting the requirements for a correct reading for the young. "Nellie's Silver Mine" is a story of Colorado life by H. H., author of "Bits of Travel," etc. The tale begins upon a Christmas morning in New England, whence in the following spring the scene is changed to Colorado. Mrs. Jackson is faithful in all the details of her story, never driving her little readers, but entertaining them all through the book and affording them unabated interest. Such books as these, which the Roberts Brothers produce in good style with readable type, etc., from such well known authors, can but meet with the success they deserve. They are to be found at Goodrich's bookstore. Price of "Under the Lilacs," $1.50.

Messrs. Roberts Brothers of Boston are publishing what they designate as the "Wisdom Series," 18mo. cloth volumes in red edges, and the various books contain "Selections from the Apocrypha," "The Wisdom of Jesus, the son of Sirach or Ecclesiasticus." It is claimed that this Jesus was the son of Sirach and grandchild to Jesus of the same name. The other volumes contain selections from the "Thoughts of Marcus Aurelius Antoninus," from the "Imitation of Christ," by Thomas a Kempis, "Sunshine in the Soul," poems selected by the editor of "Quiet Hours," (who edits the series,) "Life and Sermons of Rev. Dr. John Tayler," with others in preparation. They are of convenient size for the pocket, are finely printed and of attractive style. They are to be had at Goodrich's bookstore for the moderate price of fifty cents per volume.

Among the new publications by Messrs. Houghton, Osgood & Co. is "Van Dyck," a biography of 138 pages, to which is added a list of the paintings of the celebrated artist now known to be in existence, with their present location and the dates of their execution. The book is full of interest, not only to those who appreciate art, but to every lover of history. It is in the style of the "Artist Biography" published by this house, which sends to its patrons heliotype engravings of several Van Dyck paintings, carefully rolled, to any address on receipt of one dollar for each.

Another of these books is Guido Reene's biography, prepared as are others by Mr. M. F. Sweetser. The increased interest in art and its history developed in this country has induced these celebrated publishers, who not only keep pace with the times, but are ever in advance of the wants of the public, to project this series of publications which will be issued from time to time at the moderate price of fifty cents per volume. Probably no works of more value for the money, or more attractive and instructive for their size can be found at our bookstores than these biographies. They are written in a pleasing style, with such faithful accounts of the lives of the artists as cannot fail to interest every reader. The set will be an important addition to every library, public, or private.

To those who did not avail themselves of the half rates to Boston this week there is no more satisfactory and economical substitute than "Boston Illustrated," issued by Houghton, Osgood & Co., and sold for thirty-five cents. It has a map of the Boston of to-day, with numerous views of public buildings and other objects of interest in the modern Athens, accompanied by sketches of the several localities and historic accounts of interest.

A timely and valuable publication by the same house is "A Primer of American Literature," by Chas. F. Richardson. In this little book is contained much that is of value, especially to young persons. Who have been the religious, poetical, historical, political and miscellaneous writers of our country is here recited, and the works of the gifted authors enumerated. Rarely is so much essential information condensed in so few pages and such attractive form. An index of authors makes it a convenient book of reference and it will be found a most acceptable present for old or young.

PORTSMOUTH, Oct. 28th, 1878.

Another Orator Henley.

Some time ago—during the last century, we believe—a vulgar, illiterate, ranting fellow named Henley created a good deal of excitement in London, and drew crowds of people even more ignorant than himself to his "Oratory," as he called a hugh barn he built for a lecture room, by his blatherskite talk and his repeated challenges to high dignitaries of the church of England to meet him at the Oratory and discuss certain theological questions. He would cover the dead walls with posters announcing that "Orator Henley hereby dares the Archbishop of Canterbury to appear on the platform of the Oratory, Sunday next at three o'clock, to discuss the question of the Apostolic Succession;" and then when the Archbishop didn't appear, Orator Henley would call his admiring followers to witness that the great churchman did not dare measure arguments with him. The greenbackers have got an Orator Henley in their service, in the person of Mr. E. Moody Boynton of Newburyport, who recently issued the following challenge to Hon. James G. Blaine:

I am engaged every evening until November 5th, but should like to meet you for a joint discussion of the money question, on any afternoon before election day, at any public hall in Boston.

Mr. Blaine, of course, took the same notice of this challenge that the Archbishop of Canterbury used to of Orator Henley; but Mr. Gamaliel Bradford announced his entire willingness to meet Mr. Moody in discussion. This isn't what Mr. Moody wants; he doesn't want to meet a keen disputant who will notice him, but to challenge a prominent man who won't notice him,—so he declines Mr. Bradford's kind offer, and repeats his challenge to Mr. Blaine. Mr. Moody is what the Scotch call "a mouth."

The Waning Pestilence.

The heavy frosts along the Mississippi have well nigh stamped out the yellow fever, and the quarantine has been raised at all the southern cities. On Tuesday, Oct. 29th, Memphis reported six deaths; New Orleans the same number of deaths, and twenty-seven new cases. The mayor of Chattanooga died that day, and there was one death in Mobile, and one each in Vicksburg, Baton Rouge and Delta; Baton Rouge had twelve new cases, and Mobile four. Jackson, Miss., makes the worst report of any place, though it escaped the scourge until the last moment; a despatch from the mayor, Hon. John McGill, to a gentleman in this city, received on Wednesday, stated the number of deaths up to the 29th as sixty-five, and that there had been five deaths and sixteen new cases in the previous twenty-four hours.

News and Notes.

There was a serious fire in Salem on Tuesday, seven buildings being burned; loss $20,000; incendiary.

William Perkins, eighty-two years old, was run over and killed by the horse cars in Newburyport on Tuesday.

A mail carrier between Madison and Scotia, Nebraska, found two strangers dead in North Loup with a paper pinned to their clothes stating that they were shot for setting a prairie fire.

"Doctors" Asa G. Eddy and Edward J. A. Armes were arrested in Lynn and taken to Boston, Oct. 29th, charged with conspiring to murder Dr. D. H. Spofford, who was reported to have disappeared a week or two since. These "doctors" all belong to the "Christian Scientist" school of medicine, and we believe they are all there is of that "school." No more of them are needed.

George C. Bumpus, a cattle dealer of Boston, recently purchased a lot of stock, consisting of nine cows and three calves, in Bangor, and they arrived in the Bangor boat at Foster's wharf in Boston, Tuesday morning, Oct. 29th. Soon afterwards a man appeared, representing that he came from Mr. Bumpus to get the stock, and the cows and calves being delivered to him he drove off with them. Mr. Bumpus shortly appeared himself, and, finding what had been done, declared the man a swindler. The cattle were subsequently found in a stable on Albany street, and were returned to their owner.

Mrs. Eliza J. Strout of Gorham, Me., has been brought before the United States District Court in Portland, on the charge of sending indecent and threatening letters to prominent citizens in Gorham for the past two years, and of daubing houses and offices with ink. Gorham has been much excited over the letters and the mischief done. She was held in $2000 bail for her appearance. She has heretofore been regarded as a highly-respected woman. D. C. Emery's office was the one principally daubed; he was administrator on the estate of her first husband, and she is said to be maddened at certain opinions of his. She is thought to be partially insane.

Charles F. Colburn, a married man thirty years old, and for ten years employed in the post-office at Charlestown, Mass., has been arrested for stealing letters from the mail, the evidence against him being conclusive. He has been engaged at it for about a year, and his stealings have amounted to hundreds of dollars. When taken into custody he had in his pocket a letter addressed to a lady in Stoughton, containing $700. Colburn is a brother-in-law to Col. Henry R. Sibley, who is at present in State prison in Massachusetts.

Miss Susan M. Lincoln, teacher in the Federal steet grammar school at Providence, R. I., for many years, has been fined $20 and costs for stealing a feather worth $2.50 from a millinery store. She had been previously suspected of thefts, and a trap was laid for her detection. In court she protested her innocence, and the case was appealed.

Joseph Reis, one of the three survivors of the recent wreck of the whaleship Sarah, has since embarked on the sometimes tempestuous sea of matrimony.

Intelligence from Whydah, west coast of Africa, Sept. 26th, states that a Portuguese commandant and seven soldiers are held captive by the king of Dahomey, who makes them parade before him daily. The king has recommenced the grand custom of human sacrifices. Five hundred persons were slaughtered in one month.

We wonder if the workingmen noticed what a "bloated bondholder" the Manhattan Savings Bank was in New York. A million and a half of United States bonds were stolen, and we do not know how many were left. Every savings bank and insurance office in the United States is a "bloated bondholder."

Naval Matters.

Secretary Thompson is engaged on his annual report. For the first time in the history of the government an inventory of all its naval property, with the appraised value, has been ordered. It will probably be ready when Congress assembles.

The United States steamer Plymouth arrived at St. Thomas, Oct. 21st, from St. Croix, and would return about the 25th, after taking some coal.

The President has commissioned Lieutenant Commanders Mortimer L. Johnson and Edwin M. Shepard as commanders, and Lieut. Charles M. Anthony as lieutenant commander.

THE Republicans of Ward Four will meet at the Ward Room on FRIDAY EVENING at 7:30 o'clock, to nominate candidates to be supported at the polls on Tuesday. PER ORDER.

It having been widely advertised under the caption of

"America Ahead in Spool Cotton,"

that the Jury on Cotton textiles, yarns, and threads, at the Paris Exposition, decreed a Gold Medal and Grand Prize to the Willimantic Linen Company for "Spool Cotton especially adapted for use on Sewing Machines," over all the great thread manufacturers of the world, we owe it as a duty to the public and to Messrs. J. & P. Coats to announce that

No Grand Prizes were decreed at Paris for Spool Cotton.

We are advised by cable of the following awards:

J. & P. COATS, GOLD MEDAL.
Willimantic Linen Co., Silver Medal.

And we claim for the winners of the First Prize that as they have established in Rhode Island the largest Spool Cotton Mills in the United States, where their Spool Cotton is manufactured through every process from raw cotton to the finished spool, AMERICA, as represented by Messrs. J. & P. COATS, is still AHEAD IN SPOOL COTTON. 4dec29

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. d&eop1o 79

THE CITY.

One of the workshops of the Eastern railroad, near the roundhouse on the shore of the north mill pond, has recently been enlarged, and beds are being placed for an engine and machinery for cutting rails.

The impression seems quite general that no matter how convincing the evidence in a liquor case, or how ably it may be presented, there is no use in bringing the case before a Rockingham county jury, oaths or no oaths.

The second dance by the Granite State base ball club comes off at Mechanics' hall this evening. The boys return thanks to those who contributed to the success of their first dance, and promise to use every exertion to secure the pleasure of their patrons.

Fishing schooner Fannie L. Payson arrived on Wednesday with fifteen hundred number one mackerel, caught ten miles outside the Shoals. Schooners Velocipede and E. V. Nason started out to set their trawls early Wednesday morning, but the rough weather drove them back.

A number of young men interested in the formation of a boat club held a meeting one evening this week, and organized under the name of the Piscataqua Rowing Association. From the energy and standing of the young men we believe there will be a good club on the river next season.

But a few days remain of the campaign. See to it that every town is carefully looked after, well organized and preparations made for polling every vote possible for the republican ticket. See your neighbors who are doubtful or wavering and show them the importance of voting with the republicans.

The opera of the Bohemian Girl was presented at Music hall Wednesday evening by the Martinez English Opera Company, who delighted all that heard their excellent singing and witnessed their good acting. No more enjoyable entertainment for lovers of music has been given in this city for years.

The Convention of the Unitarian Churches in New Hampshire was held at the Unitarian church in Concord on Tuesday, Oct. 29th, the organization being effected as follows: William H. Hackett of Portsmouth, president; Rev. G. W. Patten of Newport, secretary pro tem. N. E. Reed of Newport made an appeal for financial aid for the church in that town, after which reports were read, and an address delivered by Rev. James DeNormandie of Portsmouth. In the evening the occasional sermon was preached by Rev. T. B. Hornbrook of western Massachusetts.

THE VICINITY.

The York County Association of Ministers meets Tuesday, Nov. 12th, at the Second Congregational church, Biddeford.

It is reported that Chinese servants are to be imported into Rye next season, to work in some of the hotels and boarding-houses, and even on farms.

E. H. Gove of Biddeford, greenback candidate for Congress in the first district of Maine at the last election, started out on Tuesday, the 29th inst., on a stumping tour through New Hampshire.

At the annual meeting of the Exeter Manufacturing Company, Oct. 29th, the following directors were chosen: Harvey Kent of Exeter, Eben Dale, Thomas Appleton and N. W. Farwell of Boston, William J. Dale, Jr., of Andover; treasurer, Harvey Kent. The treasurer's report show that the company is in a flourishing condition.

On Sunday, Oct. 27th, during the morning service at the Adams street Baptist church, at Biddeford, Rev. W. C. Barrows resigned the pastorate of the church, to take effect at the close of that day's services. Mr. Barrows has received and accepted a unanimous call to the First Baptist church at Rockland, Me., and will probably enter upon his duties there the second Sunday in November.

A GREENBACKER'S ANSWER.

In the CHRONICLE of Saturday we asked, "How big is the 'fiat' dollar to be—how much is it to be worth—what will it represent?" and said we would lay before our readers any information on the subject the greenbackers would give us, stipulating only that the one making answer should not use the world's standard, gold, to measure the value of the fiat dollar with; and that the answer must be an answer, and not, as in the case of a two-column "answer" which we some time ago received to the question "If the government can create money by the mere revolution of a printing press, why should the people ever be taxed?" be merely a collection of greenbackers' false premises and absurd deductions, having no reference at all to the question asked.

Mr. M. A. Walton, one of the imported greenback apostles, we believe, has answered our query as to the "fiat" dollar, and also attempted to answer the taxation query; that is, he asks the latter question over again, and then fills three pages of foolscap with the stock arguments, statements and illustrations of the inflationists to show that the government can create money out of anything it pleases—but there he stops, without in any manner touching upon the question under discussion! The question was not "Can the government create money?" but "Why should the people be taxed, if the government can create money?" Yet Mr. Walton labors earnestly to show that the government can create money, but does not in any way refer to the question as to why, under such conditions, the people should have to pay taxes. We cannot give him a column in which to ventilate greenback sophistries under any such thin disguise as that. But the question "How big is the fiat dollar to be?" he does answer, as follows:

You claim that we shall not use the gold dollar as a standard; we have no need to resort to it; the A. B. C. greenbacker could tell you that gold money is subject to the same law that paper money is.*

Now, ten cents make one dime, ten dimes make one legal tender gold dollar—so your gold dollar is measured by the cent.

Again, ten cents make one dime, ten dimes make one legal tender paper dollar—so our paper dollar is measured by the cent, and, like your gold dollar, is as big as one hundred cents.

Mr. Walton is mistaken in saying the gold dollar is measured by the cent. The gold dollar is its own measure—the unit of value—25.8 grains of gold, 900 fine, and the cent, as its name implies, merely represents the one-hundredth part of that dollar, and only as a token at that. Mr. Walton will easily find out whether the cent measures the dollar by trying to buy ten thousand dollars in gold with a million cents, if he can get so many together. But he is going to measure his "fiat" dollar with the cent, so it is to have a "hard money" basis, after all! From his explanation it is not quite clear to us whether the fiat dollar is to be worth as much as a dollar in gold, or only as much as one hundred copper cents; the only thing he has made plain to us is that the fiat dollar has got to be measured by something of actual value, whether it be gold or only copper.

*Quite likely he could; but we wouldn't believe it if he did, and was backed up by fifty college-graduate greenbackers, for we have read history too much to swallow any such yarn.

WILL DISOWN THEIR RECORD.

We clip the following from the Times of Oct. 25d:

Hard Money is the successful financial doctrine of the future. It will sweep the Presidential field in 1880. The party which opposes it is doomed. The result of the October elections is the handwriting upon the wall that the political leaders will consult their own and their party's welfare by heeding. As the people read of and reflect upon the currency question, they will grow more and more solid in support of hard money, and before 1880 those who are now loud greenbackers will be exceedingly desirous of concealing their record.

On the 28th of October the Times came out in advocacy of the election of the chairman of the greenback State committee, and really the leading greenbacker of the State, to the most important county office—that of solicitor—and urging democrats to vote for him and for other greenbackers who had gotten their names on the democratic ticket by crowding off the candidates regularly chosen by democratic conventions.

SUPREME COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 30; Smith, J.

The jury in the case State vs. Edward and Moses Bean, after being out all night failed to agree and were discharged. It is reported that they stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

The case State vs. Obediah Bean, for assault on police officer Thyng in the town of Kingston last June, partially heard on Tuesday, was continued. The State's evidence was that a religious meeting in the Methodist church at Kingston was disturbed by Mr. Bean, who asked permission to make a confession to the pastor, Mr. Chase, and was told by him that he could make a confession if he would be brief and leave the pastor's name out; that Mr. Bean, who seemed excited at the time, made some remarks considered improper for the time and place, and that Mr. Thyng, who was a member of the choir and a police officer, came down from the singing seats and requested Bean to be still and take his seat, and after some further talk removed Bean from the church; that after being put out of the church Bean still refused to be quiet, and after warning him Thyng called for help to take him to the lockup, when Bean kicked him on the leg and inflicted a painful wound.

The evidence for the defence was that Bean asked Mr. Chase to hear him outside the church, to which the latter replied that he had no time; that he asked permission to make the confession in church, but in a quiet manner and in good faith. Bean denied that he kicked the officer, and several witnesses testified that they didn't see him do it, and also that he was usually a quiet man and at the time was not excited.

The case was given to the jury at about one o'clock, and a verdict of guilty of a simple assault was rendered. Exceptions were filed, and sentence deferred.

State vs. John Sheehan and Patrick Sheehan, manslaughter in aiding and abetting in the killing of Eugene Sullivan. The facts in this case have already been given, so far as publicly known; Eugene Sullivan, an hostler, disappeared on the 12th of April, 1860, and his dead body was found on the river bank in Newington on the 17th of May following, bearing marks which caused his relatives to suspect that he was murdered and thrown overboard; but no inquest was held, we believe, and the matter rested until the 23d of July last, when Patrick Kiley was arrested on suspicion, and confessed that Sullivan was murdered in a low drinking place then kept on Water street by one Davidson, when and where Daniel Hennessey killed Sullivan by a blow with a chair; and that John and Patrick Sheehan were present. Subsequent developments led to the belief that Hennessey and the Sheehans then took the body out into the river and let it go. Hennessey has since died; Davidson, the keeper of the place where the homicide was committed, left the city the morning after and did not return for twelve years, and he too is now dead.

Of the jurors, Wm. P. Israel, George E. Bert and Wm. B. Wells were excused, having formed opinions in the case; Washington I. Drake was challenged by the State, and Wm. H. Deverson by the defence. The jury was empanelled as follows: Elbridge E. Greeley of Londonderry, foreman; Stephen F. Godkin, Wm. G. Nevins, Richard S. White, Washington V. B. Tilton, Israel F. Norris, Gardner M. Weare, Edward L. Jones, Walter Wiggin, Martin V. B. Kite, Aaron M. Joy, George E. Stackpole.

The first witness for the State was Timothy Sullivan, a brother of Eugene, who stated that the last time he saw his brother alive was on the 12th of April, 1860, at the corner of Hanover and Market streets; know the time, as being Fast day; saw him in the evening between six and seven o'clock, and talked with him on family matters; talked ten or fifteen minutes; never saw him alive afterward; next saw him at Newington, six or seven weeks afterward, in a box back of a barn, dead; body dressed in pants, shoes, stockings and shirt; identified him as Eugene; saw a black mark on the side of the body, cheeks bruised, black spot on forehead, and front teeth knocked out of both upper and lower jaws, and other indications of having been struck by some heavy instrument; body was taken from there to church, and buried in Catholic cemetery. Asked John Sheehan and Daniel Hennessey the day after he was missed, if they knew anything about his brother; they told him they were with him thath night, and left him at Bow street, opposite Hennessey's father's house. On cross examination witness said he boarded at the Piscataqua house, kept by Lang Lewis, at that time; on the day of the homicide Patrick Cassidy buried a child, and Eugene, who worked for Nathan Jones, drove a hack to the funeral.

John E. Sullivan, sworn. Saw his brother last time alive on the 12th of April, at the Catholic cemetery, driving a hack; was next notified by selectmen of Newington that a body had been found on the shore of the river in that town, and was in the barn of Geo. DeRochemont; went there, and identified the body as that of his brother; described marks on the body same as previous witness. Had a talk with John Sheehan some time after Eugene's disappearance and before he was found, opposite Savings bank on Market square; Sheehan said Eugene and Daniel Hennessey were with him that night, and he last saw Sullivan between the hours of eleven and twelve, on Bow street, opposite Daddy Sheriff's fish market, where he bade him good night. Cross-examination did not materially alter this testimony.

City Marshal Entwistle testified that he went to Boston to get John Sheehan, and on the way down conversed with him; asked him if he recollected Sullivan; Sheehan said he was with Sullivan on the night of Fast day, and drank at several places, the last one being the Piscataqua house; then went down State street, through Mulberry street and up Bow street, and saw Sullivan go into his yard, when he (Sheehan) went home, between nine and ten o'clock; said that he was not on Water street that night. On cross-examination witness stated that he arrested Patrick Kiley for manslaughter; that Kiley was in jail at the time of the Sheehans' arrest; and witness was present at their preliminary examination. Direct examination, resumed: Witness said the brother of Sullivan told him that Kiley had dropped a word in reference to this affair, in the house of John Dwyer, and wanted him to follow it up; witness conversed with a number of persons present at the time Kiley was reported to have made the remarks, and on that evidence arrested Kiley on a charge of killing Sullivan.

Patrick Kiley, sworn. Has lived in Portsmouth twenty-five or twenty-six years; is forty-six years old, and came from Ireland; when he first came to this city worked in the ropewalk of Handy & Johnson for two years, being then twenty years old; worked one year on the wharves, twenty years for the Gas Co., and has since worked as a stevedore; has a wife and three children. On the 12th of April, 1860, was employed by the Gas Co.; knew Eugene Sullivan, for four or five years previous to his being missed; recollect when he was missed; saw him at the Cassidy child's funeral, where he was driving a pair of horses, and did not see him anywhere else that day, but saw him that night; was at work that day on a drain-pipe at Christian Shore; left his house that night, and walked down by the gas house toward the navy yard landing; stood there a short time, and then walked toward Water street; after getting a short distance from the landing the clock struck eleven; walked down Water street toward Cunningham's saloon, (then on corner of Jefferson street,) and when within a hundred and fifty feet of it heard a noise; then went toward Davidson's, who kept a saloon on the opposite side of the street; found the noise to be there; the first person he saw was John Sheehan, inside the saloon door; next saw Daniel Hennessey and Eugene Sullivan, in their shirt sleeves; Patrick Sheehan was standing up toward the counter; no one else was in the saloon but Davidson, who was an Englishman; Sullivan made the remark, "You tried this before, and you couldn't do it; but there's three of you here now;" Hennessy said, "Damn your soul, it don't take three to handle you;" Hennessey then took a chair in both hands and struck at Sullivan, who threw up his hands to ward off the blow, and then fell into a doorway at the rear of the saloon; then Davidson began to blow out the lights, and both Sheehans ran to where Sullivan fell; did not see any more after the lights were out; then heard a noise as if some one fell, or was being dragged, down the cellar stairs; then went across the street into Michael Cunningham's, and got a glass of beer; saw what was described through the glass in the door, which opened into the saloon in two parts, the curtain being up; saw in the room a counter, table and two or three old chairs; was in the room six or seven weeks afterward, and think the arrangement of the room was the same as on the night of the fight; did not see any cellar-kitchen; saw cellar stairs; distance from the cellar stairs to the water was about the length of the court room; stopped at Cunningham's a short time; then went up Jefferson street, through a short street into Court street, and then heard footsteps coming up Water street; recognized the parties as Patrick and John Sheehan and Daniel Hennessey, who turned down on Rollins' wharf, and went on board a fishing vessel; saw them get down over the bows into a dory, and row toward Tucker's wharf; witness went down on Walker's wharf, waited some time, and then heard them rowing; saw that the Sheehans were rowing, and Hennessey leaning over the stern of the boat as if holding something in his hands, which made considerable ripple on the water; they rowed up opposite Pier wharf, a short distance off; rowed round in a circle, and Hennessey then turned round in the boat so as to face the Sheehans, when they rowed back to the place where they got the boat, left her, and went up the wharf to Court street; saw no more of them that night; witness was standing in a house on the wharf, which had open doors, when he saw the boat; stayed there until they tied the boat; saw Patrick Sheehan two or three days afterward near the Spring market; saw John very often; have never conversed with them in regard to this matter; told his wife of this affair when he found the man was missing; did not tell the officers, and was not inclined to tell them, because he was afraid he might go the same way.

Court adjourned.

—"Keep 'way from dat nigger, I tell you," said Uncle Rube to his sable daughter, "keep 'way from him. He's like what de 'postle John lived on in de wilderness." "How's dat?" she asked. "Low cus' an' wild, honey," replied Uncle Rube.

Successful Stock Operations.

There is much talk about stock operations and the rapid fortunes that are amassed by them, but very few people understand just how it is done. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City, have published full details of their new Combination Method of operating in stocks, which is wonderfully successful. By pooling the orders of thousands of customers into one immense sum and operating them as a whole, each patron is placed on an equality with the largest operator, and vast profits are divided pro rata among shareholders every thirty days. $25 makes $100, or four per cent on the stock in the month; $100 makes $750, or 7 1-2 cent; $150 makes $1,500, and various profits according to the movements of stock. Safety and success are the distinguishing features of this system. S. Y. Sanger, of San Francisco, Cal., writes: "I have never made so much money in the same time as I have by your Combination System." The new circular (copyrighted and sent free) explains all details. All kinds of Stocks and Bonds wanted. New Government Loan supplied. Best References. Address Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City. oct19,30

Though Shaking Like an Aspen Leaf

With the chills and fever, the victim of malaria may still recover by using the celebrated specific, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only breaks up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the business far more thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect wholesomeness and invigorating action upon the entire system. Testimony is concurrent, positive and ample showing the decisive nature of its effects, and that it is no mere palliative Physicians concede its influence, and there is a constant influx of communications from persons in every class of society avouching its merits, and bearing witness to its superiority over other remedies for malarial disease. It is especially popular throughout the West, wherever fever and ague prevails as it does in many of the fairest and most fertile portions of that vast region.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. nov9

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

To the Judge of Probate for the County of Rockingham.

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENTS ALFRED F. SMITH of Houston in the County of Harris and State of Texas that he is Guardian of George A. Smith of West Hoboken, County of Hudson and State of New Jersey by the appointment of the Judge of Probate for the said County of Rockingham; that his said Ward stands seized of an interest (under the will of Abby M. Johnson late of city of Portsmouth in said Rockingham County, deceased) in a certain part or parcel of real estate in said Portsmouth with the buildings thereon on Middle street, so called, bounded as follows, to wit: Northerly by said Middle street, Easterly by land of George E. Marden, Rev. Charles Smith, Joseph W. P. Carter, and others, Southerly by land of Robert Shillaber and Westerly by Park street, so called. That said Ward's interest is as follows, to wit: one-half in common and undivided, upon and after the death of Albert C., and Mary Jane Manson and the survivor of them, whose interest in said estate has been conveyed to and is now held by Joshua B. Johnson.

That it is necessary for the support of his said Ward and will be conducive to his interest to have his Ward's interest in said premises sold; wherefore he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.

Dated the 30th day of September, A. D., 1878.

ALFRED F. SMITH, Guardian.

Rockingham, ss.

Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered that a hearing be had thereon, at a Court of Probate, to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of November next; and that the said petitioner notify all persons interested therein, by publishing a copy of the same, with this order thereon, three weeks successively in the Portsmouth Daily Chronicle printed at Portsmouth the last publication whereof to be one week at least previous to said day of hearing.

GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of

$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to those residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

FULL-SIZE PAPER PATTERNS!

☞ A Supplement will be given in every number for 1879, containing a full-size pattern sheet for a lady's or child's dress. Every subscriber will receive, during the year, twelve of these patterns, so that these alone will be worth more than the subscription price. Great improvements will also be made in other respects. ☜

"Peterson's Magazine" contains, every year, 1000 pages, 14 steel plates, 12 colored Berlin patterns, 12 mammoth colored fashion plates, 24 pages of music, and about 900 wood cuts. Its principal embellishments are

SUPERB STEEL ENGRAVINGS!

Its immense circulation enables its proprietor to spend more on embellishments, stories, &c. than any other. It gives more for the money than any in the world. Its

Thrilling Tales and Novelettes

Are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1879, in addition to the usual quantity of short stories, FIVE ORIGINAL COPYRIGHT NOVELETTES will be given, by Ann S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Jane G. Austin, and that unrivalled humorist, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife."

MAMMOTH COLORED FASHION PLATES

Ahead of all others. These plates are engraved on steel, twice the usual size, and are unequalled for beauty. They will be superbly colored. Also, Household and other receipts; in short everything interesting to ladies.

N. B. As the publisher now prepays the postage to all mail subscribers, "Peterson" is cheaper than ever; in fact is the cheapest in the world.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Takes according to directions. It will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to Cincinnati to your drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her twenty-five pounds in 102 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, I am better of ailments than for years, and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOCLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in two weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'If (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing fat from my body, I would last week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unrivalled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and invalids Hotel, having treated many cases and cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the chief or crowning glory of my medical career. In its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and I do so confident that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it. But I decline and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat,

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary in severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from a scrofulous condition of the blood from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, which at first is fresh, exhibiting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free watery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, it generally becomes hard and forms little scabs, incrustations and hard lumps, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE are confidently believed are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, that it is a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of stamp.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaler, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

The Brig "Somers."

There died recently Oliver H. Perry, not a son of the famous Commodore Perry, as has been stated, but some relative, and distinguished chiefly as having been on the United States brig Somers in 1842, when young Spencer was illegally executed by Lieutenant Mackenzie and his boy subordinates. Young Perry was Linutenant Mackenzie's nephew and clerk. The brig was a small, crank craft, and was a sort of school ship, the subordinate officers being young midshipmen. Spencer was seventeen, a son of John C. Spencer, of New York, Secretary of the Treasury. It was said of young Spencer, as of many, that he had been a wild boy. He had crudely sketched a plan to seize the brig and turn pirate. It was like the fancies familiar to boys who read novels of pirates and highwaymen. It was so crude, absurd and impracticable, and without support, that to any man in his senses it would appear only the indulgence of a boyish conceit.

The paper was in some way shown to Mackenzie, and he worked himself and youthful subordinates into the idea of a planned conspiracy to murder them all and convert the brig to a pirate. Words in dog Latin were mixed with English in this paper, which made it more fearful. In the hands of Mackenzie, these youths were not responsible for what they assented to. He excited himself and them with the theatrical spectacle of a grand court-martial, in which they were to sit as judges of life and death, and as saviors of the ship and of their professional honor. By the law they should have landed the accused at the first port, if not safe to bring them to the United States, and they were not far from St. Thomas, but they could not forego their dramatic performance.

So the lieutenant and his boys formed a court-martial and sentenced Spencer and a couple of young hands named Cromwell and Small, and then the crew was made to hang them by hauling by the neck up to the yardarm. It was a most pitiful murder, done from a mixture of fright and romantic exaltation. When they got home they reported their heroic rescue of the brig in their own way, giving a frightful picture of murder and piracy, and so they prepossessed the public ear. A court of inquiry was held, but Mackenzie and the youths who had done the deed under his influence were the witnesses, and they made the situation frightful enough. So nothing came of it. The answer agreed upon by all to the question why they did not deliver Spencer at St. Thomas to be held for trial was that it would dishonor the United States Navy to call on a foreign power. The following is the way the mock heroic answer is related of Perry, who was then a mere boy:

"He has lived in my recollection because of his noble reply to the Court of Inquiry when asked if Spencer, Cromwell and Small could not have been kept in irons and delivered to the British naval commander at St. Thomas, a few days' sail from the place of execution, Perry answered, 'Perhaps they could.' 'Then,' said the court, 'why did you vote for their death?' 'Because,' said Perry, 'I thought if an American man-of-war couldn't protect herself there would be no use in having any!' The reply was worthy of his race."

And so Perry goes into history as a hero for this boyish, affrighted, theatrical killing of three innocent persons, and bringing this terrible calamity upon one of the most eminent families of the country.—Cincinnati Gazette.

—Edison's latest discovery is a boy. He weighed nine pounds.

—Wide hem-stitch collars are revived, just like the kind that the pictures make Byron wear.

—John Bright is a great whist player, and as a natural consequence is somewhat querulous and fussy.

News and Notes.

A tramp called at the house of Michael Shanley in Webster, Mass., and asked for something to eat. Mrs. Shanley asked him to come in and take a seat at the table. She then went to the cellar-way to get something for him, when the rascal pushed her down the stairs into the cellar and locked the door. He then ransacked the house, and finding about $60 in a drawer he made off with it.

Four men fell 350 feet down a mining shaft at Pottstown, Pa., Wednesday, through the giving way of machinery; two of the men were killed outright, and the others badly injured.

The body of Miss Margaret Meehan, who was abducted at Fort Edward, N. Y., by two ruffians, one of whom is in jail, has been found in the canal at that place, having evidently been drowned.

All said that Dr. David F. Swengel of Chicago ought by right to marry a young woman named Mary L. Ginochio, but Dr. Everts, pastor of the First Baptist church in that city, said that Dr. Swengel must marry her willy-nilly. Therefore Dr. Swengel was arrested, and taken to Burke's hotel, where Miss Ginochio was waiting, and by threats of muscular interference on the part of the clergyman's good right arm made to sign an agreement. Then, as Miss Ginochio fainted in Dr. Swengel's arms, their hands were joined by Dr. Everts, who held them tight together until he had pronounced them "man and wife." Thus the reverend gentleman settled a scandal in his congregation, coolly remarking that he celebrated a marriage at the point of a pistol once.

Davy Steth, a prominent colored republican politician of Greenville county, Va., was assassinated Oct. 29th. His body was found in the road, filled with buckshot. The democratic canvass of Greenville county is most favorable for that party.

James Green, a drunken shoemaker, was locked up in the station house at Fairfield, Ohio; the building took fire, and the poor wretch was burned alive.

New Hampshire Items.

The savings banks of New Hampshire have invested in United States bonds $923,650, and in national bank stock $1,128,816.36, making a total in United States bonds and national bank stock of $2,052,466.36. The savings banks own about one-fifth of all the national bank stock in the State. Any attack upon or injury to United States bonds or national banks is a direct blow to the $2,052,466.36 of securities held by the savings banks of this State.

A few evenings since the horse and carriage of Deacon N. B. Stearns of West Lebanon were stolen and driven to Woodsville, a distance of forty-two miles, where they were found next day. The thief left a card expressing his thanks to the owner for the use of the team, and adding that he was in haste to get to the Black Hills, but would come around after his return and pay for the use of the horse.

Lucius Gilmore, aged sixty-three years, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., formerly superintendent of the Passumpsic railroad, and brother of the late Governor Joseph Gilmore of New Hampshire, died suddenly at Warren, on Tuesday, Oct. 29th.

Political.

The United States Attorney for Texas telegraphs the Attorney-General in regard to the arrests in Montgomery county in that State, for political offences, that they were made principally upon complaint of persons prominently identified with the greenback movement, and not upon the complaint of the republicans.

The slums of Lowell sent to Lawrence, on the evening of Oct. 29th, all the roughs and criminals there, in the shape of a "Butler battalion." Such a crowd of scoundrels has rarely paid a friendly visit from one city to another; the Butlerites broke into nearly every rum-shop in Lawrence, smashed windows and bottles, stole all the money and liquors they could lay hands on, and engaged in numerous fights. The police had to club the ruffians into the cars next morning, and sore heads were plenty in consequence. Several of the visitors were locked up for trial.

The manner in which "reconciliation" is practiced in Ben Hill's State is shown by the following extract from the Albany (Georgia) Advertiser, indorsed by the Savannah Morning News; "It has been our hope that this district could enjoy a quiet canvass this fall. But the republicans have decided otherwise. They have put up E. C. Wade, an officer of the Hayes government, one of those internal revenue collectors whom the citizens of Brooks county have permitted to live in our borders." This candidate, E. C. Wade, whom the citizens of Brooks county have reluctantly permitted to live within their borders, is a gentleman of unimpeachable integrity, who fought in the Confederate army until the surrender, and then like Longstreet and others accepted the situation, and became a loyal citizen of the Union.

There are three jokes in this Butler campaign, either of which is funny enough to make a mule laugh. The first we notice is Butler's appearance as a democratic candidate after fighting against everything democratic, both openly and secretly, for fifteen years. The second is his appearance as a champion of the workingmen after amassing an immense fortune by screwing down the wages of labor to the very lowest starvation point. The third, and best, is his appearance as a reformer, with a political record that abounds in every form of corruption. These three jokes would establish General Butler's character as a humorist if he had never done anything else in his life to make his fellow-creatures smile.—Haverhill Gazette.

An Optical Delusion.

The colonel, a rigid martinet, is at the window of his room, when looking out he sees a captain crossing the barrack-yard toward the gate. Looking at him closely, he is shocked to observe that, the rules and regulations to the contrary notwithstanding, the captain does not carry a sword.

"Captain!" he calls from the window. "Hi, captain; step up to my room for a moment, will you?"

The captain obeys promptly, borrows a sword of the officer of the guard, the guard-room being at the foot of the stairs, and presents himself to the colonel in irreproachable tenue.

The colonel is somewhat surprised to see the sword in its place, and having to invent some pretext for calling his subordinate back says, with some confusion, "I beg your pardon, captain, but really I've forgotten what it was I wanted to speak to you about. However, it can't have been anything very important; it'll keep. Good morning."

The captain salutes, departs, returns the sword to its owner, and is making off across the barrack-yard when he again comes with the range of the colonel's vision.

The colonel rubs his eyes, starts, says, softly to himself, "How in thunder is this? Dem it, he hasn't a sword to his waist!" Then he called aloud, "Oh! Captain! one moment, please."

The captain returns, borrows the sword again, mounts the stairs, and enters the colonel's presence. His commanding officer stares at him intently; he has a sword—he sees it, he hears it clank.

"Captain" he stammered growing very hot, "it's deuced ridiculous, you know, but—ha! ha!—I just remembered what I wanted to say to you, and now—ha! ha! —it's gone out of my head again! Funny, isn't it? Ha! ha! ha! Losing my memory. Never mind, I'll think of it and write to you. Good morning."

The captain salutes, departs, returns the sword to its owner, and makes for the gate. As he crosses the barrack-yard, the colonel calls his wife to his side and says, "See that officer out there?"

"Yes."

"Has he got a sword on?"

The colonel's wife adjusts her eye-glass upon him, scans him keenly, and says, "He hasn't a taste of a sword."

"That's just where you fool yourself. He has!"

—But then, if Edison's electric light is generally introduced, what is Bridget going to light the kitchen fire with?

—Velvet fruit and flowers, though kept in the background this fall, will be the favorable decoration for winter bonnets.

—"Handle it carefully, Marier," said an economical citizen as his wife was jamming his old shirt into the rag bag. "That shirt represents capital! It may be turned into a million dollars worth of Butler's cheap rag money, when the old man fixes things, and capital should be treated with respect! No, Marier, don't sell it to the junk man! Lay it carefully away as possible fiat money!"—Taunton Gazette.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

The seed of consumption can be destroyed by the use of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, the great remedy for coughs and colds. Price only 35 cts.

"It seems as if I should cough my head off" is sometimes the impatient exclamation of a sufferer from a severe Cough. Quell the paroxysms with Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. The relief is immediate and the cure certain. Sold by Druggists. tnov9

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

The Old Farmer's Almanac for 1879 is issued, and for sale at the bookstores.

Thursday, Nov. 28th, has been appointed Thanksgiving day by the Governor and Council.

The drinking fountain opposite the post-office is frozen up, and the one on Congress street has attached to it dippers without bottoms.

Don't forget the caucuses to-night; and don't fail to attend them and nominate the best and strongest men for the legislature, and other offices.

Charles Hayes & Son, with only the regular help employed on their farm, husked out two hundred and twenty-three bushels of corn (ears) one evening this week.

If some of our republican friends in wards one, three and four will hand us full and correct lists of the nominations as soon as convenient after the caucuses close this evening, they will confer a favor.

John H. George, in his harangue last Wednesday evening, stigmatized the issue of greenbacks, as a war measure by the government, as the most monstrous outrage ever imposed upon any people, Well! let's see; didn't the late lamented confederacy issue some paper "promises to pay?" By George!

Advices from San Francisco under date of Oct. 23d say: "Ship Granite State is discharging her iron, after which she will take in ballast and make a voyage back of Goat island, where she will lay up for a rise in freights." As the last reported charter from San Francisco for the United Kingdom was only thirty shillings per ton for wheat, Capt. Ross might as well lay up back of Goat island for a while.

The republican rally at Music hall Thursday evening was a brilliant and enthusiastic one, not less than twelve hundred people being present, agoodly percentage of them ladies. Ex-Governor Goodwin presided, and Senator Rollins and Hon. Wm. E. Chandler made ringing and sensible speeches that were well received. It was beyond all odds the best political meeting of the campaign in this city, up to date—and there wasn't any brass band to drum up a crowd, either.

THE VICINITY.

It is reported that Capt. Jonathan Young, U. S. N., will succeed Capt. Earl English as captain of this navy yard. That will be very good—to have one popular gentleman succeeded by another.

At the last meeting of the governor and council John H. Carney of Dover was pardoned out of State prison, and Rev. George B. Spaulding of Dover was appointed a trustee of the State normal school.

A barn at Dover point belonging to Mr. Cyrus Ford was burned Thursday afternoon, the house near by being saved by the exertions of the neighbors. The house was unoccupied, and the fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

SUPREME COURT.

THURSDAY, Oct. 31; Smith, J,

On the opening of the court the cross-examination of Patrick Kiley was commenced by Ex-Judge Calvin Page, of counsel for the Sheehans. A chart of the city was produced, and Kiley explained to the court the direction he took from the time of leaving his house on the night of the murder, until his return. Attorney General Tappan suggested that he point out to the jury the route and direction he took, and where he stood when he saw the Sheehan boys and Hennessey row out on the river and back. After doing so, witness stated that he was born in the county of Waterford in Ireland, and is about forty-six years old; has a mother living, whom he has not been to see since he left home, though he has been to Queenstown, Ireland, since. Witness related where he was through the day of the homicide; worked on drip pit near Raynes shipyard the larger part of the forenoon; after dinner went to funeral of the Cassidy child; walked to cemetery; saw Jere. Dwyer there; Father Canovan was priest here at that time; got back from funeral between four and five; did not visit any saloons. After supper worked around the house, and did not leave it before quarter to ten o'clock; looked at clock before leaving; went to navy yard landing and sat on rail, smoking, until the navy yard and south clocks struck eleven; had on dark jumper, plaid pants, black hat and Congress boots—no coat; the first part of the evening was dark, but it cleared off towards eleven; went to Water street for a walk; saw a light in the cooper's shop when he passed it; heard the noise in Davidson's when in front of Matthew Johnson's, nearly opposite on the other side of the street; did not notice any light in Johnson's; looked through glass in door of Davidson's saloon; did not notice whether side windows were painted or had curtains; John Sheehan had on a white coat, and white, soft felt hat; Hennessey was in his shirt sleeves, and had on a brown Kossuth hat; Patrick Sheehan had on a mixed coat and black Kossuth hat; Davidson had on a whitish striped coat; saw Sullivan facing Hennessey, in his shirt sleeves, his coat being on the floor near a partition. Witness described the conversation and the assault as in his direct examination. After that he stood a short time listening; saw no one come out of either door, or come to the door; did not notice the moon at that time; went into Cunningham's saloon, was served by Mrs. Cunningham with a glass of beer, paid for it with a five cent silver piece, filled his pipe and lighted it. Heard the footsteps when in Court street; Davidson's was not lighted when he left Cunningham's; saw two men coming up Water street, who turned down on Railway wharf; was never in Davidson's before, nor on that night; should have gone home on the route he started on but for hearing the steps; recognized the men when they got to Hooper's corner, turning down Rollins' wharf, but saw them best when they came back with the boat; witness crossed over and went down on Philbrick's wharf; walked easy; the schooner looked like a fishing vessel, had two masts and one topmast; did not say the moon was not up; did not enter the building on the wharf until the men came from Tucker's wharf; did not leave the building until they had come from the end of Pier wharf; recognized the two Sheehans rowing; know it was John rowing the bow oar, and am certain it was Dan Hennessey leaning over the stern; walked up Pier wharf to building now Walker's coal office, and saw the men cross over by Dixon's corner; could not tell when he saw John Sheehan or Daniel Hennessey afterward; saw Patrick Hennessey two or three days afterward near the Spring market; did not testify in the police court that the moon rose shortly after eleven o'clock. Re-direct: Left navy yard landing at eleven o'clock; have not looked in almanac since, nor got any one else to do it; could not tell his name if he saw it in print. Witness testified in his direct and cross-examination that the moon rose at the time the men were rowing out on the river, which made a glare of light across the water.

James Hoyt of Newington, being sworn, said he saw the body on the shore at Newington; was selectman of the town, and was notified by Mr. Huntress that the body had been found.

The State put in evidence an almanac for the year 1860, from which it appeared that on the 12th of April the moon rose at 1:16, and the tide was high at 3:55.

Here the government rested its case, Mr. Tappan stating that before the trial closed he would put in the evidence of Mr. Huntress.

Shortly before twelve o'clock the court and jury, with the counsel for both sides, and Kiley, visited the localities spoken of by the witness, and passed over the route taken by Kiley, also viewing the position of the vessel whence the boat was taken, and the route the Sheehans and Hennessey are alleged to have pulled over.

On the coming in of the court in the afternoon the opening argument for the defense was made by Calvin Page, Esq., and the first witness called for the defence was Ann Hennessey, who being sworn, testified as follows: Am wife of Jerry Hennessey, and forty years old; John and Patrick Sheehan are my brothers; was working at the City hotel at the time of the homicide; father lived near Noble's island bridge; moved there after the fire on Bow street; Patrick was at home on the night of the fire, and left for Boston two days afterward; was not in this city on the night of the homicide; he came home either the last of May or first of June; heard Daniel Hennessey and my brother John say they were with Sullivan on that night; John slept at Patrick Hennessey's, corner of Bow and Ceres streets, the night after the fire, and until Patrick came from Boston. Cross-examined: Witness' mother told her Patrick took money from her, when he went to Boston; knew about the fire in February—was snow on the ground then; know it was February because it was cold; did not see him go to Boston; he did not send her letters, nor did she see any from him. Re-direct: Came to Portsmouth before her parents; did not see Patrick from two days after fire until time stated that he returned from Boston.

Ellen Hennessey, sworn. Lives in Portsmouth, and is widow of Daniel Hennessey, who died six years ago; was married fifteen years last May, and have lived in this city all that time; was not married in 1860; worked at J. Gilman Moses' on Christian shore; remember the fire on Bow street; then lived with Capt. Moses' family; the fire was before Sullivan's death; Patrick and John were at home then Patrick; went away after the fire; saw Patrick just after the fire, and not again until the last of May or first of June; remember of hearing that Sullivan was missing; did not go to his funeral. Cross-examination unimportant.

Catherine Hennessey, sworn. Am wife of Patrick Hennessey, who is the father of Daniel Hennessey; knew where the Sheehans, Patrick and John, lived on the night of the fire, which occurred in the latter part of February; was acquainted with the Sheehan girls; lived at that time on the corner of Bow and Ceres streets; Daniel kept a saloon on Congress street, and lived at home; heard of Sullivan being missed; know the day was Fast day, and Cassidy's child was buried that day; heard three or four days after that Daniel was in company with Sullivan that night; Daniel and John Sheehan were in about the usual time that night; Daniel closed his shop at eleven o'clock; John and he slept together that night; John slept there from the time of the fire to about the first of June, and was sleeping there at the time of the funeral; slept there until Patrick got back from Boston, when all three slept together; the reason why John slept at my house on the night of the fire was that a feather bed was taken by one and an underbed by another, and returned the night that Patrick got home; neither of the Sheehans slept in the house after that. Cross-examined: Daniel came home that night about the usual time, just after eleven; husband just after ten; have no means of knowing this other than that they usually arrived about the times mentioned; knew the time Patrick got home; it was warm weather; had a loaf of cake made for my children to take to a picnic held in Wendell's woods in the early part of June, the first picnic of the season; and on the night Patrick came from Boston, Daniel found it and cut it, and the three ate it up.

Lewis W. Brewster was called upon to fix the date of the Bow street fire, and produced a copy of the Portsmouth Journal of March 3d, 1860, which gave a record of the fire as occurring on Friday, Feb. 24th. [The CHRONICLE of Monday, Feb. 27th, 1860, has a record of the fire, and says it occurred on the previous Saturday, which would make it the 25th, and that "the flames were not discovered till half-past two Saturday morning."]

Charles E. Batchelder was next called, and made a statement as to the testimony given by Kiley on the 24th of July last; he said he was on the opposite side of the street when he saw the affray; did not say he went across; witness also stated that Kiley was a witness at the examination of the Sheehans; that Kiley then said it was about ten o'clock when he left his house, a starlight night, and that the moon rose a little past eleven, when Kiley was on Water street; that he was standing across the street when he heard the noise, and the moon was up when he went down that way; witness did not hear about the boat until the second examination; Kiley said the first words he heard were by Sullivan; Kiley was then in charge of the sheriff, and was brought by him to the Sheehans' examination. At the request of Attorney General Tappan, Judge Batchelder read the minutes of the Sheehans' examination, which do not differ materially from the evidence given at the present trial, except as to the time of the moon's rising. Witness remembers that Kiley said that while the men were rowing about in the boat, the moon shone smooth over the water; does not remember that he said the moon was just coming up over the land; do remember that Kiley thought the moon rose about eleven o'clock; took the testimony with considerable care, and gave Kiley all the time he wished in which to testify.

City Marshal Entwistle, recalled, did not finish his testimony before the adjournment of the court.

Court adjourned to 10:15 Friday morning.

The following aliens have been admitted to citizenship at this term: James Lee, Michael J. Griffin, Portsmouth; Enoch Buckley, Seth Buckley, Exeter; Alexander T. Brown, Brentwood; William Kirkwood, Newmarket.

THE BOARD OF TRADE BARNACLE SCRAPERS.

When the Times flopped over to the greenback party, and announced itself as "heartily glad" that the political board of trade had sold out the democratic party to the greenbackers, it tried to explain matters, as follows:

> A desire for economy and a needed change in the condition of county affairs is the only platform in this matter. Truth is, Rockingham county needs scraping, and this coalition is for the purpose of removing the barnacles. Let us all pitch in and help do it—help clean out the expensive gang of leeches who have for so long been elbow-deep in the county's money. Reform, less expense in the administration of affairs, lower taxes, a change for the better, is the idea.

Commenting on this, the Weekly suggests that at least one of the auction candidates for county commissioners has been "elbow-deep in the county's money" for some time. It says:

> As to being elbow-deep therein, etc., we don't know of anybody who has been in much longer or deeper than Chas. H. Joy, who, we read in the last city report, enjoyed county pauper patronage for his grocery store in the year to the tune of $1112.80, besides furnishing "contingent" with tobacco $52.01 worth, not even throwing off the odd cent,—and "police" bread, coffee, fish, $23, making a dem'd total about $1200. And "that's what's the matter," as Mr. Joy told us himself long ago,—he did not like it, because the county commissioners thought they could save expense by looking after their own business—as the figures show they have.

And the Weekly also refers in terms of very faint praise to the board of trade candidate for sheriff, A. Langdon Jenness of Deerfield, formerly of this city. Says the Weekly:

> The Times' puerile attempt to injure Sheriff Kent, by meanly insinuating that he is at all to blame or accountable for Toomey's escape, is the most despicable effort we ever knew to disparage an excellent and efficient officer—one of the best sheriffs the county ever had, who has made more real improvements in the jail and court house than any other. As to his being the chief barnacle on the county, the idea of Lang Jenness being an improvement over him would be laughable if not serious; and temperance men should remember that Mr. Jenness was a rumseller, and makes no pretensions to temperance now; and we will remind depositors, that he was one of the dem.('d) Bank Commissioners who gave the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Institution its last bill of clearance, a few months before the bottom tumbled out. A good barnacle-scraper he! Hon. A. R. Hatch, in a letter to the Times, defends Sheriff Kent and denounces the infamous attack upon him.

Not even party zeal shall prevent us from coming to the rescue of a man we consider unjustly attacked, and we feel impelled to say that however much rum Mr. Jenness may have peddled out in former days, and however worthless and incompetent a bank commissioner he may have been, no man has a higher reputation than he for ability to trade off a ring-boned, spavined, chest-foundered old horse afflicted with the heaves, for a young and sound animal.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen on Thursday evening:

Mr. Harriman appeared for the petitioners for widening of Vaughan street at corner of Hanover street, and it was voted that the board visit the premises on Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

D. J. Norton and Alexander Robinson asked leave to encumber Islington street for building purposes.

The following supervisors of elections were appointed: Ward one, George A. Murray, Ira C. Seymour; ward two, Joseph R. Curtis, Samuel R. Gardner; ward three, Willis A. Hidden, Israel Marden; ward four, Michael J. Vaughan, Augustus Walden.

A petition signed by Daniel Marcy and many others, requesting that the board reconsider their vote for selling the south mill, was received and placed on file.

Petition for crosswalk at junction of State and Summer streets was referred to committee on streets with power.

Committee on streets reported that J. M. Tebbetts refused to pay one-half cost of laying a crosswalk asked for by him, and enquired how much power they had in the matter.

Petition of George Bilbruck for a drain was granted.

John Morgan was appointed special police officer without pay at the brewery on Bow street.

Health officers were empowered to remove an offensive pigpen.

Naphtha light tendered to the city was accepted.

The investigation of the police force in regard to charges preferred against them by outside parties resulted in the board unanimously sustaining the officers in the discharging of their duties.

Adjourned.

—The comedian is a farce-seeing man.

—That inquisitive period has now arrived when the man looks down the muzzle of a gun and finds that it was loaded.

—It makes a young man feel very much as if some things in the world were all vain to sing, "Come to my bosom, come, love," under a window, and then happen to see a sign "To Let" on the door.

—The best paste for scrap books, or for almost any other use, is made of gum tragacanth, which is quickly softened in cold water. By adding water, when it becomes a little too thick, it can be kept for months. The whitest article should be used, and the paste should be kept in a large-mouthed bottle, which should be kept open; otherwise the paste will become mouldy.

—A gentleman residing near Boydton, Va., built a "rain tower," forty feet high and thirty feet in diameter at the base, with seven large flues, two of which reached an altitude of sixty feet. Then he built a fire in his tower and kept it burning several days in order to bring on a rain, but it failed to produce the desired result. It would have been more certain and less expensive to have got up a camp meeting or hired a circus to come into town. An agricultural fair or a Sunday school picnic will also bring on a rain nine times out of ten. If the Boydton gentleman is not familiar with these methods of producing rain, he should dry up.—Norristown Herald.

That Boy.

Dramatis personæ —A young American in roundabout and leggins perched upon the fence devouring a huge piece of mince pie, and a maiden of five summers, in pantalettes, looking very wistfully at the gormand on the fence. Young America—"I say, sis, does your mar make mince pies? If she does I'll bet they aint so good as my mar's." Little Miss (timidly)—"I like mince pie awfully well." Young America—"Well, now, that's funny! Just look here (drawing a quarter of a pie out of his jacket pocket) and it's boss, too! Aint my mar good?" (carefully stowing it away in his pocket). That boy "is father to the man" who must have his cigars and other matchless luxury his contemptible selfishness craves, while his poor sickly wife must do the work of two women ("girls waste more than they earn," he says), and for the want of a little money to purchase a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the sovereign remedy for female diseases and weaknesses, she is literally dying by inches—and all because of that masculine selfishness that would not divide the childish luxury with his playmate, and now tacitly refuses his wife the luxury of health.

The Question of Profits.

"What is the profit and what the risk" are the first considerations in every business transaction. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City, make large profits monthly for their customers, by the new Combination System of operating in stocks at the N. Y. Stock Exchange. By this system they mass together various sums from thousands of customers and with the aggregate become giants in the street, placing their patrons on an equality with the kings of finance, whether the amount invested be great or small. $15 pays $75, or 5 per cent on the stock during 30 days. $75 pays $455, or 6 per cent; $200 pays $2,000, or 10 per cent, and so on, according to the market. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s circular (copyrighted and sent free) contains "Two unerring rules for success in stock operations," and explains everything. The Brooklyn Journal, April 29th, says; "Messrs. Lawrence & Co. have many facilities by which their customers secure advantages not otherwise obtainable. Our editor made a net profit of $101.25 on an investment of $20 in their combinations." The standing and responsibility of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., is unquestioned, and they furnish best of references. Highest market prices paid for all kinds of Stocks and Bonds, and new Government Loan supplied. oct22,nov1

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Peterson's Magazine !

FULL-SIZE PAPER PATTERNS !

☞ A Supplement will be given in every number for 1879, containing a full-size pattern sheet for a 1 dy's or child's dress. Every subscriber will receive, during the year, twelve of these patterns, so that these alone will be worth more than the sub-scription price. Great improvements will also be made in other respects. ☜

"Peterson's Magazine" contains, every year, 1000 pages, 14 steel plates, 12 colored Berlin patterns, 13 mammoth colored fashion plates, 24 pages of music, and about 900 wood cuts. Its principal embellishments are

SUPERB STEEL ENGRAVINGS!

Its immense circulation enables its proprietor to spend more on embellishments, stories, &c. than any other. It gives more for the money than any in the world. Its

Thrilling Tales and Novelettes

Are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1879, in addition to the usual quantity of short stories, FIVE ORIGINAL COPYRIGHT NOVELETTES will be given, by Ann S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Jane G. Austin, and that unrivalled humorist, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife."

MAMMOTH COLORED FASHION PLATES

Ahead of all others. These plates are engraved on steel, twice the usual size, and are unequalled for beauty. They will be superbly colored. Also, Household and other receipts; in short everything interesting to ladies.

N. B. As the publisher now prepays the postage to all mail subscribers, "Peterson" is cheaper than ever; in fact is the cheapest in the world.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the undisputed assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railroads. Its track is laid the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from a pound a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for corpulency, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S druggists for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 190 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston says: "Without specimen of testimonials, I send you to-day, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Scientifically speaking, it is a valuable article. It has reduced the fat from 52 lbs to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unrivalled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPRS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high opinion of its value, based upon my personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical cases. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottles.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single one of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of 1000 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

BENSON'S CAPCINE

Porous Plaster.

A Wonderful Remedy.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies including liniments and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new and medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possess the most extraordinary pain relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any Physician in your own locality will confirm the above statement. For LAME BACK, rheumatism, Female Weakness, Stubborn and Neglected Colds and Coughs, diseased Kidneys, Whooping cough, affections of the heart, and all those for which porous plasters are used it is simply the best known remedy. Ask for Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster and take no other. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cts. Sent on receipt of price, by Scabury & Johnson, 21 Platt Street, New York. tnov20

CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and excited to extreme acrimony, producing excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or thick and yellow-ish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The first watery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and, forms into scabs, incrustations, and hard masses, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye is in sympathy becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent and agonizing pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE are confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of symptoms and sympathetic diseases, together with minute directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure. Also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. It is wrapped about each bottle of the RADICAL CURE, or will be mailed free on receipt of price.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price, $1. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

THURSDAY EVENING'S RALLY.

The audience at the republican rally in Music hall, Thursday evening, was such an one as always attends republican rallies, which bring out the intelligence of the community. There were many ladies present, and the two hours and a half time taken by the speakers could have been prolonged, judging from the reluctance of the listeners, at the close, to leave the hall.

William H. Hackett, Esq., announced the officers of the meeting; and the President, Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, at the close of a few brief and earnest remarks, introduced the first speaker, Mr. Chandler.

We believe that this was the first appearance of Hon. Wm. E. Chandler before our citizens. His discourse was not noted for "flashes of oratory," but was keen, logical and practical—one that republicans could enjoy, and democrats and greenbackers listen to with respectful attention. He commenced at the date of the republican party's birth in 1855, and said out of the twenty-two campaigns, which the State had since gone through twenty-one of them resulted in republican victories. He showed that the Mexican war was a war not of necessity but of conquest, and that the democratic party then loudly proclaimed the sentiment "Our country, right or wrong;" that it formerly favored hard money, and was opposed to the issue of greenbacks; and referred to Hon. C. L. Woodbury, who in his speeches when stumping the State during the civil war, would hold up a silver half-dollar, stating that specie was the only constitutional standard of currency; that the democratic party favored free ships, in which case they could be built in England, and thus deprive the American mechanic of labor. On the tariff question the south had struck at the manufacturers of New England; they had protected themselves by an increase on the various productions of their section, and had reduced the tax on whiskey and tobacco. He believed that Hayes was honestly elected, and if the true vote of Mississippi had been given it would have shown an increased republican majority of 2000 votes. The financial policy of the republican party was one which they could be proud of, and feel honored by. England predicted that civil war in a republic could not be put down, and that our national debt could not be paid; on the contrary, the debt has decreased and without an increase of taxes, and but for the agitation of the greenback movement it would now be bonded in the four per cents; and the present generation would see it cancelled. For the present hard times the party is not to blame; if the government is responsible, the country has for four years been under democratic rule, and on them rests the blame. He ascribed as one of the causes the immense overplus of manufactured articles, and the contraction of building railroads, which had been carried on to such an extent that it had to stop, throwing thousands of laborers out of work and causing a cessation of business in the various branches of trade connected with it. Another cause was in the improvement of labor-saving machinery, and as an inventor the United States excelled the world, and has carried off all the principal prizes in the foreign industrial exhibitions. He did not believe in the statement made by Butler that it was owing to an under-consumption; that all proposed remedies were but theories, but that in good time it would govern itself; that our exports far exceed the imports, which was one of the stepping stones to our future prosperity. He spoke strongly on the question of the franchise, and with great earnestness charged the republicans to stand by the pledges given to the negroes of the south; they were set free, and we had given them the ballot, and they know that this privilege was given them by the republican party; and they would vote that ticket if left alone. The republicans had not been protected, and the outrages which they had suffered in the south were for the reason that they were republicans; he said that Mississippi would go democratic, because the republicans were trampled on. The republican party appealed to the interests of human nature, advocated freedom of speech and of the ballot, and the country's welfare depends on the strong exertions and patriotism of the people.

At the close of Mr. Chandler's speech the President introduced our United States Senator, Hon. E. H. Rollins, who was greeted with enthusiastic applause. He said he was not here to make a speech, but was to be merely an ornament while his friend Chandler did the speaking. He then happily alluded to the President of the evening, Hon. Ichabod Goodwin; spoke of his own feelings for Portsmouth, and Portsmouth people; said he used to come down here on the packet from Dover for six cents and attended school here; spoke of the inconsistency of the democratic party, how they dared not speak for or against hard-money principles for fear of loosing a few votes; mentioned the three flags in Concord—first the democratic flag having for its inscription simply "For Governor, Frank McKean," second the greenbacker, having the motto "More Currency and Less Bonds," and the republican one, "For Governor Natt Head and Honest Money." (Applause). He spoke in a very sarcastic vein of the coalition of the democrats and greenbackers on the county tickets; said it reminded him of the witches' broth in Macbeth. He then quoted that passage in Macbeth where the description of the ingredients of the witches' broth is given, made the illustration applicable to the recent coalition, and proceeded to give the ingredients of this political broth. Among others he said there was one who had a tall, commanding and robust figure, who could be seen at any time with a tub of butter under his arm; (as this had reference to a well known Portsmouth man it produced rounds of applause as well as merriment.) He then inquired who these young greenback political doctors are who are proscribing for the people, and where they got so much knowledge within the past few months, so that they could talk so learnedly about finance and undertake to teach men who have been in business for nearly a half century? He spoke of the "Young War Eagle" who is stumping the district as candidate for Member of Congress, as one who did not dare to talk about finance, but yet runs down the national banks. When this fact was mentioned to Frank A. McKean, the democratic candidate for governor, the other day, he replied, "Does he expect to be elected?" He asked where Daniel Marcy was, and if he was not a director in a national bank, and was answered in the affirmative. He indorsed all that Mr. Chandler had said concerning the glorious record of the republican party, and claimed it is the party of honest money; spoke of the decrease of the national debt, both in principal and interest, under republican administration; showed by statistics that the balance of trade was in favor of our country, and by patiently waiting business prosperity would return. In closing he urged the republicans of "Clam-Shell Corner" to stand by the faith and do all in their power on the 5th inst.; urged republicans to lay aside all differences and each one fight the common enemy, and send up to Concord a republican senator and republican representatives from republican wards. At the close of his speech he sat down amidst great applause.

Earnest calls were made for State Attorney General Tappan, who was upon the stage. He was introduced amidst hearty applause. He said he had no idea of making a speech, and at first was somewhat embarrassed, but soon warmed up to his subject and gave a capital campaign speech. He illustrated his points with a few comical annecdotes, which provoked hearty laughter. Especially well received was the one concerning the burial by a man of his four wives, and the inscription on the monument. He spoke of the divinity which shapes our ends, and said that there was evidently a Providence in the formation of the greenback party, and that its good effect was the uniting all elements of the republican party. He spoke of the change in the southern policy, and urged if there was to be a solid south that there should be a solid and undivided north to oppose it.

At the close of the meeting three rousing cheers were given for the speakers, the candidates and the cause.

News and Notes.

Steamship Helvetia, from Liverpool for New York, ran down a British revenue cutter off Tuskar light, Thursday, and seventeen lives were lost.

A desperate fight with Chinese pirates took place in Hong Kong on the night of Sept. 25th. The pirates landed in force and attacked the house of a Chinese merchant, but were beaten off by the police.

Sadie Ellsworth and Pearl Levy, two sixteen year old girls of Washington, D. C., have been fined for keeping a house of ill-repute tenanted by children younger than themselves.

Mabel J. Whitman and Dr. George W. Spears, charged with the murder of Miss Whitman's mother by poison, in Boston, have been discharged.

John D. Kremelberg of Baltimore has been granted a divorce from his wife, nee Jenkins. Kremelberg is a wealthy merchant, and his wife was formerly distinguished in society. She is twenty-eight years of age. It is charged that while travling aboard she became enamored of a German baron.

The President has issued a proclamation, setting apart Thursday, Nov. 28th, as a day of thanksgiving and praise.

A hundred tramps boarded a train on the Mississippi Central railroad at Como, Tenn., Wednesday, beat a conductor, and at last accounts were running the train.

At a railroad meeting in Jersey City, Oct. 30th, a Mr. McDowell called Congressman Hewitt a liar, and Mr. Hewitt retorted that McDowell was a blackmailer, and a common liar. Bystanders prevented a fight.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roach, of Lowell, have been arrested for passing counterfeit gold and silver coin.

—North Carolina's gift to civilization this year is 90,000 bushels of peanuts. These bivalves will do more for dyspepsia than all the quack doctors.

—A young Irish girl, with the unromantic name of Gubbins, is now the admitted beauty of London. She is the daughter of a retired army officer.

—One tenth of the revenue of France is derived from tobacco. The Exposition Government building shows some curious tobacco statistics. The Gauls smoke more in December than any month of the year, and in July the least. There is also a secondary comparative cessation of puffing in March, a greater puffing in April and another diminution in September.

—A Parisian milliner announces a "huntress' costume," in velvet and satin. Boots reaching nearly to the knee, with small tassels; genuine trousers of satin, such as would delight Dr. Mary Walker, and a real coat of satin with fancy cuffs, close-fitting at the waist, where there are four buttons, worn over a long black velvet waistcoat, which it shows at the breast and below the waist—these, with a small and gentlemanly tie at the throat and a high hat, almost of the sugar-loaf form, with a band of velvet and flowers, make up the costume.

Though Shaking Like an Aspen Leaf

With the chills and fever, the victim of malaria may still recover by using the celebrated specific, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only breaks up the most aggravated attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the business far more thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect wholesomeness and invigorating action upon the entire system. Testimony is concurrent, positive and ample showing the decisive nature of its effects, and that it is no mere palliative. Physicians concede its influence, and there is a constant influx of communications from persons in every class of society avouching its merits, and bearing witness to its superiority over other remedies for malarial disease. It is especially popular throughout the West, wherever fever and ague prevails as it does in many of the fairest and most fertile portions of that vast region.

A Question Settled.

The Offical Announcement of Awards at the Exposition Universelle, Paris, 1878, shows that the Only Grand Prize for Sewing Machines was awarded to Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company over eighty competitors. This fact, in addition to former declarations of the highest authorities, leaves no room for doubt that the new Wheeler & Wilson Machine is "the best sewing apparatus in the world."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tnov9

The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

The seed of consumption can be destroyed by the use of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, the great remedy for coughs and colds. Price only 25 cts.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. diwsp1019

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

No sensible man who really desires to promote temperance, will vote against Sheriff Kent.

Gen. Walter Harriman will address the citizens of Portsmouth at Music hall on Monday evening next, Nov. 4th.

The silliest lie of all afloat is that Sheriff Kent and Solicitor Harriman have bought up all the liquor-dealers to vote for them!

Howe Call, Esq., and Major David Urch, with a band of music, will speak in Mechanics' hall Monday evening, on the financial question.

The members of the board of aldermen, after visiting the premises at the corner of Vaughan and Hanover streets on Friday morning, voted unanimously to grant the prayer of the petitioners for widening.

The barque Adolph Engler, Capt. Williams, from New York for Bordeaux, which put into Philadelphia in distress as before reported, had to discharge for repairs. She required to be refastened, caulked and remetaled.

The schooner T. J. Trafton, of this port, Hoyt master, before reported as having grounded on the flats of the Potomac opposite Fort Foote on the 23d ult., succeeded in working her way off on the 27th by shifting cargo, and passed up to Georgetown, D. C., arriving there on the 28th.

This day at 12 o'clock, noon, in accordance with a vote of the city councils, the south mill and its machinery will be sold to the highest bidder by Morse & Ilsley, auctioneers, the building to be removed within ten days. That is, the sale will come off unless the councils reconsider their action, which we hope they will not do. See advertisement.

Osgood Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., voted on Thursday evening to indefinitely postpone the subject of moving into the hall in Jones' new block. This action, if not revoked, necessitates the abandonment of the project by other lodges, as the action of the other lodges depended upon a unanimous vote in favor by all different bodies connected with the order.

THE VICINITY.

Capt. F. P. Emerson, late of York, left that town Oct. 28th, with his family, to locate in Bradford, Pa., where he has been engaged the past year in sinking oil wells.

William O. Leach was knocked down as he stepped out of his house in Kennebunkport a few evenings since, he says by a man coming from his cellar through the outside cellar door. The house was set on fire in the cellar, but the flames were soon extinguished. This is the second time he has been assaulted in a similar way.

A severe blow has been struck at the prosperity of Kennebunk by the suspension of Joseph Titcomb and William L. Thompson, comprising the firm of Titcomb & Thompson, extensive ship-builders, who have filed a petition in the York county court of insolvency. The firm recently sold one new ship, the Trojan, for $54,000; but another one of two thousand tons they have been unable to dispose of, and their failure to realize on this vessel, which is lying at the wharf nearly ready for sea, is supposed to be the cause of their embarrassment. It is feared that other prominent firms in Kennebunk will be carried down, and the prospects of the place for the coming winter are gloomy.

A SHORT, LIVELY CRUISE.

The schooner Active, Capt. Matthews, with a load of apples, bound to Baltimore, started from Ladd's wharf Friday forenoon under foresail and jib, with a strong ebb tide and a brisk northwest wind. Unfortunately the jib sheet fouled to windward, and the vessel fell off so much that she could not clear the Spring-hill wharves. The schooner Union Flag was struck, but escaped with a slight bruise; but the schooner Fairy Queen, of St. George, Me., partially loaded with apples, had both masts swept by the board by the Active's fore boom, one of them falling across the wharf and the other over the stern. Captain Teel, of the wrecked schooner, was on the wharf at the time, and came near being crushed beneath the falling spar; one of the crew on deck also had a very narrow escape, as the mainmast in falling pried up the deck from the combings of the main hatch to the fore hatch, and made havoc with everything movable on deck.

The Active kept on, urged by the strong tide and high wind, crashing her impetuous way along the head of the wharf, which trembled and shook as though an earthquake had struck it. The anchor which was dropped was snapped short off in the shank, and did not check her career in the least. She struck the ledge off Church-hill point, doing no apparent damage, and then shot off into the deep water of the channel and went on her way to the lower harbor, where it was found that no great damage had been sustained by the vessel, except a few broken stancheons of the quarter rail.

The captain returned to the city to ascertain the amount of damage done to the Fairy Queen, and made arrangements for necessary repairs.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Oct. 31; Batchelder, J.

Ella Varrell, charged with an aggravated assault with an axe on Frank C. Wendell, was bound over in $100 to answer at the April term of the Supreme Court.

FRIDAY, Nov. 1; Batchelder, J.

John Fagin, having been drunk, was ordered to pay $9.90, fine and costs, and did so.

SUPREME COURT.

FRIDAY, Nov. 1; Smith, J.

The court came in at 10:30 o'clock, A. M., and City Marshal Entwistle continued his evidence. Testified that he swore out a warrant and arrested Kiley on a charge of murder. Kiley told him in conversation in the station house that he was inside the saloon at the time the affair occurred, but qualified this statement immediately afterward in presence of officer C. A. C. Gray, stating that he stood on the sidewalk with one foot on the steps, and when he saw the blow struck turned round and walked away; all this was during one conversation.

George W. Parks, sworn. Recollect Walker's wharf as it was twenty years ago; recollect a fence in 1860, running out six feet beyond the platform of the rigging loft; close, board fence, six feet high; could not see over it; could crawl around it, by notches made in the fence; went away in January, 1860, and came back in May, 1861; never looked through the fence; saw the fence taken down five or six years ago. Cross-examination unimportant.

Patrick Sheehan, sworn. Was born in Ireland; does not recollect when he came to this country; is younger than John Sheehan; recollects when he came to Portsmouth, with his parents and brother; his sisters were here before he arrived; lived in Bow street; a man named Wendell owned the house; stayed here six months, and then went to Boston; drove a horse hoisting coal in Boston; came back to Portsmouth, and left again next day after the fire on Bow street, and stayed in Boston until the last of May or first of June; was in Portsmouth five weeks before the 4th of July; went to a strawberry picnic on that day at Stratham; the first night after arriving home slept at Patrick Hennessey's, with his brother John and Dan. Hennessey; the next night in his father's house near Portsmouth bridge; never saw Eugene Sullivan in his life; first he heard of Sullivan being missing was in the fall; was not on Water street on the night when it is alleged Sullivan was killed; never was in Davidson's saloon. Cross-examined: Mother is living; does not know her age; witness' age is thirty-two, may be thirty five; don't think he is forty, and doesn't know if he is thirty-five; knew Daniel Hennessey; stayed in Portsmouth five weeks before July 4th; loafed three weeks, and worked two for Harry Bright, and have remained home all the time since; mother is an old lady, and cannot talk English well.

John Sheehan, sworn. Was born in Ireland, and is thirty-four years old last January, having been born in 1844, and came to this city in 1857; lived on Bow street; paid rent to a man named Wendell, a clerk in Gov. Goodwin's office; remember when Patrick went to Boston, the day after the fire; worked for Daniel Hennessey at that time, being then sixteen or seventeen years old; did not see Patrick from the night after the fire, until he came from Boston, when we all three slept in one bed at Patrick Hennessey's; heard Sullivan was missing on the next day after Fast day; Sullivan lived corner of Market and Penhallow streets; witness was working for Daniel Hennessey on the night of the 12th of April; saw Sullivan in the saloon of Daniel Hennessey, on Congress street; saw he had been drinking; he took two drinks in Hennessey's, and stayed there until the saloon closed, between ten and eleven o'clock; then all three went out, went down to Fleet street, called at a house kept by Kate Conant, stopped there long enough to get a drink, then went to Piscataqua house and got another drink; then left there, went down State street to Penhallow, to the corner of Penhallow and Bow streets; Sullivan seemed to be drunk, Hennessey and witness sober; stood there talking a little while, then bade him good night, and he crossed the street to go home; did not watch him to see if he went there; Hennessey and witness then went home and to bed. Kiley did not see witness on Water street that night, for he was not there; first heard of Sullivan's being missed from his brother Timothy, who came into Hennessey's saloon and said his brother Eugene was missing; told him Hennessey and witness were with Eugene that night, and described occurrences of the evening. Cross examined: Have a wife and three children, the last one born in August; reside on Lowell street, Boston; mother is ninety years old, and speaks English poorly; remembers when he came to Portsmouth, in 1858, when sixteen years old; stayed here six month, then went to Boston, and drove a horse for hoisting coal for Mr. James Ellison; stayed there till December, 1859; then came to Portsmouth and stayed till 1872, and then removed to Boston, where he still resides; his brother Patrick has been in the army, and in the State prison at Concord; was in prison eight years, and got out in June, 1874; came to Boston to see witness; stayed a week, and then returned to Portsmouth; in 1860, worked in Daniel Hennessey's oyster saloon on Congress street; he kept oysters, fruit, ale and whiskey; stayed there until August of that year; recollect Sullivan's funeral; did not go to the Cassidy child's funeral; did not see Sullivan during the day of April 12th, but saw him in the evening, when he came into the saloon at about ten o'clock, and drank there twice; he showed signs of liquor, but was not quarrelsome; he had on a black coat; all three left the saloon together; stood at the corner of Congress and Vaughan streets a short time, talking; went down Vaughan street to Hanover, to Kate Conant's; stopped there twenty minutes, then went to Piscataqua house and stopped long enough to get a drink; [rest of route described the same as in direct examination; also same account of interview with Timothy Sullivan;] Sullivan could walk without difficulty; went nowhere else that night, and did not see Sullivan again; stopped at Miss Conant's twenty minutes, and at Piscataqua house long enough to get a drink and pay for it; shut up week nights between ten and eleven; Sullivan's brother came into saloon next day after he was missing, and asked if he had been in that day, as he was not at home previous night, and that was the first witness heard of his being missing; no one spoke to him about Sullivan; don't know whether he went inside of the yard; never told Timothy Sullivan he was drunk, and witness put him inside the yard.

Calvin Page, sworn. Was at the preliminary examination of the Sheehans on the 29th day of July, as counsel for them; took minutes of the evidence, and of the cross-examination very minutely; it took nearly all day; took notes in the anticipation that the Sheehans might be bound over; they made no defence; from memory cannot state what reply Kiley made about the moon; by the minutes, he said the moon rose a little past eleven, and was shining when he (Kiley) went to the north side of the wharf; distinctly remember that Kiley said Hennessey had on a black coat and brown Kossuth hat, and that he testified minutely as to the clothing; that he said all he saw in the saloon was one chair and a bench, and that when they turned round and rowed back Hennessey was not stooping over; it was two hundred feet off the head of Long wharf, near the wooden buoy now there; they were not gone over four or five minutes; he said he went home, and got there about one o'clock; was acquainted with the interior of the saloon, eleven years; has been there on business since; he described the interior of the building; did not know who first kept the saloon; remembered that George Herbert kept there some time ago; has been well acquainted with Walker's and Pier wharves since 1865; knew there was a fence there, and could not get across it; he did not testify to having known about the saloon since 1866; had known about the fence before 1865.

Defence here notified the court that their evidence was all in.

John Smith, called by the State, sworn. Am forty-four years old; have always lived in Portsmouth, except during one year; know where Davidson kept saloon; kept barber shop there myself, in 1858 and '59, about fourteen months; was in there two months ago; the arrangements are not now the same as when witness kept there; then there was a single-board partition, which witness papered; it ran across the rear of the room; thinks there was no door in it; thinks there was a space at one end, which led up stairs; think the same cellar stairs are there now; were there eighteen months ago; a door in the basement leads out on the wharf. [Witness drew a sketch of the room, which was shown to the jury.] Next one who kept there after witness, he thinks was McDonnell; Davidson put up a new partition in place of the old one, similar to the one there now; think there was a door in the new partition, nearly opposite the front door; don't think it ran up to the plastering. Cross-examined: Saw the partition two months ago; don't think the back arrangements have been changed; kept there about 1859, and remained fourteen months; premises not occupied before witness went there.

Patrick Kiley, recalled. The fence was down on the night of the homicide; sometimes it was up, and sometimes down; on that night it was down, and leaning toward Walker's wharf, and witness walked over it.
